- (1) The principal functions of the Commission are as follows:
 - (a) to prevent serious police misconduct and other police misconduct, 5
 - (b) to detect or investigate, or manage other agencies in the detection or investigation of, serious police misconduct,
 - (c) to detect or investigate, or oversee other agencies in the detection or investigation of, other police misconduct, as it thinks fit, 10
 - (d) to receive and assess all matters not completed by the Police Royal Commission, to treat any investigations or assessments of the Police Royal Commission as its own, to initiate or continue the investigation of any such matters where appropriate, and otherwise to deal with those matters under this Act. 15
- (2) The Commission is, as far as practicable, required to turn its attention principally to serious police misconduct.
- (3) The reference in this section to managing other agencies in the detection or investigation of serious police misconduct is a reference to the provision by the Commission of detailed guidance in the planning and execution of such detection or investigation. 20
- (4) The reference in this section to overseeing other agencies in the detection or investigation of other police misconduct is a reference to the provision by the Commission of a lower level of such guidance, relying rather on a system of guidelines prepared by it and progress reports and final reports furnished to it. 25
- (5) In managing or overseeing other agencies for the purposes of this section, the Commission does not have a power of control or direction, and any such management or oversight is to be achieved by agreement. However, it is the duty of members of 30 the Police Service to co-operate with the Commission in the exercise of its management and oversight functions and any other functions of the Commission.

- (6) However, nothing in subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5):
 - (a) affects the capacity of the Commission to exercise any of the functions as referred to in subsection (1), or 5
 - (b) provides a ground for any appeal or other legal or administrative challenge to the exercise by the Commission of any of those functions.

14 Other functions regarding police activities and education programs 10

Other functions of the Commission include the following:

- (d) to furnish evidence obtained in the course of its investigations (being evidence that may be admissible in the prosecution of a person for a criminal offence against or a disciplinary offence under the law of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory) to the Attorney General or to the appropriate authority in the jurisdiction concerned. 15
- (2) Evidence of the kind referred to in subsection (1) (d) may be accompanied by any observations that the Commission thinks appropriate and (in the case of evidence furnished to the Attorney General) recommendations as to what action the Commission considers should be taken in relation to the evidence. 20
- (3) A copy or detailed description of any evidence furnished to the appropriate authority in another jurisdiction, together with a copy of any accompanying observations, is to be furnished to the Attorney General. 25
- (4) If the Commission obtains any information in the course of its investigations relating to the exercise of the functions of a public authority (other than the Ombudsman in the exercise of its functions in relation to police misconduct or police complaints), the Commission may, if it thinks it desirable to do so: 30
- (a) furnish the information or a report of the information to the authority or the Minister for the authority, and
- (b) make to the authority or the Minister for the authority such recommendations (if any) relating to the exercise of the functions of the authority as the Commission thinks appropriate. 35

- (5) A copy of any information or report furnished to a public authority under subsection (4), together with a copy of any such recommendation, is to be furnished to the Minister for the authority.
- (6) If the Commission furnishes any evidence or information to a person under this section on the understanding that the information is confidential, the person is subject to the secrecy provisions of section 61 in relation to the evidence or information. 5
- 16 Provisions regarding assessments, opinions and recommendations 10
- (1) The Commission may:
- (a) make assessments and form opinions, on the basis of its investigations or those of the Police Royal Commission or of agencies of which it has management or oversight under this Act, as to whether police misconduct or other misconduct: 15
- has or may have occurred, or
 - is or may be occurring, or
 - is or may be about to occur, or 20
 - is likely to occur, and
- (b) make recommendations as to whether consideration should or should not be given to the prosecution of or the taking of other disciplinary action against particular persons, and
- (c) make recommendations for the taking of other action that the Commission considers should be taken in relation to the subject-matter of its assessments or opinions or the results of any such investigations. 25
- (2) However, the Commission may not:
- (a) make a finding or form an opinion that a specified person is guilty of or has committed, is committing or is about to commit a criminal offence or disciplinary offence (whether or not a specified criminal offence or disciplinary offence), or 30

