STRATA TITLES (STAGED DEVELOPMENT) AMENDMENT BILL 1992

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The Strata Titles (Leasehold Staged Development) Amendment Bill 1992 is cognate with this Bill.

The Strata Titles Act 1973 already contains rather restrictive provisions allowing the development by stages of part or parts of the land subject to a strata scheme. The object of this Bill is to amend the 1973 Act so as:

- (a) to introduce a more flexible legislative scheme for the development by stages of land (called "development lots") reserved under a strata scheme for future development and subdivision; and
- (b) to make other unrelated changes, the more important of which will allow:
 - the creation of strata schemes for land that is not strictly contiguous; and
 - the termination of strata schemes by the Registrar-General in limited circumstances without prior recourse to the Supreme Court.

The proposed Act also makes consequential and other minor amendments to the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 and the Land and Environment Court Act 1979.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on a day or days to be proclaimed.

Clause 3 gives effect to the Schedule of amendments to the 1973 Act.

Clause 4 gives effect to the Schedule of amendments to the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 and the Land and Environment Court Act 1979.

Strata Titles (Staged Development) Amendment 1992

SCHEDULE 1—AMENDMENT OF STRATA TITLES ACT 1973

PART 1—AMENDMENTS RELATING TO STAGED DEVELOPMENT

Definitions

Schedule 1 (1) amends section 5 (Definitions) because the instrument describing the development that is permitted to be carried out within a development lot will be called a strata development contract under the proposed scheme. Similar instruments are presently called "development statements". The changes are aimed at avoiding confusion with the kinds of instruments referred to in the Community Land Development Act 1989.

Strata plan registration

Schedule 1 (2) amends section 8 (Registration of strata plans) which lists the requirements that presently must be met by strata plans.

Schedule 1 (2) (a) removes the requirement that a development lot be illustrated on a location plan.

Schedule 1 (2) (b) requires the initial schedule of unit entitlement for a strata plan that includes a development lot to show the unit entitlement of each development lot and of the residue of the parcel apportioned in accordance with their relative land values. The unit entitlement of each of the developed lots must also be shown in the initial schedule as a proportion (calculated on a market value basis) of the unit entitlement of that residue.

Schedule 1 (2) (c) and (d) make amendments consequential on the changes in terminology and numbering of provisions in Division 2A of Part 2.

Subdivision after completion of a stage of development

Schedule 1 (3) substitutes section 8A (Subdivision of development lot) so as to restate, with appropriate modifications, the requirements for registration of a strata plan of subdivision of a development lot after development permitted by the strata development contract has been carried out. The unit entitlement of each of the new lots into which the development lot will be divided must be shown in a schedule of unit entitlement as a proportion (calculated on a market value basis) of the unit entitlement of the development lot.

Consequential amendments

Schedule 1 (4) amends section 13 (Conversion of lots into common property) to remove a reference to a repealed provision.

Schedule 1 (5) amends section 28 (Effect of dealings under this Division) to make it clear that the restrictions in that section do not prevent instruments executed in accordance with the proposed amendments from being registered under the 1973 Act.

Staged development schemes

Schedule 1 (6) substitutes Division 2A of Part 2 with a new Division 2A (containing proposed sections 28A–28QA). Of the proposed sections:

Strata Titles (Staged Development) Amendment 1992

Section 28A (Explanation of staged development) describes in general terms the concept of staged development. As mentioned above, staged development consists of:

- the progressive development of reserve or development lots in a strata scheme (which may result in the construction of additional buildings and the carrying out of works such as landscaping); and
- the subdivision of those lots after that development has been carried out (which will create titles for each of the new lots, allowing them to be sold, leased or mortgaged separately); and
- the allocation of unit entitlements for the new lots. (Unit entitlements determine the proportions in which lot owners, or proprietors, will be required to contribute to maintenance of the building and other common property.)

Section 28B (Obligations of consent authorities) forbids a consent authority from granting development consent for a subdivision under the 1973 Act that would create a lot reserved for development and for the subsequent subdivision under that Act of that lot unless the lot is identified as a development lot and the consent authority is supplied with a proposed strata development contract describing the intended development.

