(AMENDMENT) BILL 1990

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The object of this Bill is to make it clear that the Solicitor General and the Crown Advocate can engage in the practice of law outside the duties of office, but on an unremunerated basis.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the proposed Act to commence on assent.

Clause 3 amends the Solicitor General Act 1969 to limit the restriction on the practice of law by the Solicitor General outside the duties of office, so that the Solicitor General is not prevented from practising law on an unremunerated basis. Section 2 (5) will read (in part) as follows:

(5) A Solicitor General shall be deemed to have vacated his office:

- (f) if he engages (whether in New South Wales or elsewhere) during his term of office in any paid employment or in [the practice of law] any remunerated practice of law outside the duties of his office.

(Matter to be omitted is shown in italics, and matter to be inserted is shown in bold type.)

Clause 4 makes a similar amendment to the Crown Advocate Act 1979.
