1989

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The objects of this Bill are:

- (a) to make minor amendments to various Acts (Schedule 1); and
- (b) to amend certain other Acts for the purpose of effecting statute law revision (Schedule 2); and
- (c) to repeal certain Acts containing only:
 - amendments to other Acts that have been incorporated in a reprint under the Reprints Act 1972; or
 - spent or unnecessary provisions of a saving or transitional nature; or
 - validation provisions,(Schedule 3); and
- (d) to make other provisions of a consequential or ancillary nature (Schedule 4).

SCHEDULE 1 - MINOR AMENDMENTS

Schedule 1 makes amendments to the following Acts:

Building and Construction Industry Long Service Payments Act 1986 No. 19

Where necessary, provisions of a saving or transitional nature relating to the amendment concerned have also been set out in Schedule 1.

SCHEDULE 2 - AMENDMENTS BY WAY OF STATUTE LAW REVISION

Schedule 2 amends certain other Acts for the purpose of effecting statute law revision. A number of amendments are made relating to formal drafting matters and minor corrections.

The amendments to each Act are explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to the Act concerned set out in Schedule 2.

Where necessary, provisions of a saving or transitional nature relating to the amendment concerned have also been set out in Schedule 2.

SCHEDULE 3 - REPEALS

Schedule 3 repeals a number of Acts. Since the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1985 the number of Acts in force has been gradually reduced by repealing amending Acts once the amendments contained in the Acts have been incorporated in a reprint. The Schedule continues this process.

SCHEDULE 4 - GENERAL SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND OTHER PROVISIONS

Schedule 4 contains savings, transitional and other provisions of a more general effect than those set out in Schedules 1 and 2.

The purpose of each provision is explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to the provision concerned set out in Schedule 4.

BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY LONG SERVICE
PAYMENTS ACT 1986 No. 19

Amendment

Section 19 (Cancellation of registration):

Omit "21 days" from section 19 (3) (a),
insert instead "42 days".

Explanatory note

If, under section 19 (3) of the Act, the Building and Construction Industry Long Service Payments Corporation cancels the registration of a registered worker, it is required to remove the name of the worker from the register of workers on the expiration of the period of 21 days after it has notified the worker of the cancellation. COMMONWEALTH POWERS (FAMILY LAW - CHILDREN)
ACT 1986 No. 182

Amendment

- (1) Section 3 (Reference of certain matters relating to children):

In section 3 (2) (d), after the word "State,", insert "or other body,".

- (2) Schedule 1 (Acts):

At the end of Schedule 1, insert:

Disability Services and Guardianship
Act 1987

Explanatory note

The Act refers to the Parliament of the Commonwealth power to legislate for certain matters relating to children. Section 3 (3) of the Act defines "children" as being persons under the age of 18 years and extends the reference to cover certain persons over that age who are undergoing courses of education or who are physically or mentally handicapped.

Schedule 1 to the Act specifies the Acts which, so far as they confer powers relating to the custody, guardianship, care or control of children, are not affected by the reference.

The proposed amendment includes in Schedule 1 the Disability Services and Guardianship Act 1987. The proposed amendment will ensure that the reference of power does not:

- (a) include the taking (or the making of provision for or in relation to authorising the taking) of action that would prevent or interfere with the Guardianship Board's functions in relation to guardianship orders and consents to medical and dental treatment under that Act; or
 - (b) prevent the Guardianship Board from making orders, or taking any other action under that Act in relation to the custody, guardianship, care or control of children or access to children or the supervision of children.

Commencement

The amendments to the Dormant Funds Act 1942 commence on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

Section 16 of the Dormant Funds Act 1942, as in force immediately before the commencement of the amendments to that Act made by this Schedule, continues to apply to an appeal or request made before that commencement.

Explanatory note

The Dormant Funds Act 1942 makes provision for the utilisation of funds collected or acquired for charitable or other public purposes which are dormant.

The Commissioner of Dormant Funds makes a determination as to whether a fund is dormant and formulates proposals for the application of dormant funds.

An appeal against the determination that a fund is dormant may be made to the Charity Referees. The Charity Referees may also be requested to consider proposals for the application of a dormant fund referred to then.

The proposed amendments:

- (a) allow the Charity Referees (who already have the discretion to make orders as to costs in relation to the reference of proposals to them under section 13 of the Dormant Funds Act 1942) a discretion to make orders as to costs in relation to appeals against a determination that a fund is dormant (proposed section 16 (4) (a)); and

FACTORIES, SHOPS AND INDUSTRIES ACT 1962 No. 43

Amendment

Part 7 (Outdoor work in the clothing trades):
Omit the Part.

