any Legislative Assembly or to alter the date required to be named for the taking of the poll in the writs for a general election,

- (2) Section 10 (Time and place for holding sessions, and prorogation, of Parliament): 5
 Omit the words “, and dissolve the said Assembly”.
- (3) Section 24:
 Omit the section, insert instead: 10
Duration of Assembly
 24. (1) A Legislative Assembly shall, unless sooner dissolved under section 24B, expire on the Friday before the first Saturday in March in the fourth calendar year after the calendar year in which the return of the writs for choosing that Assembly occurred. 15
 (2) In this section, a reference to a writ does not include a reference to a writ issued because of the failure of an election, including a failure of an election because of its being declared void in accordance with law.
- (4) Sections 24A, 24B: 20
 After section 24, insert:
Date of general election for Legislative Assembly
 24A. The writs for a general election of Members of the Legislative Assembly must name as the day for the taking of the poll at that general election: 25
 (a) if the previous Legislative Assembly expired—the fourth Saturday in March next following the expiry; or
 (b) if the previous Legislative Assembly was dissolved—a day that is not later than the fortieth day from the date of the issue of the writs. 30
Dissolution of Legislative Assembly during 4 year term
 24B. (1) The Legislative Assembly may be dissolved by the Governor by proclamation, but only in the circumstances authorised by this section.
 (2) The Legislative Assembly may be dissolved if: 35
 (a) a motion of no confidence in the Government is passed by the Legislative Assembly (being a motion of which

Constitution (Fixed Term Parliaments) Amendment 1992

not less than 3 clear days' notice has been given in the Legislative Assembly); and

- 5 (b) during the period commencing on the passage of the motion of no confidence and ending 8 clear days thereafter, the Legislative Assembly has not passed a motion of confidence in the then Government.

10 After the motion of no confidence is passed, the Legislative Assembly may not be prorogued before the end of that 8-day period and may not be adjourned for a period extending beyond that 8-day period, unless the motion of confidence has been passed.

- (3) The Legislative Assembly may be dissolved if it:
- 15 (a) rejects a Bill which appropriates revenue or moneys for the ordinary annual services of the Government; or
- (b) fails to pass such a Bill before the time that the Governor considers that the appropriation is required.

20 This subsection does not apply to a Bill which appropriates revenue or moneys for the Legislature only.

- (4) The Legislative Assembly may be dissolved within 2 months before the Assembly is due to expire if the general election would otherwise be required to be held during the same period as a Commonwealth election, during a holiday period or at any other inconvenient time.

- 25 (5) This section does not prevent the Governor from dissolving the Legislative Assembly in circumstances other than those specified in subsections (2)–(4), despite any advice of the Premier or Executive Council, if the Governor could do so in accordance with established constitutional conventions.
- 30

- (6) When deciding whether the Legislative Assembly should be dissolved in accordance with this section, the Governor is to consider whether a viable alternative Government can be formed without a dissolution and, in so doing, is to have regard to any motion passed by the Legislative Assembly expressing confidence in an alternative Government in which a named person would be Premier.
