DISTRICT COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Legislative Council.

21^o VICTORIÆ, 1857.

A BILL

For establishing District Courts.

WHEREAS it is expedient to establish District Courts in various parts of the Colony Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council from time to time to order by Proclamation in the Government Gazette that Courts to be called District Courts shall be holden at such towns and places as he shall think fit and to alter the place for holding any such Court or to order that the holding of any such Court be discontinued.

Preamble.
Appointment of District Courts.

2. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice aforesaid to divide the Colony into Districts for the purposes of this Act and from time to time to alter such Districts as to the Governor with the advice aforesaid shall seem fit and if at any time it shall appear to the Governor that any part of the Colony may from the facilities of access by water or otherwise be conveniently declared within the jurisdiction of a Court of a remote District it shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice afore-

Creation of Districts.

said to order that such part of the Colony shall until further order be taken to be within the jurisdiction of the Court holden for the purposes of this Act for such remote District Provided always that no alteration in the boundaries or limits of any District shall take effect until after three months from the notification thereof in the Government Gazette. 5

District Courts to be Courts of Record.

3. Every District Court shall be a Court of Record and shall have jurisdiction as hereinafter provided.

Limits of jurisdiction generally, in civil matters.

4. The several Courts appointed to be held at towns and places within such Districts respectively shall have jurisdiction in civil matters when the defendant shall be resident within the Districts 10 for which such Courts respectively shall be ordered to be held.

Exceptions where debt expressly made payable in District other than that of Defendant's own residence or where Defendant removes after contracting liability.

5. Provided always that in case the defendant in any action shall have given an engagement or promise in writing to pay any debt or sum at a particular place specified the plaintiff may if he shall think fit cause such defendant to be summoned to the Court within the jurisdiction 15 of which the place so specified shall be Provided also that if any party after having in one place contracted a debt or become liable for any damages recoverable in any District Court shall by removal become resident within the jurisdiction of any other such Court previously to the issuing of a summons for the recovery of such debt or damages it shall be 20 lawful for the plaintiff if he shall think fit to cause such defendant to be summoned to the Court holden for the District within the jurisdiction of which such debt or liability for damages arose.

In personal actions.

6. All pleas of personal actions wherein the amount claimed is not more than one hundred pounds whether on balance of account or after an 25 admitted set-off or otherwise may be holden in the Courts established under this Act Provided always that no such Court shall have cognizance of any action in which the title to any lands tenements or hereditaments shall be in question or in which the validity of any devise bequest or limitation under any will or settlement may be disputed Provided 30 nevertheless that if such title as aforesaid shall incidentally come in question in any action the Court shall have power to decide the claim which it is the immediate object of the action to enforce but the judgment of the Court shall not be evidence of title between the parties or their privies in any other action in that Court or in any proceedings in any 35 other Court.

7. The jurisdiction of the District Courts under this Act shall extend to the recovery of any demand not exceeding the sum of one hundred pounds which is the whole or part of the unliquidated balance of a partnership account or the amount or part of the amount of the distributive share under an intestacy or of any legacy under a will. In cases of partnership intestacy and legacy.

8. If both parties agree by a memorandum signed by them or by their attorneys that the District Court holden at any particular place shall have power to try any action which might be brought in the Supreme Court the said District Court shall have jurisdiction and power to try such action. Provided that such memorandum shall state that the parties signing the same knew that such action was not triable within the jurisdiction of the District Court without such consent and provided that such memorandum shall be filed with the Registrar of the said Court at the time of filing the plaint. Consent jurisdiction.

9. Two or more causes of action provided they be by and against the same parties and in the same rights may be joined in the same suit in a District Court but the Court shall have power to prevent the trial of different causes of action together if such trial would in the opinion of the Court be inexpedient or inconvenient and in such case may order separate trials to be had. Joinder of causes of action.

10. It shall not be lawful for any plaintiff to divide any cause of action for the purpose of bringing two or more suits in any of the said Courts, but any plaintiff having a cause of action for more than the amount for which a plaint might be entered under this Act may abandon the excess (which abandonment shall be stated upon the plaint) and thereupon the plaintiff shall on proving his case recover to an amount not exceeding one hundred pounds and the judgment of the Court upon such plaint shall be in full discharge of all demands in respect of such cause of action and entry of the judgment of the Court shall be made accordingly. Splitting demands.

