PART 4—BENEFITS

NOTE: This Part sets out the benefits payable under the Scheme and provides for the circumstances when benefits are payable. The amount payable is the amount credited to a member's account in the Fund. In addition, a member whose employer makes compulsory contributions in respect of the member is entitled to the amount of the basic death or invalidity benefit on death or permanent incapacity or permanent invalidity before reaching the prescribed age (currently 55) and, if also contributing for it, to the additional death or invalidity benefit. If a person ceases to be a member, the benefits are to be preserved in the Fund, or paid, as provided for in this Part.

Division 1—Amount of benefit

Amount of benefit generally

31. (1) The benefit payable to or in respect of a member under this Act is an amount equal to the balance at credit in the member's account at the time the benefit is paid, except as provided by or under this Act.

(2) The amount of the benefit is reduced by the amount specified by the Board, if the Board makes a determination under section 34 in relation to the benefit.

Amount of basic death or invalidity benefit

32. (1) The amount of the basic death or invalidity benefit payable to or in respect of a member under this Act is an amount calculated in accordance with rules made by the Board for the purposes of this section, after obtaining actuarial advice.

(2) The Board may make rules for or with respect to the determination of benefits under this section and the rules may provide that different benefits are payable in respect of different classes of employees.

(3) Despite any other provision of this section or rules made under this section, the amount of the benefit is not to be more than the amount received by the Board from any person providing cover for the basic death or invalidity benefit.

Amount of additional death or invalidity benefit

33. (1) The amount of the additional death or invalidity benefit payable to or in respect of a member under this Act is the amount nominated by the member and approved by the Board in approving the member's application.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the amount of the benefit is not to be more than the amount received by the Board from any person providing cover for the additional death or invalidity benefit.

Power of Board to reduce benefits to comply with certain Commonwealth standards relating to occupational superannuation

34. (1) The Board may make a determination reducing the amount of a benefit by such amount (but no more) as will ensure that neither the Board nor the Fund is in breach of an applicable Commonwealth occupational superannuation standard in the circumstances set out in subsection (2) and consequently liable to a penalty under a Commonwealth taxation law.

(2) The circumstances are that the payment of the benefit to or in respect of a member would cause the Board or the Fund to be in breach of the Commonwealth occupational superannuation standard because:

- (a) the amount of the benefit; or
- (b) the amount of the benefit, together with the amounts of any other benefits that have already been paid, or that are or may become payable, to or in respect of the member from the Fund or under one or more other superannuation schemes, would, if paid, exceed the relevant level specified in that standard.

(3) In this section, a reference to a penalty under a Commonwealth taxation law includes a reference to (but is not limited to):

- (a) a penalty rate of taxation under that law; and
- (b) the loss of a concessional rate of taxation under that law.

Interest

35. The Board may, when paying a benefit under this Act, pay interest at such rates, for such periods and in such circumstances as in its absolute discretion it thinks appropriate.

Division 2—Payment of benefitsWhen is a benefit immediately payable?

36. (1) The benefit payable under this Act is payable by the Board if the member dies, or ceases to be employed in the circumstances in which it is specified in the Commonwealth occupational superannuation standards applicable to the Scheme that a benefit must or may be paid or that a preserved benefit must or may be paid.

NOTE: A benefit is currently payable in accordance with the Commonwealth occupational standards in any of the following circumstances:

- if a member ceases to be employed by an employer after reaching 55 and before reaching the retirement age specified in those standards
- if a member ceases to be employed by an employer before reaching 55 and the Board is satisfied that the retirement is on the ground of permanent incapacity or permanent invalidity
- if a member ceases to be employed by an employer before reaching 55 and the member or another person has produced to the Board written approval of the Insurance and Superannuation Commissioner of the Commonwealth for payment of the benefit
- if a member ceases to be employed by an employer before reaching 55 and the Board has given approval for payment of a benefit under guidelines established by the Insurance and Superannuation Commissioner
- if a member ceases to be employed by an employer before reaching 55 and the Board is satisfied that the member is to depart from Australia permanently
- if a member ceases to be employed by an employer before reaching 55 and the member has requested the Board to pay the benefit to an approved deposit fund, another complying superannuation fund or by purchasing a deferred annuity and the Board is satisfied that the benefit is to be paid in a manner that complies with applicable Commonwealth occupational superannuation standards
- the amount of the benefit is less than the amount specified in regulation 12 of the Occupational Superannuation Standards Regulations of the Commonwealth
- there occurs any other event prescribed by rules of the Board for the purposes of this section

(2) A rule made for the purposes of this section may vary the circumstances in which a benefit is otherwise payable under this section if it is necessary to do so for the purpose of compliance with an applicable Commonwealth occupational superannuation standard.

When is a death or invalidity benefit payable under this Act?

37. (1) The basic death or invalidity benefit payable under this Act is payable to or in respect of a member if the member dies or ceases to be employed and the Board is satisfied that the cessation of employment is on the ground of permanent incapacity or permanent invalidity (not caused by any act or default of the member intended to produce that incapacity).

(2) The additional death or invalidity benefit payable under this Act is payable if the basic death or invalidity benefit is payable and an approval for additional death or invalidity cover is in force in relation to the member concerned.

(3) The basic death or invalidity benefit is not payable to or in respect of a member who is a member only by virtue of having elected to make optional contributions.

Retirement on the ground of permanent incapacity etc.

38. In order to be satisfied that the cessation of employment of a member is on the ground of permanent incapacity or permanent invalidity, the Board must be satisfied that the member is permanently unable, because of that incapacity, to be engaged, or to be employed, in any remunerative occupation in which, in the opinion of the Board, it would otherwise be reasonable to expect the member to engage.

When is a benefit to be preserved?

39. A benefit of a member is to be preserved by the Board on the member ceasing to be a member or employed by an employer, if the benefit is not otherwise payable under this Act.

When is a preserved benefit payable?

40. The benefit preserved under this Act in respect of a person is payable by the Board if the person dies, or in the circumstances in which it is specified in any Commonwealth occupational superannuation standards applicable to the Scheme that a preserved benefit must or may be paid.

NOTE: The preserved benefit is currently payable in accordance with the Commonwealth occupational superannuation standards in any of the following circumstances:

- if the person ceases to be employed after reaching 55
- if the person ceases to be employed after reaching 55 and the Board is satisfied that the retirement is on the ground of permanent incapacity or permanent invalidity
- if the person ceases to be employed after reaching 55 and the person or another person has produced to the Board written approval of the Insurance and Superannuation Commissioner for payment of the benefit
- if the person ceases to be employed after reaching 55 and the Board has given approval for payment of a benefit under guidelines established by the Insurance and Superannuation Commissioner

First State Superannuation Act 1992 No. 100

- if the person ceases to be employed after reaching 55 and the Board is satisfied that the member is to depart from Australia permanently
- if the Board is satisfied that the benefit is to be paid to an approved deposit fund, another complying superannuation fund or by purchasing a deferred annuity and the Board is satisfied that the benefit is to be paid in a manner that complies with the applicable Commonwealth occupational superannuation standards.

Division 3—Other provisions relating to benefits

- the circumstances in which employees other than full-time employees are taken to have ceased to be employed for the purposes of this Act

Removal of employers from Act

63. (1) This section applies where an employer is removed from Schedule 1.

Restoration of lost right etc. under Act

74. (1) If a person is entitled to exercise a right or enjoy a privilege or benefit under this Act and, without having exercised the right or enjoyed the privilege or benefit, the person ceases to be entitled to do so, the person may exercise the right or enjoy the privilege or benefit if:
