The amendments to each Act are explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to the Act concerned set out in Schedule 1.

A number of the amendments remove bars, which are based on age, on the appointment of persons to offices or amend or repeal provisions which require employees to retire from, or to vacate, office on or after attaining a specified age. These amendments are consequential on the Anti-Discrimination (Compulsory Retirement) Amendment Act 1990.

Where necessary, provisions of a saving or transitional nature relating to the amendment concerned have also been set out in Schedule 1.

The expression "penalty unit" used in the explanatory note relating to an amendment to an Act set out in Schedule 1 has its basis in section 56 of the Interpretation Act 1987. At present, 1 penalty unit is equivalent to $100.

SCHEDULE 2—AMENDMENTS BY WAY OF STATUTE LAW REVISION

Schedule 2 amends certain other Acts for the purpose of effecting statute law revision. A number of amendments are made relating to formal drafting matters and minor corrections.

The amendments to each Act are explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to the Act concerned set out in Schedule 2.

SCHEDULE 3—REPEALS

Schedule 3 repeals a number of Acts. Since the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1985 the number of Acts in force has been gradually reduced by repealing amending Acts once the amendments contained in the Acts have been incorporated in a reprint. The Schedule continues this process.

The Schedule also repeals amending Acts and Acts containing uncommenced provisions which are superfluous because the Principal Acts they amend or to which they relate have been repealed or amended in a way that would now make the provisions inappropriate.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

The Schedule also repeals a number of obsolete Acts relating to public works.

The effect of the repeal of amending Acts is explained in detail in the explanatory note set out in Schedule 3.

SCHEDULE 4—GENERAL SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND OTHER PROVISIONS

Schedule 4 contains savings, transitional and other provisions of a more general effect than those set out in Schedule 1.

The purpose of each provision is explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to the provision concerned set out in Schedule 4.

The proposed amendments to sections 12 (3) and 13 (1) enable costs (which may be awarded to a party to proceedings for the recovery of penalties or holiday pay under the Act) to be assessed by the industrial magistrate or Local Court concerned rather than in accordance with a scale fixed by the Industrial Commission.

Inspectors (item (1) (b), (f))

The proposed amendments to section 12 (1) and (4) provide that inspectors (who are appointed under the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940) may institute proceedings for recovering penalties imposed by the Act or regulations without needing the authority of the Minister.

Orders for interest (item (3) (a))

The proposed amendment to section 14 applies the provisions of the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 relating to the making of orders for payment of interest on money due under that Act to proceedings under the Annual Holidays Act 1944 in respect of an order directing the payment of holiday pay under that Act.

Statute law revision

The remaining amendments to the Act update references to courts of petty sessions and stipendiary magistrates as a consequence of the Local Courts Act 1982.

Explanatory noteClaims for service credits (item (1))

Section 21 of the Building and Construction Industry Long Service Payments Act 1986 enables a subcontract worker to claim service credits in the building industry on which entitlement to long service payments are based.

The proposed amendments will extend the periods within which such a claim may be made by 9 months. The proposed amendments will also enable the Building and Construction Industry Long Service Payments Corporation (“the Corporation”) to extend the period in which claims may be lodged in any class of cases (at present, it may only do so in a particular case).

CHILDREN (CARE AND PROTECTION) ACT 1987 No. 54Amendments

(1) Section 21 (Special medical examinations):

Omit the definition of “special medical examination” from section 21 (12), insert instead:

“special medical examination” means:

- (a) a vaginal or anal examination (including any examination involving the insertion of any thing into the vagina or anus); or
- (b) a penile examination involving the insertion of any thing into the penis, and includes any such examination carried out in the course of a medical examination under section 23.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—continued

(2) Section 71B:

Before section 72, insert:

Definition

71B. In this Division:

“cultural” includes ethnic, religious and linguistic.

(3) Section 74 (Assessment reports):

After section 74 (4), insert:

(5) A person who fails to comply with an order made under subsection (4) is guilty of an offence.

(4) Schedule 2 (Constitution of the Children’s Review Panel):

(a) After “resignation;” in clause 7 (1) (a), insert “and”.

(b) From clause 7 (1) (b) (ii), omit “body; and”, insert instead “body,”.

(c) Omit clause 7 (1) (c).

Commencement

The amendments to the Children (Care and Protection) Act 1987 commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Explanatory note

Statute law revision (item (1))

Section 21 (12) of the Act defines “special medical examination” as “a vaginal or anal examination or a penile examination involving the insertion of any thing into the penis”. The proposed amendment recasts the definition to make it clear that the reference to a vaginal or anal examination includes an examination involving the insertion of any thing into the vagina or anus (the specific reference to the insertion of a thing into the penis might otherwise be read as implying that such an examination is excluded in the case of a vagina or anus).

Care application (item (2))

In considering a care application in respect of a child, the Children’s Court is required to have regard (in addition to various other matters) to “the importance of preserving the particular cultural environment of the child” (section 72 (2)(d)). Associated provisions in sections 73 and 74 make reference to the Court taking into account a child’s “cultural group” and possible conflicts of “cultural factors”. Proposed section 71B will insert a definition of “cultural” to make it clear that the references to “cultural” in these provisions include also ethnic, religious and linguistic elements. The amendment will ensure consistency with the Convention on the Rights of the Child which was adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 20 November 1989.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedBreach of orders relating to assessment reports (item (3))

Under section 74 of the Act, the Children's Court may make orders to prevent a child from becoming aware of information contained in an assessment report if the prejudicial effect of the child being unaware of the information would be outweighed by the likely psychological harm to the child if the child became aware of the information. The proposed amendment will make it an offence against the Act to fail to comply with such an order.

Removal of age restrictions (item (4))

The proposed amendments provide that the full-time President of the Children's Review Panel, who at present is entitled to return to public sector employment in certain circumstances, is not prevented from doing so because of his or her age.

CHILDREN (CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS) ACT 1987 No. 55Amendments*(1) Section 31 (Hearing of charges in the Children's Court):

From section 31 (4), omit "and to the Attorney General".

(2) Section 33 (Penalties):

From section 33 (1) (c), omit "$500", insert instead "10 penalty units".

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to section 31 removes the requirement for the Children's Court to furnish to the Attorney General a statement of the reasons for its decision to commit a person for trial instead of dealing with the matter summarily. The provision is superfluous as the Attorney General no longer exercises the functions which formerly necessitated its inclusion in section 31 (item (1)).

The proposed amendment to section 33 increases, from $500 to 10 penalty units (which is currently $1,000), the maximum fine that the Children's Court can impose on a person found by the court to be guilty of an offence (item (2)).

COAL MINING ACT 1973 No. 81

AmendmentSection 76 (Liability to pay royalty):

Omit section 76 (2), insert instead:

(2) If royalty is paid or recovered in respect of coal or a mineral (being, in either case, coal or a mineral neither owned by nor reserved to the Crown), the Minister is to pay to the owner of the coal or mineral the amount of the royalty (together with any interest on the royalty that has been paid or recovered), less an amount equal to one-eighth of the amount of the royalty, which is to be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Commencement

The amendment is taken to have commenced on 22 June 1990 (the day on which the Coal Ownership (Restitution) Act 1990 commenced).

Explanatory note

Section 76 (2) of the Coal Mining Act 1973 originally provided (in terms similar to those of the proposed provision) for the payment of royalty to owners of privately owned coal. The original provision was amended as a consequence of the enactment of the Coal Acquisition Act 1981 to reflect the fact that all privately owned coal was, by that Act, vested in the Crown. The Coal Ownership (Restitution) Act 1990 provides that coal may now be granted back to certain of the persons by whom it was previously owned. For those persons who are granted coal to receive royalty in respect of the mining of the coal, it is necessary to amend section 76 (2) of the Coal Mining Act 1973 to restore its original effect.

After section 30I (5), insert:

(6) The regulations may provide for the payment of specified fees in respect of an application for revalidation of a certificate of competency and may provide for different fees according to such different factors as are prescribed.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment makes it clear that regulations may be made with respect to fees for revalidation of certificates of competency by the Maritime Services Board. The provision is similar to section 30G of the Act which enables such regulations to be made with respect to applications for certificates of competency.

COMPENSATION COURT ACT 1984 No. 89Amendment*Section 32 (Appeals from Court):

From section 32 (3) (b), omit "$5,000", insert instead "$10,000".

Transitional

The amendment to the Compensation Court Act 1984 does not apply to an appeal commenced before the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note

At present, if an appeal to the Supreme Court from a decision of the Compensation Court involves an amount of compensation less than $5,000, the appeal lies by leave of the Supreme Court rather than as of right. The proposed amendment increases that amount so that it will be necessary to obtain the leave of the Supreme Court if the amount of compensation involved in the appeal is less than $10,000.

CONSTITUTION ACT 1902 No. 32

Amendments

Section 9I (Governor's salary):

- (a) From section 9I (2), omit “, but may be made only on the advice of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the full Executive Council”.
- (b) Omit section 9I (3).

Explanatory note

Section 9I of the Constitution Act 1902 provides that the annual salary of the Governor is $80,000 or such greater amount as is determined by regulation. At present, such a regulation can be made only on the advice of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the full Executive Council, with no more than 3 members absent. The proposed amendment will omit this requirement.

CRIMES ACT 1900 No. 40

Amendments

- (1) Section 405D (Closed-circuit television may be used for giving child victim's evidence):

Omit section 405D (2), insert instead:

(2) If the court is not equipped with closed-circuit television facilities or it otherwise considers it appropriate to do so, the court may, for the purpose of permitting the child's evidence to be given by means of such facilities, adjourn the proceedings or any part of them to a court that is equipped with such facilities.

(2A) If, pursuant to an order under subsection (1), a child's evidence is permitted to be given from other premises:

- (a) the court may also order a court officer to be present at those other premises, or any other person to be present with the child as a support or interpreter, or both; and
- (b) those other premises are taken to be part of the court in which the proceedings are being held.

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continued(2) Section 405F (Alternative arrangements for child victim's evidence):

(a) After "adjournment of" in section 405F (2) (c), insert "the proceedings or".

(b) After section 405F (2), insert:

(2A) Any premises to which proceedings are adjourned for the purposes of subsection (2) are taken to be part of the court in which the proceedings are being held.

(3) Section 405G (Premises to be considered part of court):

Omit the section.

Commencement

The proposed amendments to the Crimes Act 1900 commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Explanatory note

At present, in criminal proceedings in which it is alleged that the accused person has committed a prescribed sexual offence on a child, the court may make an order under section 405D of the Crimes Act 1900 permitting the child's evidence to be given by means of closed-circuit television facilities.

The proposed amendment to section 405D makes it clear that if the court is not equipped with closed-circuit television facilities or it is otherwise appropriate to do so, the court may adjourn the whole of the proceedings (and not just part of them) to another court for the purpose of the child giving evidence by means of closed-circuit television facilities. The proposed amendment to that section also restates the existing provision that other premises from which a child's evidence can be given are taken to be part of the court (item (1)).

The proposed amendments to section 405F enable a court to adjourn all of the proceedings (instead of just part of them) to other premises if the court gives a direction under that section for alternative arrangements to be made for the giving of evidence by a child victim and also restate the existing provision that those premises are taken to be part of the court (item (2)).

Section 405G is to be repealed as a consequence of the proposed amendments to sections 405D and 405F (item (3)).

CRIMINAL APPEAL ACT 1912 No. 16

Amendments(1) Section 2 (Definitions):

From the definition of “Sentence” in section 2 (1), omit “, or his”, insert instead “or any”.

(2) Section 10 (Time for appealing):

(a) From section 10 (1), omit “ten”, insert instead “28”.

(b) From section 10 (4), omit “10”, insert instead “28”.

Transitional

The amendments to section 10 of the Criminal Appeal Act 1912 do not apply to an appeal in respect of which the period for giving notice has expired before the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory noteDefinition of “sentence” (item (1))

At present, the definition of “sentence” includes any order made by the court of trial on conviction with reference to the person convicted, or his property. The proposed amendment to section 2 makes it clear that the order can refer to any property and not just that of the person to whom the conviction relates.

Time for appealing (item (2))

The proposed amendments to section 10 extend, from 10 to 28 days, the time within which a person is required to give notice of an appeal, or notice of an application for leave to appeal, to the Court of Criminal Appeal against a conviction or sentence.

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedCRIMINAL PROCEDURE ACT 1986 No. 209*Amendments*Section 8 (Listing):

In section 8 (1) and (1A), after “criminal proceedings” wherever occurring, insert “that are to be heard and determined”.

Explanatory note

At present, the Criminal Listing Director can make arrangements for the listing of criminal proceedings “before” the Supreme Court or the District Court. The proposed amendments make it clear that the proceedings concerned are proceedings that are to be heard and determined before those courts.

CROWN AND OTHER ROADS ACT 1990 No. 54Amendments

- (1) Section 6 (Notice to be given of an intention to open a road over prescribed land):

- (2) Section 19 (Compensation to be determined by the local land board when the parties cannot agree):

From section 19 (1), omit “accepting the claimant’s claim in principle”, insert instead “informing the claimant that the Minister has determined to acquire the interest in land”.