Section 28C (Form and content of strata development contract) sets out the requirements for strata development contracts. Such a contract must separately describe any "warranted development" (which the developer may be compelled to carry out) and all "authorised proposals" (which the developer may carry out but cannot, merely because of the contract, be forced to carry out).

A strata development contract must include a concept plan illustrating the buildings and works that will result from the proposed development.

Section 28D (Concept plan) sets out the requirements for concept plans and is aimed at ensuring that there will be an up-to-date concept plan filed at the Land Titles Office.

Section 28E (Variation of liability for common property expenses) allows a strata development contract to apportion the liability for common property expenses between the developer and other lot proprietors differently from how they would be apportioned on a unit entitlement basis.

Section 28F (Signing of strata development contract and amendments) lists the persons who will be required to sign a strata development contract (and any amendment of it) and allows the Registrar-General to refuse to register such a contract or amendment until the consent of other persons has been obtained.

Section 28G (Registration of strata development contract and amendments) provides for the registration of strata development contracts by the Registrar-General and allows registration to be refused until the certificate of title for the body corporate and the common property (if any) has been produced.

Section 28H (Notice of strata development contract and amendments) requires the Registrar-General to record in the folio of the Real Property Act Register relating to the body corporate and the common property (if any) of a strata scheme particulars about any strata development contract affecting the strata scheme.

Section 28I (Effect of strata development contract) declares that such a contract has effect as an agreement under seal containing covenants that are binding on the persons identified in the proposed section, which include the developer and the proprietors, lessees and mortgagees of the lots in the strata scheme concerned. The implied covenants (set out in proposed Schedule 1BA) will bind any lessee or mortgagee of a development lot (instead of the developer) while the lessee or mortgagee is in possession of the development lot.

Section 28J (Amendment of strata development contract) sets out requirements for the amendment of a strata development contract similar to those for amendment of a development contract under the Community Land Management Act 1989.

Section 28K (Approval of amendments by Land and Environment Court) allows an amendment of a strata development contract to be made with the approval of the Land and Environment Court, instead of being supported by a resolution of the body corporate of the strata scheme concerned.

Section 28L (Use of common property and development lot by developer) authorises the developer to make such use of common property and the development lot as may be necessary to carry out all of the warranted development and authorised proposals contained in a strata development contract. That right must be exercised so as not to cause unreasonable inconvenience to the occupier of any lot in the strata scheme concerned.

Section 28M (Adding land to a parcel subject to a strata development contract) provides for the addition of land to a parcel containing a development lot by registration of a strata plan of subdivision. Land may be added so as to become common property, a further development lot or an addition to a current development lot, or any combination of them.

Section 28N (Right to complete permitted development) confers on a developer a sufficient vote to make a body corporate decision about a "development concern" even though the decision might otherwise need to be supported by a special or unanimous resolution.

Section 28O (What are "development concerns"?) lists various matters that are, or are not, development concerns. In general terms, carrying out any warranted development or authorised proposal contained in a strata development contract is such a concern, but the subdivision of common property already created and any amendment of the contract itself are not.

Section 28P (Meetings of body corporate relating to development concerns) requires motions relating to development concerns to be dealt with at body corporate meetings separately from other kinds of motions.

Section 28Q (Conclusion of development scheme) sets out the various circumstances in which a development scheme established by a strata development contract is concluded. Each strata development contract that does not predict a time for conclusion of the development scheme will be taken to predict the tenth anniversary of its registration as the time for its conclusion.

Section 28QA (Order for extension or conclusion of development scheme) allows the Land and Environment Court to alter the time at which a strata development scheme would otherwise be concluded.

Strata Titles (Staged Development) Amendment 1992

Further consequential amendments

Schedule 1 (7)–(9), (11) and (13)–(17) amend sections 32, 37, 40, 42, 50, 51, 53, 66 and 68, respectively, to change references to development statements to references to strata development contracts.

Schedule 1 (10) amends section 41 (Registration of plans and notices) to omit requirements relating to the registration of development statements and amendments to them. (Those kinds of requirements for strata development contracts are contained in the proposed Division 2A.)

