GAMING AND BETTING (AMENDMENT) BILL 1991

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

This Bill is designed to raise money towards the Sydney Olympic 2000 Bid.

At present under the Gaming and Betting Act 1912, race-meetings for horse, greyhound or harness racing throughout the State may not be held on Sundays. The Bill amends the Act to allow for race-meetings to be held on no more than 8 Sundays during the period commencing 1 January 1992 and ending 31 December 1993. The dates and places where these Sunday race-meetings are to be held will be determined by the Minister.

The Bill requires the Minister to calculate, and notify the Treasurer of, the amount of public revenue raised from Sunday race-meetings held in accordance with the Bill. Appropriation of money for the purpose of the Sydney Olympic 2000 Bid is subject to the usual Parliamentary appropriation process.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the proposed Act to commence on the date of assent.

Clause 3 amends the Gaming and Betting Act 1912 in the manner described above.