- (b) make a recommendation that a specified person be, or an opinion that a specified person should be, prosecuted for a criminal offence or disciplinary offence (whether or not a specified criminal offence or disciplinary offence).
- (3) An opinion that a person has engaged, is engaging or is about to engage: 5
- (a) in police misconduct (whether or not specified conduct), or
- (b) in specified conduct (being conduct that constitutes or involves or could constitute or involve police misconduct),
- is not a finding or opinion that the person is guilty of or has committed, or is committing or is about to commit a criminal offence or disciplinary offence. 10
- (4) Nothing in this section prevents or affects the exercise of any function by the Commissioner that it considers appropriate for the purposes of or in the context of Division 1A of Part 9 of the Police Service Act 1990. 15

17 Task forces (cf ICAC Act s 15)

The Commission may, in connection with its functions:

- (a) arrange for the establishment of task forces within the State, and 20
- (b) seek the establishment of joint task forces with authorities of the Commonwealth or other States or Territories, and
- (c) co-operate with State task forces, Commonwealth task forces, joint task forces or other task forces,
- (d) co-ordinate or co-operate in co-ordinating any such task forces. 25

18 Co-operation with other agencies (cf ICAC Act s 16)

- (1) In exercising its investigative functions, the Commission may work in co-operation with investigative agencies and such other persons and bodies as the Commission thinks appropriate (whether or not they are in or of the State). 30

- (2) In exercising its other functions, the Commission may work in co-operation with the educational institutions and such other persons and bodies as the Commission thinks appropriate (whether or not they are in or of the State).
- (3) The Commission may consult with and disseminate intelligence and information to investigative agencies and such other persons and bodies (including any task force and any member of a task force) as the Commission thinks appropriate (whether or not they are in or of the State). 5
- (4) If the Commission disseminates information to a person or body under this section on the understanding that the information is confidential, the person or body is subject to the secrecy provisions of section 61 in relation to the information. 10

 - (j) any other authority or person responsible for the enforcement of laws of the Commonwealth or of the State, another State or a Territory or charged under any such laws with investigating or detecting police or other misconduct. 30

19 Application of Drug Trafficking (Civil Proceedings) Act 1990

- (1) The Drug Trafficking (Civil Proceedings) Act 1990 applies to the Police Corruption Commission in the same way as it applies to the New South Wales Crime Commission. 35

- (2) Accordingly, references in that Act to the Crime Commission are taken to include references to the Police Corruption Commission, so that functions exercisable by the Crime Commission may be exercised by either body.
- (3) The Police Corruption Commission may exercise a function under that Act only: 5
- (a) after the PCC Commissioner has consulted with the Crime Commission, or
- (b) in conformity with an arrangement referred to in section 89 of this Act, 10
- and must consider whether any such function should instead be exercised by the Crime Commission.
- (4) It is intended that the Police Corruption Commission will exercise a function under that Act only in connection with matters arising during or out of its own investigations. However, this subsection does not provide any grounds for an appeal against or any other challenge to the exercise by the Commission of any such function. 15

20 Evidence and procedure (cf ICAC Act s 17)

- (1) The Commission is not bound by the rules or practice of evidence and can inform itself on any matter in such manner as it considers appropriate. 20
- (2) The Commission is required to exercise its functions with as little formality and technicality as is possible, and, in particular, the Commission is required to accept written submissions as far as is possible and hearings are to be conducted with as little emphasis on an adversarial approach as is possible. 25
- (3) Despite subsection (1), section 127 (Religious confessions) of the Evidence Act 1995 applies to any hearing before the Commission. 30

