

IMPOUNDING ACT AMENDMENT BILL.

---

SCHEDULE of the Amendments referred to in Message of 20th March, 1879.

JOHN J. CALVERT,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

---

- Page 1, clause 1, line 11. Omit " and increased trespass damages"
" " " Omit " to be charged"
Page 2, clause 3, line 28. After " be" add "Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to give jurisdiction to any Justices in any matter where the title to land is in question"
" clause 4, line 36. Omit " animal" insert " same"
" clause 7. Omit clause 7.
Page 3, clause 8, line 1. After " person" insert "unlawfully and"
" " line 6. Omit " guilty of an offence" insert "liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds"
" clause 9, line 10. Omit " and"
" " line 11. After " it" insert "the amount of trespass and other charges claimed by him on such animal and the name and address if known to the impounder of the owner or supposed owner of such animal"
" clause 9, line 15. Omit " guilty of an offence" insert "liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds"
" clause 10. Omit clause 10.
" clause 11, line 31. Omit " guilty of an offence" insert "liable to a penalty
not exceeding five pounds"
" clause 11, lines 32 to 35. Omit " Proviso"
" clause 12. Omit clause 12 insert new clauses 10 and 11.
-

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.<sup>6</sup>

Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 1 October, 1878. }

STEPHEN W. JONES,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

The LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL has this day agreed to this Bill with Amendments.

Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 20th March, 1879. }

JOHN J. CALVERT,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

*****

No. .

An Act to amend the "Impounding Act of 1865."

WHEREAS it is desirable to amend the "Impounding Act of 1865" Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Impounding Act Amendment Act of 1879" the term "Principal Act" shall mean the "Impounding Act of 1865" and the word "damages" whensoever used or appearing in this Act shall unless the context otherwise indicate be taken to signify or include rates for driving tolls ferry dues or other charges and increased trespass damages authorized to be charged by the Principal Act.

Title and definitions.

2. In case the owner of any animal impounded shall dispute the damages claimed or the impounding as not being in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act or if the owner of any entire horse or bull impounded and for which special damages are claimed under the thirty-first section of the said Act shall dispute that any such damages did or could accrue from the trespass of such entire

Owner of impounded animal may complain against damages or impounding.

NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through; those to be inserted are printed in black letter.

Impounding Act Amendment.

horse or bull he may in any such case make his complaint in manner hereinafter provided and may either allow the animal to remain in the pound or pay to the poundkeeper the pound fees and charges demandable by him as well as the damages claimed (if any) and release the 5 animal and in either case shall give the poundkeeper notice in writing of his intention to complain and upon receipt of such notice the poundkeeper shall not pay over any such damages (if any) but keep the same in his possession until the decision of the Justices shall be made known to him in manner or until the expiration of the time hereinafter 10 mentioned.

3. The owner aforesaid may make his complaint in writing within fourteen days of the date of the said notice to any Justice of the Peace who shall thereupon issue a summons to the impounder to appear before two or more Justices at the Court of Petty Sessions
 15 nearest to the pound where the animal shall have been impounded and the Justices then assembled shall summarily hear and determine such complaint and if it shall appear to them that the damages if any claimed are or the impounding was contrary to the provisions of the Principal Act or if special damages have been claimed under the 20 thirty-first section of the said Act for the trespass of an entire horse or bull that no such damages did or could accrue therefrom they shall adjudge accordingly and may make such order for costs and expenses which shall include any pound fees which the owner has paid or will have to pay as they shall think fit and shall issue an order to the 25 poundkeeper for the release of the animal impounded on payment by the owner of the pound fees and charges due up to the day of release or for the return of any damages which may have been paid to him as the case may be Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to give jurisdiction to any Justices in any matter where the title
 30 to land is in question.

Proceedings at hearing of complaint against damages or impounding when upheld.

4. If on the hearing of any complaint as aforesaid the Justices shall dismiss the same they shall deliver a minute of such dismissal to the impounder on receipt of which minute by the poundkeeper if the animal impounded shall have been left in the pound he shall take the
 35 same course in regard to the detention of the animal and its sale as if the animal same had been retained under ordinary circumstances except that it shall not be released until payment shall have been made of the pound fees and charges due up to the day of release but if the animal shall have been released the poundkeeper shall pay over to the im-
 40 pounder any damages which he may have received and the Justices may make such order for costs and expenses as they shall think fit.