- (3) Section 38 (Power of Minister to re-mark road):

(5) Schedule 2 (Savings and transitional provisions):

- (a) From clause 11 (1), omit “lease or reserve”, insert instead “lease, reserve or dedication”.
- (b) After “the reserve” in clause 11 (1), insert “or dedication”.

Explanatory note

Compensation (items (1), (2) and (4))

Section 6 sets out the matters included in a notice of the Minister’s intention to open a road over prescribed land. The proposed amendment to the section more clearly describes a reference to the lodging of a claim for compensation in the section.

The proposed amendment to section 19 makes it clear that it is only after the Minister has determined to acquire an interest in land that the claimant for compensation concerned may (if there is a dispute over the amount of compensation) apply to the local land board to determine that compensation.

The proposed amendment to section 46 enables the Minister to provide, as compensation to a person who has an interest in land to be acquired, land that formerly constituted a road or that has become Crown land.

Miscellaneous (items (3) and (5))

The proposed amendment to section 38 rectifies an incorrect cross-reference.

The proposed amendment to Schedule 2 makes it clear that a savings provision preserving the rights in respect of a lease or reserve which includes a Crown road also applies to rights in respect of a dedication which includes a Crown road.

(8) Section 139 (Alteration of conditions or purposes and suspension etc. of conditions):

After “exemption” in section 139 (4), insert “, alteration, modification, addition or revocation”.

Explanatory noteGranting of easements by reserve trusts (items (1)–(6))

At present, a reserve trust has the power to deal with land comprising the whole or any part of the reserve by way of sale, lease, licence or mortgage. This power is subject to the consent of the Minister. The proposed amendments to sections 100–103, 105 and 106 enable a reserve trust to grant an easement in respect of the land and provide that this power is also subject to the consent of the Minister. The proposed amendments also enable a reserve trust to acquire the benefit of an easement in respect of land required by the trust for use in connection with the reserve.

Declaration of certain Crown land (item (7))

At present, the Minister may declare (by notification published in the Gazette) that land vested in the Crown or acquired by or on behalf of the Crown or appropriated or resumed or vested in a public authority may be dealt with as if it were Crown land. The proposed amendment makes it clear that such a notification may declare the land to be Crown land.

Conditions on holdings (item (8))

The proposed amendment to section 139 makes it clear that if the conditions attaching to a holding (or the purpose of a holding) are altered, modified, added to or revoked, the Minister may redetermine the rent for the remainder of the current rent redetermination period applicable to the holding.

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedEDUCATION (ANCILLARY STAFF) ACT 1987 No. 240*Amendments*(1) Section 5 (Classifications and positions):

From section 5 (1), omit “senior clerical assistant and such other”, insert instead “such”.

(2) Section 33 (Eligibility for appointment to Public Service):

From section 33 (1), omit “with at least 5 years’ satisfactory service as such”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to section 5 omits a specific reference to senior clerical assistant as a classification of the ancillary staff of the Department of School Education (item (1)).

The proposed amendment to section 33 removes the condition that a permanent employee (being a member of the ancillary staff of the Department of School Education employed on a permanent basis) is required to have had at least 5 years’ satisfactory service as a permanent employee before he or she may apply for a position in the Public Service as if he or she were a public servant (item (2)).

EDUCATION REFORM ACT 1990 No. 8Amendments*(1) Section 58 (Common registration cycles for schools in a system):

Omit “registration of schools”, insert instead “registration of non-government schools”.

(2) Sections 85 (2), 87 (3), 91 (1) (b) and (4):

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continued(4) Section 102 (Functions of the Board):

In section 102 (2) (g), before “courses of study”, insert “syllabuses for”.

(5) Schedule 2 (Provisions relating to members and procedure of the Schools Appeals Tribunal):

Omit clause 6 (1) (h) and “or” where lastly occurring in clause 6 (1) (g).

Explanatory note

Items (1), (2), (3) and (5) make consequential changes as a result of amendments approved in committee during the passage of the Act through Parliament.

Items (1) and (2) change a number of references to the registration of schools and to systems of schools to the registration of non-government schools and to systems of non-government schools as a consequence of the amendments in committee which removed the requirement for registration of government schools and the formation of a system of government schools.

Item (3) changes a reference to accredited schools to a reference to government and accredited non-government schools in connection with the issue of records of achievement to students. The reference originally covered all schools because both government and non-government schools were to be accredited for the presentation of candidates for the recognised certificates (the S.C. and the H.S.C.). However, the requirement for accreditation of government schools was removed by amendments in committee and accordingly the expression “accredited school” in connection with the grant of records achievement is no longer sufficient to describe all schools.

Item (5) omits an unnecessary provision which provides for the vacation of office of the presiding member of the Schools Appeals Tribunal in circumstances outlined in a proposed provision of the Act that was removed by amendment in committee.

Item (4) makes a minor change to the wording of the functions of the Board of Studies in relation to vocational courses of study for Years 11 and 12. For the sake of consistency, the relevant provision is being amended to refer to the Board’s role in developing or endorsing syllabuses for courses of study rather than developing or endorsing courses of study.

The amendment to the Environmental Offences and Penalties Act 1989 is taken to have commenced on 1 January 1991 (the day on which Division 5A of Part 10 of the Local Government Act 1919, which included section 289A of that Act, was repealed by the Environmental Offences and Penalties (Amendment) Act 1990).

Explanatory note

The amendment to Schedule 3 makes it clear that references in any Act or instrument to authorised persons within the meaning of Division 5A of Part 10 of the Local Government Act 1919, or to any class of authorised persons within the meaning of that Division, continue to have the same effect as they had immediately before that Division was repealed by the Environmental Offences and Penalties (Amendment) Act 1990.

(b) After section 145 (1) (a1), insert:

(a2) an inspector appointed under the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 (in the case of an offence under section 7 (5) involving such an inspector or an offence under Part 4 or 6 or the regulations under those Parts); or

(c) From section 145 (5), omit “Department of Industrial Relations and Employment”, insert instead “the WorkCover Authority or, in a case where the informant is an inspector appointed under the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940, by an officer of the Department of Industrial Relations, Employment, Training and Further Education”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments provide that the existing powers and functions of inspectors under Part 4 (restriction of hours of trade or work in certain industries) and Part 6 (regulation of the hairdressing trade) of the Act are to be exercised by inspectors appointed under the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940. This reflects the existing arrangement concerning inspectors’ powers and functions under the Factories, Shops and Industries Act 1962.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments increase monetary penalties for certain offences under the Act. The penalties have not been reviewed for some time (in some cases not since 1978) and relate to such offences as the unlawful taking of timber, hunting and use of firearms in State forests, obstruction of authorised officers and to offences against the regulations. The increases will bring the penalties in line with similar penalties under comparable legislation (e.g. the Soil Conservation Act 1938).

GAMING AND BETTING ACT 1912 No. 25Amendment*Section 10A (Betting by minors):

From section 10A (2), omit "A person under the age of 16 years", insert instead "A minor".

Section 10A of the Gaming and Betting Act 1912 penalises betting by minors but precludes imprisonment in default of payment of the penalty if the person in default is under the age of 16 years. The proposed amendment will preclude imprisonment if the person in default is under the age of 18 years.

The amendment will ensure that the section is consistent in this respect with section 117G (Minors not to be detained) of the Liquor Act 1982 (as inserted by Schedule 3 (7) to the Liquor (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 1990) and section 57B (Minors not to be detained) of the Registered Clubs Act 1976 (as inserted by Schedule 1 (3) to the Registered Clubs (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 1990).

Transitional

Item (3) (a) of the amendments to the Health Administration Act 1982 applies to the re-appointment of a member of the Medical Services Committee who would not, but for the amendment made by that paragraph, have been eligible for re-appointment.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments:

- (a) enable the expression "NSW Health" to be used (for example on letter heads) to describe the Department of Health, the Health Administration Corporation and any other body and organisation under the control and direction of the Minister (item (1)); and
- (b) increase, from 9 to 10, the number of members comprising the Medical Services Committee and to provide that the additional member is to be appointed by the Minister on the nomination of the NSW Branch of the Australian Association of Consultant Physicians (item (2)); and
- (c) provide that a member of the Committee may be appointed for not more than 5 consecutive terms (each term comprising a 2 year period) instead of not more than 3 consecutive terms as is the case at present (item (3) (a)); and

- (e) omit an obsolete provision relating to the first meeting of the Committee (item (3) (c)).

- (3) Section 92D (Small claims before industrial magistrates):

“prescribed application” means an application for an order made in accordance with subsection (2).

(b) Omit section 92D (2), insert instead:

(2) A person who makes an application to an industrial magistrate for an order may do so by requesting, in a form approved by the registrar, that the application be dealt with under this section.

(4) Section 93 (Penalty for breach of award etc.):

From section 93 (4), omit “The industrial magistrate may award costs to either party and assess the amount of such costs. Such costs shall be according to a scale fixed by the commission.”.

(5) Section 118A:

After section 118, insert:

Order for interest

118A. (1) If an order to which this section applies is made for the payment of an amount of money, the industrial magistrate may order that there is to be included (in the amount ordered to be paid) interest at the prescribed rate on the whole or any part of that amount for the whole or any part of the period from when the amount became due and the date of the order.

(2) If, in relation to proceedings for an order to which this section applies the whole of the amount of money due (or any part of it) is paid before or without the order being made, the industrial magistrate may order that interest is to be paid at the prescribed rate on the amount so paid for the whole or any part of the period from when the amount became due and the date of the payment. Any such order for interest may be enforced as if it were an order to which this section applies.

(3) This section does not:

- (a) authorise the charging of interest on interest; or
- (b) authorise the charging of interest otherwise than by consent on any amount for the payment of which an order is made by consent.

- (4) This section applies to the following orders:
 - (a) an order under section 92, 92B or 93 for the payment of money due;
 - (b) an order under section 12 (2) or 13 of the Annual Holidays Act 1944 with respect to any remuneration or payment due to a worker under that Act;

From section 127 (1) (d), omit “, on obtaining the authority of the Minister,”.
- (7) Section 130 (Regulations):
 - (a) Before “committee” in section 130 (1) (a), insert “conciliation commissioner,”.
 - (b) After “commission” in section 130 (1) (h), insert “or a conciliation commissioner, committee or tribunal”.

Commencement

The proposed amendments to the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

Item (5) of the amendments to the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 does not apply to proceedings (being proceedings in respect of an order for the payment of money due) commenced before that item commences.

Explanatory noteOrders for interest (items (2) (b) and (5))

At present under the Act, certain orders for the payment of money due (e.g. for the recovery of wages) are enforced as if the order were a judgment for a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction. Proposed section 118A provides that if an order is made for the payment of money, the industrial magistrate may order that interest on the amount of money due is to be included in the amount ordered to be paid (this being similar to proceedings for the recovery of money before a Local Court—see section 39A of the Local Courts (Civil Claims) Act 1970).

The proposed amendment to section 25AA provides that an order for interest is not to be made at a compulsory conference (held before a conciliation commissioner for example) and that an application for an order for interest is not to be remitted to an industrial magistrate (item (2) (b)).

Appeals from committees etc. (item (1))

The proposed amendments to section 24 make it clear that the Crown may appeal to the Industrial Commission from an order, and not just an award, of a conciliation commissioner, a conciliation committee or a contract regulation tribunal.

Small claims before industrial magistrates (items (2) (a) and (3))

The proposed amendments to section 92D provide that an application for an order for the recovery of an amount of money may be made to the registrar in an approved form instead of by making a complaint in a prescribed form and then electing to have the application dealt with under section 92D. That section provides a quick and informal method of recovering amounts of money (such as unpaid wages) that are less than $5,000. The proposed amendment to section 25AA (2) is consequential.

Costs (item (4))

The proposed amendment to section 93 will enable costs awarded to a party to proceedings for a breach of an award to be dealt with in the same way as costs awarded in other proceedings for a penalty or prosecution under the Act (that is, they are no longer to be in accordance with a scale fixed by the Industrial Commission but in accordance with section 123 of the Act).

Inspectors (item (6))

The proposed amendment to section 127 provides that inspectors may institute proceedings for a penalty for the breach of an award without needing the authority of the Minister.

Procedure before conciliation commissioners etc. (item (7))

The proposed amendment to section 130 enables regulations to be made prescribing the forms of references and applications to a conciliation commissioner and regulating the procedure to be followed in proceedings before a conciliation commissioner, a conciliation committee or a contract regulation tribunal.

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedJUSTICES ACT 1902 No. 27*Amendment*Section 89 (Form and content of warrants):

After “issuing it”, insert “(or, in the case of a warrant of commitment issued by an authorised justice by means of a computer network administered by the Attorney General’s Department, shall record the name of the authorised justice issuing it)”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment enables a computer generated warrant of commitment to record the name of the authorised justice who issues the warrant instead of having to be under the hand and seal of the authorised justice.

