
A BILL

To authorize the Appointment of an Additional Judge of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

[Presented by MR. ISAACS, 2 May, 1860.]

WHEREAS the business of the Supreme Court of New South Preamble.
Wales has of late years so largely increased that the present number of Judges is insufficient for its disposal And whereas by reason of such increase of business in the Court arrears have arisen and are 5 accumulating to the great injury and delay of persons seeking to enforce their lawful claims and it is necessary immediately to provide a remedy
Be it enacted therefore by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the 10 authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Additional Judge of the Supreme Court may be appointed.
Executive Council by Commission under the Great Seal of the Colony in the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty to appoint in addition to the present Judges one other Judge of the Supreme Court who shall from 15 the time of his appointment be a Judge of the said Court to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. Provided always that such person so to be appointed shall be If a Barrister of five years' standing.
a Barrister of England or Ireland or of this Colony of not less than five years standing.

20 3. The Judge so appointed shall be entitled to a yearly salary of His salary.
two thousand pounds secured and payable as the salaries of the present Judges of the Court are secured and made payable and shall be liable to removal only as they are severally so liable and such Judge shall be entitled to the same retiring pension or allowance as the other Puisne 25 Judges of the Supreme Court.

A BILL

To authorize the Appointment of an additional Judge of the Supreme Court of New South Wales

Enacted by the Queen's Majesty, 1860

WHEREAS the business of the Supreme Court of New South Wales has of late years so largely increased that the present number of Judges is insufficient for its disposal and whereas by reason of such increase of business in the Court various persons waiting to receive a commission to the great injury and delay of persons seeking to enforce their lawful claims and it is necessary immediately to provide a remedy to be enacted therefore by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council by Commission under the Great Seal of the Colony in the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty to appoint in addition to the present Judges one other Judge of the Supreme Court who shall from the date of his appointment be a Judge of the said Court to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. Provided always that such person as to be appointed shall be a Barrister at Law of England or Ireland or of this Colony at not less than five years standing.

3. The Judge so appointed shall be entitled to a yearly salary of two thousand pounds annual and payable in the manner of the present Judges of that Court and in such and such manner as shall be made or amended by the Queen's Majesty in and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

4. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained to the contrary the said Judge shall be entitled to the same retiring pension as allowed to the other Judges of the said Court.

23^o VICTORIÆ, 1860.

A BILL

(As amended in Committee of the whole.)

To authorize the Appointment of an Additional Judge of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

WHEREAS the business of the Supreme Court of New South Wales has of late years so largely increased that the present number of Judges is insufficient for its disposal And whereas by reason of such increase of business in the Court arrears have arisen and are accumulating to the great injury and delay of persons seeking to enforce their lawful claims and it is necessary immediately to provide a remedy Be it enacted therefore by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council by Commission under the Great Seal of the Colony in the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty to appoint in addition to the present Judges one other Judge of the Supreme Court who shall from the time of his appointment be a Judge of the said Court to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

2. Provided always that such person so to be appointed shall be a Barrister of England or Ireland or of this Colony of not less than five years standing.

3. The Judge so appointed shall be liable to removal only as the present Judges of the Court are severally so liable.

4. The Judge so appointed shall be entitled to a yearly salary of two thousand pounds secured and payable as the salaries of the present Judges of the Court are secured and made payable and such Judge shall be entitled to the same retiring pension or allowance as the other Puisne Judges of the Supreme Court.

1897

A BILL

TO AUTHORIZE THE ISSUANCE OF AN ADDITIONAL ISSUE OF THE
UNITED STATES NATIONAL BANK NOTES

SECTION 1. That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is authorized to issue and put in circulation, in addition to the notes now in circulation, such amount of national bank notes as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the public, and such notes shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as the notes now in circulation.

SECTION 2. That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is authorized to issue and put in circulation, in addition to the notes now in circulation, such amount of national bank notes as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the public, and such notes shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as the notes now in circulation.

SECTION 3. That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is authorized to issue and put in circulation, in addition to the notes now in circulation, such amount of national bank notes as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the public, and such notes shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as the notes now in circulation.

SECTION 4. That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is authorized to issue and put in circulation, in addition to the notes now in circulation, such amount of national bank notes as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the public, and such notes shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as the notes now in circulation.

SECTION 5. That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is authorized to issue and put in circulation, in addition to the notes now in circulation, such amount of national bank notes as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the public, and such notes shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as the notes now in circulation.

SECTION 6. That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is authorized to issue and put in circulation, in addition to the notes now in circulation, such amount of national bank notes as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the public, and such notes shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as the notes now in circulation.

SECTION 7. That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is authorized to issue and put in circulation, in addition to the notes now in circulation, such amount of national bank notes as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the public, and such notes shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as the notes now in circulation.

SECTION 8. That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is authorized to issue and put in circulation, in addition to the notes now in circulation, such amount of national bank notes as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the public, and such notes shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as the notes now in circulation.

SECTION 9. That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is authorized to issue and put in circulation, in addition to the notes now in circulation, such amount of national bank notes as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the public, and such notes shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as the notes now in circulation.

SECTION 10. That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is authorized to issue and put in circulation, in addition to the notes now in circulation, such amount of national bank notes as may be necessary to meet the requirements of the public, and such notes shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as the notes now in circulation.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, for its concurrence.

Legislative Council Chamber, }
Sydney, 23 May, 1860. }

R. O'CONNOR,
Clerk of the Legislative Council.

New South Wales.

ANNO VICESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No .

An Act to authorize the appointment of an additional Judge of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

WHEREAS the business of the Supreme Court of New South Wales has of late years so largely increased that the present number of Judges is insufficient for its disposal And whereas by reason of such increase of business in the Court arrears have arisen and are accumulating to the great injury and delay of persons seeking to enforce their lawful claims and it is necessary immediately to provide a remedy Be it enacted therefore by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council by Commission under the Great Seal of the Colony in the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty to appoint in addition to the present Judges one other Judge of the Supreme Court who shall from the time of his appointment be a Judge of the said Court to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Additional Judge of the Supreme Court may be appointed.

2. Provided always that such person so to be appointed shall be a Barrister of England or Ireland or of this Colony of not less than five years standing.

If a Barrister of five years' standing.

3. The Judge so appointed shall be liable to removal only as the present Judges of the Court are severally so liable.

How removed.

4. The Judge so appointed shall be entitled to a yearly salary of two thousand pounds secured and payable as the salaries of the present Judges of the Court are secured and made payable and such Judge shall be entitled to the same retiring pension or allowance as the other Puisne Judges of the Supreme Court.

His salary.

Faint text at the top of the page, possibly a title or header, which is mostly illegible due to fading.

Great South Britain

THE GREAT SOUTH BRITAIN

VICTORIA REGINA

No.

The Great South Britain, the most beautiful of the islands of the South Sea.

Main body of text, containing several paragraphs of descriptive text, likely detailing the island's features, history, or travel information. The text is very faint and difficult to read.