Criminal Legislation Amendment Act 1996 No 6

Act No 6, 1996

An Act to amend the Crimes Act 1900 and certain other Acts to make miscellaneous amendments relating to criminal law and procedure, and for other purposes. [Assented to 5 June 1996]

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Criminal Legislation Amendment Act 1996.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

3 Amendment of Acts

Each Act specified in Schedule 1 is amended as set out in that Schedule.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Acts

(Section 3)

1.1 Children (Criminal Proceedings) Act 1987 No 55

[1] Section 11 Publication and broadcasting of names

Omit section 11 (3). Insert instead:

- (3) A person who publishes or broadcasts the name of any child the publication or broadcasting of which is prohibited by subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units (in the case of a corporation) or 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months, or both, in any other case.

[2] Section 12A

Insert after section 12:

12A Bail applications

Sections 10 and 11 apply to a child who appears or is brought before a court in relation to a bail application in the same way as the sections apply to a child appearing or brought before a court in any criminal proceeding.

[3] Section 49 Proceedings for offences

Insert "and subsection (2)" after "Part 3".

[4] Section 49 (2) and (3)

Insert at the end of section 49:

- (2) Proceedings for an offence against section 11 may be dealt with by the Supreme Court in its summary jurisdiction.
- (3) If proceedings for an offence against section 11 are brought before a Local Court, the maximum penalty that the Local Court may impose on a corporation is 50 penalty units.

1.2 Crimes Act 1900 No 40

[1] Section 1 Short title and contents of Act

Insert after the matter relating to Part 1 (3A):

- (3B) Misuse of public property by public officials outside the State—s 3B

[2] Section 1

Omit “56–60” from the matter relating to item 7 of Part 3.
Insert instead “56–59”.

[3] Section 1

Insert at the end of the matter relating to Part 10:

- (5) Offence relating to escaped prisoners—s 358C

[4] Section 1

Insert “Part 11A Intoxication—ss 428A–428I” after the matter relating to Part 11.

[5] Section 3B

Insert after section 3A:

Misuse of public property by public officials outside the State

3B Misuse of public property by public officials outside the State

- (1) A public official commits an offence under section 178BA or 178BB if:
 - (a) the public official does, or omits to do, outside the State any act or thing that constitutes the offence, and
 - (b) (apart from this section) the act or omission would have constituted the offence had it been done, or omitted to be done, within the State, and
 - (c) the offence involves public money of the State or other property held by any person for or on behalf of the State.
- (2) A public official who commits an offence by the operation of this section may be dealt with, and is liable to the same punishment, as if the public official had committed the offence within the State.
- (3) A sufficient nexus exists between the State and an element of an offence to which this section applies if the offence is committed by a public official and involves the misuse of public money of the State or other property held by any person for or on behalf of the State.
- (4) The other provisions of this Act, the provisions of other Acts and the common law, in so far as these are applicable, apply to an offence to which this section applies as if it had been committed within the State (for example, section 344A and the rules of law relating to attempts to commit offences apply to such an offence).

- (5) Nothing in this section prevents or affects any other punishment, or any forfeiture, provided under any Act. In particular, nothing in this section prevents or affects any other punishment for a breach of discipline by a public official.
- (6) This section applies only to acts or omissions occurring after the commencement of this section.
- (7) This section is in addition to and does not derogate from any other basis on which the courts of the State may exercise criminal jurisdiction.
- (8) In this section:
- public official* has the same meaning as it has in the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988.
- the State* includes:
- (a) the territorial sea adjacent to the State, and
 - (b) the sea on the landward side of the territorial sea that is not within the limits of the State.

[6] Sections 52B and 52BA

Omit section 52B. Insert instead:

52B Dangerous navigation: substantive matters

(1) Dangerous navigation occasioning death

A person is guilty of the offence of dangerous navigation occasioning death if the vessel navigated by the person is involved in an impact occasioning the death of another person and the person navigating the vessel was, at the time of the impact, navigating the vessel:

- (a) under the influence of intoxicating liquor or of a drug, or
- (b) at a speed dangerous to the public, or
- (c) in a manner dangerous to the public.

A person convicted of an offence under this subsection is liable to imprisonment for 10 years.

(2) Aggravated dangerous navigation occasioning death

A person is guilty of the offence of aggravated dangerous navigation occasioning death if the person commits the offence of dangerous navigation occasioning death in circumstances of aggravation. A person convicted of an offence under this subsection is liable to imprisonment for 14 years.

(3) Dangerous navigation causing grievous bodily harm

A person is guilty of the offence of dangerous navigation causing grievous bodily harm if the vessel navigated by the person is involved in an impact occasioning grievous bodily harm to another person and the person navigating the vessel was, at the time of the impact, navigating the vessel:

- (a) under the influence of intoxicating liquor or of a drug, or
- (b) at a speed dangerous to the public, or
- (c) in a manner dangerous to the public.

A person convicted of an offence under this subsection is liable to imprisonment for 7 years.