21 Court proceedings (cf ICAC Act s 18; RC (PS) Act s 38)

- (1) The Commission may do any or all of the following, despite any proceedings that may be in or before any court, tribunal, warden, coroner, Magistrate, justice of the peace or other person:
- (a) commence, continue, discontinue or complete any investigation, 5
 - (b) furnish reports in connection with any investigation,
 - (c) do all such acts and things as are necessary or expedient for those purposes.
- (2) If the proceedings are proceedings for an indictable offence and are conducted by or on behalf of the Crown, the Commission may, to the extent to which the Commission thinks it necessary to do so to ensure the accused's right to a fair trial is not prejudiced:
- (a) ensure that, as far as practicable, any hearing or other matters relating to the investigation are conducted in private during the currency of the proceedings, and 15
 - (b) give directions under section 57, having effect during the currency of the proceedings, and
 - (c) defer making a report to Parliament in relation to the investigation during the currency of the proceedings. 20
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply:
- (a) in the case of committal proceedings—before the commencement of the committal hearing, that is, the commencement of the taking of the evidence for the prosecution in the committal proceedings, and 25
 - (b) in any other case—after the proceedings cease to be proceedings for the trial of a person before a jury.
- (4) This section has effect whether or not the proceedings commenced before or after the relevant investigation commenced and has effect whether or not the Commission or an officer of the Commission is a party to the proceedings. 30

22 Incidental powers (cf ICAC Act s 19 (1))

The Commission has power to do all things necessary to be done for or in connection with, or reasonably incidental to, the exercise of its functions. Any specific powers conferred on the Commission by this Act are not taken to limit by implication the generality of this section.

Division 2 Investigations23 Investigations generally (cf ICAC Act s 20)

- (1) The Commission may conduct an investigation on its own initiative, on a police complaint made or referred to it, on a police complaint of which it has become aware, or on a report made to it. 10
- (2) The Commission may conduct an investigation even though no particular police officer or other person has been implicated and even though no police misconduct is suspected. 15
- (3) The Commission may, in considering whether or not to conduct, continue or discontinue an investigation, have regard to such matters as it thinks fit, including whether or not (in the Commission's opinion):
- (a) the subject-matter of the investigation is trivial, or 20
 - (b) the conduct or matter concerned occurred at too remote a time to justify investigation, or
 - (c) if the investigation was initiated as a result of a police complaint—the complaint was frivolous, vexatious or not in good faith. 25

24 Preliminary inquiries (cf Omb Act s 13AA)

- (1) The Commission may make preliminary inquiries for the purpose of deciding whether to make particular conduct the subject of an investigation under this Act.

- (2) The inquiries may be made whether or not any person has complained about the conduct under this or any other Act.

Division 3 Obtaining information, documents and other things

25 Power to obtain information (cf ICAC Act ss 21, 82; RC (PS) Act s 6) 5

- (1) For the purposes of an investigation, the Commission may, by notice in writing served on a public authority or public official, require the authority or official to produce a statement of information. 10

- (2) A notice under this section must specify or describe the information concerned, must fix a time and date for compliance, and must specify the person (being the Commissioner, an Assistant Commissioner or any other officer of the Commission) to whom production is to be made. 15

- (3) The notice may provide that the requirement may be satisfied by some other person acting on behalf of the public authority or public official and may, but need not, specify the person or class of persons who may so act.

- (4) A person must not: 20
- (a) without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a notice served on the person under this section, or
 - (b) in purported compliance with a notice served on the person or some other person under this section, furnish information knowing it to be false or misleading in a material particular. 25

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

- (5) This section does not apply to: 30
- (a) the Independent Commission Against Corruption or an officer of the Commission as defined in the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988, or
 - (b) the Ombudsman or an officer of the Ombudsman.

26 Power to obtain documents or other things (cf ICAC Act ss 22, 83; RC (PS) Act s 7)

- (1) For the purposes of an investigation, the Commission may, by notice in writing served on a person (whether or not a public authority or public official), require the person: 5
- (a) to attend, at a time and place specified in the notice, before a person (being the Commissioner, an Assistant Commissioner or any other officer of the Commission) specified in the notice, and
- (b) to produce at that time and place to the person so specified a document or other thing specified in the notice. 10
- (2) The notice may provide that the requirement may be satisfied by some other person acting on behalf of the person on whom it was imposed and may, but need not, specify the person or class of persons who may so act. 15
- (3) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a notice served on the person under this section.
Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