Commencement

The amendment to the Factories, Shops and Industries Act 1962 commences on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Repeal of Regulations

The Regulations relating to outdoor workers deemed to be made under the Factories, Shops and Industries Act 1962 and published in the Gazette of 18 April 1935 at page 1732 are repealed.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment omits Part 7 of the Act, the provisions of which deal with the licensing of outdoor workers in the clothing trades and the keeping of records in respect of the "giving-out" of clothing work. These provisions have become ineffective and obsolete in light of the relevant Clothing Trades (State) Award which effectively covers "outworkers" in the clothing trades.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments:

- (a) enable the industrial registrar (who is responsible for registering trade unions under the Act) to remove the name of an industrial union that has ceased to exist from the Register of Industrial Unions (at present this essentially administrative function is exercised by the Industrial Commission) (item (1)); and
- (b) enable industrial unions of employers to seek cancellation of registration under section 9 of the Act by requesting issue of a certificate of withdrawal from the industrial registrar (at present only an industrial union of employees may use this procedure for cancellation) (item (2)); and
- (c) make it clear that the registrar need only accept an agreement for filing as an industrial agreement under section 11 of the Act if it satisfies the criteria for an industrial agreement set out in that section (item (3)); and
- (d) amend section 15 of the Act so that the Vice-President of the Industrial Commission instead of the Minister for Industrial Relations and Employment (or, by virtue of section 14B of the Act, the Vice-President's delegate) may grant leave for a conciliation commissioner to be absent from duty (item (4)); and

- (i) repeal the requirement that agreements registered under section 91H must be published in the Gazette (notice will in future be given in the same way as it is given in relation to industrial agreements) (item (8)); and
- (j) enable the records of time-sheets and pay sheets required to be kept under section 96 of the Act to be kept in modern forms (item (9)); and
- (k) make it clear that agreements that must be filed before they may be enforced under section 111 of the Act may be filed at the same time as the papers instituting proceedings for enforcement (item (10)); and

- (2) From section 48B (4), omit "a date", insert instead "the age".

Commencement

The amendments to the Justices Act 1902 commence on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

Section 48B of the Justices Act 1902, as in force immediately before the commencement of the amendments to that Act made by this Schedule, continues to apply to written statements for committal proceedings prepared before that commencement.

Explanatory note

At present a written statement by a witness is not admissible as evidence in committal proceedings (to the same extent as if it were oral evidence given by the witness) unless the date of birth of the witness is specified in the statement. The date of birth specified could be used to obtain personal details relating to the witness. The proposed amendments preserve the privacy of witnesses by requiring that the written statement specify the age of the witness rather than his or her date of birth.

The amended section 48B (1) will read (in part) as follows:

- (1) A written statement is not admissible as evidence under section 48A in any committal proceedings if:

Commencement

Items (1) and (3) of the amendments to the Liquor Act 1982 are to be taken to have commenced on 13 April 1987 (being the date of commencement of section 20 (2B) of that Act).

Item (4) of the amendments to the Liquor Act 1982 commences on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

Section 151B of the Liquor Act 1982 applies to information given, and documents produced, before (as well as after) the commencement of that section.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to section 56 of the Act provides that when a condition on a licence authorising the operation of an approved amusement device is varied, the variation does not take effect until the appropriate fee is paid and the variation is endorsed on the licence. Such a provision currently applies to the imposition of the original condition. The amendment to section 80 of the Act is consequential on this amendment. The retrospective commencement of the amendment validates payments of fees that have already been made in respect of the variation of conditions.

The proposed amendment to section 69 of the Act corrects an existing cross-reference.

The proposed amendment to section 138C of the Act creates an exception to the offence of selling an approved amusement device without a licence. The exception applies to a person who obtains possession (e.g. by repossession) of the amusement device under a financing or other arrangement approved by the Board. Such a person is currently excepted from the offence of possessing an approved amusement device without a licence.

New section 151B imposes a requirement of secrecy on persons who in the exercise of inspectorial powers or administrative functions under the Act obtain information or documents concerning approved amusement devices or applications for licences concerning those devices. - . in the course of administration of the Act, to a person engaged in that administration, so long as that person is informed that the information or documents is or are protected under the section;
- . with the permission of the Board which can only be given if it is in the public interest to do so;
- . in answer to a question in legal proceedings that the person is compellable to answer.

