ANNO VICESIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

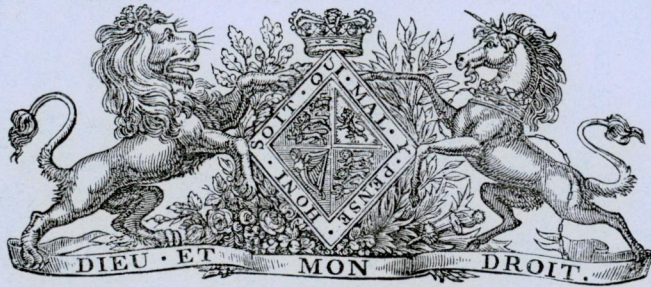

An Act to enable the Trustees of the Sydney Bethel Union to surrender the Land in Macquarie-street, Sydney, some time since granted as a site for a Mariners' Church, and to accept a grant of other land in lieu thereof. [Assented to, 29th December, 1856.]

WHEREAS George Allen, Thomas Barker, Francis Mitchell, Preamble.
Ambrose Foss, and John Alexander, Trustees of the Sydney Bethel Union, are, as such Trustees, possessed of an allotment of Land in Macquarie-street, Sydney, containing by admeasurement twenty-two and a half perches, which was granted by the Crown on the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, to the then Trustees of the said Bethel Union, as a site for a new Mariners' Church: And whereas it is considered expedient to surrender the said Allotment to the Crown, and to accept in lieu thereof a Grant of a more eligible site for the said Mariners' Church, situate between George-street and the Circular Quay, in Sydney aforesaid; but the said Trustees are not legally competent to make such surrender and to effect the proposed exchange without the authority of the Legislature: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the said George Allen, Thomas Barker, Francis Mitchell, Ambrose Foss, and John Alexander, as the Trustees for the time being of the said Sydney Bethel Union, to surrender and yield up to Her Majesty the Queen the said parcel of Land in Macquarie-street, so now possessed by the said Trustees, and to accept in lieu thereof, and for the like purpose, a certain other parcel of Land situated between George-street and the Circular Quay, in Sydney, of which it is intended that a Grant shall be issued to the said Trustees.

Trustees may surrender grant of Land in Macquarie-street, and accept in lieu thereof other Land