LAKE ILLAWARRA AUTHORITY ACT 1987 No. 285Amendments*Schedule 3 (Provisions relating to members of the Authority):

- (a) Omit clause 1 (Age of members).
- (b) Omit clause 6 (1) (e).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments remove the restriction that prevents a person who is of or above the age of 70 years from being eligible to be appointed as, or from continuing to hold office as, a member of the Lake Illawarra Authority.

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedLAND TAX MANAGEMENT ACT 1956 No. 26*Amendment

Section 54C:

After section 54B, insert:

Land values for 1991 and 1992 to be frozen at 1990 levels

54C. (1) This section applies for the purpose of determining land value in relation to the years commencing on 1 January 1991 and 1 January 1992 ("the 1991 and 1992 tax years") and applies despite section 54.

(2) If land had a land value in relation to the year that commenced on 1 January 1990, the land value of the land in relation to the 1991 and 1992 tax years is to be the same as the land value of the land in relation to the year that commenced on 1 January 1990.

(3) A valuation of land under section 54 (1) (d) or (1A) in respect of the 1991 and 1992 tax years is to be made as if it were a valuation for the purposes of land tax to be levied in respect of the year commencing on 1 January 1990.

Commencement

The amendment to the Land Tax Management Tax 1956 is taken to have commenced on 31 December 1990 (the commencement of the Land Tax Management (Further Amendment) Act 1990).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Land Tax Management Act 1956 is consequential on the amendment made by the Land Tax Management (Further Amendment) Act 1990 whereby an across the board increase of 17% was imposed on 1990 taxable land values for the purposes of the 1991 and 1992 tax years. The proposed amendment will limit the increase to the intended 17% by removing an anomaly whereby the 17% increase would have been imposed on top of a general increase brought about by a general revaluation in some areas. The proposed amendment will achieve this by "freezing" land values at their 1990 values for the purposes of the application of the 17% increase.

- (c) From clause 1 (7) (h), omit “subclause (8); or”, insert instead “subclause (8).”.
- (d) Omit clause 1 (7) (i).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments remove the restriction that prevents a person who is of or above the age of 65 years from being eligible to be appointed as, or from continuing to hold office as, an appointed member of the Rental Bond Board.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT 1919 No. 41Amendments*(1) Section 160AA (Reduction of rates payable by certain classes of pensioners):

- (b) From paragraph (b) (iv) of the definition of “eligible pensioner” in section 160AA (1), omit “Department of Social Security or the Commonwealth Department of Veterans’ Affairs”, insert instead “Government”.

(2) Section 290 (Control and regulation):

At the end of the section, insert:

- (2) The council may fix a fee for the inspection, for the purposes of this Division, of premises referred to in subsection (1) (a), (c) or (d). The fee is to be fixed in accordance with section 167 and may be demanded and recovered in the same way as a fee for the supply of a service may be demanded and recovered under Division 3 of Part 7.

(3) Section 582A (Exculpation from liability—flood liable land and land in coastal zone):

- (a) After section 582A (1), insert:
 - (1A) A council shall not incur any liability in respect of:
 - (a) any advice furnished in good faith by the council relating to the likelihood of any land in the coastal zone being affected by a coastline hazard (as described in a manual referred to in subsection (4) (b)) or the nature or extent of any such hazard; or
 - (b) anything done or omitted to be done in good faith by the council in so far as it relates to the likelihood of land being so affected.
- (b) From section 582A (2) and (3), omit “subsection (1)” wherever occurring, insert instead “subsections (1) and (1A)”.
- (c) From section 582A (2) (e), omit “and”.
- (d) After section 582A (2) (e), insert:
 - (e1) the carrying out of coastal management works; and
- (e) From section 582A (3), omit “published under subsection (4)”, insert instead “referred to in subsection (4)”.
- (f) Omit section 582A (4), insert instead:
 - (4) For the purposes of this section, the Minister for Planning may, from time to time, publish a notice in the Gazette of publication of:
 - (a) a manual relating to the development of flood liable land; or
 - (b) a manual relating to the management of the coastline, and specifying a place where a copy of the manual is deposited.
 - (4A) The copy of the manual is to be available for public inspection, without charge, during ordinary office hours.
- (g) From section 582A (6), omit “This section”, insert instead “A provision of this section”.

*Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—continued

- (h) From section 582A (6), omit “this section” wherever occurring, insert instead “the provision”.
- (i) After section 582A (6), insert:
 - (7) In this section:
 - “coastal zone” has the meaning it has in the Coastal Protection Act 1979.
- (4) Section 644 (Demanding name of offender):
 - (a) After “Act” in section 644 (1), insert “or section 8F of the Environmental Offences and Penalties Act 1989”.
 - (b) After “Part IX” in section 644 (1), insert “or in respect of any offence under section 8F of the Environmental Offences and Penalties Act 1989”.

Validation

A notice of publication of a manual relating to the development of flood liable land that:

- (a) was published in the Gazette before the date of assent to this Act; and
- (b) would have been validly published if section 582A of the Local Government Act 1919 (as amended by this Act) was then in force, is taken to have been validly published under that section as so amended.

Explanatory noteDefinition of “eligible pensioner” (item (1))

The proposed amendments to section 160AA will ensure that the definition correctly describes the source of pensioner health benefits cards and pensioner medical service entitlement cards referred to in the definition.

Fees for inspection (item (2))

The proposed amendment to section 290 makes it clear that a council may fix a fee for inspection of certain premises used for the storage, sale or preparation of food (for example, premises used for the storage of meat and restaurants) in the same way that it may fix a fee for other services. Section 290 empowers the council to regulate and control such premises. This was formerly done by the licensing of the premises under Ordinance Nos. 56 (Premises used for the sale of meat, fish, poultry, game and smallgoods) and 69 (Refreshment rooms). Since the repeal of those Ordinances, it has been done through a system of inspections.

Exculpation of liability relating to management of the coastline (item (3))

At present, section 582A protects councils acting in good faith from liability in respect of flood liable land. In particular, a council is protected if it gives advice, or does or omits to do something, substantially in accordance with a manual relating to the development of flood liable land published as required by the section. The proposed amendments will give similar protection to councils in respect of advice given concerning coastline hazards (such as beach erosion and cliff instability) described in a similar manual relating to management of the coastline and for acts done or omitted to be done in respect of management of the coastline.

Manuals relating to development of flood liable land (item (3) (e) and (f))

The proposed amendments enable the Minister for Planning to publish notice of publication of a manual relating to the development of flood liable land in the Gazette. At present, the whole manual must be published in the Gazette.

Provision is also made to validate the publication of such a notice before the commencement of the amendment.

Littering (item (4))

The Environmental Offences and Penalties (Amendment) Act 1990 repealed Division 5A (Depositing litter prohibited) of Part 10 of the Local Government Act 1919 and re-enacted the provisions (with minor modifications) as section 8F of the Environmental Offences and Penalties Act 1989. Under section 644 (1) (a) of the Local Government Act 1919 (as in force before the amendments took effect) an employee of the council or police officer was empowered to demand from a person committing an offence against the Division his or her name and address and, if this information was withheld, to take the person before a court of summary jurisdiction. The proposed amendment will restore this power in respect of littering offences as re-enacted in section 8F.

The proposed amendments to section 11 (3) and 12 (1) will enable costs (which may be awarded to a party to proceedings for the recovery of penalties or long service leave pay under the Act) to be assessed by the industrial magistrate or Local Court concerned rather than in accordance with a scale fixed by the Industrial Commission.

LOTTO ACT 1979 No. 53

Amendments

(1) Section 7 (Alteration of conditions of licence):

Omit section 7 (3), insert instead:

(3) An alteration under subsection (1) takes effect:

- (a) on the day that is 8 days after the day on which a notice, signed by the Minister, advising the licensee of the alteration is given to the licensee; or
- (b) if a later day is specified in the notice, on that day.

(2) Section 13 (Application of subscriptions):

Omit section 13 (1), insert instead:

(1) Out of the subscriptions received by a licensee in respect of games of lotto conducted by the licensee, the licensee must:

- (a) pay into the prize fund kept in respect of the licensee an amount which, when added to any amount already applied by the licensee to the payment of prizes won in those games, is equal to a percentage, prescribed by the conditions of the licence, of the subscriptions for those games; and
- (b) pay to the Minister, as duty, an amount equal to a percentage, prescribed by the conditions of the licence, of the subscriptions for those games.

Explanatory noteTime when alteration of conditions of licence takes effect (item (1))

Under section 7 of the Lotto Act 1979 the Minister may alter the conditions of a licence. The alterations take effect "on and from the expiration of 7 days after the day" on which notice in writing advising the licensee of the alteration is given. The proposed amendment to section 7 will recast the existing provision so that it is clear that the alteration takes effect 8 days after notice is given and will also enable the Minister to specify in the notice a later day on which an alteration is to take effect.

Application of subscriptions (item (2))

The proposed amendment to section 13 will:

- (a) enable contributions to the prize fund kept in respect of a licensee under the Lotto Act 1979 to be calculated as a percentage of the subscriptions received by the licensee in respect of a number of games of lotto rather than, as is currently the case, in respect of a single game only; and

- (b) ensure that, when calculating the amount of any such contribution, regard is had to any amounts already paid by the licensee to prizewinners in those games.

MARINE ADMINISTRATION ACT 1989 No. 93

Amendment

Section 44 (Payments into the Fund):

From section 44 (b), omit “recovered on informations laid”, insert instead “recovered in prosecutions brought”.

Explanatory note

Section 44 (b) of the Marine Administration Act 1989 provides for the payment into the Maritime Services Board Fund of fines and penalties recovered for offences against the marine legislation (which as defined in the Act includes the Marine Pollution Act 1987). In its present form, section 44 (b) describes the fines and penalties that may be recovered by reference to those recovered on information laid by officers of the Maritime Services Board.

The provision needs to be recast so that it applies to all fines and penalties recovered by officers of the Board under the Marine Pollution Act 1987. Under that Act, proceedings may be dealt with summarily before a Local Court (before which prosecutions are commenced by information) or the Land and Environment Court (before which prosecutions are commenced by summons). As a result, fines and penalties recovered in the Local Court are payable into the Fund but not those recovered in the Land and Environment Court.

The proposed amendment will ensure all such fines and penalties are paid into the Fund.

The amended provision will read (in part) as follows:

44. There shall be paid into the Fund:

.....

- (b) all fines and penalties recovered for offences against the marine legislation and which are required by that legislation to be paid to the Board or are recovered on informations laid recovered in prosecutions brought by officers of the Board; and

[Matter to be omitted is shown in italic type and matter to be inserted is shown in bold type.]

In section 30D (1) after “regulation”, insert “or any prescribed offence under the Commercial Vessels Act 1979 or a regulation under that Act,”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment will enable penalty notices (“on-the-spot” fines) to be issued under the Maritime Services Act 1935 for prescribed offences against the Commercial Vessels Act 1979 and the regulations made under that Act.

MOTOR ACCIDENTS ACT 1988 No. 102Amendments*(1) Section 10 (Issue of certificate of insurance):

After section 10 (3), insert:

(4) If 2 or more licensed insurers issue certificates of insurance which (but for this subsection) would be capable of having effect at the same time in respect of the same motor vehicle, a third-party policy is taken to have been issued only by the licensed insurer recorded by the Roads and Traffic Authority in connection with the registration or renewal of registration of the motor vehicle or issue of a trader’s plate as being the insurer.

(2) Section 12:

Omit the section, insert instead:

Commencement and duration of third-party policy

12. (1) A third-party policy taken to have been issued for a motor vehicle (other than a third-party policy taken to have been issued for motor vehicles to which a trader’s plate is or is to be fixed) has no effect during any period for which the motor vehicle is not registered, except as provided by subsection (4).

(2) In the case of the registration (but not the renewal of registration) of a motor vehicle, a third-party policy taken to have been issued for the motor vehicle takes effect:

- (a) at the beginning of the day on which the registration takes effect; or
- (b) when the certificate of insurance for that third-party policy is issued,

whichever is the later.

(3) In the case of the renewal of registration of a motor vehicle, a third-party policy taken to have been issued for the motor vehicle takes effect:

- (a) at the beginning of the day on which the renewal takes effect; or
- (b) when the certificate of insurance for that third-party policy is issued,

whichever is the later.

(4) If the renewal of registration of a motor vehicle is effected:

- (a) within 15 days after the date on which the previous registration (whether or not a renewal of registration) expired; or
- (b) during the named month in which that previous registration expired,

the third-party policy which had effect during that previous registration continues (to any necessary extent) to have effect until the third-party policy necessary to enable the renewal of that previous registration takes effect in accordance with subsection (3).

(5) If the renewal of registration of a motor vehicle is effected:

- (a) later than 15 days after the date on which the previous registration (whether or not a renewal of registration) expired; or

Premiums for insurance

8. For the purpose of enabling a licensed insurer, before 1 July 1991, to accept a premium and issue a certificate of insurance in relation to a period of insurance which commences on or after that date, section 10 (as proposed to be substituted by the Motor Accidents (Amendment) Act 1990) is taken to have commenced on the date of assent to that Act.

