

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 15 November, 1866. }*

CHA. TOMPSON,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO TRICESIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to make provision for the Inspection of Hospitals and other Institutions aided from the Public Revenue.

WHEREAS it is necessary in certain cases in which sums of Preamble.
money are granted by Parliament in aid of Hospitals and other Public Institutions to make provision for ensuring the proper application of such grants to the purposes intended Be it therefore
5 enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

- 10 1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Inspectors of Public Charities may be appointed.
Executive Council to appoint an Inspector of Public Charities the duty of which officer under the instructions of the Colonial Secretary for the time being shall be to visit and inspect all Hospitals Infirmaries Orphan Schools and Charitable Institutions which are wholly or in part supported by grants from the Public Revenue and to conduct 15 inquiries and examinations in respect to the management of the same Provided that all such visits inspections inquiries and examinations shall have reference and be directed solely to the proper appropriation of the public grants in aid and the efficient conduct of such Institutions.
- 20 2. It shall be lawful for the Colonial Secretary to perform any Powers of Inspector may be exercised by the Colonial Secretary.
of the duties and exercise any of the powers of visitation inspection and inquiry by this Act conferred upon the Inspector of Public Charities.

Public Institutions Inspection.

3. Every public Institution that receives aid from the public Revenue shall at all times submit to the inspection and examination of the Government as provided for in the preceding sections of this Act or by any special Board or Commission of Inquiry duly appointed
- 5 And any Director Trustee Superintendent Master or Officer of such Institution or any other person resisting the inspection and inquiry so authorized by wilfully refusing admission to premises withholding books or accounts when applied for or by any other act shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding for any one offence the sum of ten pounds.
- 10 4. The Inspector of Public Charities or other person performing the duties of inspection as prescribed by the provisions of this Act shall before the thirty-first day of January in each year lay before the Governor and Executive Council a detailed report on the condition and working of the several public Institutions aforesaid and copies of
- 15 all such reports shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament.
5. The Colonial Secretary for the time being may appoint any Magistrate or other person resident in any place where a Mechanics' Institution School of Arts Public Library Literary Society or other similar Institution is established with aid from the Public Revenue
- 20 to visit inspect and report upon the state and working of such Institution and the person so appointed shall as to such Institution possess all the powers of inspection and inquiry conferred by the provisions of this Act on the Inspector of Public Charities.
6. All penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered in a summary way before any two or more Justices of the Peace.
- 25 7. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.
8. This Act shall be styled and may be cited for all purposes as the "Public Institutions Inspection Act of 1866."

Public Institutions
to be subject to inspection.

Annual Report.

Persons may be appointed to inspect
Literary Institutions.

Penalties how recoverable.

Commencement of
Act.

Short title.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 15 November, 1866.* }

CHA. TOMPSON,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO TRICESIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

(As Amended in Committee of the Whole Council.)

An Act to make provision for the Inspection of Hospitals and other Institutions aided from the Public Revenue.

WHEREAS it is necessary in certain cases in which sums of Preamble.
money are granted by Parliament in aid of Hospitals and other Public Institutions to make provision for ensuring the proper application of such grants to the purposes intended Be it therefore
5 enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the 10 Executive Council to appoint an Inspector of Public Charities the Inspectors of Public Charities may be appointed.
duty of which officer under the instructions of the Colonial Secretary for the time being shall be to visit and inspect all Hospitals Infirmaries Orphan Schools and Charitable Institutions which are wholly or in part supported by grants from the Public Revenue and to conduct 15 inquiries and examinations in respect to the management of the same and also in special cases to appoint with such Inspector any other person or persons to aid in the performance of the said duties Provided that all such visits inspections inquiries and examinations shall have reference and be directed solely to the proper appropriation 20 of the public grants in aid and the efficient conduct of such Institutions.

210—

2.

NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through ; the words to be inserted are printed in black letter.

Public Institutions Inspection.

2. It shall be lawful for the Colonial Secretary to perform any of the duties and exercise any of the powers of visitation inspection and inquiry by this Act conferred upon the Inspector of Public Charities. Powers of Inspector may be exercised by the Colonial Secretary.
- 5 3. Every public Institution that receives aid from the public Revenue shall at all times submit to the inspection and examination of the Government as provided for in ~~the preceding sections of this Act~~ or by any special Board or Commission of Inquiry duly appointed And any Director Trustee Superintendent Master or Officer of such 10 Institution or any other person resisting the inspection and inquiry so authorized by wilfully refusing admission to premises withholding books or accounts when applied for or by any other act shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding for any one offence the sum of ten pounds.
- 15 4. The Inspector of Public Charities or other person performing the duties of inspection as prescribed by the provisions of this Act shall before the thirty-first day of January in each year lay before the Governor and Executive Council a detailed report on the condition and working of the several public Institutions aforesaid and copies of all such reports shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament. Annual Report.
- 20 5. ~~The Colonial Secretary for the time being~~ Governor with the advice of the Executive Council may appoint any Magistrate or other person resident in any place where a Mechanics' Institution School of Arts Public Library Literary Society or other similar Institution is established with aid from the Public Revenue to visit inspect and 25 report upon the state and working of such Institution and the person so appointed shall as to such Institution possess all the powers of inspection and inquiry conferred by the provisions of this Act on the Inspector of Public Charities. Persons may be appointed to inspect Literary Institutions.
- 30 6. All penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered in a summary way before any two or more Justices of the Peace. Penalties how recoverable.
7. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven. Commencement of Act.
8. This Act shall be styled and may be cited for all purposes as the "Public Institutions Inspection Act of 1866." Short title.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS INSPECTION BILL.

