

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 11 February, 1873.* }

STEPHEN W. JONES,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO TRICESIMO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to authorize the reclamation of Land in Blackwattle Bay.

WHEREAS it is expedient to reclaim and improve certain land ^{Preamble.}
lying beyond high-water-mark in Blackwattle Bay Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative 5 Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the <sup>Reclamation and improvement of land.</sup>
Executive Council to cause to be reclaimed from the waters of Port
Jackson the land lying beyond high-water-mark in Blackwattle
10 Bay which is described in the Schedule hereto and either to let or sell the same or any part thereof by public auction in one or more lots and subject to such conditions as the Governor aforesaid may deem fit and to lay down construct or erect on the land so reclaimed or on any part thereof any streets roads jetties sewers or other public works or 15 buildings or any dwelling-houses shops stores or warehouses and either to apply the same to any public purposes or to let or sell as aforesaid any such dwelling-houses shops stores or warehouses from time to time subject to any conditions as aforesaid ^{Proviso.} Provided that a portion not 122— being

Blackwattle Bay Land Reclamation.

being less than a fourth part of the entire area so reclaimed shall be set apart and dedicated in perpetuity for a park or place for public recreation. Provided also that one month's previous notice of such reclamation and of every such work as aforesaid and of every such letting or sale shall be published in the Government Gazette. And the whole net proceeds arising from any such letting or sale shall be paid to the Colonial Treasurer and shall be by him applied in the first instance and to the extent of such proceeds towards the repayment of the sum of ten thousand pounds or so much thereof as shall have been applied to the purchase of Blackwattle Bridge and Causeway and Pymont Bridge Company's Roads between Pymont Bridge and Camperdown in pursuance of the provisions in that behalf of the "Loan Act of 1872". And the balance of such proceeds (if any) remaining after such repayment and all such proceeds thereafter (if any) shall be carried by the said Treasurer to the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony.

2. The owner of any land which shall be severed from immediate contact with the water by any such reclamation as aforesaid shall be entitled to compensation for the damage if any sustained by his property in consequence of such severance and such damage shall in every case be determined by appraisement in manner hereinafter provided regard being had in such appraisement to any increased value conferred upon such land by any public work or other improvements now in course of construction or which may hereafter be constructed or erected under the provisions of this Act. And every such appraisement shall be made and the amount of compensation thereby awarded for such severance shall be ascertained before such severance shall be actually effected by reclamation as aforesaid. And no such owner shall be entitled to any compensation for such severance other than such as shall be awarded in pursuance of the provisions of this Act. And in such appraisement regard shall be had to the value of any reclamation or improvements made by the owners of such land provided the same shall not have been alienated under section nine or twelve of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861.

3. Every appraisement under this Act shall be conducted as follows:—

(1.) The Minister for Lands or some person authorized in that behalf by him and the owner of the land may concur in the appointment of a single appraiser or in default of such concurrence each such party shall appoint an appraiser. And every such appointment shall be made by the respective parties under their hands in writing and delivered to the appraiser or the appraisers as the case may be and shall be attached to the appraisement when made and shall be deemed a submission to appraisement by the parties making the same.

(2.) Before any appraiser or umpire shall enter upon the consideration of any matter referred to him under this Act he shall subscribe a declaration in the form following before a Justice of the Peace:—

" I A. B. do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am not directly or indirectly interested in the matter referred to me and that I will faithfully honestly and to the best of my skill and ability hear and determine the matters referred to me under the Blackwattle Bay Land Reclamation Act of 187 "

And such declaration shall be annexed to the appraisement when made.

(3.)

Blackwattle Bay Land Reclamation.

5 (3.) And with respect to all matters not otherwise provided for or regulated by this Act such appraisement shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Council thirty-one Victoria number fifteen as if such appraisement were an arbitration under the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act.

4. All costs of and consequent upon every reference to appraise- ^{Costs.} ment under this Act shall be in the discretion of the appraiser appraisers or umpire by whom the matter is determined.