- (d) From section 270N (4), omit "and the Commissioner of Police, or between the council or councils concerned and the Roads and Traffic Authority, as the case may be,".

Commencement

The amendments to the Local Government Act 1919 are to be taken to have commenced on 31 December 1987.

Explanatory note

Under section 270N of the Local Government Act 1919 councils have in the past been required to contribute to the cost of police supervision and enforcement of the provisions of the Act relating to metered zones, metered spaces and parking meters within their areas from the fees and charges collected in respect of the operation of the meters. The requirement was abolished by administrative action with effect from 31 December 1987. The proposed amendments will validate the abolition of the requirement by repealing the relevant provisions of the Act with effect from that date.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to section 26B of the Prisons Act 1952 makes a minor alteration to the provisions relating to discipline at prisons to ensure that punishments by way of an extension of a sentence (introduced by the Sentencing Act 1989 to replace long remissions) are not doubled where the prisoner is subject to a fixed term that is cumulative.

The proposed amendment to section 41A of the Prisons Act 1952 removes a reference to the grant of remissions that is obsolete as a consequence of the abolition of remissions by the Sentencing Act 1989.

TRAFFIC ACT 1909 No. 5

Amendments

Section 5 (Offences):

From section 5 (2) (a) and (b), omit
"motor" wherever occurring.

Commencement

The amendments to the Traffic Act 1909 commence on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Explanatory note

Prior to the enactment of the Motor Traffic (Transport Administration) Amendment Act 1988 provision for the regulation of traffic was made by two Acts. The Motor Traffic Act 1909 regulated motor vehicles. The General Traffic Act 1900 regulated vehicles other than motor vehicles. The 1988 Act renamed the Motor Traffic Act 1909 as the Traffic Act 1909 and transferred most of the General Traffic Act 1900 provisions regulating vehicles to it so as to consolidate the provisions regulating traffic in one Act. This enabled the repeal of the 1900 Act.

The proposed amendment will include within section 5 of the Traffic Act 1909 an offence formerly contained in section 9A of the repealed Act which was not transferred by the 1988 Act.

The amended provision will read:

(2) Any person who, while under the influence of alcohol or any other drug:

(a) drives a [motor] vehicle;

(b) occupies the driving seat of a [motor] vehicle and attempts to put such [motor] vehicle in motion; or

Matter to be omitted is shown in italics.

Explanatory note

The Transport Legislation (Repeal and Amendment) Act 1988 substantially repealed the Government Railways Act 1912 (its short title being changed to the Government Railways (Superannuation) Act 1912). Part 9 of the Act was retained to ensure that any superannuation benefits that are payable or may become payable under that Part are preserved (the scheme established by Part 9 was closed in 1964). The provisions of the Act which still have practical utility were transferred to the Transport Administration Act 1988. The proposed amendment substitutes the long title of the Government Railways (Superannuation) Act 1912 in light of the above.

SCHEDULE 4 - GENERAL SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND OTHER PROVISIONS

(Sec. 5)

Effect of amendment of amending provisions

1. (1) An amendment made by Schedule 2 to an amending provision contained in an Act will, if the amending provision has commenced before the date of assent to this Act, be taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision.

(2) In this clause:

"amending provision" means a provision of an Act, or of any other instrument, being a provision that has commenced and that makes a direct amendment of an Act by:

- (a) the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter; or
- (b) the omission of matter contained in the amended Act and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter; or
- (c) the insertion into the amended Act of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act, whether the provision was enacted before or after the commencement of the Reprints Act 1972.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that amendments correcting errors in the technical provisions (for example, headings indicating the section to be amended or directions as to where a new section is to be inserted) will commence on the date the amendments to which they relate commenced.

Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made

2. Except where it is expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act:

- (a) amends a provision of an Act; or

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) (No. 2)
1989

(b) repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act, any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly otherwise provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.

Regulations

3. (1) The Governor may make regulations containing other provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.

(2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.

(3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:

- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication; or
- (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) (No. 2)

Explanatory note

This clause enables the making of regulations of a transitional or saving nature having a short term effect relating to incidental matters arising out of the proposed Act with regard to which no specific, or sufficient, provision has been made in the Act.

COMMONWEALTH POWERS (FAMILY LAW - CHILDREN)
ACT 1986 No. 182

Amendment

- (1) Section 3 (Reference of certain matters relating to children):
In section 3 (2) (d), after the word "State,", insert "or other body,".
- (2) Schedule 1 (Acts):

Section 3 (3) of the Act defines "children" as being persons under the age of 18 years and extends the reference to cover certain persons over that age who are undergoing courses of education or who are physically or mentally handicapped.