Schedule 1 (12) and (19) omit unnecessary cross-references from sections 43 and 105.

Schedule 1 (18) updates a cross-reference in section 80 (Duties of proprietors and occupiers of lots).

Schedule 1 (21) extends the cross-reference in the heading to Schedule 1A (Requirements for strata plans) because surveyors' certificates referred to in proposed new section 8A will certify compliance with the requirements set out in that schedule.

Orders for the reallocation of unit entitlements

Schedule 1 (20) substitutes section 119:

- to expand a Strata Titles Board's current power to order an adjustment of unit entitlements so as to include cases in which there has been a change in the uses to which the parcel may be put; and
- to allow applications for such orders to be made by rating and taxing authorities (such as local councils) whose rates or taxes are related to the value of land.

Covenants implied in strata development contracts

Schedule 1 (22) inserts proposed Schedule 1BA which sets out covenants implied in strata development contracts. Among the more important covenants are those:

- that require the standard of materials, the heights of buildings and the density of development in all development carried out under such a contract not to be inferior or substantially different from those of completed buildings forming part of the parcel; and
- that require shelter and subjacent and lateral support, consistent with proper engineering and building practices, and insurance to be provided where vertical staged development is carried out.

Transitional provisions

Schedule 1 (23) inserts proposed Part 3 into Schedule 4 (Transitional and savings provisions).

Any development scheme provided by a development statement certified by a consent authority or lodged for registration before the commencement of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the amending Act will be subject to the provisions of the 1973 Act as in force immediately before that commencement.

Any proceedings pending in the Land and Environment Court under the 1973 Act, the Strata Titles (Leasehold) Act 1986 or the Community Land Management Act 1989 when amendments made to the Land and Environment Court Act 1979 by Schedule 2 to the amending Act commence will continue to be dealt with as if those amendments had not been made. Power is conferred to make further savings and transitional provisions by regulations.

PART 2—OTHER AMENDMENTS

Extension of provisions to additional encroachments

Schedule 1 (24) amends section 6 (Construction of Act) which extends certain provisions relating to lots and common property to encroachments shown on proposed strata plans so that those provisions will also apply to encroachments shown on proposed strata plans of subdivision.

Contiguous land

Schedule 1 (25) amends section 7 (Subdivision) to allow land that is divided by, or separated by, a natural feature (such as a watercourse), railway, public road, public reserve or drainage reserve to be the subject of a strata scheme.

Requirements for development consent to strata subdivisions

Schedule 1 (26) amends section 36 (Other Acts not to apply to subdivisions under Division 1) to make it clear that the section does not prevent development consent to a subdivision under the 1973 Act from being required under the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979.

Termination of strata schemes

Schedule 1 (27) inserts proposed section 51A (Termination of strata scheme by Registrar-General) to empower the Registrar-General to terminate strata schemes in limited circumstances. A scheme that includes a development lot cannot be so terminated and an application for termination must be signed by all proprietors of lots and each registered mortgagee, chargee, covenant chargee and lessee of a lot, except where the Registrar-General agrees otherwise.

SCHEDULE 2—AMENDMENT OF OTHER ACTS

Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979

Section 99 (Lapsing of consent) is amended to substitute a reference to a development statement with a reference to a strata development contract.

Land and Environment Court Act 1979

Section 17 (Class 1—environmental planning and protection appeals) is amended to remove from that class of appeals applications for dispensing with certain consents or approvals otherwise required by the 1973 Act, the Strata Titles (Leasehold) Act 1986 or the Community Land Management Act 1989 because:

- in the case of the 1973 Act, the need for such a consent is abolished by amendments in the proposed Act; and
- in the case of the 1986 and 1989 Acts, such a consent or approval does not necessarily relate to environmental planning or protection.