11. It shall be lawful for any Executor or Administrator to sue and be sued in any District Court and judgment and execution shall be such as in the like case would be given or issued in the Supreme Court. Executors.

12. It shall be lawful for any person not of the age of twenty-one years to sue in any District Court in his own name for the recovery of any sum of money not exceeding one hundred pounds which may be due to him for wages or piece-work or for work or services as a servant in the same manner as if he were of full age. Infants.

One of several persons jointly liable may be sued.

13. Where any plaintiff shall have any demand recoverable under this Act against two or more persons jointly answerable it shall be sufficient if any one or more such persons be served with process and judgment may be obtained and execution issued against the person or persons so served notwithstanding that others jointly liable may not have been served or sued .5 or may not be within the jurisdiction of the Court and every such person against whom judgment shall have been obtained under this Act and who shall have satisfied such judgment shall be entitled to demand and recover in the District Court under this Act contribution from any other person jointly liable with him. 10

Privilege.

14. No privilege shall be allowed to any Attorney Solicitor or other person to exempt him from the provisions of this Act.

Possession of tenements may be recovered in District Courts by landlords where terms have expired or been determined.

15. When the term or interest of the tenant of any land held by him for any term of years or for any less estate or interest either with or without being liable to the payment of any rent shall have expired by 15 effluxion of time or shall have been determined by forfeiture notice to quit or demand of possession and such tenant or any person claiming under him shall actually occupy such land or any part thereof the landlord may enter a plaint at his option either against such tenant or against such person so neglecting or refusing in the District Court nearest to the 20 premises for the recovery of the same and thereupon a summons shall issue to such tenant or such person so neglecting or refusing and if the defendant shall not at the time named in the summons show good cause to the contrary then on proof of his still neglecting or refusing to deliver up possession of the premises and of the holding and of the expiration or 25 other determination of the tenancy with the time and manner thereof and of the service of the summons if the defendant shall not appear thereto the Judge of the Court may order that possession of the premises mentioned in the plaint be given by the defendant to the plaintiff either forthwith or on or before such day as the Judge shall think fit to name and if such 30 order be not obeyed the Registrar of the Court whether such order can be proved to have been served or not shall at the instance of the plaintiff issue a warrant authorizing and requiring the bailiff of the Court to give, possession of such premises to the plaintiff.

In plaint for recovery of possession plaintiff may claim for rent and mesne profits.

16. In any such plaint against a tenant as in the last preceding 35 section is specified the plaintiff may add a claim for rent or mesne profits or both down to the day appointed for the hearing or to any preceding day named in the plaint so as the same shall not exceed one hundred pounds.

17. When the rent of any corporeal hereditaments where neither the value of the premises nor the rent payable in respect thereof exceeds one hundred pounds by the year shall for one-half year be in arrear and the landlord shall have right by law to re-enter for the non-payment thereof he may without any formal demand or re-entry enter a plaint in the District Court nearest to the premises for the recovery of the premises and thereupon a summons shall issue to the tenant, the service whereof shall stand in lieu of a demand and re-entry and if the tenant shall five clear days before the return day of such summons pay 10
into Court all the rent in arrear and the costs the said action shall cease but if he shall not make such payment and shall not at the time named in the summons show good cause why the premises should not be recovered then on proof of the yearly value and rent of the premises and of the fact that one half-year's rent was in arrear before the plaint was 15
entered and that no sufficient distress was then to be found on the premises to countervail such arrear and of the landlord's power to re-enter and of the rent being still in arrear and of the service of the summons if the defendant shall not appear thereto the Judge may order that possession of the premises mentioned in the plaint be given by the 20
defendant to the plaintiff on or before such day not being less than four weeks from the day of hearing as the Judge shall think fit to name unless within that period all the rent in arrear and the costs be paid into Court and if such order be not obeyed and such rent and costs be not so paid the Registrar shall whether such order can be proved to have been 25
served or not at the instance of the plaintiff issue a warrant authorizing and requiring the Bailiff of the Court to give possession of such premises to the plaintiff and the plaintiff shall from the time of the execution of such warrant hold the premises discharged of the tenancy and the defendant and all persons claiming by through or under him shall so long as the Order of the Court remains unreversed be barred from all relief in Equity or otherwise.
30

Possession of small tenements may be recovered in District Court by landlords for non-payment of rent.

