- (b) the Director-General of the Environment Protection Authority or the Director-General's nominee; and
- (c) the Director of the Soil Conservation Service or the Director's nominee; and
- (d) a nominee of the Forestry Commission.

2. The functions of the committee are:

- (a) to determine the compartments to be logged and the sites of roads proposed by the Forestry Commission during any period when logging and roading takes place before the Forestry Commission obtains an environmental impact statement for those compartments or sites or before the Minister for Planning makes a determination under Division 4 of Part 5 of the EPA Act concerning logging operations within those compartments; and
- (b) to monitor logging and roading undertaken by or on behalf of the Forestry Commission after the Minister for Planning makes a determination under Division 4 of Part 5 of the EPA Act concerning logging operations within the Area; and
- (c) to keep a register containing particulars of:
 - (i) proposed logging and roading plans; and
 - (ii) licences issued by the Director-General of National Parks and Wildlife and by the Environment Protection Authority; and
 - (iii) timber licences issued by the Forestry Commission; and
 - (iv) any monitoring reports of the Forestry Commission, the National Parks and Wildlife Service, the Environment Protection Authority or the Soil Conservation Service.

3. The Forestry Commission must submit a proposed logging and roading plan to the committee not less than 40 days before it adopts the plan or not less than such shorter period as may be agreed to by the committee in the event of wet weather or some other contingency.

Timber Industry (Interim Protection) Amendment Act 1994 No. 21

4. Anyone may inspect the committee's register during ordinary office hours at the head office of the Forestry Commission, without cost.

5. Anyone may obtain a copy of the whole or part of the committee's register for the reasonable cost of making the copy.

6. The first meeting of the committee is to be held within 40 days after the commencement of this Part.

TIMBER INDUSTRY (INTERIM PROTECTION)
AMENDMENT BILL 1994

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The object of this Bill is to amend the Timber Industry (Interim Protection) Act 1992 in order:

- (a) to prevent logging operations from being carried out in old growth forests comprising the substantial part of the Eden Native Forest Management Area until an environmental impact statement under Part 5 of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 is obtained and the logging operations have been approved by the Minister for Planning; and
- (b) to allow logging operations to be carried out in other parts of the Eden Native Forest Management Area pending the obtaining of an environmental impact statement; and
- (c) to specify 31 December 1995 as the date by which the Forestry Commission should obtain the environmental impact statement for that part of the Eden Native Forest Management Area where logging operations are being allowed; and
- (d) to extend, from 31 December 1994 to 31 December 1995, the day on which that Act expires.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the proposed Act to commence on the date of assent.

Clause 3 amends the Timber Industry (Interim Protection) Act 1992 as set out in Schedule 1.

Timber Industry (Interim Protection) Amendment 1994

SCHEDULE 1—AMENDMENTS

Schedule 1 (1) extends the expiration date of the Timber Industry (Interim Protection) Act 1992 from 31 December 1994 to 31 December 1995.

Schedule 1 (2) adds parts of the Eden Native Forest Management Area to the substantial areas of old growth forests on which no logging operations may be carried out until an environmental impact statement is obtained.

Schedule 1 (3) adds parts of the Eden Native Forest Management Area to the forest areas in which logging operations may be carried out pending the obtaining of an environmental impact statement.
