

INDUSTRIAL ARBITRATION (REVOCATION OF PROCLAMATION) ACT 1988 No. 49

NEW SOUTH WALES

TABLE OF PROVISIONS

1. Short title
 2. Commencement
 3. Definitions
 4. Revocation of proclamation under the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Amendment Act 1987 No. 198
 5. Savings and transitional provisions
-

INDUSTRIAL ARBITRATION (REVOCAION OF PROCLAMATION) ACT 1988 No. 49

NEW SOUTH WALES

Act No. 49, 1988

An Act to revoke a proclamation commencing the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Amendment Act 1987 and to enact provisions consequent on the revocation of the proclamation. [Assented to 30 September 1988]

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Industrial Arbitration (Revocation of Proclamation) Act 1988.

Commencement

2. This Act commences on the date of assent.

Definitions

3. In this Act—

“amending Act” means the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Amendment Act 1987;

“Principal Act” means the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940, but without the amendments made by the amending Act.

Revocation of proclamation under the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Amendment Act 1987 No. 198

4. (1) The proclamation made under section 2 of the amending Act and published on page 1670 of Gazette No. 56 of 18 March 1988 is revoked and shall be taken never to have been made.

(2) One or more proclamations may be made under section 2 of the amending Act as if the revoked proclamation had never been made under that section.

(3) The Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Theatrical Employers—Licensing) Regulation 1988 and the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Transitional Provisions Regulation 1988 are repealed.

Savings and transitional provisions

5. (1) Section 4 does not affect the operation of, or anything done or omitted under—

- (a) the Principal Act, as amended by the amending Act; or
- (b) section 5 of and Schedule 4 to the amending Act; or
- (c) the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Theatrical Employers—Licensing) Regulation 1988; or
- (d) the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Transitional Provisions Regulation 1988,

during the period commencing on 18 March 1988 and ending on the commencement of this Act.

(2) On and from the commencement of this Act—

- (a) an application for a theatrical agent’s licence or an application required to be treated as an application for a theatrical employer’s permit pending immediately before that commencement shall be considered to be an application for a theatrical agent’s licence or for a theatrical employer’s permit (respectively) under section 138 of the Principal Act; and

Industrial Arbitration (Revocation of Proclamation) 1988

- (b) a theatrical agent's licence or theatrical employer's licence in force immediately before that commencement shall be considered to be a theatrical agent's licence or theatrical employer's permit (respectively) under section 138 of the Principal Act.
-

[*Minister's second reading speech made in—
Legislative Assembly on 1 September 1988
Legislative Council on 20 September 1988*]

INDUSTRIAL ARBITRATION (REVOCAION OF PROCLAMATION) BILL 1988

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to revoke a proclamation commencing the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Amendment Act 1987; and
- (b) to enact provisions consequent on the revocation of the proclamation.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides that the proposed Act will commence on assent.

Clause 3 defines the terms “amending Act” and “Principal Act” used in the proposed Act.

Clause 4 revokes a proclamation under section 2 of the amending Act (being a proclamation that provides for the commencement of that Act) and provides that the proclamation shall be taken never to have been made. The clause ensures that further proclamations can be made to commence the provisions of the amending Act and repeals regulations made as a consequence of its previous commencement.

Clause 5 contains savings and transitional provisions. It saves things which happened during the life of the proclamation to be revoked. It also provides that certain pending applications are to be considered as applications for licences or permits under the Principal Act and that certain licences in force are to be considered as licences or permits under the Principal Act.

INDUSTRIAL ARBITRATION (REVOCATION OF PROCLAMATION) BILL 1988

NEW SOUTH WALES

TABLE OF PROVISIONS

1. Short title
 2. Commencement
 3. Definitions
 4. Revocation of proclamation under the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Amendment Act 1987 No. 198
 5. Savings and transitional provisions
-

INDUSTRIAL ARBITRATION (REVOCAION OF PROCLAMATION) BILL 1988

NEW SOUTH WALES

No. , 1988

A BILL FOR

An Act to revoke a proclamation commencing the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Amendment Act 1987 and to enact provisions consequent on the revocation of the proclamation.

*Industrial Arbitration (Revocation of Proclamation) 1988The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:*Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Industrial Arbitration (Revocation of Proclamation) Act 1988.

5 Commencement

2. This Act commences on the date of assent.

Definitions

3. In this Act—

10 “amending Act” means the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Amendment Act 1987;

“Principal Act” means the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940, but without the amendments made by the amending Act.

Revocation of proclamation under the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Amendment Act 1987 No. 198

15 4. (1) The proclamation made under section 2 of the amending Act and published on page 1670 of Gazette No. 56 of 18 March 1988 is revoked and shall be taken never to have been made.

20 (2) One or more proclamations may be made under section 2 of the amending Act as if the revoked proclamation had never been made under that section.

(3) The Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Theatrical Employers—Licensing) Regulation 1988 and the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Transitional Provisions Regulation 1988 are repealed.

25 Savings and transitional provisions

5. (1) Section 4 does not affect the operation of, or anything done or omitted under—

- 30 (a) the Principal Act, as amended by the amending Act; or
 (b) section 5 of and Schedule 4 to the amending Act; or
 (c) the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Theatrical Employers—Licensing) Regulation 1988; or
 (d) the Industrial Arbitration (Theatrical Agents and Employers) Transitional Provisions Regulation 1988,

35 during the period commencing on 18 March 1988 and ending on the commencement of this Act.

(2) On and from the commencement of this Act—

- 40 (a) an application for a theatrical agent’s licence or an application required to be treated as an application for a theatrical employer’s permit pending immediately before that commencement shall be considered to be an application for a theatrical agent’s licence or for a theatrical employer’s permit (respectively) under section 138 of the Principal Act; and

Industrial Arbitration (Revocation of Proclamation) 1988

- (b) a theatrical agent's licence or theatrical employer's licence in force immediately before that commencement shall be considered to be a theatrical agent's licence or theatrical employer's permit (respectively) under section 138 of the Principal Act.