Strata Titles (Staged Development) Amendment 1992

Section 18 (which currently confers "Class 2" jurisdiction relating to local government appeals and applications) is amended to confer jurisdiction on the Court allowing it to approve amendments to strata development contracts (as an alternative to approval of such an amendment by the body corporate) and to make orders relating to the conclusion of development schemes. The opportunity is taken to add other appropriate proceedings arising under the 1986 and 1989 Acts to this class of the Court's jurisdiction.

Section 20 is amended to simplify and update provisions conferring "Class 4" jurisdiction on the Court relating to the enforcement of strata development contracts and other development contracts under the 1986 Act and the Community Land Management Act 1989.

Section 71 is replaced so as to make it clear that the Supreme Court has only an appellate jurisdiction concerning the enforcement of strata development contracts.

(6) Part 2, Division 2A:

Omit the Division, insert instead:

Division 2A—Staged Development 5

Explanation of staged development

28A. (1) The purpose of this Division is to facilitate the development in stages of a parcel that is subject to a strata scheme.

(2) The development contemplated consists of: 10

- the progressive improvement of the parcel by the construction of buildings or the carrying out of works (or both) on a lot or lots reserved for future development (“development lots”); and
- the subsequent subdivision under this Act of each such lot and the consequential adjustment of unit entitlements within the scheme. 15

(3) Development lots may be situated wholly or partly above, below or alongside the building to which the strata scheme initially relates, but must be identified as such in the strata plan for the scheme when that plan is registered. 20

(4) The staged development of a parcel will be carried out subject to a strata development contract that describes separately:

- (a) any proposed development that the developer for the development lot concerned warrants will be carried out and may be compelled to carry out (“warranted development”); and 25
- (b) any other proposed development that the developer will be authorised but cannot be compelled to carry out (“authorised proposals”). 30

Warranted development and authorised proposals are referred to as “permitted development” because the body corporate for the strata scheme and other persons having estates or interests in lots included in the parcel must allow it to be carried out in accordance with the contract. 35

(5) This Division is not intended to prevent the development of a parcel otherwise than in accordance with this Division.

Strata Titles (Staged Development) Amendment 1992

Obligations of consent authorities

5 28B. (1) A consent authority must not, at the same time, grant development consent for the subdivision of land by a strata plan and the subsequent subdivision of a lot in that plan by a strata plan of subdivision unless:

- 10 (a) the lot intended to be subdivided is identified in the proposed strata plan as a development lot; and
(b) the development application is accompanied by a proposed strata development contract.

(2) When a consent authority grants such a consent, it must certify in the approved form that carrying out the permitted development would not contravene:

- 15 (a) any condition subject to which the consent was granted; or 20 (b) the provisions of any environmental planning instrument that were in force when the consent was granted, except to the extent (if any) specified in the certificate.

(3) A development consent that purports to have been granted in contravention of this section is invalid.

Form and content of strata development contract

25 28C. (1) A strata development contract and any amendment of such a contract must be in the approved form.

(2) A strata development contract must include a concept plan and a description:

- 30 (a) of the land comprising the parcel, identifying separately the development lot or lots to which it relates; and
(b) of any land proposed to be added to that parcel at a later time; and 35 (c) of so much (if any) of the proposed development as the developer is permitted by the contract to carry out and may be compelled to carry out (identified in the contract as "warranted development—proposed development subject to a warranty"); and

continued

- (d) of so much (if any) of the proposed development as the developer is permitted by the contract to carry out but cannot, merely because it is described in the contract, be compelled to carry out (identified in the contract as “authorised proposals—proposed development not subject to a warranty”). 5
- (3) A strata development contract must include such other documents, particulars and information as may be required by the regulations. 10
- (4) A strata development contract cannot provide for the subdivision of common property without the consent, by special resolution, of the body corporate. 15
- Concept plan 15
- 28D. (1) A concept plan must illustrate, in the manner approved by the Registrar-General, the sites proposed for and the nature of the buildings and works that would result from the carrying out of all permitted development under the strata development contract of which the plan forms part. 20
- (2) A concept plan must separately illustrate, in the manner approved by the Registrar-General, the sites proposed for and the nature of such of those buildings and works (if any) as would result from the carrying out of all warranted development. 25
- (3) The Registrar-General may refuse to register an amendment of a strata development contract if it does not include a revised concept plan so that this section will be complied with after the amendment has been registered. 30
- Variation of liability for common property expenses 30
- 28E. (1) A strata development contract may apportion the liability for expenses relating to the use or maintenance of the common property of the strata scheme concerned differently from the way that liability would otherwise be apportioned by the schedule of unit entitlement applicable to lots under the scheme. 35
- (2) An apportionment under this section has effect despite the current schedule of unit entitlement, but does not apply to any liability that relates to the use or maintenance of the common property after the development scheme is concluded. 40