Schedule 1 to the Act specifies the Acts which, so far as they confer powers relating to the custody, guardianship, care or control of children, are not affected by the reference.

The proposed amendment includes in Schedule 1 the Disability Services and Guardianship Act 1987. The proposed amendment will ensure that the reference of power does not:

- (a) include the taking (or the making of provision for or in relation to authorising the taking) of action that would prevent or interfere with the Guardianship Board's functions in relation to guardianship orders and consents to medical and dental treatment under that Act; or
- (b) prevent the Guardianship Board from making orders, or taking any other action under that Act in relation to the custody, guardianship, care or control of children or access to children or the supervision of children.

Transitional

Section 16 of the Dormant Funds Act 1942, as in force immediately before the commencement of the amendments to that Act made by this Schedule, continues to apply to an appeal or request made before that commencement.

Explanatory note

The Dormant Funds Act 1942 makes provision for the utilisation of funds collected or acquired for charitable or other public purposes which are dormant.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment omits Part 7 of the Act, the provisions of which deal with the licensing of outdoor workers in the clothing trades and the keeping of records in respect of the "giving-out" of clothing work. These provisions have become ineffective and obsolete in light of the relevant Clothing Trades (State) Award which effectively covers "outworkers" in the clothing trades.

The proposed amendments:

- (a) enable the industrial registrar (who is responsible for registering trade unions under the Act) to remove the name of

an industrial union that has ceased to exist from the Register of Industrial Unions (at present this essentially administrative function is exercised by the Industrial Commission) (item (1)); and

- (b) enable industrial unions of employers to seek cancellation of registration under section 9 of the Act by requesting issue of a certificate of withdrawal from the industrial registrar (at present only an industrial union of employees may use this procedure for cancellation) (item (2)); and
- (c) make it clear that the registrar need only accept an agreement for filing as an industrial agreement under section 11 of the Act if it satisfies the criteria for an industrial agreement set out in that section (item (3)); and
- (d) amend section 15 of the Act so that the Vice-President of the Industrial Commission instead of the Minister for Industrial Relations and Employment (or, by virtue of section 14B of the Act, the Vice-President's delegate) may grant leave for a conciliation commissioner to be absent from duty (item (4)); and
- (e) enable the registrar, under section 18 of the Act, to remove references to obsolete conciliation committees from instruments establishing committees for industries and callings or assigning or altering the assignment of industries or callings to committees (item (5)); and
- (f) enable the award or order of a committee or contract determination of a tribunal to be signed by a person other than the Chairman of the committee or tribunal (item (6) (a)); and

JUSTICES ACT 1902 No. 27

Amendments

Section 48B (Copies of statements to be given etc.):

- (1) From section 48B (1) (c) and (4), omit "date of birth" wherever occurring, insert instead "age".
- (2) From section 48B (4), omit "a date", insert instead "the age".

Commencement

The amendments to the Justices Act 1902 commence on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

Section 48B of the Justices Act 1902, as in force immediately before the commencement of the amendments to that Act made by this Schedule, continues to apply to written statements for committal proceedings prepared before that commencement.

Explanatory note

At present a written statement by a witness is not admissible as evidence in committal proceedings (to the same extent as if it were oral evidence given by the witness) unless the date of birth of the witness is specified in the statement. The date of birth specified could be used to obtain personal details relating to the witness. The proposed amendments preserve the privacy of witnesses by requiring that the written statement specify the age of the witness rather than his or her date of birth.

The amended section 48B (1) will read (in part) as follows:

- (1) A written statement is not admissible as evidence under section 48A in any committal proceedings if:

- (c) the [date of birth] age of the person who made the statement is not specified in the statement;

Matter to be omitted is shown in italics and matter to be inserted is shown in bold type.

LAND AND ENVIRONMENT COURT ACT 1979 No. 204

Amendments

Section 69A:

After section 69, insert:

Interest payable on money ordered to be paid

69A. (1) If an order is made by the Court for the payment of money, interest is payable at the prescribed rate from the date the order takes effect on so much of the money as is from time to time unpaid, unless the Court otherwise orders.

(2) This section does not apply in the case of money ordered to be paid as a penalty.

Commencement

The amendment to the Land and Environment Court Act 1979 commences on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

Section 69A of the Land and Environment Court Act 1979 does not apply to an order for the payment of money made before the commencement of that section.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment requires the payment of interest on amounts unpaid under an order of the Land and Environment Court for the payment of money, unless the Court orders that interest is not payable. The interest is payable from the date of the order concerned and the rate of interest is to be prescribed by the regulations. Similar provision is currently made for the payment of interest on amounts ordered to be paid by the Supreme Court.