Commencement and duration of third-party policy (item (2))

The proposed amendment restates the circumstances in which a compulsory third-party policy is to have effect.

Liability for trailers (items (3), (4), (5) and (7))

The proposed amendments are intended to clarify the liability for death or personal injury caused by a trailer which is attached to a towing vehicle or which runs out of control having become detached from the towing vehicle. Two situations are addressed. First, a trailer (whether a New South Wales registered trailer or not) attached to, or which has become detached from, a New South Wales registered vehicle is covered under the third-party policy relating to the vehicle (item (7)). Australia the damage is caused, is covered under a policy of insurance taken to have been issued by the Nominal Defendant and which gives a statutory right of action against the Nominal Defendant analogous to the right of action given against the Nominal Defendant for damage caused by an uninsured vehicle (item (3)). Items (4) and (5) make consequential amendments.

Indexation of amounts relating to non-economic loss (item (6))

The proposed amendment provides for the rounding-off of the indexed amounts which may be awarded as damages for non-economic loss.

Savings and transitional provisions (item (8))

The amendment made by item (8) (a) will enable the making of savings and transitional regulations consequent on the enactment of the Motor Accidents (Amendment) Act 1990 and the proposed Act.

The amendment made by item (8) (b) will enable the granting of a new licence before 1 July 1991 but only so as to enable the licensee to write third-party insurance for periods of insurance which commence on or after 1 July 1991.

Proposed clause 7 of Schedule 4 to be inserted by the amendment made by item (8) (c) applies the deregulated insurance arrangements to registrations and renewals of registrations which expire on or after 1 July 1991. Without this provision, the amendments made by the Motor Accidents (Amendment) Act 1990 would have applied to registrations and renewals of registrations which expired on 30 June 1991.

Proposed clause 8 of Schedule 4 to be inserted by the amendment made by item (8) (c) will enable a third-party insurer, prior to the commencement on 1 July 1991 of the substituted section 10 of the Motor Accidents Act 1988, to accept premiums and issue certificates of insurance which are to have effect on and after that date.

The proposed amendments will enable the Minister, by order published in the Gazette, to set standards for the grading, packaging and labelling of fruit, vegetables and other plants. At present, these standards are prescribed by regulations and largely adopt by reference orders made under the Export Control Act 1982 of the Commonwealth.

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—continued

Proposed section 28A (4) will ensure that the orders will be subject to Parliamentary scrutiny and disallowance as if they were regulations.

POLICE REGULATION (SUPERANNUATION) ACT
1906 No. 28

Amendments

Section 17 (Refund of deductions):

- (a) After “discharge” in section 17 (1) (a) (i), insert “(but not dismissal)”.
- (b) From section 17 (1) (a) (ii), omit “resignation or discharge”, insert instead “resignation, dismissal or discharge”.

Commencement

The amendments to the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906 are taken to have commenced on 1 July 1990.

Explanatory note

Section 17 of the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906 provides for a refund of deductions of personal contributions with interest in certain circumstances where a police officer who is a member of the Scheme established by the Act withdraws from the Scheme as a result of resignation, dismissal or discharge before reaching retirement age or being retired due to incapacity.

The section was amended by Schedule 1 (18) to the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Amendment Act 1988 to entitle a police officer who resigns or is discharged from the police service on or after 1 July 1990 to be paid interest on his or her contributions at the rate fixed by the State Authorities Superannuation Board under section 16 of the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987. The provision as so amended should also require interest to be paid to a police officer who is dismissed on or after 1 July 1990 so as to meet the operating standards for superannuation funds laid down by the Occupational Superannuation Standards Act 1987 of the Commonwealth and the regulations made under that Act. The proposed amendment will ensure that the provision meets the relevant standard.

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedPOULTRY PROCESSING ACT 1969 No. 45*Amendment*Section 5 (Appointment of inspectors):

Omit section 5 (1), insert instead:

(1) The Director-General of the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries may appoint a member of the Public Service of New South Wales or of the Public Service of the Commonwealth as an inspector for the purposes of this Act.

Transitional

A person whose appointment as an inspector under section 5 of the Poultry Processing Act 1969 was in force immediately before the date of assent to this Act is taken to have been appointed to be an inspector under that section as amended by this Act.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment enables the Director-General of the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries to appoint Commonwealth employees to be inspectors for the purposes of the Act. The amendment will ensure that effect can be given to an agreement between the Commonwealth and New South Wales relating to the provision of a domestic inspection service for the registration of plants in which poultry is processed for sale which came into operation on 4 March 1991.

PRISONS ACT 1952 No. 9Amendment*Section 16 (Medical attention):

Explanatory note

As a result of amendments to the Prisons Act 1952 made by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No. 2) 1990, one or more medical officers (instead of just one medical officer) can be appointed for each prison. The proposed amendment is consequential on those amendments and will enable a medical officer of the prison concerned to exercise the functions under section 16 (which relate to medical attention of prisoners and prison officers).

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedPRIVATE IRRIGATION DISTRICTS ACT 1973 No. 47*Amendments

- (1) Omit section 54, insert instead:

Interest on overdue rates and charges

54. (1) A Board may charge interest:

- (a) on overdue rates and charges assessed under this Part;
and
- (b) on any overdue amount payable to it under an agreement referred to in section 65,

at a rate not exceeding the rate for the time being applicable under section 85 of the District Court Act 1973 to a judgment debt.

- (2) The Board may not charge interest on unpaid interest under this Part.

- (2) Section 67 (Supply of water for irrigation purposes to a new holding resulting from a subdivision):

- (a) From section 67 (1), omit "one".

- (b) After section 67 (1), insert:

(1A) If the owner nominates more than one new holding to which the quantity of water is to be allocated, the Board may allocate the water to those holdings in such proportions as it determines.

- (c) Omit section 67 (2), insert instead:

(2) The Board may allocate to such of the new holdings as the Board determines the quantity of water last allocated to the holding that was subdivided if:

- (a) the owner of the subdivided holding fails to make a nomination within the time specified by the Board in a notice sent by post to the owner at the owner's last known address; or
- (b) a holding nominated by the owner does not contain land capable of being irrigated from the works of the private district or to which, in the opinion of the Board, it is impracticable to convey water for irrigation from those works; or

(c) a holding nominated by the owner is too small to justify an allocation of water; or

(d) the allocation of water in the manner nominated is otherwise detrimental to the administration of the private district concerned.

(2A) If the Board makes an allocation under subsection (2), it is to notify the owner of the holding that was subdivided and the owner of each new holding of the allocation.

Commencement

The amendments to the Private Irrigation Districts Act 1973 commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

Item (1) of the amendments to the Private Irrigation Districts Act 1973 does not apply to rates, charges or amounts that were overdue before the commencement of the amendment.

Explanatory noteInterest on overdue rates etc. (item (1))

At present, overdue rates, charges or amounts that are payable to the Board of Management for a provisional private district or a private irrigation district are increased at a rate of interest fixed by the Reserve Bank for overdrafts. The proposed amendment to section 54 enables such a Board to charge interest on overdue rates, charges and amounts at the rate which the District Court applies to judgment debts. The provision is similar to those applicable to unpaid amounts due to the Water Board and Water Supply Authorities.

Supply of water after subdivision (item (2))

At present, when an irrigated holding is subdivided the Board of Management concerned is required to allocate the whole of the water allocated to the holding to one of the holdings created by the subdivision. The proposed amendments to section 67 will enable the Board to allocate the subdivided holding's allocation to more than one of the new holdings created by the subdivision if so nominated by the owner (item (2) (a) and (b)).

The proposed amendments to section 67 also widen the existing discretion of the Board to refuse to allocate water to the new holdings nominated by the owner and to allocate instead to a holding determined by the Board. The discretion may be exercised if the nominated holding is too small to justify an allocation of water or the allocation of water in the manner nominated by the owner is detrimental to the administration of the private district concerned (item (2) (c)).

1989 No. 106*Amendment

Section 56 (Transfer of benefit from other schemes to Fund):

After “scheme” in section 56 (1), insert “or under an approved deposit fund”.

Commencement

The amendment to the Public Sector Executives Superannuation Act 1989 is taken to have commenced on 1 October 1989 (the day on which section 56 of that Act commenced).

Explanatory note

Section 56 of the Public Sector Executives Superannuation Act 1989 enables a person who elects to join the Scheme established by that Act to pay a benefit received under another superannuation scheme into the Public Sector Executives Superannuation Fund. Such an amount will not be assessable under sections 27B and 27C of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the Commonwealth. The proposed amendment will enable a person who elects to join the Scheme to also pay into the Fund a benefit received or amount held to his or her credit in an approved deposit fund.

The amendment accords with the operating standards for superannuation funds laid down by the Occupational Superannuation Standards Act 1987 of the Commonwealth and the regulations made under that Act which also permit payment out of an approved deposit fund into another superannuation fund.

Removal of age restrictions (item (3))

The proposed amendments to Schedule 1:

- (a) remove the restriction that prevents a person from being eligible to be appointed as, or from continuing to hold office as, a full-time member of the Residential Tenancies Tribunal if the person is of or above the age of 65 years, or as a part-time member of the Tribunal if the person is of or above the age of 70 years; and

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedCommencement

Item (1) of the amendments to the State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Act 1987 is taken to have commenced on 1 April 1988 (the commencement of that Act).

Items (2) and (3) of the amendments to the State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Act 1987 is taken to have commenced on 1 October 1989 (the commencement of the Miscellaneous Acts (Public Sector Executives Superannuation) Amendment Act 1989).

Explanatory noteSalary (item (1))

Section 4 of the State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Act 1987 sets out the remuneration, salary or wages included in the term "salary" for the purposes of the Act. A relieving allowance is included in "salary" only if the employee has been in receipt of the relieving allowance for "a continuous period of 1 year". The proposed amendments to section 4 will clarify the meaning of "year" for the purposes of the section in relation to employees of educational institutions. In this context, "year" is to be defined in terms of the academic year for the institution concerned.

Similar amendments to the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987 and the Superannuation Act 1916 are set out elsewhere in this Schedule.

Preservation of benefits (items (2) and (3))

The Miscellaneous Acts (Public Sector Executives Superannuation) Amendment Act 1989 amended section 24 of the Act to make provision relating to calculation of the basic benefit to be preserved until early retirement age or transferred to the Public Sector Executives Superannuation Scheme at the election (made within 12 months of appointment or nomination) of a public sector executive. The proposed amendments recast the provisions concerned to remove possible ambiguity in the description of the public sector executives concerned. The proposed amendments to section 4 will clarify the meaning of “year” for the purposes of the section in relation to employees of educational institutions. In this context, “year” is to be defined in terms of the academic year for the institution concerned.

Similar amendments to the State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Act 1987 and the Superannuation Act 1916 are set out elsewhere in this Schedule.

b is:

(c) After subsection (2), insert:

(3) Any Index number published by the Commonwealth Statistician at any time (and whether before or after the commencement of this subsection) in respect of a particular June quarter in substitution for an Index number previously published in respect of that quarter is to be disregarded for the purpose of ascertaining the value of the expression “b” in the formula in subsection (1), unless the Minister gives a direction to the contrary. If the Minister gives such a direction, the later Index number is to be used in the formula whenever it is applied after the direction has been given.

(4) If, however, after the commencement of subsection (3), the Commonwealth Statistician changes the reference base for the Consumer Price Index (All Groups Index) for Sydney, then, for the purpose of ascertaining the value of the expression “b” in the formula in subsection (1), Index numbers published in terms of the new reference base are to be used whenever the formula is applied after the change of reference base.

allowance for “a continuous period of 1 year”. The proposed amendments to section 3A will clarify the meaning of “year” for the purposes of the section in relation to employees of educational institutions. In this context, “year” is to be defined in terms of the academic year for the institution concerned.

The amendments are based on Regulation 18 of the Superannuation Regulations (which is to be repealed). Similar amendments to the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987 and the State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Act 1987 are set out elsewhere in this Schedule.

Changes in Consumer Price Index (item (2))

Item (2) of the proposed amendments amends section 12 (dealing with units of pension) in relation to the number of what are called “additional units” toward which a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund must contribute. The number of such units is (for all but very small salaries) indexed according to the Consumer Price Index, but no provision has been made to take account of a possible withdrawal of an Index by the Commonwealth Statistician and the issue of a revised Index. The amendment makes appropriate provision of this kind, in line with similar provision made elsewhere in the Act in relation to indexed benefits.

Repeal of section 52K (item (3)).

Section 52K enables purchase of fully paid units by a person who has preserved benefits and subsequently re-enters the Scheme as a new contributor. The provision is to be repealed because this has not been possible since 1 July 1985 when the Scheme was closed to new entrants (see the Superannuation (Scheme Closure) Amendment Act 1985).

- * indicates repeal of amending Act whose provisions have been included in a reprint and which contains no provision of substantive effect that needs to be retained or which amends a repealed Act
-  indicates repeal of Act that is no longer of public utility
-  indicates repeal of Act containing uncommenced provisions

Explanatory note

The repeals are explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to this Act. In relation to the repeal of amending Acts, it should be noted that the Acts are repealed simply to rationalise the legislation in force and that the repeals have no substantive effect on the amendments made by the Acts or any associated provisions.