18. Where any summons for the recovery of a tenement as is hereinbefore specified shall be served on or come to the knowledge of any sub-tenant of the plaintiff's immediate tenant such sub-tenant being an occupier of the whole or of part of the premises sought to be recovered he shall forthwith give notice thereof to his immediate landlord under penalty of forfeiting three years' rack-rent of the premises held by such sub-tenant to such landlord to be recovered by such landlord by action in the Court from which summons shall have issued and such landlord 40
on the receipt of such notice if not originally a defendant may be added or substituted as a defendant to defend possession of the premises in question.

Sub-tenant served with summons to recover possession must give notice to his immediate landlord who may come in and defend.

Jurisdiction in replevin.

19. The District Courts holden under this Act shall have the same jurisdiction and powers in actions of replevin as to distresses for rent as are given to the Courts of Requests and Courts of Petty Sessions by the Act of Council 15th Victoria No. 11 and all such actions shall be tried and determined subject to the rules of practice in force for the time being 5 for regulating the proceedings in such District Courts respectively.

A BILL

For establishing District Courts.

(As Amended in Committee of the whole House.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to establish District Courts in various parts of the Colony Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council from time to time to order by Proclamation in the Government Gazette that Courts to be called District Courts shall be holden at such towns and places as he shall think fit and to alter the place for holding any such Court or to order that the holding of any such Court be discontinued.
2. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice aforesaid to divide the Colony into Districts for the purposes of this Act and from time to time to alter such Districts as to the Governor with the advice aforesaid shall seem fit Provided always that no alteration in the boundaries or limits of any District shall take effect until after three months from the notification thereof in the Government Gazette.
3. Every District Court shall be a Court of Record and shall have jurisdiction as hereinafter provided.
4. The several Courts appointed to be held at towns and places within such Districts respectively shall have jurisdiction when the defendant or one of two or more defendants as the case may be shall be resident within the Districts for which such Courts respectively shall be ordered to be held Provided that in respect of claims for amounts not exceeding ten pounds and at present within the jurisdiction of Courts of Petty Sessions under the Act of Council tenth Victoria number ten no defendant shall be compelled to appear so long as such jurisdiction as last aforesaid shall continue at a District Court held under this Act at a place not included within the Petty Sessions District in which he shall be resident.

Preamble.

Appointment of District Courts.

Creation of Districts.

District Courts to be Courts of Record.

Limits of jurisdiction generally, in civil matters.

Exceptions where debt expressly made payable in District other than that of Defendant's own residence or where Defendant removes after contracting liability.

5. Provided always that in case the defendant in any action shall have given an engagement or promise in writing to pay any debt or sum at a particular place specified the plaintiff may if he shall think fit cause such defendant to be summoned to the Court within the jurisdiction of which the place so specified shall be. Provided also that if any party 5 after having in one place contracted a debt or become liable for any damages recoverable in any District Court shall by removal become resident within the jurisdiction of any other such Court previously to the issuing of a summons for the recovery of such debt or damages it shall be lawful for the plaintiff if he shall think fit to cause such defendant to 10 be summoned to the Court holden for the District within the jurisdiction of which such debt or liability for damages arose.

In personal actions.

6. All pleas of personal actions wherein the amount claimed is not more than one hundred pounds whether on balance of account or after an admitted set-off or otherwise may be holden in the Courts established 15 under this Act. Provided always that no such Court shall have cognizance of any action in which the title to land or the validity of any devise bequest or limitation under any will or settlement shall be in question or shall have jurisdiction in any action for seduction or criminal conversation. Provided nevertheless that if such title as aforesaid shall 20 incidentally come in question in any action the Court shall have power to decide the claim which it is the immediate object of the action to enforce but the judgment of the Court shall not be evidence of title between the parties or their privies in any other action in that Court or in any proceedings in any other Court. 25

In cases of partnership intestacy and legacy.

7. The jurisdiction of the District Courts under this Act shall extend to the recovery of any demand not exceeding the sum of one hundred pounds which is the whole or part of the unliquidated balance of a partnership account or the amount or part of the amount of the distributive share under an intestacy or of any legacy under a will. 30

Consent jurisdiction.

8. If both parties agree by a memorandum signed by them or by their attorneys that the District Court holden at any particular place shall have power to try any action which might be brought in the Supreme Court the said District Court shall have jurisdiction to try such action. Provided that such memorandum shall state that the parties 35 signing the same knew that such action was not triable within the jurisdiction of the District Court without such consent and provided that such memorandum shall be filed with the Registrar of the said Court at the time of filing the plaint.