"protected information" means information given or the contents of a document produced:
 - (a) under Division 4 of Part 3 in relation to an application for an amusement device dealer's licence, an amusement device seller's licence or an amusement device technician's licence; or
 - (b) under section 110A.

(2) An officer must not disclose protected information to any person except:

- (a) while engaged in the administration of this Act, to another person so engaged, having informed the other person that the information is protected information under this section; or

Penalty: $2,000.

Penalty: $2,000.

(5) It is not a contravention of subsection (2) or (3) if, in any legal proceedings, a person discloses protected information in answering a question the person is compellable to answer in those proceedings.

Commencement

Items (1) and (3) of the amendments to the Liquor Act 1982 are to be taken to have commenced on 13 April 1987 (being the date of commencement of section 20 (2B) of that Act).

Item (4) of the amendments to the Liquor Act 1982 commences on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

Section 151B of the Liquor Act 1982 applies to information given, and documents produced, before (as well as after) the commencement of that section.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to section 56 of the Act provides that when a condition on a licence authorising the operation of an approved amusement device is varied, the variation does not take effect until the appropriate fee is paid and the variation is endorsed on the licence. Such a provision currently applies to the imposition of the original condition. The amendment to section 80 of the Act is consequential on this amendment. The retrospective commencement of the amendment validates payments of fees that have already been made in respect of the variation of conditions.

The proposed amendment to section 69 of the Act corrects an existing cross-reference.

The proposed amendment to section 138C of the Act creates an exception to the offence of selling an approved amusement device without a licence. The exception applies to a person who obtains possession (e.g. by repossession) of the amusement device under a financing or other arrangement approved by the Board. Such a person is currently excepted from the offence of possessing an approved amusement device without a licence.

New section 151B imposes a requirement of secrecy on persons who in the exercise of inspectorial powers or administrative functions under the Act obtain information or documents concerning approved amusement devices or applications for licences concerning those devices. Under the proposed section the information or documents will not be able to be disclosed except in the following circumstances:

- . in the course of administration of the Act, to a person engaged in that administration, so long as that person is informed that the information or documents is or are protected under the section;
- . with the permission of the Board which can only be given if it is in the public interest to do so;
- . in answer to a question in legal proceedings that the person is compellable to answer.

A parallel provision exists currently in section 131 of the Registered Clubs Act 1976 in relation to information and documents concerning poker machines.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT 1919 No. 41

Amendments

Section 270N (Application of money from parking meters):

- (a) After "therein;" in section 270N (1) (a), insert "and".
- (b) Omit section 270N (1) (b).
- (c) Omit section 270N (3) (a).
- (d) From section 270N (4), omit "and the Commissioner of Police, or between the council or councils concerned and the Roads and Traffic Authority, as the case may be,".

Commencement

The amendments to the Local Government Act 1919 are to be taken to have commenced on 31 December 1987.

Explanatory note

Under section 270N of the Local Government Act 1919 councils have in the past been required to contribute to the cost of police supervision and enforcement of the provisions of the Act relating to metered zones, metered spaces and parking meters within their areas from the fees and charges collected in respect of the operation of the meters. The requirement was abolished by administrative action with effect from 31 December 1987. The proposed amendments will validate the abolition of the requirement by repealing the relevant provisions of the Act with effect from that date.

PRISONS ACT 1952 No. 9

Amendments

(1) Section 26B (Imposition of penalty by Visiting Justice):

From section 41A, omit "(including Part 11)".

Commencement

Item (1) of the amendments to the Prisons Act 1952 commences or is to be taken to have commenced on the commencement of item (2) of the amendments to Schedule 3 to the Sentencing Act 1989.

Item (2) of the amendments to the Prisons Act 1952 commences or is to be taken to have commenced on the repeal of Part 11 of the Prisons Act 1952.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to section 26B of the Prisons Act 1952 makes a minor alteration to the provisions relating to discipline at prisons to ensure that punishments by way of an extension of a sentence (introduced by the Sentencing Act 1989 to replace long remissions) are not doubled where the prisoner is subject to a fixed term that is cumulative.

The proposed amendment to section 41A of the Prisons Act 1952 removes a reference to the grant of remissions that is obsolete as a consequence of the abolition of remissions by the Sentencing Act 1989.