- (1) This section applies where, under section 25 or 26, the Commission requires any person: 30
- (a) to produce any statement of information, or
- (b) to produce any document or other thing.
- (2) The Commission must set aside the requirement if it appears to the Commission that any person has a ground of privilege whereby, in proceedings in a court of law, the person might resist a like requirement and it does not appear to the Commission that the person consents to compliance with the requirement. 35

- (3) The person must however comply with the requirement despite:
- (a) any rule that in proceedings in a court of law might justify an objection to compliance with a like requirement on grounds of public interest, or
 - (b) any privilege of a public authority or public official in that capacity that the authority or official could have claimed in a court of law, or 5
 - (c) any duty of secrecy or other restriction on disclosure applying to a public authority or public official.
- 28 Self-incrimination (cf ICAC Act s 26; RC (PS) Act s 9) 10
- (1) This section applies where, under section 25 or 26, the Commission requires any person (other than a body corporate):
- (a) to produce any statement of information, or
 - (b) to produce any document or other thing.
- (2) If the statement, document or other thing tends to incriminate the person and the person objects to production at the time, neither the fact of the requirement nor the statement, document or thing itself (if produced) may be used in any proceedings against the person (except proceedings for an offence against this Act). 15
- (3) They may however be used for the purposes of the investigation concerned, despite any such objection. 20
- 29 Power to enter public premises (ICAC Act ss 23 (1) (3), 25 (2) (3); RC (PS) Act s 10 (1) (3) (4) (5))

 - (b) inspect any document or other thing in or on the premises, and 30
 - (c) take copies of any document in or on the premises.

- (2) The public authority or public official must make available to the Commissioner or authorised officer such facilities as are necessary to enable the powers conferred by this section to be exercised.
- (3) The powers conferred by this section must not be exercised if it appears to the Commissioner or authorised officer that any person has a ground of privilege whereby, in proceedings in a court of law, the person might resist inspection of the premises or production of the document or other thing and it does not appear to the Commissioner or authorised officer that the person consents to the inspection or production. 5 10
- (4) The powers may however be exercised despite:
- (a) any rule of law that, in proceedings in a court of law, might justify an objection to an inspection of the premises or to production of the document or other thing on grounds of public interest, or 15
- (b) any privilege of a public authority or public official in that capacity that the authority or official could have claimed in a court of law, or
- (c) any duty of secrecy or other restriction on disclosure applying to a public authority or public official. 20
- (5) This section does not apply to:
- (a) the Independent Commission Against Corruption or an officer of the Commission as defined in the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988, or 25
- (b) the Ombudsman or an officer of the Ombudsman.

30 Injunctions (cf ICAC Act ss 27, 28)

- (1) The Supreme Court may, on application made by the Commission, grant an injunction restraining any conduct in which a person (whether or not a public authority or public official) is engaging or in which such a person appears likely to engage, if the conduct is the subject of, or affects the subject of, an investigation or proposed investigation by the Commission. 30

- (2) The Supreme Court is not to grant an injunction under this section unless it is of the opinion that:
- (a) the conduct sought to be restrained is likely to impede the conduct of the investigation or proposed investigation, or
 - (b) it is necessary to restrain the conduct in order to prevent irreparable harm being done because of serious police misconduct or suspected serious police misconduct. 5
- (3) The Commission is not to be required, as a condition for the granting of an injunction under this section, to give any undertakings as to damages. 10

31 Powers exercisable whether or not hearings being held
(cf ICAC Act s 29)

Powers may be exercised under this Division in relation to an investigation whether or not a hearing before the Commission is being held for the purposes of the investigation. 15

Division 4 Hearings

32 Hearings (cf ICAC Act s 30)

- (1) For the purposes of an investigation, the Commission may hold hearings.
- (2) A hearing must be conducted by the Commissioner or by an Assistant Commissioner, as determined by the Commissioner. 20
- (3) At each hearing, the person presiding must announce the general scope and purpose of the hearing.
- (4) A person appearing before the Commission at a hearing is entitled to be informed of the general scope and purpose of the hearing, unless the Commissioner is of the opinion that this would seriously prejudice the investigation concerned. 25

