

A BILL

To prevent the Slaughtering of Cattle within the City of Sydney.

[DR. LANG ;—29 January, 1869.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent the keeping of certain Preamble.
Animals within the City of Sydney Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New 5 South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

1. In the construction of this Act the word "Animal" shall Interpretation clause.
be taken to mean any Calf not being one year old Sheep or Pig.

2. It shall not be lawful for any person carrying on business as Keeping living sheep pigs or calves in Sydney prohibited.
10 a butcher to breed feed keep or have any kind of living animal in any place kept occupied or used by him within the City of Sydney and any person offending against this section shall forfeit and pay on conviction of such any sum not exceeding ten pounds.

3. The Inspector of Nuisances or any person appointed by the Inspector of Nuisances to have power to enter and seize.
15 Mayor of the said City for that purpose may at all times enter into and inspect any house out-building lane alley or other place within the said City and in case he shall find any living animal in any such house out-building lane alley or other place he may seize the same And any person to whom such animal belongs or in whose custody the same is 20 found shall forfeit and pay on conviction thereof any sum not exceeding ten pounds and upon such conviction the animals so seized shall be forfeited.

4. All penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered before Summary jurisdiction.
any Justice of the Peace in a summary way and if the same be not paid 25 either immediately or within such time as such Justice may appoint for such payment not exceeding fourteen days after conviction then the person so convicted shall by warrant under the hand of the convict-ing or of any other Justice of the Peace be imprisoned with or without hard labor for any period not exceeding three calendar months unless 30 the same be sooner paid.

A BILL

To prevent the slaughtering of cattle within the City of Sydney.

[Enacted in 1883.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent the slaughtering of cattle within the City of Sydney, and it is therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. In the construction of this Act the word "Animal" shall be taken to mean any Cattle not being one year old sheep or pig.
2. It shall not be lawful for any person carrying on business as a butcher to breed, keep or have any kind of being animal in any place, place kept, compound or shed by him within the City of Sydney and any person offending against this section shall be liable to pay on conviction of such any sum not exceeding the penalty.
3. The Inspector of a slaughter or any person appointed by the Mayor of the City of Sydney for that purpose may at all times within the limits of the City and in every part thereof inspect any house, out-building, place, shed or other place within the City and in every part thereof and may enter the same and may require any person to produce such animal before him when called upon to do so and any person who refuses to do so shall be liable to pay on conviction thereof any sum not exceeding the penalty and upon such conviction the animal so seized shall be forfeited.
4. All penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered before any Justice of the Peace in a summary way and if the sum be not paid within thirty days of the date of the conviction the Justice may require the person to pay the sum and may also require the person to pay the costs of the proceedings and may also require the person to pay the costs of the proceedings and may also require the person to pay the costs of the proceedings.