Sydney, 14 November, 1862. }*

CHA. TOMPSON,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO VICESIMO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act to enable the Municipal Council of Sydney to substitute for their present site a more convenient site for a Town Hall.

WHEREAS the lands described in the first Schedule hereto Preamble. have been granted to the Municipal Council of Sydney and their successors as a site for a Town Hall for the use and convenience of the inhabitants of the City of Sydney for the time being and for no other purpose whatsoever And whereas the said lands are so situated as not to afford a suitable site for such purpose and the erection of a Town Hall thereon would not be for the convenience of the said inhabitants And whereas the said Council have no power to alienate the said land And whereas it is expedient that they should possess such power and the authority by sale or exchange of the said lands to obtain a more convenient site and to erect thereon a Town Hall for the use and convenience of the said inhabitants Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Municipal Council of Sydney by public auction at such time as shall appear to them most advantageous to sell the lands described in the first Schedule hereto with their appurtenances in one lot or in several parcels not less in any case than twenty-six feet in width and eighty-six feet in depth for the best price that
