

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 6th December, A.D., 1859. }*

R. O'CONNOR,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO VICESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

*****

No. .

An Act further to regulate and secure the Pensions of Retired Judges.

WHEREAS on account of certain doubts which have been entertained Preamble.
it is expedient further to regulate and secure the Pensions of retired Judges of the Supreme Court Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

1. There shall in every year be charged upon and payable out of Judges' Pensions secured and regulated.
the Consolidated Revenue Fund for Pensions to the several retired Judges of the Supreme Court for the time being such sums of money as they shall respectively be entitled to receive under the conditions and according to the salaries and rates established by the Constitution Act assented to by Her Majesty under the Imperial Act 18 and 19 Vic. c. 54 in that behalf although by such charge and payment the amount limited by Schedule B of that Act may happen to be exceeded Other provision made. Provided that the service entitling to a Pension may be that of combined periods of service as Puisne Judge and Chief Justice as well as that of a single period in one or other capacity Provided also that the Pension shall be at the rate of a Puisne Judge only unless in the case of service as Chief Justice for not less than five years and then at the rate of Chief Justice.

2. This Act shall be styled and may be cited as the "Judges' Short Title.
Pensions Act of 1859."

1870
1871
1872
1873
1874
1875
1876
1877
1878
1879
1880

ALGLOBE BEGINT

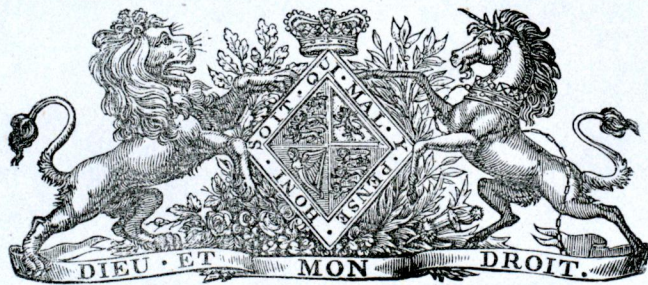

AND THE END

Printed and Published by [Faint text, likely publisher information]

1880

New South Wales.

ANNO VICESIMO TERTIO.

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

*****

No. II.

An Act further to regulate and secure the Pensions of Retired Judges. [Assented to, 22nd December, 1859.]

WHEREAS on account of certain doubts which have been entertained Preamble.
it is expedient further to regulate and secure the Pensions of retired Judges of the Supreme Court Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. There shall in every year be charged upon and payable out of Judges' Pensions secured and regulated.
the Consolidated Revenue Fund for Pensions to the several retired Judges of the Supreme Court for the time being such sums of money as they shall respectively be entitled to receive under the conditions and according to the salaries and rates established by the Constitution Act assented to by Her Majesty under the Imperial Act 18 and 19 Vic. c. 54 in that behalf although by such charge and payment the amount limited by Schedule B of that Act may happen to be exceeded Other provision made. Provided that the service entitling to a Pension may be that of combined periods of service as Puisne Judge and Chief Justice as well as that of a single period in one or other capacity Provided also that the Pension shall be at the rate of a Puisne Judge only unless in the case of service as Chief Justice for not less than five years and then at the rate of Chief Justice.

2. This Act shall be styled and may be cited as the "Judges' Short Title. Pensions Act of 1859."

