Bases of calculations.

7. The said Commissioners and Umpire shall as the bases of their calculations be governed with respect to population by the Census as taken under authority of the Legislature wherever the same may be applicable and where not so then by the Annual Returns made to the Colonial Secretary of this Colony and with respect to all other particulars by Reports or Accounts made up or certified by and under the hand of the Auditor General of New South Wales.

How proportions charged and when to be paid.

8. The several proportions of the Public Debt to be borne by the Colony of Queensland according to the award of the said Commissioners or Umpire together with the interest thereon shall be paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund of New South Wales six months at the least previously to the respective times when the corresponding debts of which they are respectively portions shall become payable.

Debentures to be given by Queensland Government as security.

9. As security for such payments the Colonial Treasurer of New South Wales shall receive from the Government of Queensland Debentures for the respective amounts aforesaid corresponding as nearly as may be with the New South Wales Debentures outstanding on account of the respective branches of the Public Debt as aforesaid and bearing the same rate of interest made payable at the same periods as the interest on the New South Wales Debentures. And the Debentures so to be received shall be payable six months at least previously to the times when such New South Wales Debentures shall be payable.

New South Wales Debentures not affected.

10. Nothing herein contained shall in any manner prejudice or affect the security of any Debentures issued by the Government of New South Wales before the separation therefrom of the Colony or Queensland or the absolute right and claim of any holders of such Debentures to demand and receive payment of the amounts thereby respectively purporting to be secured as well out of the Revenue of the Colony of Queensland as out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of New South Wales. Provided that all such Debentures shall be held to be primarily payable by the Government of New South Wales and payment thereof shall first be demanded therefrom.

Short title.

11. This Act shall be styled and may be cited as "The Queensland Debt Act of 1862."
