ANNO VICESIMO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. VII.

An Act to postpone for a limited time the levying of the Wollongong Harbour Tonnage Duty. [Assented to, 13th October, 1862.]

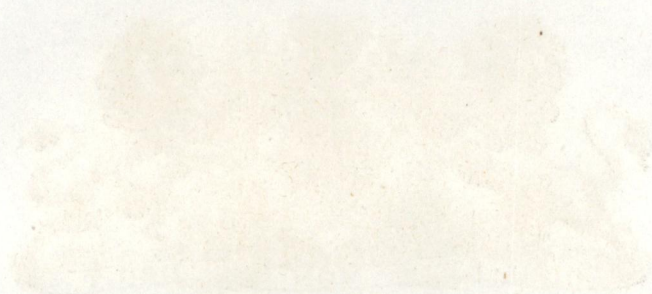

WHEREAS by the Wollongong Tonnage Act of 1861 a Tonnage Preamble.
Duty upon certain ships or vessels entering Wollongong Harbour was made leviabie from and after the first day of July now next ensuing to be applied towards paying off a loan for improvements to the said harbour and fully carrying out such improvements And whereas such improvements are not sufficiently advanced to justify the levying of such duty on and from the said day and it is therefore expedient to postpone the same Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. The Tonnage Duty imposed by the said Act shall not be demanded or become payable before the first day of July one thousand 25 Vic. No. 5
Wollongong
Tonnage postponed. eight hundred and sixty-three.

By Authority: THOMAS RICHARDS, Government Printer, Sydney, 1862.