10 5. Every appraisement under this Act shall be in writing and ^{Requisites of} shall be transmitted to the Minister for Lands and deposited in his ^{appraisement.} Office.

6. This Act may be cited as the "Blackwattle Bay Land ^{Short title.} Reclamation Act 1873."

15

SCHEDULE.

20 That part of Blackwattle Bay lying to the south of the embankment on which the Pyrmont Bridge Company's road crosses the bay Commencing at the eastern end of said embankment where it meets the original high-water-mark and bounded thence on the east south and west by the original high-water-mark of the bay to the western side of the aforesaid embankment and thence by the embankment to the point of commencement.

ARTICLE 1

Section 1. The name of this State shall be the State of New York.

Section 2. The Executive, Legislative and Judicial Powers of this State shall be separated and distinct from each other, and no Officer of one Department shall exercise any Power properly belonging to another.

Section 3. The Executive Power shall be vested in a Governor, who shall hold Office for a Term of four Years, and shall be eligible for a second Term.

Section 4. The Legislative Power shall be vested in a Senate and an Assembly.

Section 5. The Judicial Power shall be vested in a Chief Justice of the Court of Sessions, and in such other Justices of the Peace, as the Legislature may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE 2

Section 1. The Governor shall be Commander in Chief of the Militia of this State, and shall have the Power to call out the Militia in case of Rebellion, Invasion or other imminent Danger, and to direct their Operations, until they shall be disbanded or ordered to disband by the Legislature.

Section 2. The Governor shall have the Power to pardon Offences against the Laws of this State, except Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace, and to commute or remit the Punishment of any Offence, except in Cases of Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace, and to commute or remit the Punishment of any Offence, except in Cases of Treason, Felony and Breach of the Peace.

ARTICLE 3

Section 1. The Senate shall be composed of twenty Members, who shall be chosen for a Term of two Years, and shall be eligible for a second Term.

Section 2. The Assembly shall be composed of fifty Members, who shall be chosen for a Term of two Years, and shall be eligible for a second Term.

Section 3. The Legislature shall assemble annually on the first Monday in January, and shall continue its Session until the first Monday in March following.

Section 4. The Legislature shall have the Power to alter or to abolish any Office established by Law, and to increase or diminish the Number of Officers in any Office, and to alter or to abolish any Power or Duty of any Officer.

Section 5. The Legislature shall have the Power to pass Laws for the raising and supporting of a Militia, and for the raising and supporting of a Navy and a Marine Corps, and for the raising and supporting of a Coast Guard, and for the raising and supporting of a Fire Department, and for the raising and supporting of a Police Department, and for the raising and supporting of a Fire Department, and for the raising and supporting of a Police Department.

New South Wales.

ANNO TRICESIMO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. X.

An Act to authorize the reclamation of Land in Blackwattle Bay.
[Assented to, 26th March, 1873.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to reclaim and improve certain land Preamble.
lying beyond high-water-mark in Blackwattle Bay Be it
therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Reclamation and improvement of land.
Executive Council to cause to be reclaimed from the waters of Port
Jackson the land lying beyond high-water-mark in Blackwattle
Bay which is described in the Schedule hereto and either to let or sell the same or any part thereof by public auction in one or more lots
and subject to such conditions as the Governor aforesaid may deem fit
and to lay down construct or erect on the land so reclaimed or on any part thereof any streets roads jetties sewers or other public works or buildings or any dwelling-houses shops stores or warehouses and either
to apply the same to any public purposes or to let or sell as aforesaid
any such dwelling-houses shops stores or warehouses from time to time subject to any conditions as aforesaid Proviso.
Provided that a portion not being

Blackwattle Bay Land Reclamation.

being less than a fourth part of the entire area so reclaimed shall be set apart and dedicated in perpetuity for a park or place for public recreation. Provided also that one month's previous notice of such reclamation and of every such work as aforesaid and of every such letting or sale shall be published in the Government Gazette. And the whole net proceeds arising from any such letting or sale shall be paid to the Colonial Treasurer and shall be by him applied in the first instance and to the extent of such proceeds towards the repayment of the sum of ten thousand pounds or so much thereof as shall have been applied to the purchase of Blackwattle Bridge and Causeway and Pymont Bridge Company's Roads between Pymont Bridge and Camperdown in pursuance of the provisions in that behalf of the "Loan Act of 1872". And the balance of such proceeds (if any) remaining after such repayment and all such proceeds thereafter (if any) shall be carried by the said Treasurer to the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony.