(4) Aggravated dangerous navigation occasioning grievous bodily harm

A person is guilty of the offence of aggravated dangerous navigation occasioning grievous bodily harm if the person commits the offence of dangerous navigation occasioning grievous bodily harm in circumstances of aggravation. A person convicted of an offence under this subsection is liable to imprisonment for 11 years.

(5) When vessel is involved in impact—generally

For the purposes of this section, the circumstances in which a vessel is involved in an impact occasioning the death of, or grievous bodily harm to, a person include if the death or harm is occasioned through any of the following:

- (a) the vessel overturning or running aground while the person is being conveyed in or on the vessel (whether as a passenger or otherwise),
- (b) an impact between any object and the vessel while the person is being conveyed in or on that vessel (whether as a passenger or otherwise),
- (c) an impact between the person and the vessel,
- (d) the impact of the vessel with another vessel or an object in, on or near which the person is at the time of the impact,
- (e) an impact with anything on, or attached to, the vessel,
- (f) an impact with anything that was in motion through falling from the vessel.

(6) When vessel is involved in causing other impacts

For the purposes of this section, a vessel is also involved in an impact occasioning the death of, or grievous bodily harm to, a person if the death or harm is occasioned through the vessel causing an impact between other vessels or between another vessel and any object or person or causing another vessel to overturn or run aground.

(7) Circumstances of aggravation

In this section, circumstances of aggravation means any circumstances at the time of the impact occasioning death or grievous bodily harm in which:

- (a) the prescribed concentration of alcohol was present in the accused's blood, or

- (b) the accused was navigating the vessel at a speed that exceeds the speed limit (if any) applicable to the person navigating the vessel, or to the navigable waters, on which the vessel was navigated at the time of the impact, or
- (c) the accused was navigating the vessel in an attempt to escape pursuit by a police officer.

(8) Defences

It is a defence to any charge under this section if the death or grievous bodily harm occasioned by the impact was not in any way attributable (as relevant):

- (a) to the fact that the person charged was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or of a drug, or
- (b) to the speed at which the vessel was navigated, or
- (c) to the manner in which the vessel was navigated.

(9) Definitions

In this section:

drug has the meaning it has in section 2 (1) of the Traffic Act 1909.

object includes a pier, wharf, jetty, pontoon, buoy, breakwater, bridge, support, mooring post or platform, navigation aid, retaining wall, marina, boatshed, slipway or swimming enclosure.

prescribed concentration of alcohol means a concentration of 0.15 grams or more of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood.

vessel means a vessel within the meaning of the Marine (Boating Safety—Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1991.

52BA Dangerous navigation: procedural matters

(1) Presumption as to intoxication

For the purposes of section 52B, the accused is conclusively presumed to be under the influence of liquor if the prosecution proves that the prescribed concentration of alcohol was present in the accused's blood at the time of the impact occasioning death or grievous bodily harm.

(2) Evidence of intoxication

For the purposes of section 52B, evidence may be given of the concentration of alcohol present in the accused's blood at the time of the impact occasioning death or grievous bodily harm as determined by a blood analysis carried out in accordance with Part 3 of the Marine (Boating Safety—Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1991.

(3) Time of intoxication

A concentration of alcohol determined by the means referred to in subsection (2) is taken to be the concentration of alcohol in the accused's blood at the time of the impact occasioning death or grievous bodily harm:

- (a) if the blood sample that was analysed was taken within 2 hours after the impact, and
- (b) unless the accused proves that the concentration of alcohol in the accused's blood at that time was less than the prescribed concentration of alcohol.

(4) Alternative verdicts

If on the trial of a person who is indicted for murder or manslaughter or for an offence under section 54 the jury is satisfied that the person is guilty of an offence under section 52B, it may find the accused guilty of the offence under section 52B, and the accused is liable to punishment accordingly.

(5) Question of aggravation

If on the trial of a person for an offence under section 52B (2) or (4) the jury is not satisfied that the accused is guilty of the offence charged, but is satisfied on the evidence that the accused is guilty of an offence under section 52B (1) or (3), it may find that the accused is guilty of the offence under section 52B (1) or (3), and the accused is liable to punishment accordingly.

(6) Double jeopardy

This section does not take away the liability of any person to be prosecuted for or found guilty of murder, manslaughter or any other offence or affect the punishment that may be imposed for any such offence. However, a person who:

- (a) has been convicted or acquitted of an offence under section 52B cannot be prosecuted for murder or manslaughter or for any other offence under this Act on the same, or substantially the same, facts, or
- (b) has been convicted or acquitted of murder or manslaughter or of any other offence under this Act cannot be prosecuted for an offence under section 52B on the same, or substantially the same, facts.

(7) Definition

In this section:

prescribed concentration of alcohol means a concentration of 0.15 grams or more of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood.

[7] Section 60 Assault by husband on wife

Omit the section.

[8] Section 302A

Insert after section 302:

302A Making or possession of implements for making false instruments

A person who makes, or who has in his or her custody or under his or her control, a machine or implement, or paper or other material, that is, and that the person knows to be, specially designed or adapted for the making of a false instrument, with the intention that he or she or another person will use it to induce another person:

- (a) to accept the instrument as genuine, and
- (b) because of that acceptance, to do or not do some act to that other person's or to another person's prejudice, is liable to penal servitude for 10 years.

