New South Wales

Local Government Amendment (Tribunals) Bill 1996

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Local Government Act 1993 to enable retired judges to be appointed to certain tribunals under the Act.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on assent to it by the Governor.

Clause 3 is a formal provision giving effect to the Schedule of amendments.

Clause 4 makes it clear that current terms of appointment are not affected by the proposed amendments.

Schedule 1 Amendments

Schedule 1 [1] amends section 488 to enable retired District Court and Supreme Court Judges to be appointed to the Local Government Pecuniary Interest Tribunal.

Schedule 1 [2] amends Schedule 1 to enable retired Judges (and persons of the same status) to be appointed as the Local Government Remuneration Tribunal.