 - (b) Omit clause (8) (iii) of Part 2 of the Schedule, insert instead:
 - (iii) not less than 220 litres of refrigeration for storing perishable foodstuffs and beverages; and

Explanatory note

At present, a person who is responsible for the provision of accommodation for rural workers is required to provide refrigeration for the use of rural workers between 15 September of any year and 15 May of the following year. The proposed amendments extend that requirement to all-year round and also provide that, for small groups of rural workers, there must be provided refrigeration capacity of not less than 220 litres for storing perishable foodstuffs and beverages instead of 110 litres as is presently required. Also, the existing requirement to provide refrigeration for storing perishable foodstuffs and the existing offence contained in section 11 (offences in relation to accommodation) which relates to using a means of refrigeration for a purpose other than for storing perishable foodstuffs, are both extended to include the storing of beverages.

Savings

Explanatory note

At present section 14 (3) of the Act provides that a trade union cannot be registered under a name identical to that of an existing trade union or so resembling it as to be likely to deceive the public. The proposed amendment to section 14 (3) will extend this prohibition against registration to include registration under a name identical to that of an industrial union of employees or under a name so similar to the name of either an existing trade union or an industrial union of employees as to be likely to mislead the public.

The proposed amendment to section 14 (6) and repeal of the Second Schedule will omit the limitation as to the maximum fee that may be prescribed with respect to registration under the Act.

TRAFFIC ACT 1909 No. 5

Amendments

Section 5 (Offences):

From section 5 (2) (a) and (b), omit "motor" wherever occurring.

Commencement

The amendments to the Traffic Act 1909 commence on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Explanatory note

Prior to the enactment of the Motor Traffic (Transport Administration) Amendment Act 1988 provision for the regulation of traffic was made by two Acts. The Motor Traffic Act 1909 regulated motor vehicles. The General Traffic Act 1900 regulated vehicles other than motor vehicles. The 1988 Act renamed the Motor Traffic Act 1909 as the Traffic Act 1909 and transferred most of the General Traffic Act 1900 provisions regulating vehicles to it so as to consolidate the provisions regulating traffic in one Act. This enabled the repeal of the 1900 Act.

The proposed amendment will include within section 5 of the Traffic Act 1909 an offence formerly contained in section 9A of the repealed Act which was not transferred by the 1988 Act.

The amended provision will read:

(2) Any person who, while under the influence of alcohol or any other drug:

(a) drives a [motor] vehicle;

(b) occupies the driving seat of a [motor] vehicle and attempts to put such [motor] vehicle in motion; or

Matter to be omitted is shown in italics.

GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS (SUPERANNUATION) ACT 1912
No. 30

Amendment

Omit the long title, insert instead:

An Act relating to superannuation allowances and gratuities for certain railway employees.

Explanatory note

The Transport Legislation (Repeal and Amendment) Act 1988 substantially repealed the Government Railways Act 1912 (its short title being changed to the Government Railways (Superannuation) Act 1912). Part 9 of the Act was retained to ensure that any superannuation benefits that are payable or may become payable under that Part are preserved (the scheme established by Part 9 was closed in 1964). The provisions of the Act which still have practical utility were transferred to the Transport Administration Act 1988. The proposed amendment substitutes the long title of the Government Railways (Superannuation) Act 1912 in light of the above.

AND OTHER PROVISIONS

(Sec. 5)

Effect of amendment of amending provisions

1. (1) An amendment made by Schedule 2 to an amending provision contained in an Act will, if the amending provision has commenced before the date of assent to this Act, be taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision.

(2) In this clause:

"amending provision" means a provision of an Act, or of any other instrument, being a provision that has commenced and that makes a direct amendment of an Act by:

- (a) the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter; or
- (b) the omission of matter contained in the amended Act and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter; or

- (c) the insertion into the amended Act of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act, whether the provision was enacted before or after the commencement of the Reprints Act 1972.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that amendments correcting errors in the technical provisions (for example, headings indicating the section to be amended or directions as to where a new section is to be inserted) will commence on the date the amendments to which they relate commenced.

Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made

- 2. Except where it is expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act:
 - (a) amends a provision of an Act; or
 - (b) repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act, any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly otherwise provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.

Regulations

3. (1) The Governor may make regulations containing other provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.

(2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.

(3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:

- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication; or
- (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Explanatory note

This clause enables the making of regulations of a transitional or saving nature having a short term effect relating to incidental matters arising out of the proposed Act with regard to which no specific, or sufficient, provision has been made in the Act.
