

Criminal Procedure Amendment (Sentences Adjustment) Bill 1996

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 to enable the adjustment of any cumulative sentence of imprisonment when an earlier sentence is quashed or varied on appeal or otherwise. The cumulative sentence would have been set to commence at the end of the earlier sentence.

Under the Bill, the court that quashes or varies a sentence may adjust the date of commencement of the cumulative sentence.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on the date of assent.

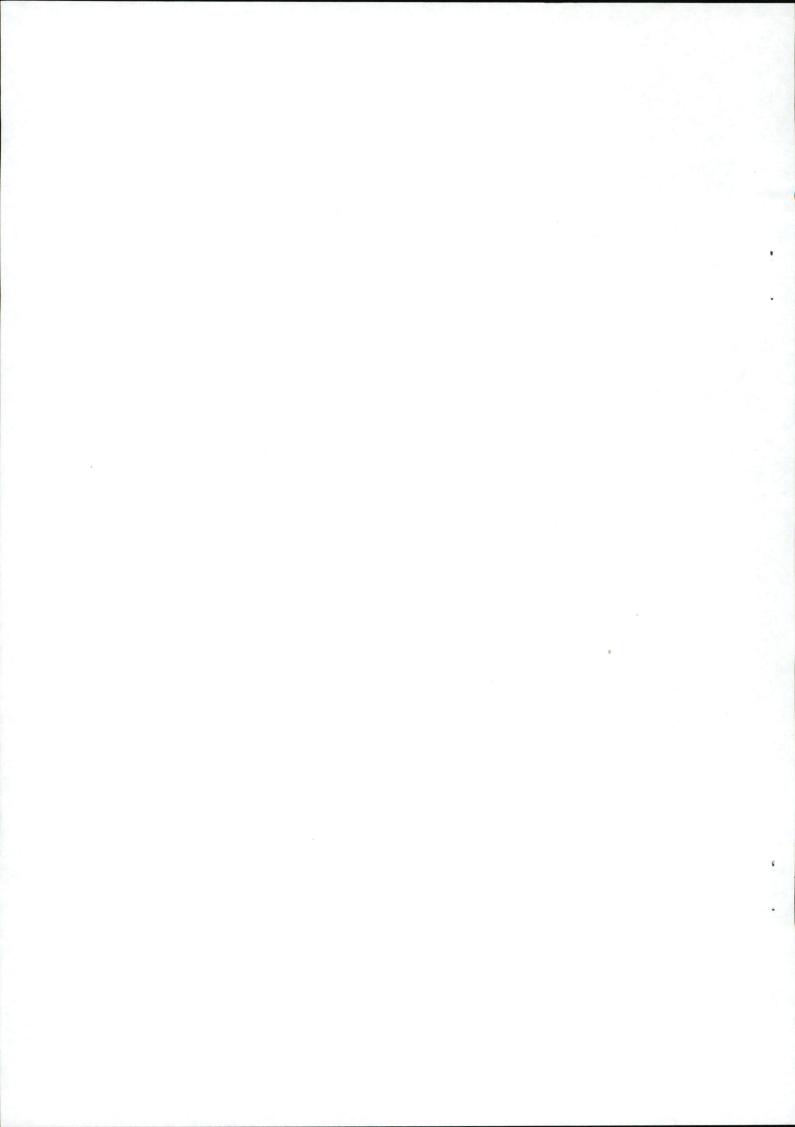

Clause 3 is a formal provision giving effect to the amendments to the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 set out in Schedule 1. Schedule 1 contains the amendments that give effect to the object mentioned above.