Section 30 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1987 ensures that when an amending Act is repealed no amendment made by the Act is affected. Section 30 (2) also ensures that the following matters are not affected:

- (a) the proof of any past act or thing;
 - (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability saved by the operation of the Act;
 - (c) any validation made by the Act.

SCHEDULE 4—GENERAL SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND OTHER PROVISIONS

(Sec. 5)

Effect of amendment of amending provisions

1. (1) An amendment made by Schedule 2 to an amending provision contained in an Act will, if the amending provision has commenced before the date of assent to this Act, be taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision.

(2) In this clause:

“amending provision”, means a provision of an Act, or of any other instrument, being a provision that has commenced and that makes a direct amendment of an Act by:

- (a) the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter; or
- (b) the omission of matter contained in the amended Act and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter; or
- (c) the insertion into the amended Act of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act, whether the provision was enacted before or after the commencement of the Reprints Act 1972.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that amendments correcting errors in the technical provisions (for example, headings indicating the section to be amended or directions as to where a new section is to be inserted) will commence on the date the amendments to which they relate commenced.

Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made

2. Except where it is expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act:

- (a) amends a provision of an Act; or
- (b) repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act, any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

SCHEDULE 4—GENERAL SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND
OTHER PROVISIONS—*continued

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly otherwise provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.

Regulations

3. (1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.

(2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.

(3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:

- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication; or
- (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Explanatory note

This clause enables the making of regulations of a transitional or saving nature having a short term effect relating to incidental matters arising out of the proposed Act with regard to which no specific, or sufficient, provision has been made in the Act.

Commencement

The proposed amendments to the Annual Holidays Act 1944 commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

Item (3) (a) of the amendments to the Annual Holidays Act 1944 does not apply to proceedings (being proceedings in respect of an order for the payment of holiday pay) commenced before that paragraph commences.

Explanatory note

Awarding of costs (items (1) (e) and (2) (c))

The proposed amendments to sections 12 (3) and 13 (1) enable costs (which may be awarded to a party to proceedings for the recovery of penalties or holiday pay under the Act) to be assessed by the industrial magistrate or Local Court concerned rather than in accordance with a scale fixed by the Industrial Commission.

Inspectors (item (1) (b), (f))

The proposed amendments to section 12 (1) and (4) provide that inspectors (who are appointed under the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940) may institute proceedings for recovering penalties imposed by the Act or regulations without needing the authority of the Minister.

Orders for interest (item (3) (a))

The proposed amendment to section 14 applies the provisions of the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 relating to the making of orders for payment of interest on money due under that Act to proceedings under the Annual Holidays Act 1944 in respect of an order directing the payment of holiday pay under that Act.

Statute law revision

The remaining amendments to the Act update references to courts of petty sessions and stipendiary magistrates as a consequence of the Local Courts Act 1982.

Explanatory noteClaims for service credits (item (1))

Section 21 of the Building and Construction Industry Long Service Payments Act 1986 enables a subcontract worker to claim service credits in the building industry on which entitlement to long service payments are based.

The proposed amendments will extend the periods within which such a claim may be made by 9 months. A claim will be able to be made within 12 months after the end of the financial year during which the worker performed building and construction work or, if the worker has permanently ceased such work, within 12 months after the cessation of work.

The proposed amendments will also enable the Building and Construction Industry Long Service Payments Corporation (“the Corporation”) to extend the period in which claims may be lodged in any class of cases (at present, it may only do so in a particular case).

Statute law revision (item (2))

Section 28 of the Act provides for “long service payments”. The proposed amendment will correct a reference to “long service leave payments” by omitting the word “leave”.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedPayments to employers (item (3))

Section 32 requires the Corporation to reimburse an employer who provides a registered worker under the Act with any benefits arising under the Long Service Leave Act 1955 or under reciprocal arrangements. CHILDREN (CARE AND PROTECTION) ACT 1987 No. 54Amendments(1) Section 21 (Special medical examinations):

Omit the definition of “special medical examination” from section 21 (12), insert instead:

“special medical examination” means:

- (b) a penile examination involving the insertion of any thing into the penis, and includes any such examination carried out in the course of a medical examination under section 23.

(2) Section 71B:

Before section 72, insert:

Definition

71B. In this Division:

“cultural” includes ethnic, religious and linguistic.

(3) Section 74 (Assessment reports):

After section 74 (4), insert:

(5) A person who fails to comply with an order made under subsection (4) is guilty of an offence.

(4) Schedule 2 (Constitution of the Children’s Review Panel):

(a) After “resignation;” in clause 7 (1) (a), insert “and”.

(b) From clause 7 (1) (b) (ii), omit “body; and”, insert instead “body,”.

(c) Omit clause 7 (1) (c).

Commencement

The amendments to the Children (Care and Protection) Act 1987 commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Explanatory noteStatute law revision (item (1))

Section 21 (12) of the Act defines “special medical examination” as “a vaginal or anal examination or a penile examination involving the insertion of any thing into the penis”. The proposed amendment recasts the definition to make it clear that the reference to a vaginal or anal examination includes an examination involving the insertion of any thing into the vagina or anus (the specific reference to the insertion of a thing into the penis might otherwise be read as implying that such an examination is excluded in the case of a vagina or anus).

Care application (item (2))

In considering a care application in respect of a child, the Children’s Court is required to have regard (in addition to various other matters) to “the importance of preserving the particular cultural environment of the child” (section 72 (2)(d)). Associated provisions in sections 73 and 74 make reference to the Court taking into account a child’s “cultural group” and possible conflicts of “cultural factors”. Proposed section 71B will insert a definition of “cultural” to make it clear that the references to “cultural” in these provisions include also ethnic, religious and linguistic elements. The amendment will ensure consistency with the Convention on the Rights of the Child which was adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 20 November 1989.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedBreach of orders relating to assessment reports (item (3))

Under section 74 of the Act, the Children's Court may make orders to prevent a child from becoming aware of information contained in an assessment report if the prejudicial effect of the child being unaware of the information would be outweighed by the likely psychological harm to the child if the child became aware of the information. The proposed amendment will make it an offence against the Act to fail to comply with such an order.

Removal of age restrictions (item (4))

The proposed amendments provide that the full-time President of the Children's Review Panel, who at present is entitled to return to public sector employment in certain circumstances, is not prevented from doing so because of his or her age.

CHILDREN (CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS) ACT 1987 No. 55Amendments*(1) Section 31 (Hearing of charges in the Children's Court):

From section 31 (4), omit "and to the Attorney General".

(2) Section 33 (Penalties):

From section 33 (1) (c), omit "$500", insert instead "10 penalty units".

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to section 31 removes the requirement for the Children's Court to furnish to the Attorney General a statement of the reasons for its decision to commit a person for trial instead of dealing with the matter summarily. The provision is superfluous as the Attorney General no longer exercises the functions which formerly necessitated its inclusion in section 31 (item (1)).

The proposed amendment to section 33 increases, from $500 to 10 penalty units (which is currently $1,000), the maximum fine that the Children's Court can impose on a person found by the court to be guilty of an offence (item (2)).

COAL MINING ACT 1973 No. 81

AmendmentSection 76 (Liability to pay royalty):

Omit section 76 (2), insert instead:

(2) If royalty is paid or recovered in respect of coal or a mineral (being, in either case, coal or a mineral neither owned by nor reserved to the Crown), the Minister is to pay to the owner of the coal or mineral the amount of the royalty (together with any interest on the royalty that has been paid or recovered), less an amount equal to one-eighth of the amount of the royalty, which is to be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Commencement

The amendment is taken to have commenced on 22 June 1990 (the day on which the Coal Ownership (Restitution) Act 1990 commenced).

Explanatory note

Section 76 (2) of the Coal Mining Act 1973 originally provided (in terms similar to those of the proposed provision) for the payment of royalty to owners of privately owned coal. The original provision was amended as a consequence of the enactment of the Coal Acquisition Act 1981 to reflect the fact that all privately owned coal was, by that Act, vested in the Crown. The Coal Ownership (Restitution) Act 1990 provides that coal may now be granted back to certain of the persons by whom it was previously owned. For those persons who are granted coal to receive royalty in respect of the mining of the coal, it is necessary to amend section 76 (2) of the Coal Mining Act 1973 to restore its original effect.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedCOMMERCIAL VESSELS ACT 1979 No. 41*Amendment*Section 30I (Revalidation of certificates):

After section 30I (5), insert:

(6) The regulations may provide for the payment of specified fees in respect of an application for revalidation of a certificate of competency and may provide for different fees according to such different factors as are prescribed.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment makes it clear that regulations may be made with respect to fees for revalidation of certificates of competency by the Maritime Services Board. The provision is similar to section 30G of the Act which enables such regulations to be made with respect to applications for certificates of competency.

COMPENSATION COURT ACT 1984 No. 89Amendment*Section 32 (Appeals from Court):

From section 32 (3) (b), omit "$5,000", insert instead "$10,000".

Transitional

The amendment to the Compensation Court Act 1984 does not apply to an appeal commenced before the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note

At present, if an appeal to the Supreme Court from a decision of the Compensation Court involves an amount of compensation less than $5,000, the appeal lies by leave of the Supreme Court rather than as of right. The proposed amendment increases that amount so that it will be necessary to obtain the leave of the Supreme Court if the amount of compensation involved in the appeal is less than $10,000.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedCONSTITUTION ACT 1902 No. 32*Amendments*Section 9I (Governor's salary):

- (a) From section 9I (2), omit “, but may be made only on the advice of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the full Executive Council”.
- (b) Omit section 9I (3).

Explanatory note

Section 9I of the Constitution Act 1902 provides that the annual salary of the Governor is $80,000 or such greater amount as is determined by regulation. At present, such a regulation can be made only on the advice of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the full Executive Council, with no more than 3 members absent. The proposed amendment will omit this requirement.

CRIMES ACT 1900 No. 40Amendments

- (1) Section 405D (Closed-circuit television may be used for giving child victim's evidence):

Omit section 405D (2), insert instead:

(2) If the court is not equipped with closed-circuit television facilities or it otherwise considers it appropriate to do so, the court may, for the purpose of permitting the child's evidence to be given by means of such facilities, adjourn the proceedings or any part of them to a court that is equipped with such facilities.

(2A) If, pursuant to an order under subsection (1), a child's evidence is permitted to be given from other premises:

- (a) the court may also order a court officer to be present at those other premises, or any other person to be present with the child as a support or interpreter, or both; and
- (b) those other premises are taken to be part of the court in which the proceedings are being held.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—continued(2) Section 405F (Alternative arrangements for child victim's evidence):

(a) After "adjournment of" in section 405F (2) (c), insert "the proceedings or".

(b) After section 405F (2), insert:

(2A) Any premises to which proceedings are adjourned for the purposes of subsection (2) are taken to be part of the court in which the proceedings are being held.

(3) Section 405G (Premises to be considered part of court):

Omit the section.

Commencement

The proposed amendments to the Crimes Act 1900 commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Explanatory note

At present, in criminal proceedings in which it is alleged that the accused person has committed a prescribed sexual offence on a child, the court may make an order under section 405D of the Crimes Act 1900 permitting the child's evidence to be given by means of closed-circuit television facilities.

The proposed amendment to section 405D makes it clear that if the court is not equipped with closed-circuit television facilities or it is otherwise appropriate to do so, the court may adjourn the whole of the proceedings (and not just part of them) to another court for the purpose of the child giving evidence by means of closed-circuit television facilities. The proposed amendment to that section also restates the existing provision that other premises from which a child's evidence can be given are taken to be part of the court (item (1)).

The proposed amendments to section 405F enable a court to adjourn all of the proceedings (instead of just part of them) to other premises if the court gives a direction under that section for alternative arrangements to be made for the giving of evidence by a child victim and also restate the existing provision that those premises are taken to be part of the court (item (2)).

Section 405G is to be repealed as a consequence of the proposed amendments to sections 405D and 405F (item (3)).

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—continued

CRIMINAL APPEAL ACT 1912 No. 16

Amendments(1) Section 2 (Definitions):

From the definition of “Sentence” in section 2 (1), omit “, or his”, insert instead “or any”.

(2) Section 10 (Time for appealing):

(a) From section 10 (1), omit “ten”, insert instead “28”.

(b) From section 10 (4), omit “10”, insert instead “28”.

Transitional

The amendments to section 10 of the Criminal Appeal Act 1912 do not apply to an appeal in respect of which the period for giving notice has expired before the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory noteDefinition of “sentence” (item (1))

At present, the definition of “sentence” includes any order made by the court of trial on conviction with reference to the person convicted, or his property. The proposed amendment to section 2 makes it clear that the order can refer to any property and not just that of the person to whom the conviction relates.

Time for appealing (item (2))

The proposed amendments to section 10 extend, from 10 to 28 days, the time within which a person is required to give notice of an appeal, or notice of an application for leave to appeal, to the Court of Criminal Appeal against a conviction or sentence.