Proceedings by husband and wife.

9. In any proceedings under this Act by a man and his wife for 40 an injury done to the wife in respect of which she is necessarily joined as a co-plaintiff or complainant it shall be lawful for the husband to add thereto claims in his own right provided that in the case of the death of either of them such suit or complaint so far only as relates to the causes of action if any which do not survive shall abate. 45

Joinder of causes of action.

10. Two or more causes of action provided they be by and against the same parties and in the same rights may be joined in the same suit in a District Court but the Court shall have power to prevent the trial of different causes of action together if such trial would in the opinion of the Court be inexpedient or inconvenient and in such 50 case may order separate trials to be had.

Splitting debt by giving bills, &c.

11. In case any defendant shall have given two or more bills of exchange promissory notes bonds or other securities for any debt or sum originally exceeding the amount of ten pounds or one hundred pounds respectively it shall be lawful for the plaintiff to sue upon each of such 55 securities not exceeding in amount one hundred pounds respectively as forming a distinct cause of action.

Splitting demands.

12. It shall not be lawful for any plaintiff to divide any cause of action for the purpose of bringing two or more suits in any of the said Courts, but any plaintiff having a cause of action for more than the 60 amount amount for which a plaint might be entered under this Act may abandon the excess (which abandonment shall be stated upon the plaint) and thereupon the plaintiff shall on proving his case recover to an amount not exceeding one hundred pounds and the judgment of the Court upon such plaint shall be in full discharge of all demands in respect of such cause of action and entry of the judgment of the Court shall be made accordingly.

13. It shall be lawful for any Executor or Administrator to sue and be sued in any District Court and judgment and execution shall be such as in the like case would be given or issued in the Supreme Court.

14. It shall be lawful for any person not of the age of twenty-one years to sue in any District Court in his own name for the recovery of any sum of money not exceeding one hundred pounds which may be due to him for wages or piece-work or for work or services as a clerk servant mechanic or laborer in the same manner as if he were of full age.

15. Any doctor of medicine or other legally qualified practitioner in medicine may sue for the recovery of any fees or other remuneration as such practitioner in like manner as any debt or other demand may be recovered by any surgeon or other person under this Act.

16. Where any plaintiff shall have any demand recoverable under this Act against two or more persons jointly answerable it shall be sufficient if any one or more such persons be served with process and judgment may be obtained and execution issued against the person or persons so served notwithstanding that others jointly liable may not have been served or sued or may not be within the jurisdiction of the Court and every such person against whom judgment shall have been obtained under this Act and who shall have satisfied such judgment shall be entitled to demand and recover in the District Court under this Act contribution from any other person jointly liable with him.

17. No privilege shall be allowed to any Attorney Solicitor or other person to exempt him from the provisions of this Act.

18. When the term or interest of the tenant of any land held by him for any term of years or for any less estate or interest either with or without being liable to the payment of any rent shall have expired by effluxion of time or shall have been determined by notice to quit or demand of possession and such tenant or any person claiming under him shall actually occupy such land or any part thereof the landlord may enter a plaint at his option either against such tenant or against such person so neglecting or refusing in the District Court nearest to the premises for the recovery of the same and thereupon a summons shall issue to such tenant or such person so neglecting or refusing and if the defendant shall not at the time named in the summons show good cause to the contrary then on proof of his still neglecting or refusing to deliver up possession of the premises and of the holding and of the expiration or other determination of the tenancy with the time and manner thereof and of the service of the summons if the defendant shall not appear thereto the Judge of the Court may order that possession of the premises mentioned in the plaint be given by the defendant to the plaintiff either forthwith or on or before such day as the Judge shall think fit to name and if such order be not obeyed the Registrar of the Court whether such order can be proved to have been served or not shall at the instance of the plaintiff issue a warrant authorizing and requiring the bailiff of the Court to give possession of such premises to the plaintiff.

19. In any such plaint against a tenant as in the last preceding section is specified the plaintiff may add a claim for rent or mesne profits or both down to the day appointed for the hearing or to any preceding day named in the plaint so as the same shall not exceed one hundred pounds.