Signing of strata development contract and amendments

28F. (1) The Registrar-General may register a strata development contract relating to a development lot in a strata plan or an amendment of such a contract only if the contract or amendment is signed by:

10

- (a) the developer for the development lot; and
- (b) in the case of an amendment, the proprietor of each other lot; and
- (c) each registered mortgagee, chargee, covenant chargee and lessee of the development lot and, in the case of an amendment, of each other lot; and
- (d) each registered mortgagee and chargee of a lease of the development lot and, in the case of an amendment, of a lease of any other lot.

(2) A strata development contract must be accompanied by the certificate (if any) required to be given by section 28B (Obligations of consent authorities).

20

(3) The Registrar-General may refuse to register a strata development contract or an amendment of such a contract if there have not been lodged in the office of the Registrar-General written consents to the registration of the contract or amendment signed by (or by an agent authorised by) such one or more of the following as the Registrar-General determines:

25

- (a) the judgment creditor under any writ recorded in the folio for the development lot concerned or for any lease of that lot or, in the case of an amendment, in the folio for any other lot or for a lease of any other lot;
- (b) the lessee under any lease of the common property of the strata scheme concerned;
- (c) the caveator under a caveat affecting any estate or interest of any person required to sign the contract because of that estate or interest or under a caveat affecting any such common property.

35

(4) Nothing prevents the same person from being more than one of the parties to a strata development contract.

Registration of strata development contract and amendments

28G. (1) The Registrar-General may register a strata development contract and any amendment of such a contract by making such recordings in the Register as the Registrar-General considers appropriate. 5

(2) The Registrar-General may refuse to register an amendment of a strata development contract if the certificate of title for the body corporate of the strata scheme concerned and the common property (if any) has not been produced to the Registrar-General. 10

(3) The Registrar-General must refuse to register a strata development contract or any amendment of such a contract that contravenes any requirement made of it by this Division. 15

Notice of strata development contract and amendments

28H. When a strata development contract is registered, the Registrar-General must record in the folio of the Register relating to the body corporate of the strata scheme concerned and the common property (if any): 20

(a) the existence of the contract and of any subsequent amendment of it that is registered from time to time; and

(b) such information relating to the contract and any amendment of the contract as the Registrar-General considers appropriate. 25

Effect of strata development contract

28I. (1) A strata development contract relating to a strata scheme has effect as an agreement under seal containing the covenants specified in Schedule 1BA entered into by the body corporate and each person who for the time being is: 30

(a) the developer concerned; or

(b) a proprietor of a lot (other than that developer); or

(c) a registered or enrolled mortgagee, chargee, covenant chargee or lessee, or an occupier, of a lot. 35

Strata Titles (Staged Development) Amendment 1992

SCHEDULE 1—AMENDMENT OF STRATA TITLES ACT 1973—

(2) The contract ceases to have effect:

(a) in relation to a person described in subsection (1) (a), (b) or (c), on that person ceasing to be a person so described; and

(b) in relation to all of the persons described in subsection (1), when the development scheme to which the contract relates is concluded.

This subsection does not affect any obligation that was incurred by a person, or any right that accrued to a person, under the contract before it ceased to have effect in relation to the person.

15

(3) A strata development contract does not permit development to be carried out in contravention of this or any other Act or any other law.

20

(4) A lessee entitled under a lease to immediate possession of a development lot is taken to be the developer, and the person who would otherwise be the developer is taken not to be the developer, for the purposes of this Act, the regulations and the strata development contract concerned.