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedCRIMINAL PROCEDURE ACT 1986 No. 209*Amendments*Section 8 (Listing):

In section 8 (1) and (1A), after “criminal proceedings” wherever occurring, insert “that are to be heard and determined”.

Explanatory note

At present, the Criminal Listing Director can make arrangements for the listing of criminal proceedings “before” the Supreme Court or the District Court. The proposed amendments make it clear that the proceedings concerned are proceedings that are to be heard and determined before those courts.

CROWN AND OTHER ROADS ACT 1990 No. 54Amendments

- (1) Section 6 (Notice to be given of an intention to open a road over prescribed land):

From section 6 (2) (c), omit “at that office on or before that date or within that period”, insert instead “with the relevant compensating authority in accordance with section 14”.

- (2) Section 19 (Compensation to be determined by the local land board when the parties cannot agree):

From section 19 (1), omit “accepting the claimant’s claim in principle”, insert instead “informing the claimant that the Minister has determined to acquire the interest in land”.

- (3) Section 38 (Power of Minister to re-mark road):

From section 38 (2), omit “section 37”, insert instead “subsection (1)”.

- (4) Section 46 (Disposal of land that formerly constituted a closed road):

After “Acts” in section 46 (1), insert “or may provide the land as compensation under Division 2 of Part 2”.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continued(5) Schedule 2 (Savings and transitional provisions):

- (a) From clause 11 (1), omit “lease or reserve”, insert instead “lease, reserve or dedication”.
- (b) After “the reserve” in clause 11 (1), insert “or dedication”.

Explanatory noteCompensation (items (1), (2) and (4))

Section 6 sets out the matters included in a notice of the Minister’s intention to open a road over prescribed land. The proposed amendment to the section more clearly describes a reference to the lodging of a claim for compensation in the section.

The proposed amendment to section 19 makes it clear that it is only after the Minister has determined to acquire an interest in land that the claimant for compensation concerned may (if there is a dispute over the amount of compensation) apply to the local land board to determine that compensation.

The proposed amendment to section 46 enables the Minister to provide, as compensation to a person who has an interest in land to be acquired, land that formerly constituted a road or that has become Crown land.

Miscellaneous (items (3) and (5))

The proposed amendment to section 38 rectifies an incorrect cross-reference.

The proposed amendment to Schedule 2 makes it clear that a savings provision preserving the rights in respect of a lease or reserve which includes a Crown road also applies to rights in respect of a dedication which includes a Crown road.

At present, a reserve trust has the power to deal with land comprising the whole or any part of the reserve by way of sale, lease, licence or mortgage. This power is subject to the consent of the Minister. The proposed amendments to sections 100–103, 105 and 106 enable a reserve trust to grant an easement in respect of the land and provide that this power is also subject to the consent of the Minister. The proposed amendments also enable a reserve trust to acquire the benefit of an easement in respect of land required by the trust for use in connection with the reserve.

Declaration of certain Crown land (item (7))

At present, the Minister may declare (by notification published in the Gazette) that land vested in the Crown or acquired by or on behalf of the Crown or appropriated or resumed or vested in a public authority may be dealt with as if it were Crown land. (3) Section 8 (The Directorate):

From section 8 (1), omit “Directorate of the Drug Offensive”, insert instead “Drug and Alcohol Directorate”.

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedEDUCATION (ANCILLARY STAFF) ACT 1987 No. 240*Amendments*(1) Section 5 (Classifications and positions):

From section 5 (1), omit “senior clerical assistant and such other”, insert instead “such”.

(2) Section 33 (Eligibility for appointment to Public Service):

From section 33 (1), omit “with at least 5 years’ satisfactory service as such”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to section 5 omits a specific reference to senior clerical assistant as a classification of the ancillary staff of the Department of School Education (item (1)).

The proposed amendment to section 33 removes the condition that a permanent employee (being a member of the ancillary staff of the Department of School Education employed on a permanent basis) is required to have had at least 5 years’ satisfactory service as a permanent employee before he or she may apply for a position in the Public Service as if he or she were a public servant (item (2)).

EDUCATION REFORM ACT 1990 No. 8Amendments*(1) Section 58 (Common registration cycles for schools in a system):

Omit “registration of schools”, insert instead “registration of non-government schools”.

(2) Sections 85 (2), 87 (3), 91 (1) (b) and (4):

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—continued(4) Section 102 (Functions of the Board):

In section 102 (2) (g), before “courses of study”, insert “syllabuses for”.

(5) Schedule 2 (Provisions relating to members and procedure of the Schools Appeals Tribunal):

Omit clause 6 (1) (h) and “or” where lastly occurring in clause 6 (1) (g).

Explanatory note

Items (1), (2), (3) and (5) make consequential changes as a result of amendments approved in committee during the passage of the Act through Parliament.

Items (1) and (2) change a number of references to the registration of schools and to systems of schools to the registration of non-government schools and to systems of non-government schools as a consequence of the amendments in committee which removed the requirement for registration of government schools and the formation of a system of government schools.

Item (3) changes a reference to accredited schools to a reference to government and accredited non-government schools in connection with the issue of records of achievement to students. The reference originally covered all schools because both government and non-government schools were to be accredited for the presentation of candidates for the recognised certificates (the S.C. and the H.S.C.). However, the requirement for accreditation of government schools was removed by amendments in committee and accordingly the expression “accredited school” in connection with the grant of records achievement is no longer sufficient to describe all schools.

Item (5) omits an unnecessary provision which provides for the vacation of office of the presiding member of the Schools Appeals Tribunal in circumstances outlined in a proposed provision of the Act that was removed by amendment in committee.

Item (4) makes a minor change to the wording of the functions of the Board of Studies in relation to vocational courses of study for Years 11 and 12. For the sake of consistency, the relevant provision is being amended to refer to the Board’s role in developing or endorsing syllabuses for courses of study rather than developing or endorsing courses of study.

(2) A reference in any Act or instrument (however expressed) to a person belonging to a class of persons referred to in the definition of “authorised person” in section 289A of the Local Government Act 1919 is to be read as a reference to a person belonging to the class so referred to, as that definition was in force immediately before it was repealed by the amending Act.

Commencement

The amendment to the Environmental Offences and Penalties Act 1989 is taken to have commenced on 1 January 1991 (the day on which Division 5A of Part 10 of the Local Government Act 1919, which included section 289A of that Act, was repealed by the Environmental Offences and Penalties (Amendment) Act 1990).

Explanatory note

The amendment to Schedule 3 makes it clear that references in any Act or instrument to authorised persons within the meaning of Division 5A of Part 10 of the Local Government Act 1919, or to any class of authorised persons within the meaning of that Division, continue to have the same effect as they had immediately before that Division was repealed by the Environmental Offences and Penalties (Amendment) Act 1990.

(5) Section 145 (Proceedings):

(b) After section 145 (1) (a1), insert:

(a2) an inspector appointed under the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 (in the case of an offence under section 7 (5) involving such an inspector or an offence under Part 4 or 6 or the regulations under those Parts); or

(c) From section 145 (5), omit “Department of Industrial Relations and Employment”, insert instead “the WorkCover Authority or, in a case where the informant is an inspector appointed under the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940, by an officer of the Department of Industrial Relations, Employment, Training and Further Education”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments provide that the existing powers and functions of inspectors under Part 4 (restriction of hours of trade or work in certain industries) and Part 6 (regulation of the hairdressing trade) of the Act are to be exercised by inspectors appointed under the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940. This reflects the existing arrangement concerning inspectors’ powers and functions under the Factories, Shops and Industries Act 1962.

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedFORESTRY ACT 1916 No. 55*Amendments

- (1) Section 27 (Penalty for unlawfully taking timber, products or forest materials):

From section 27 (1), omit "$1,000", insert instead "50 penalty units".

- (2) Sections 29, 32, 32D, 32G, 38, 41 (1A), 43 (1A), 45:

Omit "$200" wherever occurring, insert instead "20 penalty units".

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments increase monetary penalties for certain offences under the Act. The penalties have not been reviewed for some time (in some cases not since 1978) and relate to such offences as the unlawful taking of timber, hunting and use of firearms in State forests, obstruction of authorised officers and to offences against the regulations. The increases will bring the penalties in line with similar penalties under comparable legislation (e.g. the Soil Conservation Act 1938).

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedFREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 1989 No. 5*Amendment*Section 25 (Refusal of access):

GAMING AND BETTING ACT 1912 No. 25Amendment*Section 10A (Betting by minors):

From section 10A (2), omit "A person under the age of 16 years", insert instead "A minor".

Commencement

The amendment to the Gaming and Betting Act 1912 commences on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Explanatory note

Section 10A of the Gaming and Betting Act 1912 penalises betting by minors but precludes imprisonment in default of payment of the penalty if the person in default is under the age of 16 years. The proposed amendment will preclude imprisonment if the person in default is under the age of 18 years.

The amendment will ensure that the section is consistent in this respect with section 117G (Minors not to be detained) of the Liquor Act 1982 (as inserted by Schedule 3 (7) to the Liquor (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 1990) and section 57B (Minors not to be detained) of the Registered Clubs Act 1976 (as inserted by Schedule 1 (3) to the Registered Clubs (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 1990).

- (3) Section 92D (Small claims before industrial magistrates):
 - (a) Omit the definition of “prescribed application”, insert instead:

“prescribed application” means an application for an order made in accordance with subsection (2).

(b) Omit section 92D (2), insert instead:

(2) A person who makes an application to an industrial magistrate for an order may do so by requesting, in a form approved by the registrar, that the application be dealt with under this section.

(4) Section 93 (Penalty for breach of award etc.):

From section 93 (4), omit “The industrial magistrate may award costs to either party and assess the amount of such costs. Such costs shall be according to a scale fixed by the commission.”.

(5) Section 118A:

After section 118, insert:

Order for interest

118A. (1) If an order to which this section applies is made for the payment of an amount of money, the industrial magistrate may order that there is to be included (in the amount ordered to be paid) interest at the prescribed rate on the whole or any part of that amount for the whole or any part of the period from when the amount became due and the date of the order.

(2) If, in relation to proceedings for an order to which this section applies the whole of the amount of money due (or any part of it) is paid before or without the order being made, the industrial magistrate may order that interest is to be paid at the prescribed rate on the amount so paid for the whole or any part of the period from when the amount became due and the date of the payment. Any such order for interest may be enforced as if it were an order to which this section applies.

(3) This section does not:

- (a) authorise the charging of interest on interest; or
- (b) authorise the charging of interest otherwise than by consent on any amount for the payment of which an order is made by consent.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—continued

- (4) This section applies to the following orders:
 - (a) an order under section 92, 92B or 93 for the payment of money due;
 - (b) an order under section 12 (2) or 13 of the Annual Holidays Act 1944 with respect to any remuneration or payment due to a worker under that Act;
 - (c) an order under section 11 (2) or 12 of the Long Service Leave Act 1955 with respect to any payment due to a worker under that Act;
 - (d) an order under section 11 (2) or 12 of the Long Service Leave (Metalliferous Mining Industry) Act 1963 with respect to any payment due to a worker under that Act.
- (6) Section 127 (Appointment and powers of inspectors):
 From section 127 (1) (d), omit “, on obtaining the authority of the Minister.”.
- (7) Section 130 (Regulations):
 - (a) Before “committee” in section 130 (1) (a), insert “conciliation commissioner.”.
 - (b) After “commission” in section 130 (1) (h), insert “or a conciliation commissioner, committee or tribunal”.

Commencement

The proposed amendments to the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

Item (5) of the amendments to the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 does not apply to proceedings (being proceedings in respect of an order for the payment of money due) commenced before that item commences.

Explanatory note

Orders for interest (items (2) (b) and (5))

At present under the Act, certain orders for the payment of money due (e.g. for the recovery of wages) are enforced as if the order were a judgment for a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction. Proposed section 118A provides that if an order is made for the payment of money, the industrial magistrate may order that interest on the amount of money due is to be included in the amount ordered to be paid (this being similar to proceedings for the recovery of money before a Local Court—see section 39A of the Local Courts (Civil Claims) Act 1970).

The proposed amendment to section 25AA provides that an order for interest is not to be made at a compulsory conference (held before a conciliation commissioner for example) and that an application for an order for interest is not to be remitted to an industrial magistrate (item (2) (b)).

Appeals from committees etc. (item (1))

The proposed amendments to section 24 make it clear that the Crown may appeal to the Industrial Commission from an order, and not just an award, of a conciliation commissioner, a conciliation committee or a contract regulation tribunal.

Small claims before industrial magistrates (items (2) (a) and (3))

The proposed amendments to section 92D provide that an application for an order for the recovery of an amount of money may be made to the registrar in an approved form instead of by making a complaint in a prescribed form and then electing to have the application dealt with under section 92D. That section provides a quick and informal method of recovering amounts of money (such as unpaid wages) that are less than $5,000. The proposed amendment to section 25AA (2) is consequential.