20. When the rent of any corporeal hereditaments where neither the value of the premises nor the rent payable in respect thereof exceeds one hundred pounds by the year shall for one-half year be in arrear

52. If a Judge of a District Court shall be satisfied by either party ^{Power to Judge to change venue.} to a cause pending in his Court that such cause can be more conveniently or fairly tried in some other District Court he shall order that the venue be changed and that the cause be sent for hearing to such other District Court or if the Judge shall be interested in the matter of any cause pending in his Court he shall order that the venue be changed and that the cause be sent for hearing to some convenient District Court of which he is not
50 the Judge at his discretion and in either case the Registrar of the Court in which the plaint was entered shall forthwith transmit by post to the Registrar of the Court to which the cause is to be sent a certified copy of the plaint as entered in the Plaint Book the duplicate copy of the summons and particulars served on the defendant and a certified copy
55 of the order for changing the venue and the Judge of such last mentioned Court shall appoint a day for the hearing notice whereof shall be sent by post or otherwise by the Registrar to both parties.

53. No defendant in any District Court shall be allowed to set off ^{Notice of special defences.} any debt or demand claimed or recoverable by him from the plaintiff or to 60 set up by way of defence and to claim and have the benefit of infancy coverture

coverture or of the Statute of Frauds or of any Statute of Limitations or of his discharge under any statute relating to Bankrupts or any Act for relief of Insolvent Debtors without the consent of the plaintiff unless such notice thereof as shall be directed by the rules made for regulating the practice of the Court shall have been given to the Registrar of the Court 5 and in every case in which the practice of the Court shall require such notice to be given the Registrar shall as soon as conveniently may be after such notice communicate the same to the plaintiff by the post or by causing the same to be delivered at his usual place of abode or business but it shall not be necessary for the defendant to prove on the 10 trial that such notice was communicated to the plaintiff by the Registrar.

Payment into Court.

54. The defendant in any suit in a District Court may within such time as shall be directed by the rules to be made as aforesaid pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think a full satisfaction for the demand of the plaintiff together with the costs incurred by 15 the plaintiff up to the time of such payment and notice of such payment shall be communicated by the defendant to the plaintiff by post or by causing the same to be delivered at his usual or last known place of abode or business and the sum of money shall be paid to the plaintiff but if he shall elect to proceed and shall recover no further sum in the action 20 than shall have been so paid into Court the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the costs incurred by him in the said action after such payment and an order shall thereupon be made by the Court for the payment of such costs by the plaintiff.

Proceedings at the trial where both parties appear.

55. At the time and place on that behalf named in any summons 25 issued out of any District Court the plaintiff shall appear and thereupon the defendant shall be required to appear to answer such plaint and on answer being made in Court the Judge shall proceed to try the cause and give judgment without any further pleading or formal joinder of issue.

Appearance to be in person or by Attorney or Counsel or other person allowed by the Judge.

56. It shall be lawful for every party to an action or other 30 proceeding under this Act or a Barrister or Attorney of the Supreme Court retained by or on behalf of the party on either side (but without any right of exclusive audience or pre-audience) or for any other person allowed by special leave of the Judge in each case to appear instead of the party to address the Court and examine and cross-examine the wit- 35 nesses but subject to such regulations as the Judge may from time to time prescribe for the orderly transaction of the business of the Court Provided always that no person not being a Barrister or Attorney of the Supreme Court shall be entitled to receive or recover or shall receive directly or indirectly any sum of money or other remuneration for appear- 40 ing or acting on behalf of any other person in the said District Court.

Proceedings where Plaintiff does not appear.

57. If at the time and place so named as aforesaid or at any continuation or adjournment of the Court or of the cause for which the summons shall have been issued the plaintiff shall not appear the cause shall be struck out and where the defendant shall appear 45 and shall not admit the demand to award to the defendant by way of costs and satisfaction for his trouble and attendance such sum as the Judge in his discretion shall think fit and such sum shall be recoverable from the plaintiff in the same way as any debt adjudged by the Court to be paid can be recovered Provided always that if the plaintiff shall not 50 appear when called upon and the defendant or some one duly authorized on his behalf shall appear and admit the cause of action to the full amount claimed and pay the fees payable in the first instance by the plaintiff the Court if it shall think fit may proceed to give judgment as if the plaintiff had appeared. 55

Proceedings where defendant does not appear.

