

---

---

A BILL

To amend the Law relating to the Admission of Barristers of the Supreme Court.

(Presented by MR. JOHNSON, 17 October, 1860.)

---

---

WHEREAS by the Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty intituled “ An Act to regulate the Admission in certain cases of Barristers of the Supreme Court of New South Wales” certain provisions were made for and in relation to the admission of Barristers of the said Court And whereas it is necessary to make such further provision in relation to the admission of such Barristers as is herein contained Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. After the thirtieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty no person (other than and except Attorneys of the Court) shall be admitted a Barrister of the said Supreme Court under the provisions of the said recited Act unless he shall have given to the Prothonotary of the said Court not less than three years prior to the time of his applying to be so admitted a notice in writing of his intention to apply to be so admitted nor unless he shall between the time of giving such notice and the time of his applying to be so admitted have studied with and as a bonâ fide pupil of some one or more practising Barrister or Barristers of the said Court for the full period of one year.

Preamble.
11 Vic. No. 57.

Barristers not to be admitted until after notice nor without study.