33 Public and private hearings (cf ICAC Act s 31)

- (1) A hearing may be held in public or in private, or partly in public and partly in private, as decided by the Commission. 30

- (2) Without limiting the above, the Commission may decide to hear closing submissions in private. This extends to a closing submission by a person appearing before the Commission or by a legal practitioner representing such a person, as well as to a closing submission by a legal practitioner assisting the Commission as counsel. 5
- (3) In reaching these decisions, the Commission is obliged to have regard to any matters that it considers to be related to the public interest.
- (4) The Commission may give directions as to the persons who may be present at a hearing when it is being held in private. A person must not be present at a hearing in contravention of any such direction. 10

If it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commission that any person is substantially and directly interested in any subject-matter of a hearing, the Commission may authorise the person to appear at the hearing or a specified part of the hearing. 15

35 Legal representation (cf ICAC Act s 33)

- (1) The Commission may, in relation to a hearing, authorise: 20
- (a) a person giving evidence at the hearing, or

36 Groups and unincorporated associations (cf ICAC Act s 33A)

- (1) Groups and unincorporated associations may be authorised to appear at a hearing or authorised or required to give evidence at a hearing. 30

- (2) Accordingly, references in sections 34 and 35 to a “person” extend for this purpose to a group or unincorporated association.
- (3) However, this section does not affect the application in any other context of the principle that a reference to a word in the singular form includes a reference to the word in the plural form. 5
- 37 Examination and cross-examination of witnesses (cf ICAC Act s 34)
- (1) A person authorised or required to appear at a hearing, or a person’s legal practitioner authorised to appear at a hearing, may, with the leave of the Commission, examine or cross-examine any witness on any matter that the Commission considers relevant. 10
- (2) A legal practitioner appointed by the Commission to assist it may examine or cross-examine any witness on any matter that the Commission considers relevant.
- (3) Any witness examined or cross-examined under this section has the same protection and is subject to the same liabilities as if examined by the Commissioner or an Assistant Commissioner. 15
- 38 Power to summon witnesses and take evidence (cf ICAC Act s 35)
- (1) The Commissioner may summon a person to appear before the Commission at a hearing at a time and place named in the summons: 20
- (a) to give evidence, or
- (b) to produce such documents or other things (if any) as are referred to in the summons, 25
- or both.
- (2) The person presiding at a hearing before the Commission may require a person appearing at the Commission to produce a document or other thing.
- (3) The Commission may, at a hearing, take evidence on oath or affirmation and for that purpose: 30
- (a) the person presiding at the hearing may require a person appearing at the hearing to give evidence either to take an oath or make an affirmation in a form approved by the person presiding, and 35

- (b) the person presiding, or a person authorised for the purpose by the person presiding, may administer an oath or affirmation to a person so appearing at the hearing.
- (4) A witness who has been summoned to attend before the Commission must appear and report himself or herself from day to day unless the witness is excused from attendance or until the witness is released from further attendance by the person presiding at the hearing. 5
- (5) A person who, without being so excused or released, fails to appear and report is taken to have failed to appear before the Commission in obedience to the summons. 10
- (6) A Judge or Magistrate may, on the application of the Commissioner, issue any summons that the Commissioner is authorised to issue under this section.
- (7) The purpose of subsection (6) is to enable the summons to be given the character of a summons by a judicial officer, for the purposes of the Service and Execution of Process Act 1992 of the Commonwealth and any other relevant law. 15

Division 5 Attendance before Commission

- 39 Arrest of witness (cf ICAC Act s 36; RC (PS) Act s 11) 20
- (1) If a person served with a summons to attend the Commission as a witness fails to attend in answer to the summons, the Commissioner may, on proof by statutory declaration of the service of the summons, issue a warrant for the arrest of the witness. 25
- (2) The Commissioner may issue a warrant for the arrest of a person whose evidence is desired and is necessary and relevant to an investigation, if the Commissioner is satisfied by evidence on oath or affirmation that it is probable that the person:
- (a) will not attend before the Commission to give evidence without being compelled to do so, or 30

(b) is about to or is making preparations to leave the State and the person's evidence will not be obtained by the Commission if the person departs.