58. If at the time and place so named or at any continuation or adjournment of the Court or cause the defendant shall not appear or sufficiently excuse his absence or shall neglect to answer when called in Court the Judge upon due proof of service of the summons may proceed to the trial of the cause on the part of the plaintiff only and the 60 judgment judgment thereupon shall be as valid as if both parties had attended. Provided always that the Judge in any such case at the same or any subsequent Court may set aside any judgment so given in the absence of the defendant and the execution thereupon and may grant a new trial of the cause upon such terms if any as to payment of costs giving security for debt or costs or such other terms as he may think fit on sufficient cause shown to him for that purpose.

59. The Judge of any District Court may in any case make orders for granting time to the plaintiff or defendant to proceed in the prosecution or defence of the suit and may also from time to time adjourn the Court or the trial or further trial of any cause in such manner and upon such terms as to the Judge may seem fit.

Judge may grant time or adjourn.

60. No evidence shall be given by the plaintiff of any demand or cause of action except such as shall be stated in the summons issued in such suit.

Proof to be limited to matter in the summons.

61. Either party to any suit in a District Court may obtain at the office of the Registrar of the Court subpoenas to witnesses to be served at the option of such party by himself or his agent or by the Bailiff of the Court with or without a clause requiring the production of books deeds papers and writings in their possession and control and in any such subpoena any number of names may be inserted.

Subpoena to witnesses.

62. Every person on whom such subpoena shall have been served either personally or in such other manner as shall be directed by the general Rules of the Court and to whom at the same time payment or a tender of payment of his expenses shall have been made on such scale of allowance as shall be settled by the general Rules of the Court and who shall refuse or neglect without sufficient cause to appear or to produce any books papers or writings required by such subpoena to be produced and also every person present in Court who shall be required to give evidence and who shall refuse to be sworn and give evidence shall forfeit and pay such fine not exceeding fifty pounds as the Judge shall set on him and the whole or any part of such fine in the discretion of the Judge after deducting the costs shall be applicable toward indemnifying the party injured by such refusal or neglect and the remainder thereof shall form part of the General Fund of the Court in which the fine was imposed but no such fine shall exempt such person from any action for disobeying such summons.

Penalty on witnesses neglecting subpoena.

63. It shall be lawful for the Judge of any District Court at any time after plaint filed on the application of either party supported by affidavit that the evidence of any specified witness including in that term either of the parties is material in the cause and that such witness is absent from the Colony or above one hundred miles from the place of trial or is expected to die or to be unable from sickness or infirmity to attend at the hearing or is about to quit the Colony or go to some place beyond the said distance before the cause can be heard to take in Court or Chambers or to authorize the Registrar of any District Court or any Commissioner of the Supreme Court or Justice of the Peace or practising Barrister or Attorney to take at some convenient place the examination of such witness de bene esse and all evidence so taken shall be admissible at the hearing subject to all just exceptions unless it be proved that such witness is at the time of the hearing within a convenient distance of the said Court and able to attend. Provided that in every such case the opposite party shall have sufficient notice of the time and place appointed for taking such examination and may cross-examine such witness in the usual manner. Provided also that the Judge may either direct the whole costs of taking such evidence to be paid by the party applying or make the same costs in the cause.

Examination de bene esse.

64. In every suit under this Act in which the defendant shall be allowed to set off any debt or demand claimed or recoverable by him from the plaintiff such defendant shall whether the plaintiff shall be nonsuit or shall have judgment given against him be entitled to recover in such suit the amount if any by which the debt or demand so set off exceeds the debt or demand claimed and proved by the plaintiff and shall have judgment and execution for the same accordingly Provided that the defendant shall not be allowed to set off any debt or demand exceeding 5 in amount one hundred pounds.

Judgments to be final unless new trial granted.

65. Every judgment of any District Court except as herein provided shall be final and conclusive between the parties but the Judge shall have power to nonsuit the plaintiff in every case in which satisfactory proof shall not be given entitling him to the judgment of the 10 Court and shall also in every case whatever have the power if he shall think fit to order a new trial to be had upon such terms as he shall think reasonable and in the meantime to stay the proceedings.

Cross judgments to be set off.

66. If there shall be cross judgments between the parties execution shall be taken out by that party only who shall have obtained judgment for the larger sum and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum and satisfaction for the remainder shall be entered as well as satisfaction on the judgment for the smaller sum and if both sums shall be equal satisfaction shall be entered upon both judgments. 20

Costs.