Compensation for damage sustained by reclamation.

2. The owner of any land which shall be severed from immediate contact with the water by any such reclamation as aforesaid shall be entitled to compensation for the damage if any sustained by his property in consequence of such severance and such damage shall in every case be determined by appraisement in manner hereinafter provided regard being had in such appraisement to any increased value conferred upon such land by any public work or other improvements now in course of construction or which may hereafter be constructed or erected under the provisions of this Act. And every such appraisement shall be made and the amount of compensation thereby awarded for such severance shall be ascertained before such severance shall be actually effected by reclamation as aforesaid. And no such owner shall be entitled to any compensation for such severance other than such as shall be awarded in pursuance of the provisions of this Act. And in such appraisement regard shall be had to the value of any reclamation or improvements made by the owners of such land provided the same shall not have been alienated under section nine or twelve of the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861.

Proviso.

Appraisement.

3. Every appraisement under this Act shall be conducted as follows :—

Appointment of appraisers.

(1.) The Minister for Lands or some person authorized in that behalf by him and the owner of the land may concur in the appointment of a single appraiser or in default of such concurrence each such party shall appoint an appraiser. And every such appointment shall be made by the respective parties under their hands in writing and delivered to the appraiser or the appraisers as the case may be and shall be attached to the appraisement when made and shall be deemed a submission to appraisement by the parties making the same.

Declaration.

(2.) Before any appraiser or umpire shall enter upon the consideration of any matter referred to him under this Act he shall subscribe a declaration in the form following before a Justice of the Peace :—

" I A. B. do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am not directly or indirectly interested in the matter referred to me and that I will faithfully honestly and to the best of my skill and ability hear and determine the matters referred to me under the Blackwattle Bay Land Reclamation Act of 1873"

And such declaration shall be annexed to the appraisement when made.

(3.)

Blackwattle Bay Land Reclamation.

- (3.) And with respect to all matters not otherwise provided for or regulated by this Act such appraisement shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Council thirty-one Victoria number fifteen as if such appraisement were an arbitration under the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act.
4. All costs of and consequent upon every reference to appraise- ^{Costs.}
ment under this Act shall be in the discretion of the appraiser appraisers or umpire by whom the matter is determined.
5. Every appraisement under this Act shall be in writing and ^{Requisites of} shall be transmitted to the Minister for Lands and deposited in his ^{appraisement.} Office.
6. This Act may be cited as the "Blackwattle Bay Land ^{Short title.}
Reclamation Act 1873."

SCHEDULE.

That part of Blackwattle Bay lying to the south of the embankment on which the Pymont Bridge Company's road crosses the bay Commencing at the eastern end of said embankment where it meets the original high-water-mark and bounded thence on the east south and west by the original high-water-mark of the bay to the western side of the aforesaid embankment and thence by the embankment to the point of commencement.

By Authority: THOMAS RICHARDS, Government Printer, Sydney, 1873.

[3d.]

and (3) and with respect to all matters not otherwise provided for shall be regulated by the Act and regulations made thereunder in accordance with the provisions of the Act and regulations made thereunder.

All costs of and incidental to any proceedings taken under this Act shall be in the discretion of the court or tribunal before which the proceedings are taken.

Every application made under this Act shall be in writing and shall be transmitted to the Minister for Lands and Mines.

Section 4. - The Minister for Lands and Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 5. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 6. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 7. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 8. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 9. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 10. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 11. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 12. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 13. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 14. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 15. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 16. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 17. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 18. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 19. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.

Section 20. - The Minister for Lands and
Mines may, in his discretion, cause to be
published in the Government Gazette
any regulations made under this Act.