- (3) The Commissioner is authorised to administer an oath or affirmation for the purposes of subsection (2). 5
- (4) A warrant may be issued under subsection (2) without or before the issue of a summons to the person whose evidence is desired.
- (5) A warrant may be issued under subsection (2) after the issue of a summons to the person whose evidence is desired, even though the time named in the summons for the person to attend has not yet passed. 10
- (6) A warrant under this section authorises the arrest of the witness and his or her being promptly brought before the Commission and detained in custody for that purpose until released by order of the Commission. 15
- (7) A warrant issued under this section may be executed by any police officer, or by any person to whom it is addressed, and the person executing it may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of entering any premises for the purpose of executing it. 20
- (8) The issue of a warrant or the arrest of a witness does not relieve the witness from any liability incurred by the witness for non-compliance with a summons.

40 Privilege as regards answers, documents etc (cf ICAC Act s 37)

- (1) A witness summoned to attend or appearing before the Commission at a hearing is not entitled to refuse: 25
- (a) to be sworn or to make an affirmation, or
- (b) to answer any question relevant to an investigation put to the witness by the Commissioner or other person presiding at a hearing, or 30
- (c) to produce any document or other thing in the witness's custody or control that the witness is required by the summons or by the person presiding to produce.

- (2) A witness summoned to attend or appearing before the Commission at a hearing is not excused from answering any question or producing any document or other thing on the ground that the answer or production may incriminate or tend to incriminate the witness, or on any other ground of privilege, or on the ground of a duty of secrecy or other restriction on disclosure, or on any other ground. 5
- (3) An answer made, or document or other thing produced, by a witness at a hearing before the Commission is not (except as otherwise provided in this section) admissible in evidence against the person in any civil or criminal proceedings, but is admissible in any disciplinary proceedings. 10
- (4) Nothing in this section makes inadmissible:
- (a) any answer, document or other thing in proceedings for an offence against this Act or in proceedings for contempt under this Act, or 15
 - (b) any answer, document or other thing in any civil or criminal proceedings if the witness does not object to giving the answer or producing the document or other thing irrespective of the provisions of subsection (2), or 20
 - (c) any document in any civil proceedings for or in respect of any right or liability conferred or imposed by the document or other thing.
- (5) Where:
- (a) a legal practitioner or other person is required to answer a question or produce a document or other thing at a hearing before the Commission, and 25
 - (b) the answer to the question would disclose, or the document or other thing contains, a privileged communication passing between a legal practitioner (in his or her capacity as a legal practitioner) and a person for the purpose of providing or receiving legal professional services in relation to the appearance, or reasonably anticipated appearance, of a person at a hearing before the Commission, the legal practitioner or other person is entitled to refuse to comply with the requirement, unless the privilege is waived by a person having authority to do so. 30

41 Declaration as to objection by witness (cf ICAC Act s 38; RC (PS) Act s 12)

The Commissioner or person presiding at the hearing may declare that all or any classes of answers given by a witness or that all or any classes of documents or other things produced by a witness will be regarded as having been given or produced on objection by the witness, and there is accordingly no need for the witness to make an objection in respect of each such answer, document or other thing. 5

42 Reimbursement of expenses of witnesses (cf ICAC Act s 51; RC (PS) Act s 13 (1)) 10

A witness attending or appearing before the Commission is to be paid, out of money provided by Parliament, in respect of the expenses of the witness's attendance an amount ascertained in accordance with the scale prescribed for the purposes of section 51 of the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988 or, if there is no such prescribed scale, such amount as the Commission determines. 15

43 Legal and financial assistance for witness (cf ICAC Act s 52)
