Schedule 3 [1] and [4] impose land tax on land that is used and occupied as the principal place of residence by the owner of the land and that has a land value of not less than $1 million. Any such land is to be taxed as if it were the only land owned by the taxpayer. The $1 million threshold is to be adjusted in accordance with movements in the CPI.

Schedule 3 [2] and [3] make consequential amendments to the provisions that determine how the "allowable proportion" by which the land value of land on which a flat is situated is to be taxed if the value of the allowable proportion is $1 million or more.

Schedule 5 Amendment of Registered Clubs Act 1976

Schedule 5 increases from 22.5% to 30% the duty payable on so much of the profits from all approved gaming devices kept by a registered club as exceed $1 million in a duty period.

Schedule 6 Amendment of Stamp Duties Act 1920

Intergenerational rural transfers

Schedule 6 [1], [2] and [3] extend the exemption from stamp duty granted to intergenerational rural transfers by section 66H of the Act so that it will also apply to the granting of leases, and the transfer or assignment of leases and permits, that come within the guidelines approved from time to time by the Treasurer. The extension of the exemption applies from 7 May 1997.

General insurance

Schedule 6 [4]–[13] and [17] increase from 2.5% to 5% the stamp duty on premiums paid under policies of general insurance, other than crop insurance and livestock insurance. The increase applies to premiums paid on or after 1 July 1997, or paid after 7 May 1997 for policies of insurance, and renewals of policies of insurance, that take effect on or after 1 July 1997.

Motor vehicle certificates of registration
