SUMMARY OFFENCES (PROSTITUTION) AMENDMENT
BILL 1992

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The object of this Bill is to amend the Summary Offences Act 1988:

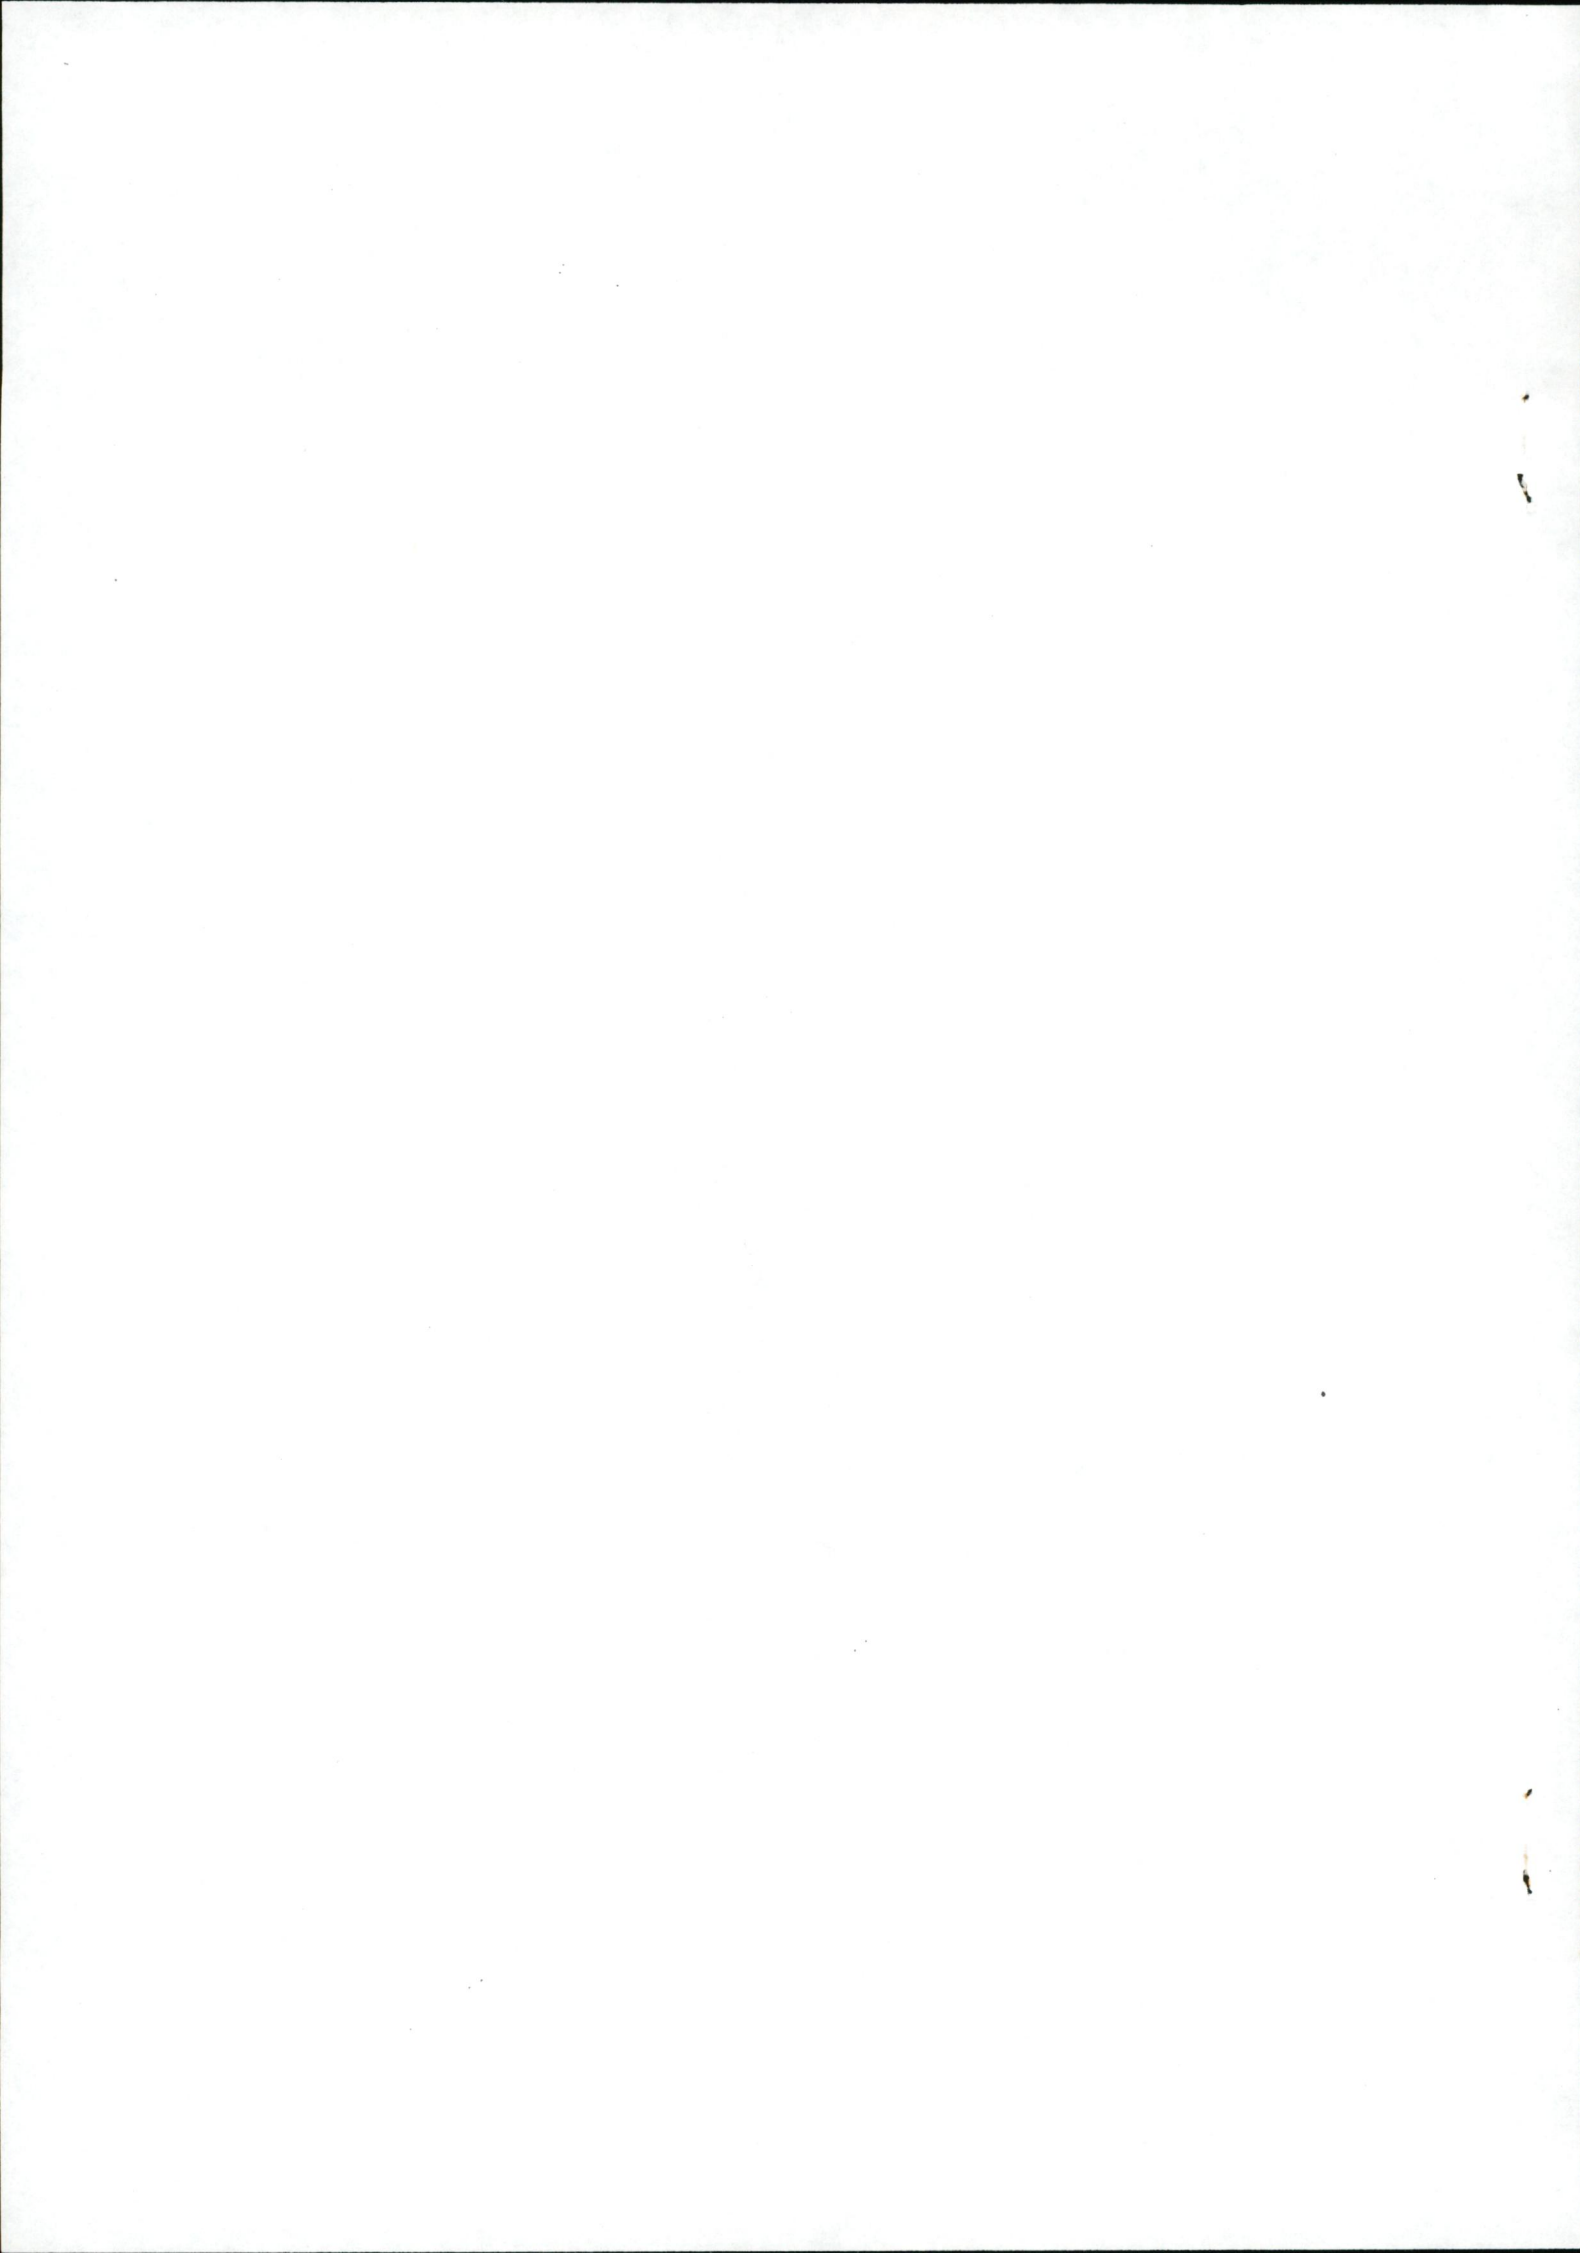

- (a) to clarify the offence in section 19 of the Act of soliciting for the purpose of prostitution in a public street, near or within view of a dwelling, school, church or hospital by replacing the words "near ... a dwelling ..." with the words "within 100 metres of ... a dwelling ..."; and
- (b) to create, by proposed section 19A, the offence of loitering in a public street, within 100 metres of or within view from a dwelling, school, church or hospital, for the purpose of prostitution or of soliciting for prostitution.

The proposed offence in section 19A is the same as that contained in section 4 (1) (k) of the repealed Vagrancy Act 1902 and section 28 of the repealed Summary Offences Act 1970, except that the proposed offence is restricted to conduct in a public street, within 100 metres of or within view of a dwelling etc.

The proposed amendments will assist in the control of the street prostitution concerned by clarifying the offence of soliciting "near" a dwelling etc. and by enabling prosecutions for loitering to be brought without the necessity of proving that actual soliciting has taken place.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 amends the Summary Offences Act 1988 as referred to above.