SCHEDULE of the Amendments made by the Legislative Council in the Bill intituled, “ An Act to make provision for the Inspection of Hospitals and other Institutions aided from the Public Revenue,” returned to the Legislative Assembly, with Message of 4th December, 1866.

R. O'CONNOR,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

Page 1, clause 1, line 15. *After “ same” insert “ and also in special cases to appoint
“ with such Inspector any other person or persons to aid in the perform“ ance of the said duties”*

Page 2, clause 3, line 7. Omit “ the preceding sections of”

„ clause 5, line 20. Omit “ Colonial Secretary for the time being” insert “ Governor with the advice of the Executive Council ”

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 15 November, 1866. }*

CHA. TOMPSON,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

The LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL has this day agreed to this Bill with Amendments.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 4th December, 1866. }*

R. O'CONNOR,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO TRICESIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to make provision for the Inspection of Hospitals and other Institutions aided from the Public Revenue.

WHEREAS it is necessary in certain cases in which sums of Preamble. money are granted by Parliament in aid of Hospitals and other Public Institutions to make provision for ensuring the proper application of such grants to the purposes intended Be it therefore 5 enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Inspectors of Public Charities may be appointed.
- 10 Executive Council to appoint an Inspector of Public Charities the duty of which officer under the instructions of the Colonial Secretary for the time being shall be to visit and inspect all Hospitals Infirmaries Orphan Schools and Charitable Institutions which are wholly or in part supported by grants from the Public Revenue and to conduct 15 inquiries and examinations in respect to the management of the same and also in special cases to appoint with such Inspector any other person or persons to aid in the performance of the said duties Provided that all such visits inspections inquiries and examinations shall have reference and be directed solely to the proper appropriation 20 of the public grants in aid and the efficient conduct of such Institutions.

210—

2.

NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through; the words to be inserted are printed in black letter.

Public Institutions Inspection.

2. It shall be lawful for the Colonial Secretary to perform any of the duties and exercise any of the powers of visitation inspection and inquiry by this Act conferred upon the Inspector of Public Charities. Powers of Inspector may be exercised by the Colonial Secretary.
- 5 3. Every public Institution that receives aid from the public Revenue shall at all times submit to the inspection and examination of the Government as provided for in the ~~preceding sections~~ of this Act or by any special Board or Commission of Inquiry duly appointed And any Director Trustee Superintendent Master or Officer of such 10 Institution or any other person resisting the inspection and inquiry so authorized by wilfully refusing admission to premises withholding books or accounts when applied for or by any other act shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding for any one offence the sum of ten pounds.
- 15 4. The Inspector of Public Charities or other person performing the duties of inspection as prescribed by the provisions of this Act shall before the thirty-first day of January in each year lay before the Governor and Executive Council a detailed report on the condition and working of the several public Institutions aforesaid and copies of all such reports shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament. Annual Report.
- 20 5. The Colonial Secretary ~~for the time being~~ Governor with the advice of the Executive Council may appoint any Magistrate or other person resident in any place where a Mechanics' Institution School of Arts Public Library Literary Society or other similar Institution is established with aid from the Public Revenue to visit inspect and 25 report upon the state and working of such Institution and the person so appointed shall as to such Institution possess all the powers of inspection and inquiry conferred by the provisions of this Act on the Inspector of Public Charities. Persons may be appointed to inspect Literary Institutions.
- 30 6. All penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered in a summary way before any two or more Justices of the Peace. Penalties how recoverable.
7. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of 35 January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven. Commencement of Act.
8. This Act shall be styled and may be cited for all purposes as the "Public Institutions Inspection Act of 1866." Short title.

New South Wales.

ANNO TRICESIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XIX.

An Act to make provision for the Inspection of Hospitals and other Institutions aided from the Public Revenue. [Assented to, 22nd December, 1866.]

