CONSTITUTION (GOVERNOR'S SALARY) AMENDMENT ACT 1988
No. 52

NEW SOUTH WALES

Act No. 52, 1988

An Act to amend the Constitution Act 1902 so as to make provision for the salary of the Governor, and to repeal the Governor's Salary Act 1901.
[Assented to 26 October 1988]

Constitution (Governor's Salary) Amendment 1988

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Constitution (Governor's Salary) Amendment Act 1988.

Amendment of Constitution Act 1902 No. 32

2. The Constitution Act 1902 is amended by inserting after section 9H the following section:

Governor's salary

9I. (1) The annual amount payable for the salary of a Governor appointed to that office is $80,000 or such greater amount as is determined from time to time by regulation.

(2) Such a regulation may be made by a Governor (whether or not his or her salary is thereby affected), or by any person for the time being administering the Government, or by a deputy in accordance with section 9D, but may be made only on the advice of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the full Executive Council.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the full Executive Council is the Executive Council constituted by all its members, other than members (not exceeding three) who are unavailable by reason of absence or disability or for any other reason.

(4) The salary of a Governor as provided for from time to time under this section is not capable of being reduced by the making, amendment, operation, expiry or repeal (otherwise than on disallowance) of a regulation.

(5) The salary of a Governor as provided for from time to time under this section is payable out of the Consolidated Fund, which is accordingly appropriated to the necessary extent.

(6) Salary is not payable under this section to a Governor for any period for which he or she is entitled to salary from the Commonwealth in respect of his or her administration of the Government of the Commonwealth.

Repeal of Governor's Salary Act 1901 No. 40

3. The Governor's Salary Act 1901 is repealed.

Constitution (Governor's Salary) Amendment 1988

Operation of Act

4. Nothing in this Act affects or applies to the salary of a Governor holding office at or before the date of assent.

CONSTITUTION (GOVERNOR'S SALARY) AMENDMENT
BILL 1988

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The object of this Bill is to amend the Constitution Act 1902 so as to make provision for the salary of the Governor, and to repeal the Governor's Salary Act 1901.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 inserts a new section 91 into the Constitution Act 1902. Proposed section 91 provides that the annual salary of the Governor is $80,000 or such greater amount as is determined by regulation. Such a regulation can only be made on the advice of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the full Executive Council (with no more than 3 members absent).

Clause 3 repeals the Governor's Salary Act 1901.

Clause 4 provides that the proposed Act does not affect the salary of a Governor holding office at or before the date of assent to the proposed Act.