25

(5) A mortgagee, chargee or covenant chargee in possession of a development lot is taken to be the developer, and the person who would otherwise be the developer is taken not to be the developer, for the purposes of this Act, the regulations and the strata development contract concerned.

30

(6) A provision in any other contract or instrument under which a strata development contract is excluded, modified or restricted is void.

(7) A covenant entered into under a strata development contract does not merge on transfer of a lot.

35

(8) Nothing in this section affects any right or remedy a person may have apart from a right or remedy under a strata development contract, with the exception that Part 5 does not apply to matters arising under any such contract.

 - (b) the amendment is registered.
- (2) A proposed amendment that involves a change in the basic architectural or landscaping design of the development, or in its essence or theme, may be made only if it is: 10

 - (b) except where the developer is the only proprietor of lots in the strata scheme concerned, supported by a unanimous resolution of the body corporate of the strata scheme concerned. 15
- (3) An amendment proposed in order to give effect to a change in the law or a change in the requirements of a consent authority may be made only if it is:
- (a) approved by the consent authority (if any); and 20

- (5) Any other proposed amendment that would not require a change in the terms of a development consent may be made only if: 30
- (a) it is supported by an ordinary resolution of the body corporate of the strata scheme concerned; and
 - (b) the application for registration, or the contract as intended to be amended, is accompanied by a certificate, given in the approved form by the consent authority (if any), to the effect that a change in the terms of any development consent is not required. 35

Approval of amendments by Land and Environment Court

15 28K. (1) An amendment of a strata development contract is not required to be supported by a resolution of a body corporate if the amendment is approved by the Land and Environment Court.

20 (2) Such an approval may be given only if the Court is satisfied:

- (a) that a motion supporting the amendment has been defeated; or
- 25 (b) that the notice of intention to move such a motion has been given but a meeting to consider the motion has not been held within a reasonable time after the giving of the notice; or

Use of common property and development lot by developer

28L. (1) When carrying out permitted development under a strata development contract, a developer is entitled to use any common property or development lot to which the contract relates: 10

- (a) to the extent necessary to carry out the development; or
- (b) to such other extent as may be specified in the contract, which may confer on the developer an exclusive (or any lesser) right to occupy specified common property. 15

(2) A right conferred by this section may be exercised despite any other provision of this Act or any provision of the by-laws or of an order under section 121, but must be exercised in a manner that does not cause unreasonable inconvenience to the occupier of any lot. 20

(3) Any provisions of a strata development contract that relate to the maintenance or upkeep of common property to which the contract relates have effect despite any provision of the by-laws or of an order under section 121.

Adding land to a parcel subject to a strata development contract 25

28M. (1) Land may be added to a parcel containing a development lot by registration of a strata plan of subdivision in accordance with the regulations.

(2) A strata plan of subdivision that adds land may be registered only if: 30

- (a) the land consisting of the former parcel and the additional land could be the subject of a strata plan had the land in the former parcel not already been subdivided under this Act; and 35
- (b) the strata development contract, as in force when the strata plan of subdivision is registered, provides for the land to be added to the parcel and states whether, on its being added to the parcel, the land will become

(c) a plan showing as a single lot the additional land and the former parcel has been lodged in the office of the Registrar-General for registration under the Conveyancing Act 1919.

10 (3) On registration of such a strata plan of subdivision, the land becomes common property, a further development lot or an addition to an existing development lot, or any specified combination of them, as provided by the strata development contract.

15 Right to complete permitted development

20 28N. (1) The vote of a developer who is permitted to carry out development because it is included in a strata development contract is sufficient to pass or defeat a motion included in the notice for a meeting of the body corporate or of the council of the body corporate if the passing or defeat of the motion would have the effect of making a decision about a development concern.

25 (2) It is not necessary for a decision about a development concern to be supported by a special or unanimous resolution of a body corporate, despite any other provision of this Act.

(3) A dealing, plan or other instrument may be executed either by the body corporate or by a developer on behalf of the body corporate for the purpose of giving effect to a decision about a development concern.