67. All the costs of any action or proceeding not herein or otherwise provided for shall be paid by or apportioned between the parties in such manner as the Judge shall think fit and in default of any special direction shall abide the event of the action or result of the decision and such costs may be recovered in like manner as any debt adjudged by the 25 Court to be paid can be recovered.

Fees and expenses to witnesses.

68. The fees to be allowed to Barristers and Attorneys practising in any District Court for appearing or acting on behalf of any person in any suit in such Court and the expenses to be paid to witnesses shall be fixed by scale in the rules to be made as hereinafter mentioned But 30 no such fees shall be allowed between party and party in any action for a sum not exceeding ten pounds nor except by the Judge's approval in any action for a sum above ten pounds but not exceeding twenty pounds.

Costs of attorney in certain proceedings in District Courts shall be taxed by Registrar as between party and party.

69. All costs and charges between party and party shall be taxed by the Registrar of the Court in which such costs and charges were 35 incurred but this taxation may be reviewed by the Judge of the Court on the application of either party and no costs or charges shall be allowed on such taxation which are not sanctioned by the scale then in force.

Where judgment does not exceed twenty pounds Judge may order payment by instalments; in other cases consent of plaintiffs necessary.

70. When judgment has been obtained in any District Court for 40 a sum not exceeding twenty pounds exclusive of costs the Judge may order such sum and costs to be paid at such time or times and by such instalments if any as he shall think fit and all such moneys shall be paid into Court but in all other cases he shall order the full amount for which judgment has been obtained to be paid either forthwith or within fourteen 45 clear days from the date of the judgment unless the plaintiff or his counsel attorney or agent will consent that the same shall be paid by instalments in which case the Judge shall order the same to be paid at such times and by such instalments as have been consented to and all such moneys whether payable in one sum or by instalments shall be paid 50 into Court And in any case in which payment by instalments shall have been ordered execution may be had for the whole amount due upon the judgment if default shall be made in payment of one such instalment.

71. In any case where an order decision judgment or adjudication for the payment of money shall be made by any Court or the Judge 55 thereof it shall and may be lawful for the Registrar of the said Court on the application of the party in whose favor such order decision judgment or adjudication has been made to issue a writ of fiery facias which writ shall be directed to the Bailiff or Registrar of the said Court as the case may be, 60

Interpleader.

80. If any claim shall be made to or in respect of any goods or chattels taken in execution under the process of any District Court or in respect of the proceeds or value thereof by any person not being the party against whom such process has issued it shall be lawful for the Registrar of such Court upon application of the Officer charged with the execution of such process as well before as after any action brought against such Officer to enter an interpleader plaint and to issue a summons thereon calling before the said Court as well the party issuing such process as the party making such claim and thereupon any action which shall have been brought in the Supreme Court or in any District Court in respect of such claim shall be stayed and the Court in which such action shall have been brought or any Judge thereof on proof of the issue of such summons and that the goods and chattels were so taken in execution may order the party bringing such action to pay the costs of all proceedings had upon such action after the issue of such summons out of the District Court and the Judge of the District Court shall adjudicate upon such claim and make such order between the parties in respect thereof and of the costs of the proceedings as to him shall seem fit and such order shall be deemed a judgment of the Court and be enforced in like manner as a judgment in any other suit brought in such Court.

Execution against the person.

81. Whenever any sum of money shall have been recovered by the judgment of any District Court and the judgment creditor shall show to the satisfaction of a Judge of the Supreme Court or of any District Court that such sum of money has been recovered and that the debt was fraudulently contracted or that the judgment debtor conceals any goods chattels or valuable securities or that he has any income salary or means whereby in the opinion of such Judge he can satisfy such judgment or any part thereof or is about to leave the Colony or to remove any of his property with intent to evade payment of the said judgment debt such Judge may authorize the Registrar of the said District Court to issue a Writ of capias ad satisfaciendum in such form as shall be fixed by the rules to be made under this Act and any bailiff of the District Court and the keeper of any gaol to whom such Writ or any Warrant in pursuance thereof is directed shall respectively execute and obey the same respectively and all constables and other peace officers within their several jurisdictions shall aid and assist in the execution thereof.

Discharge on payment of debt and costs.