Costs (item (4))

The proposed amendment to section 93 will enable costs awarded to a party to proceedings for a breach of an award to be dealt with in the same way as costs awarded in other proceedings for a penalty or prosecution under the Act (that is, they are no longer to be in accordance with a scale fixed by the Industrial Commission but in accordance with section 123 of the Act).

Inspectors (item (6))

The proposed amendment to section 127 provides that inspectors may institute proceedings for a penalty for the breach of an award without needing the authority of the Minister.

Procedure before conciliation commissioners etc. (item (7))

The proposed amendment to section 130 enables regulations to be made prescribing the forms of references and applications to a conciliation commissioner and regulating the procedure to be followed in proceedings before a conciliation commissioner, a conciliation committee or a contract regulation tribunal.

Section 89 (Form and content of warrants):

After “issuing it”, insert “(or, in the case of a warrant of commitment issued by an authorised justice by means of a computer network administered by the Attorney General’s Department, shall record the name of the authorised justice issuing it)”.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment enables a computer generated warrant of commitment to record the name of the authorised justice who issues the warrant instead of having to be under the hand and seal of the authorised justice.

LAKE ILLAWARRA AUTHORITY ACT 1987 No. 285

Amendments

Schedule 3 (Provisions relating to members of the Authority):

- (a) Omit clause 1 (Age of members).
- (b) Omit clause 6 (1) (e).

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedLAND TAX MANAGEMENT ACT 1956 No. 26*Amendment

Section 54C:

After section 54B, insert:

Land values for 1991 and 1992 to be frozen at 1990 levels

54C. (1) This section applies for the purpose of determining land value in relation to the years commencing on 1 January 1991 and 1 January 1992 (“the 1991 and 1992 tax years”) and applies despite section 54.

(2) If land had a land value in relation to the year that commenced on 1 January 1990, the land value of the land in relation to the 1991 and 1992 tax years is to be the same as the land value of the land in relation to the year that commenced on 1 January 1990.

(3) A valuation of land under section 54 (1) (d) or (1A) in respect of the 1991 and 1992 tax years is to be made as if it were a valuation for the purposes of land tax to be levied in respect of the year commencing on 1 January 1990.

Commencement

The amendment to the Land Tax Management Tax 1956 is taken to have commenced on 31 December 1990 (the commencement of the Land Tax Management (Further Amendment) Act 1990).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment to the Land Tax Management Act 1956 is consequential on the amendment made by the Land Tax Management (Further Amendment) Act 1990 whereby an across the board increase of 17% was imposed on 1990 taxable land values for the purposes of the 1991 and 1992 tax years. The proposed amendment will limit the increase to the intended 17% by removing an anomaly whereby the 17% increase would have been imposed on top of a general increase brought about by a general revaluation in some areas. The proposed amendment will achieve this by “freezing” land values at their 1990 values for the purposes of the application of the 17% increase.

 - (b) After “Part IX” in section 644 (1), insert “or in respect of any offence under section 8F of the Environmental Offences and Penalties Act 1989”.

Validation

A notice of publication of a manual relating to the development of flood liable land that:

- (a) was published in the Gazette before the date of assent to this Act; and
- (b) would have been validly published if section 582A of the Local Government Act 1919 (as amended by this Act) was then in force, is taken to have been validly published under that section as so amended.

Explanatory noteDefinition of “eligible pensioner” (item (1))

The proposed amendments to section 160AA will ensure that the definition correctly describes the source of pensioner health benefits cards and pensioner medical service entitlement cards referred to in the definition.

Fees for inspection (item (2))

The proposed amendment to section 290 makes it clear that a council may fix a fee for inspection of certain premises used for the storage, sale or preparation of food (for example, premises used for the storage of meat and restaurants) in the same way that it may fix a fee for other services. Section 290 empowers the council to regulate and control such premises. This was formerly done by the licensing of the premises under Ordinance Nos. 56 (Premises used for the sale of meat, fish, poultry, game and smallgoods) and 69 (Refreshment rooms). Since the repeal of those Ordinances, it has been done through a system of inspections.

Exculpation of liability relating to management of the coastline (item (3))

At present, section 582A protects councils acting in good faith from liability in respect of flood liable land. In particular, a council is protected if it gives advice, or does or omits to do something, substantially in accordance with a manual relating to the development of flood liable land published as required by the section. The proposed amendments will give similar protection to councils in respect of advice given concerning coastline hazards (such as beach erosion and cliff instability) described in a similar manual relating to management of the coastline and for acts done or omitted to be done in respect of management of the coastline.

Manuals relating to development of flood liable land (item (3) (e) and (f))

The proposed amendments enable the Minister for Planning to publish notice of publication of a manual relating to the development of flood liable land in the Gazette. At present, the whole manual must be published in the Gazette.

Provision is also made to validate the publication of such a notice before the commencement of the amendment.

Littering (item (4))

The Environmental Offences and Penalties (Amendment) Act 1990 repealed Division 5A (Depositing litter prohibited) of Part 10 of the Local Government Act 1919 and re-enacted the provisions (with minor modifications) as section 8F of the Environmental Offences and Penalties Act 1989. Under section 644 (1) (a) of the Local Government Act 1919 (as in force before the amendments took effect) an employee of the council or police officer was empowered to demand from a person committing an offence against the Division his or her name and address and, if this information was withheld, to take the person before a court of summary jurisdiction. The proposed amendment will restore this power in respect of littering offences as re-enacted in section 8F.

LOTTO ACT 1979 No. 53

Amendments(1) Section 7 (Alteration of conditions of licence):

Omit section 7 (3), insert instead:

(3) An alteration under subsection (1) takes effect:

- (a) on the day that is 8 days after the day on which a notice, signed by the Minister, advising the licensee of the alteration is given to the licensee; or
- (b) if a later day is specified in the notice, on that day.

(2) Section 13 (Application of subscriptions):

Omit section 13 (1), insert instead:

(1) Out of the subscriptions received by a licensee in respect of games of lotto conducted by the licensee, the licensee must:

- (a) pay into the prize fund kept in respect of the licensee an amount which, when added to any amount already applied by the licensee to the payment of prizes won in those games, is equal to a percentage, prescribed by the conditions of the licence, of the subscriptions for those games; and
- (b) pay to the Minister, as duty, an amount equal to a percentage, prescribed by the conditions of the licence, of the subscriptions for those games.

Explanatory noteTime when alteration of conditions of licence takes effect (item (1))

Under section 7 of the Lotto Act 1979 the Minister may alter the conditions of a licence. The alterations take effect "on and from the expiration of 7 days after the day" on which notice in writing advising the licensee of the alteration is given. The proposed amendment to section 7 will recast the existing provision so that it is clear that the alteration takes effect 8 days after notice is given and will also enable the Minister to specify in the notice a later day on which an alteration is to take effect.

Application of subscriptions (item (2))

The proposed amendment to section 13 will:

- (a) enable contributions to the prize fund kept in respect of a licensee under the Lotto Act 1979 to be calculated as a percentage of the subscriptions received by the licensee in respect of a number of games of lotto rather than, as is currently

Amendment

Section 44 (Payments into the Fund):

From section 44 (b), omit “recovered on informations laid”, insert instead “recovered in prosecutions brought”.

Explanatory note

Section 44 (b) of the Marine Administration Act 1989 provides for the payment into the Maritime Services Board Fund of fines and penalties recovered for offences against the marine legislation (which as defined in the Act includes the Marine Pollution Act 1987). In its present form, section 44 (b) describes the fines and penalties that may be recovered by reference to those recovered on information laid by officers of the Maritime Services Board.

The provision needs to be recast so that it applies to all fines and penalties recovered by officers of the Board under the Marine Pollution Act 1987. Under that Act, proceedings may be dealt with summarily before a Local Court (before which prosecutions are commenced by information) or the Land and Environment Court (before which prosecutions are commenced by summons). As a result, fines and penalties recovered in the Local Court are payable into the Fund but not those recovered in the Land and Environment Court.

The proposed amendment will ensure all such fines and penalties are paid into the Fund.

The amended provision will read (in part) as follows:

44. There shall be paid into the Fund:

.....

- (b) all fines and penalties recovered for offences against the marine legislation and which are required by that legislation to be paid to the Board or are recovered on informations laid recovered in prosecutions brought by officers of the Board; and the third-party policy which had effect during that previous registration continues (to any necessary extent) to have effect until the third-party policy necessary to enable the renewal of that previous registration takes effect in accordance with subsection (3).

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment will enable penalty notices (“on-the-spot” fines) to be issued under the Maritime Services Act 1935 for prescribed offences against the Commercial Vessels Act 1979 and the regulations made under that Act.

(5) If the renewal of registration of a motor vehicle is effected:

(2) This Act, as in force immediately before 1 July 1991, continues to apply to the renewal of registration of a motor vehicle where the registration expires on or before 30 June 1991.

Premiums for insurance

8. For the purpose of enabling a licensed insurer, before 1 July 1991, to accept a premium and issue a certificate of insurance in relation to a period of insurance which commences on or after that date, section 10 (as proposed to be substituted by the Motor Accidents (Amendment) Act 1990) is taken to have commenced on the date of assent to that Act.

Commencement

Items (1)–(5) and (7) of the amendments to the Motor Accidents Act 1988 commence on 1 July 1991.

Item (8) of the amendments to the Motor Accidents Act 1988 is taken to have commenced on 7 December 1990 (the date of assent to the Motor Accidents (Amendment) Act 1990).

Explanatory noteDual insurance (item (1))

The proposed amendment prevents the possibility of dual or multiple compulsory third-party insurance in relation to a motor vehicle which might otherwise occur from 1 July 1991 when the deregulated arrangements for insurance come into effect.

Commencement and duration of third-party policy (item (2))

The proposed amendment restates the circumstances in which a compulsory third-party policy is to have effect.

Liability for trailers (items (3), (4), (5) and (7))

The proposed amendments are intended to clarify the liability for death or personal injury caused by a trailer which is attached to a towing vehicle or which runs out of control having become detached from the towing vehicle. Two situations are addressed. First, a trailer (whether a New South Wales registered trailer or not) attached to, or which has become detached from, a New South Wales registered vehicle is covered under the third-party policy relating to the vehicle (item (7)). Second, a New South Wales registered trailer attached to, or which has become detached from, a vehicle which is not a New South Wales registered vehicle, and irrespective of where in

Indexation of amounts relating to non-economic loss (item (6))

The proposed amendment provides for the rounding-off of the indexed amounts which may be awarded as damages for non-economic loss.

Savings and transitional provisions (item (8))

The amendment made by item (8) (a) will enable the making of savings and transitional regulations consequent on the enactment of the Motor Accidents (Amendment) Act 1990 and the proposed Act.

The amendment made by item (8) (b) will enable the granting of a new licence before 1 July 1991 but only so as to enable the licensee to write third-party insurance for periods of insurance which commence on or after 1 July 1991.

Proposed clause 7 of Schedule 4 to be inserted by the amendment made by item (8) (c) applies the deregulated insurance arrangements to registrations and renewals of registrations which expire on or after 1 July 1991. Without this provision, the amendments made by the Motor Accidents (Amendment) Act 1990 would have applied to registrations and renewals of registrations which expired on 30 June 1991.

Proposed clause 8 of Schedule 4 to be inserted by the amendment made by item (8) (c) will enable a third-party insurer, prior to the commencement on 1 July 1991 of the substituted section 10 of the Motor Accidents Act 1988, to accept premiums and issue certificates of insurance which are to have effect on and after that date.

- section 39 (the making of statutory rules)
- section 40 (notice of statutory rules to be tabled)

Repeal of regulations

The following provisions of the Plant Diseases Regulations are repealed on the commencement of the amendments to the Plant Diseases Act 1924:

- the definitions of "Commonwealth Export Control (Fresh Fruits and Vegetables) Orders" and "Commonwealth Prescribed Goods (General) Orders" in Regulation 2 (1) and Regulation 2 (2) and (3)
- Regulations 16–61, and 64–68
- the Forms

Explanatory note

Orders setting standards for grading, packaging and labelling of fruit etc. (items (4) (a), (c), (e), (f) and (g), (5) and (6))

The proposed amendments will enable the Minister, by order published in the Gazette, to set standards for the grading, packaging and labelling of fruit, vegetables and other plants. At present, these standards are prescribed by regulations and largely adopt by reference orders made under the Export Control Act 1982 of the Commonwealth.

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—continued

Proposed section 28A (4) will ensure that the orders will be subject to Parliamentary scrutiny and disallowance as if they were regulations.

Repeal of regulations

Provision is made to repeal those regulations which will be superfluous as a consequence of the proposed amendments to the Act.

POLICE REGULATION (SUPERANNUATION) ACT
1906 No. 28*Amendments*Section 17 (Refund of deductions):

- (a) After “discharge” in section 17 (1) (a) (i), insert “(but not dismissal)”.
- (b) From section 17 (1) (a) (ii), omit “resignation or discharge”, insert instead “resignation, dismissal or discharge”.

Commencement

The amendments to the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906 are taken to have commenced on 1 July 1990.