30 (4) The regulations may impose requirements for the execution of dealings, plans and other instruments by bodies corporate and developers and may require verification by statutory declaration of the circumstances in which they were executed.

35 What are “development concerns”?

28O. (1) The following are development concerns for the purposes of this Division:

40 (a) erecting structures, carrying out works or effecting other improvements in accordance with the strata development contract;

15 (4) The presence of the developer (or, if the developer is a corporation, of the company nominee of the corporation) constitutes a sufficient quorum for any meeting of the body corporate or of the council of the body corporate of which notice has been duly given, but only while business relating to a development concern is being dealt with.

20 (5) For the purpose only of allowing development permitted by a strata development contract to be carried out, a developer (or, if the developer is a corporation, the company nominee of the corporation) may exercise such of the other functions of a body corporate bound by the contract or of any other person having functions under the strata scheme concerned as may be prescribed by the regulations.

25 (6) This section has effect despite any other provision of this Act.

(2) An order may be made only if the Board considers, after having regard to the respective values of the lots and (if a strata development contract is in force in relation to the strata scheme) to such other matters as the Board considers relevant, that the allocation of unit entitlements among the lots: 5

- (a) was unreasonable when the strata plan was registered or when a strata plan of subdivision was registered; or 10
- (b) became unreasonable because of a change in the permitted land use, being a change (whether or not because of a rezoning) in the ways in which the whole or any part of the parcel could lawfully be used, whether with or without development consent. 15

(3) An application for an order may be made:

- (a) by a proprietor of a lot (whether or not a development lot) within the parcel; or

- that the developer must carry out any such development in accordance with the covenants set out and implied in the contract.

35 Permission to carry out warranted development and authorised proposals

2. The parties, other than the developer, jointly and severally agree with the developer that the developer is permitted to carry out, in accordance with the covenants set out or implied in the contract:

- the warranted development (if any); and 5
- such other development as is described and identified as “authorised proposals—proposed development not subject to a warranty” in the contract.

Body corporate expenses

3. The developer agrees with the body corporate that the developer will pay the reasonable expenses incurred by the body corporate: 10

- in repairing damage to the common property caused in carrying out the permitted development, except damage due to normal wear and tear; and 15
- for any water, sewerage, drainage, gas, electricity, oil, garbage, conditioned air or telephone service (and any other service prescribed by the regulations) used in carrying out that development; and
- for additional administrative costs connected with that development, such as the cost of giving notice of and holding any meeting required to obtain approval of a strata plan of subdivision. 20

Standard of development

4. The developer agrees with the other parties that: 25

- the standard of materials used, finishes effected, common property improvements, landscaping, roadways and paths; and
- the heights of buildings, other structures and works and the density of development, 30 in all development permitted to be carried out by the contract must not be inferior to or substantially different from those of the completed buildings and other structures and works forming part of the parcel, except to the extent (if any) that the contract specifies. 35

 - to such other extent as may be specified in the contract.

Restoration of common property

10 6. The developer agrees with the other parties to make good, as soon as is practicable, any damage to the common property arising out of performance of the contract, whether or not the contract contemplates or permits the damage.

Restoration of development lot

15 7. The developer agrees with the other parties to make good, as soon as is practicable, any damage to a development lot arising out of performance of the contract, whether or not the contract contemplates or permits the damage.

20 For the purposes of this covenant, “damage” does not include damage necessarily resulting from having carried out (in accordance with the contract) development that is permitted by the contract to be carried out.

Additional covenants for vertical staged development

25 8. If the contract permits development to be carried out within a development lot that is wholly or partly directly above a part of the parcel that is not a development lot, the developer agrees with the other parties:

- 30
- to minimise any disruption caused to other occupiers of the parcel by the carrying out of permitted development or otherwise; and
 - to ensure that, while permitted development is being carried out, shelter and subjacent and lateral support, consistent with proper engineering and building practices, are provided to such other parts of the parcel as are capable of being sheltered or of enjoying that support; and
- 35
- to keep the developer insured, while permitted development is being carried out, under a policy of indemnity (that complies with the regulations) with an insurer approved for the purposes of Division 5 of Part