82. Any person arrested or imprisoned under this Act by virtue of any such warrant as last aforesaid shall be entitled to his discharge on payment of the amount named in such warrant as due for such judgment judgment and the costs of obtaining and executing such warrant and the bailiff making the arrest and the keeper of the gaol to whom the warrant is directed are hereby empowered and required to receive the amount so paid and to transmit the same to the Registrar of the District Court in which the judgment was recovered.

83. Any plaint entered in any District Court may be removed by certiorari into the Supreme Court by order of any Judge thereof upon such terms as to payment of costs giving security for the amount claimed or costs or such other terms as such Judge shall think fit. Provided it shall appear to such Judge to be a case proper to be tried in the Supreme Court. Provided also that no plaint shall be removed when the amount claimed does not exceed ten pounds unless the defendant give security to the satisfaction of such Judge for the amount claimed and also for the costs in the Supreme Court not exceeding one hundred pounds or deposit in the hands of the Prothonotary of the said Court the amount claimed together with the sum of one hundred pounds by way of security for the said costs.

84. The granting by the Supreme Court or by any Judge thereof of a rule or summons to shew cause why a writ of certiorari or prohibition should not issue to a District Court shall if the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof so direct operate as a stay of proceedings in the cause to which the same shall relate until the determination of such rule or summons or until the Supreme Court or Judge shall otherwise order and the Judge of the District Court shall from time to time adjourn the hearing of such cause to such day as he shall think fit until such determination or until such order be made but if a copy of such rule or summons shall not be served by the party who obtained it on the opposite party and on the Registrar of the District Court within a reasonable time not being less than two clear days before the day fixed for hearing of the cause the Judge of the District Court may in his discretion order the party who obtained the rule or summons to pay all the costs of the day or so much thereof as he shall think fit unless the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof shall have made some order respecting such costs.

85. When a writ of certiorari or of prohibition addressed to a Judge of a District Court shall have been granted by the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof on an ex parte application and the party who obtained it shall not lodge it with the Registrar and give notice to the opposite party that it has issued within a reasonable time not being less than two clear days before the day fixed for hearing the cause to which it shall relate the Judge of the District Court may in his discretion order the party who obtained the writ to pay all the costs of the day or so much thereof as he shall think fit unless the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof shall have made some order respecting such costs.

86. Whenever an order is granted for the removal of a plaint from a District Court or for the issuing of a certiorari for such removal and no provision is made with respect to the costs of the proceedings in the District Court the costs of such proceedings shall be costs in the cause.

87. No writ of mandamus shall henceforth issue to a Judge or an officer of the District Court for refusing to do any act relating to the duties of his office but any party requiring such act to be done may apply to the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof upon an affidavit of the facts for a rule or summons calling upon such Judge or officer of a District Court and also the party to be affected by such act to show cause why such act should not be done and if after the service of such rule or summons good cause shall not be shown the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof may by rule or order direct the act to be done and the Judge or officer of the District Court upon being served with such rule or order shall obey the same on pain of attachment and in any event the Supreme Court or Judge thereof may make such order with respect to costs as to such Court or Judge shall seem fit.

Appeal to the Supreme Court.

88. If either party to any cause in any District Court in which the amount claimed exceeds thirty pounds shall be dissatisfied with the determination or direction of the said Court in point of law or upon the admission or rejection of any evidence such party may appeal from the same to the Supreme Court. Provided such party shall 5 within such time and in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Rules to be made under this Act give notice of such appeal to the other party or his attorney and also give security (to be approved of by the Registrar of the said District Court) for costs of the appeal and the amount of the judgment or in lieu of giving such security deposit 10 in the hands of such Registrar the amount of the judgment together with thirty pounds in addition to such amount to answer the costs of the appeal if such appeal be dismissed and the Supreme Court may either order a new trial on such terms as it thinks fit or may order judgment to be entered for either party as the case may be and make 15 such order with respect to the costs of the said appeal as such Court may think proper and such orders shall be final and such appeal shall be in the form of a case agreed on by both parties or their attorneys and if they cannot agree the Judge of the District Court upon being applied to by them or their attorneys shall settle the case and sign it and such case 20 shall be transmitted by the appellant to the Prothonotary and be set down for argument in the Supreme Court in the same manner as special cases in actions in that Court.

Parties may agree not to appeal.

89. No appeal shall lie from the decision of a District Court if before such decision is pronounced both parties shall agree in writing 25 signed by themselves or their Attorneys or Agents that the decision of the Judge shall be final.