Explanatory note

Section 17 of the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906 provides for a refund of deductions of personal contributions with interest in certain circumstances where a police officer who is a member of the Scheme established by the Act withdraws from the Scheme as a result of resignation, dismissal or discharge before reaching retirement age or being retired due to incapacity.

The section was amended by Schedule 1 (18) to the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Amendment Act 1988 to entitle a police officer who resigns or is discharged from the police service on or after 1 July 1990 to be paid interest on his or her contributions at the rate fixed by the State Authorities Superannuation Board under section 16 of the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987. The provision as so amended should also require interest to be paid to a police officer who is dismissed on or after 1 July 1990 so as to meet the operating standards for superannuation funds laid down by the Occupational Superannuation Standards Act 1987 of the Commonwealth and the regulations made under that Act. The proposed amendment will ensure that the provision meets the relevant standard.

POULTRY PROCESSING ACT 1969 No. 45

AmendmentSection 5 (Appointment of inspectors):

Omit section 5 (1), insert instead:

(1) The Director-General of the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries may appoint a member of the Public Service of New South Wales or of the Public Service of the Commonwealth as an inspector for the purposes of this Act.

Transitional

A person whose appointment as an inspector under section 5 of the Poultry Processing Act 1969 was in force immediately before the date of assent to this Act is taken to have been appointed to be an inspector under that section as amended by this Act.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment enables the Director-General of the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries to appoint Commonwealth employees to be inspectors for the purposes of the Act. The amendment will ensure that effect can be given to an agreement between the Commonwealth and New South Wales relating to the provision of a domestic inspection service for the registration of plants in which poultry is processed for sale which came into operation on 4 March 1991.

PRISONS ACT 1952 No. 9Amendment*Section 16 (Medical attention):

Explanatory note

As a result of amendments to the Prisons Act 1952 made by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No. 2) 1990, one or more medical officers (instead of just one medical officer) can be appointed for each prison. The proposed amendment is consequential on those amendments and will enable a medical officer of the prison concerned to exercise the functions under section 16 (which relate to medical attention of prisoners and prison officers).

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedPRIVATE IRRIGATION DISTRICTS ACT 1973 No. 47*Amendments

- (1) Omit section 54, insert instead:

Interest on overdue rates and charges

54. (1) A Board may charge interest:

- (a) on overdue rates and charges assessed under this Part;
and
- (b) on any overdue amount payable to it under an agreement referred to in section 65,

at a rate not exceeding the rate for the time being applicable under section 85 of the District Court Act 1973 to a judgment debt.

(2) The Board may not charge interest on unpaid interest under this Part.

- (2) Section 67 (Supply of water for irrigation purposes to a new holding resulting from a subdivision):

- (a) From section 67 (1), omit “one”.
- (b) After section 67 (1), insert:

(1A) If the owner nominates more than one new holding to which the quantity of water is to be allocated, the Board may allocate the water to those holdings in such proportions as it determines.

- (c) Omit section 67 (2), insert instead:

(2) The Board may allocate to such of the new holdings as the Board determines the quantity of water last allocated to the holding that was subdivided if:

- (a) the owner of the subdivided holding fails to make a nomination within the time specified by the Board in a notice sent by post to the owner at the owner’s last known address; or
- (b) a holding nominated by the owner does not contain land capable of being irrigated from the works of the private district or to which, in the opinion of the Board, it is impracticable to convey water for irrigation from those works; or

- (c) a holding nominated by the owner is too small to justify an allocation of water; or
- (d) the allocation of water in the manner nominated is otherwise detrimental to the administration of the private district concerned.

(2A) If the Board makes an allocation under subsection (2), it is to notify the owner of the holding that was subdivided and the owner of each new holding of the allocation.

Commencement

The amendments to the Private Irrigation Districts Act 1973 commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

Item (1) of the amendments to the Private Irrigation Districts Act 1973 does not apply to rates, charges or amounts that were overdue before the commencement of the amendment.

Explanatory noteInterest on overdue rates etc. (item (1))

At present, overdue rates, charges or amounts that are payable to the Board of Management for a provisional private district or a private irrigation district are increased at a rate of interest fixed by the Reserve Bank for overdrafts. The proposed amendment to section 54 enables such a Board to charge interest on overdue rates, charges and amounts at the rate which the District Court applies to judgment debts. The provision is similar to those applicable to unpaid amounts due to the Water Board and Water Supply Authorities.

Supply of water after subdivision (item (2))

At present, when an irrigated holding is subdivided the Board of Management concerned is required to allocate the whole of the water allocated to the holding to one of the holdings created by the subdivision. The proposed amendments to section 67 will enable the Board to allocate the subdivided holding's allocation to more than one of the new holdings created by the subdivision if so nominated by the owner (item (2) (a) and (b)).

The proposed amendments to section 67 also widen the existing discretion of the Board to refuse to allocate water to the new holdings nominated by the owner and to allocate instead to a holding determined by the Board. The discretion may be exercised if the nominated holding is too small to justify an allocation of water or the allocation of water in the manner nominated by the owner is detrimental to the administration of the private district concerned (item (2) (c)).

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedPUBLIC SECTOR EXECUTIVES SUPERANNUATION ACT
1989 No. 106*Amendment*Section 56 (Transfer of benefit from other schemes to Fund):

After “scheme” in section 56 (1), insert “or under an approved deposit fund”.

Commencement

The amendment to the Public Sector Executives Superannuation Act 1989 is taken to have commenced on 1 October 1989 (the day on which section 56 of that Act commenced).

Explanatory note

Section 56 of the Public Sector Executives Superannuation Act 1989 enables a person who elects to join the Scheme established by that Act to pay a benefit received under another superannuation scheme into the Public Sector Executives Superannuation Fund. Such an amount will not be assessable under sections 27B and 27C of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the Commonwealth. The proposed amendment will enable a person who elects to join the Scheme to also pay into the Fund a benefit received or amount held to his or her credit in an approved deposit fund.

The amendment accords with the operating standards for superannuation funds laid down by the Occupational Superannuation Standards Act 1987 of the Commonwealth and the regulations made under that Act which also permit payment out of an approved deposit fund into another superannuation fund.

Removal of age restrictions (item (3))

The proposed amendments to Schedule 1:

- (a) remove the restriction that prevents a person from being eligible to be appointed as, or from continuing to hold office as, a full-time member of the Residential Tenancies Tribunal if the person is of or above the age of 65 years, or as a part-time member of the Tribunal if the person is of or above the age of 70 years; and

Section 4 of the State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Act 1987 sets out the remuneration, salary or wages included in the term "salary" for the purposes of the Act. A relieving allowance is included in "salary" only if the employee has been in receipt of the relieving allowance for "a continuous period of 1 year". The proposed amendments to section 4 will clarify the meaning of "year" for the purposes of the section in relation to employees of educational institutions. In this context, "year" is to be defined in terms of the academic year for the institution concerned.

Similar amendments to the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987 and the Superannuation Act 1916 are set out elsewhere in this Schedule.

Preservation of benefits (items (2) and (3))

The Miscellaneous Acts (Public Sector Executives Superannuation) Amendment Act 1989 amended section 24 of the Act to make provision relating to calculation of the basic benefit to be preserved until early retirement age or transferred to the Public Sector Executives Superannuation Scheme at the election (made within 12 months of appointment or nomination) of a public sector executive. The proposed amendments recast the provisions concerned to remove possible ambiguity in the description of the public sector executives concerned. (2) Section 12 (Contributions to be related to units of pension):

(a) Omit “a/114.6” from the definition of the expression “GF”. In the formula contained in section 12 (1) (b), insert instead “a/b”.

(b) In section 12 (1) (b), after the definition of the expression “a”, insert:

b is:

(c) After subsection (2), insert:

(3) Any Index number published by the Commonwealth Statistician at any time (and whether before or after the commencement of this subsection) in respect of a particular June quarter in substitution for an Index number previously published in respect of that quarter is to be disregarded for the purpose of ascertaining the value of the expression “b” in the formula in subsection (1), unless the Minister gives a direction to the contrary. If the Minister gives such a direction, the later Index number is to be used in the formula whenever it is applied after the direction has been given.

(4) If, however, after the commencement of subsection (3), the Commonwealth Statistician changes the reference base for the Consumer Price Index (All Groups Index) for Sydney, then, for the purpose of ascertaining the value of the expression “b” in the formula in subsection (1), Index numbers published in terms of the new reference base are to be used whenever the formula is applied after the change of reference base.

(5) In this section, “Index number”, “June quarter” and “quarter” have the same meanings as in Division 6 of Part 4.

(3) Section 52K (Return to service of persons receiving benefit):

Regulation 18 of the Superannuation Regulations is repealed.

Item (1) of the amendments to the Superannuation Act 1916 is taken to have commenced on 1 April 1988 (the commencement of section 3A to that Act).

Explanatory noteSalary (item (1))

allowance for “a continuous period of 1 year”. The proposed amendments to section 3A will clarify the meaning of “year” for the purposes of the section in relation to employees of educational institutions. In this context, “year” is to be defined in terms of the academic year for the institution concerned.

The amendments are based on Regulation 18 of the Superannuation Regulations (which is to be repealed). Similar amendments to the State Authorities Superannuation Act 1987 and the State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Act 1987 are set out elsewhere in this Schedule.

Changes in Consumer Price Index (item (2))

Item (2) of the proposed amendments amends section 12 (dealing with units of pension) in relation to the number of what are called “additional units” toward which a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund must contribute. The number of such units is (for all but very small salaries) indexed according to the Consumer Price Index, but no provision has been made to take account of a possible withdrawal of an Index by the Commonwealth Statistician and the issue of a revised Index. The amendment makes appropriate provision of this kind, in line with similar provision made elsewhere in the Act in relation to indexed benefits.

Repeal of section 52K (item (3)).

Section 52K enables purchase of fully paid units by a person who has preserved benefits and subsequently re-enters the Scheme as a new contributor. The provision is to be repealed because this has not been possible since 1 July 1985 when the Scheme was closed to new entrants (see the Superannuation (Scheme Closure) Amendment Act 1985).

After section 7 (4), insert:

(5) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, determine the maximum amount of compensation payable under this Act in respect of pigs generally or in respect of pigs of a particular class.

(a) Omit section 8 (1)–(3), insert instead:

SCHEDULE 1—MINOR AMENDMENTS—*continuedRepeal of Swine Compensation Regulations

The Swine Compensation Regulations are repealed.

- (a) by providing for the form of applications for compensation and certificates verifying such applications to be approved by the Chief of the Division of Animal Health of the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries; and
- (b) by providing that the market value of a pig (being the value on the basis of which compensation is payable in respect of the destruction of the pig or the condemnation of its carcass) is not to exceed the maximum amount determined by the Minister by order published in the Gazette rather than, as is currently the case, the maximum amount prescribed by the Regulations.

The proposed amendments to section 133A make it clear that an error in the proclamation constituting a provisional domestic and stock water supply district (or a provisional domestic and stock water supply and irrigation district) or in the subsequent notification constituting the provisional district as a district can be corrected by a further proclamation or notification. Item (2) of the proposed amendments inserts section 133E which enables the Governor to revoke the proclamation constituting a provisional district and enables the Ministerial Corporation to revoke the notification constituting a district. -  indicates repeal of Act containing uncommenced provisions

The repeals are explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to this Act. In relation to the repeal of amending Acts, it should be noted that the Acts are repealed simply to rationalise the legislation in force and that the repeals have no substantive effect on the amendments made by the Acts or any associated provisions.

Section 30 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1987 ensures that when an amending Act is repealed no amendment made by the Act is affected. Section 30 (2) also ensures that the following matters are not affected:

- (a) the proof of any past act or thing;
 - (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability saved by the operation of the Act;
 - (c) any validation made by the Act.

SCHEDULE 4—GENERAL SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND OTHER PROVISIONS

(Sec. 5)

Effect of amendment of amending provisions

1. (1) An amendment made by Schedule 2 to an amending provision contained in an Act will, if the amending provision has commenced before the date of assent to this Act, be taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision.

(2) In this clause:

“amending provision”, means a provision of an Act, or of any other instrument, being a provision that has commenced and that makes a direct amendment of an Act by:

- (a) the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter; or
- (b) the omission of matter contained in the amended Act and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter; or
- (c) the insertion into the amended Act of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act, whether the provision was enacted before or after the commencement of the Reprints Act 1972.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that amendments correcting errors in the technical provisions (for example, headings indicating the section to be amended or directions as to where a new section is to be inserted) will commence on the date the amendments to which they relate commenced.

Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made

2. Except where it is expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act:

- (a) amends a provision of an Act; or
- (b) repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act,

any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) 1991

SCHEDULE 4—GENERAL SAVINGS, TRANSITIONAL AND

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly otherwise provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.

Regulations

3. (1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.

(2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.

(3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:

- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication; or
- (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Explanatory note

This clause enables the making of regulations of a transitional or saving nature having a short term effect relating to incidental matters arising out of the proposed Act with regard to which no specific, or sufficient, provision has been made in the Act.