[9] Section 358C

Insert after section 358B:

Offence relating to escaped prisoners

358C Harboursing escapee from another State or Territory

Any person who, in this State, knowingly harbours, maintains or employs a prisoner who has escaped from lawful custody in another State or a Territory is liable to penal servitude for 3 years.

[10] Part 11A

Insert after Part 11:

Part 11A Intoxication

428A Definitions

In this Part:

drug includes a drug within the meaning of the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985 and a poison, restricted substance or drug of addiction within the meaning of the Poisons Act 1966.

intoxication means intoxication because of the influence of alcohol, a drug or any other substance.

428C Intoxication in relation to offences of specific intent

- (1) Evidence that a person was intoxicated (whether by reason of self-induced intoxication or otherwise) at the time of the relevant conduct may be taken into account in determining whether the person had the intention to cause the specific result necessary for an offence of specific intent.
- (2) However, such evidence cannot be taken into account if the person:
 - (a) had resolved before becoming intoxicated to do the relevant conduct, or
 - (b) became intoxicated in order to strengthen his or her resolve to do the relevant conduct.

428D Intoxication in relation to other offences

In determining whether a person had the mens rea for an offence other than an offence of specific intent, evidence that a person was intoxicated at the time of the relevant conduct:

- (a) if the intoxication was self-induced—cannot be taken into account, or
- (b) if the intoxication was not self-induced—may be taken into account.

428E Intoxication in relation to murder and manslaughter

If evidence of intoxication at the time of the relevant conduct results in a person being acquitted of murder:

- (a) in the case of intoxication that was self-induced—evidence of that intoxication cannot be taken into account in determining whether the person had the requisite mens rea for manslaughter, or
- (b) in the case of intoxication that was not self-induced—evidence of that intoxication may be taken into account in determining whether the person had the requisite mens rea for manslaughter.

428F Intoxication in relation to the reasonable person test

If, for the purposes of determining whether a person is guilty of an offence, it is necessary to compare the state of mind of the person with that of a reasonable person, the comparison is to be made between the conduct or state of mind of the person and that of a reasonable person who is not intoxicated.

428G Intoxication and the actus reus of an offence

- (1) In determining whether a person has committed an offence, evidence that the intoxication was self-induced cannot be taken into account in determining whether the relevant conduct was voluntary.
- (2) However, a person is not criminally responsible for an offence if the relevant conduct resulted from intoxication that was not self-induced.

428H Abolition of common law relating to self-induced intoxication

The common law relating to the effect of intoxication on criminal liability is abolished.

428I Application of Part

This Part applies to any offence (whether under this Act or otherwise) committed after the commencement of this Part.

[1] Section 6A

Insert after section 6:

6A Unauthorised entry of vehicle or boat

A person must not, without reasonable excuse (proof of which lies on the person), enter any vehicle or boat in a public place without the consent of the owner or lawful occupier of the vehicle or boat.

Maximum penalty: 4 penalty units.

[2] Section 10 Custody of offensive implement

Omit "10 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months" from section 10 (1).

Insert instead "20 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months".

1.8 Supreme Court Act 1970 No 52

Section 69A and 69B

Insert after section 69:

69A Release on bail and custody of claimants seeking judicial review of conviction or sentence

- (1) This section and section 69B apply to proceedings in the Court by a convicted person (the claimant) seeking judicial review in relation to a conviction or sentence for an offence.
- (2) A claimant who is not released on bail must, pending the determination of the proceedings, be treated in such manner as may be directed by regulations made under the Prisons Act 1952 (which is referred to in this section as special treatment).
- (3) The time during which a claimant is at liberty on bail (pending the determination of the proceedings for review) does not count as part of any term of imprisonment or penal servitude under the claimant's sentence.
- (4) The time during which an appellant receives special treatment counts as part of any term of imprisonment or penal servitude under the claimant's sentence. However, if the Court is satisfied that the claim was unarguable or frivolous, the Court may order that the time in custody with special treatment does not count.
- (5) In determining proceedings for judicial review, the Court may order that the imprisonment under the original sentence of imprisonment or penal servitude is to commence or recommence on a day specified by the Court.

- (6) Provision is to be made in regulations made under the Prisons Act 1952 for:
- (a) the manner in which a claimant, when in custody, is to be brought to any place where the claimant is entitled to be present, or ordered to be taken, for the purposes of this Act, and
 - (b) the manner in which the appellant is to be kept in custody whilst absent from prison for the purpose.
- (7) A claimant while in custody in accordance with those regulations is taken to be in legal custody.

69B Other powers in relations to claimants for judicial review of convictions and sentences

- (1) In determining proceedings for judicial review in relation to a conviction or sentence for an offence, the Court may make an order quashing either the conviction of, or the sentence imposed on, the claimant, or quash both the conviction and the sentence.
- (2) This section applies to judicial review of orders made by a Local Court or the District Court despite anything contained in the Justices Act 1902.
