GENE PATRICK

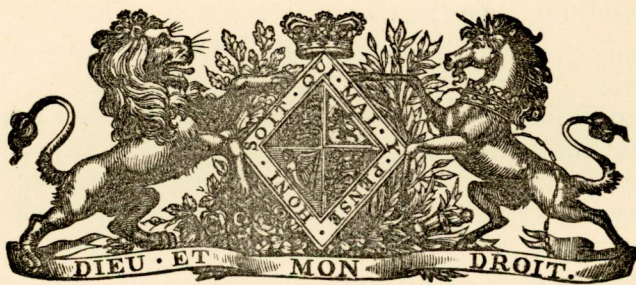

The first of all things is that we should be true to ourselves. We should not be afraid to stand up for our principles, even if it means standing alone. It is only in this way that we can hope to make a difference in the world.

CONCLUSION

THE END

It is the duty of every citizen to be true to his conscience. We must not let our fears or our doubts prevent us from doing what is right. We must have the courage to stand up for our principles, even if it means standing alone.