WHEREAS it is necessary in certain cases in which sums of money are granted by Parliament in aid of Hospitals and other Public Institutions to make provision for ensuring the proper application of such grants to the purposes intended Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council to appoint an Inspector of Public Charities the duty of which officer under the instructions of the Colonial Secretary for the time being shall be to visit and inspect all Hospitals Infirmaries Orphan Schools and Charitable Institutions which are wholly or in part supported by grants from the Public Revenue and to conduct inquiries and examinations in respect to the management of the same and also in special cases to appoint with such Inspector any other person or persons to aid in the performance of the said duties Provided that all such visits inspections inquiries and examinations shall have reference and be directed solely to the proper appropriation of the public grants in aid and the efficient conduct of such Institutions.

Inspectors of Public Charities may be appointed.

Public Institutions Inspection.

Powers of Inspector
may be exercised
by the Colonial Secretary.

2. It shall be lawful for the Colonial Secretary to perform any of the duties and exercise any of the powers of visitation inspection and inquiry by this Act conferred upon the Inspector of Public Charities.

Public Institutions
to be subject to
inspection.

3. Every public Institution that receives aid from the public Revenue shall at all times submit to the inspection and examination of the Government as provided for in this Act or by any special Board or Commission of Inquiry duly appointed And any Director Trustee Superintendent Master or Officer of such Institution or any other person resisting the inspection and inquiry so authorized by wilfully refusing admission to premises withholding books or accounts when applied for or by any other act shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding for any one offence the sum of ten pounds.

Annual Report.

4. The Inspector of Public Charities or other person performing the duties of inspection as prescribed by the provisions of this Act shall before the thirty-first day of January in each year lay before the Governor and Executive Council a detailed report on the condition and working of the several public Institutions aforesaid and copies of all such reports shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

Persons may be appointed to inspect
Literary Institutions.

5. The Governor with the advice of the Executive Council may appoint any Magistrate or other person resident in any place where a Mechanics' Institution School of Arts Public Library Literary Society or other similar Institution is established with aid from the Public Revenue to visit inspect and report upon the state and working of such Institution and the person so appointed shall as to such Institution possess all the powers of inspection and inquiry conferred by the provisions of this Act on the Inspector of Public Charities.

Penalties how
recoverable.

6. All penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered in a summary way before any two or more Justices of the Peace.

Commencement of
Act.

7. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

Short title.

8. This Act shall be styled and may be cited for all purposes as the "Public Institutions Inspection Act of 1866."

New South Wales.

ANNO TRICESIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XIX.

An Act to make provision for the Inspection of Hospitals and other Institutions aided from the Public Revenue. [Assented to, 22nd December, 1866.]

WHEREAS it is necessary in certain cases in which sums of Preamble. money are granted by Parliament in aid of Hospitals and other Public Institutions to make provision for ensuring the proper application of such grants to the purposes intended Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council to appoint an Inspector of Public Charities the Inspectors of Public Charities may be appointed. duty of which officer under the instructions of the Colonial Secretary for the time being shall be to visit and inspect all Hospitals Infirmaries Orphan Schools and Charitable Institutions which are wholly or in part supported by grants from the Public Revenue and to conduct inquiries and examinations in respect to the management of the same and also in special cases to appoint with such Inspector any other person or persons to aid in the performance of the said duties Provided that all such visits inspections inquiries and examinations shall have reference and be directed solely to the proper appropriation of the public grants in aid and the efficient conduct of such Institutions.

Public Institutions Inspection.

Powers of Inspector
may be exercised
by the Colonial Secretary.

2. It shall be lawful for the Colonial Secretary to perform any of the duties and exercise any of the powers of visitation inspection and inquiry by this Act conferred upon the Inspector of Public Charities.

Public Institutions
to be subject to
inspection.

3. Every public Institution that receives aid from the public Revenue shall at all times submit to the inspection and examination of the Government as provided for in this Act or by any special Board or Commission of Inquiry duly appointed. And any Director Trustee Superintendent Master or Officer of such Institution or any other person resisting the inspection and inquiry so authorized by wilfully refusing admission to premises withholding books or accounts when applied for or by any other act shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding for any one offence the sum of ten pounds.

Annual Report.

4. The Inspector of Public Charities or other person performing the duties of inspection as prescribed by the provisions of this Act shall before the thirty-first day of January in each year lay before the Governor and Executive Council a detailed report on the condition and working of the several public Institutions aforesaid and copies of all such reports shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

Persons may be appointed to inspect
Literary Institutions.

5. The Governor with the advice of the Executive Council may appoint any Magistrate or other person resident in any place where a Mechanics' Institution School of Arts Public Library Literary Society or other similar Institution is established with aid from the Public Revenue to visit inspect and report upon the state and working of such Institution and the person so appointed shall as to such Institution possess all the powers of inspection and inquiry conferred by the provisions of this Act on the Inspector of Public Charities.

Penalties how
recoverable.

6. All penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered in a summary way before any two or more Justices of the Peace.

Commencement of
Act.

7. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

Short title.

8. This Act shall be styled and may be cited for all purposes as the "Public Institutions Inspection Act of 1866."