Steps to be taken if complaint dismissed.

5. If after a written notice of intention to complain as hereinbefore provided has been given to any poundkeeper he shall not have received an order or minute as aforesaid within one month from the 45 date of such notice he shall act and proceed in regard to the animal impounded or the damages if any paid to him as if no such notice had been given to him.

How poundkeeper to act on non-receipt of order after notice of intention to complain has been lodged.

6. The liability of the owner of any entire horse or bull to pay damages under the thirty-first section of the Principal Act shall not 50 be incurred if the land trespassed upon was not enclosed by a sufficient fence at the time of trespass.

Special damages for trespass of entire horse &c. not chargeable.

7. Any poundkeeper or other person wilfully doing any act or thing declared by this Act to be an offence or contrary to the provisions thereof or of the Principal Act or wilfully neglecting to comply with 55 any requirement or condition of the said Acts for which no other punishment is provided shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds which may be recovered before any two Justices in a summary way.

Poundkeeper &c. punishable for certain acts or neglect.

Impounding Act Amendment.

8. 7. Any person unlawfully and wilfully leaving open any gate or slip-panel or making any gap in any fence thereby permitting or causing any animal to trespass or otherwise wilfully causing any animal to trespass or who shall illegally impound any cattle or shall drive any cattle without proper authority on or from the land of any other person shall in each case be guilty of an offence liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Leaving open gates &c. or causing trespass.

9. 8. Any person impounding any animal shall in writing inform the poundkeeper of the place where the animal was trespassing when seized for impounding the kind of fence (if any) round it and the crop (if any) upon it the amount of trespass and other charges claimed by him on such animal and the name and address if known to the impounder of the owner or supposed owner of such animal and failing to do so or wilfully making any misstatement thereof shall in any such respect be guilty of an offence liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Impounder to furnish certain particulars.

10. Any poundkeeper who shall wilfully disobey any order addressed to him or minute served on him under the authority of this Act or who shall sell any impounded animal prior to the time required or authorized by or under the Principal Act as amended by this Act or who shall demand or receive from any person any trespass damages not authorized to be charged or claimed under the said Act so amended shall be guilty of an offence in each case.

Poundkeeper acting contrary to certain provisions guilty of an offence.

11. 9. The owner of any animal which shall have been seized for trespass or any person in his behalf any time before the animal shall have been placed in a pound or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the Principal Act may release the same by paying the damages lawfully chargeable up to the time of release which damages the person in charge of the animal shall make known on demand and on his failing to do so or to give up the animal on tender of the damages stated to be claimed he shall be guilty of an offence liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds. Provided that if any animals so seized shall belong to more than one person and are being taken together to a pound the right of release hereby given shall not apply unless all the said animals are offered to be released at the same time and in terms of this section.

Animals on their way to pounds &c. may be released.

12. Any costs and expenses awarded under sections three and four of this Act shall be recoverable by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person ordered to pay the same and in default of sufficient distress he shall be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any time not exceeding one month unless such costs and expenses shall be sooner paid.

How costs and expenses to be recovered.

10. No charge for the sustenance of animals which shall have been impounded shall be demanded by the poundkeeper for the day on which the same are so impounded unless such animals shall have been impounded and sent out to pasture before three p.m. of that day nor shall such charge be payable for the day on which the animals are released if the same are released before nine a.m. of that day.

Limiting charges for sustenance.

11. The Governor may with the advice of the Executive Council appoint Inspectors of Pounds who shall subject to the provisions of this and the principal Act and under the instructions of the Minister have the supervision and control of such pounds and poundkeepers as may from time to time by notice in the Gazette be committed to their charge and such Inspector may enter at any time on any land to inspect any animals impounded or detained for the purpose of being impounded and any person refusing to allow an Inspector to enter as aforesaid or hindering or impeding him in the execution of his duty shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Inspectors of Pounds.

Amendment to Act No. 10

7. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 8. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 9. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 10. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 11. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 12. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 13. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 14. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 15. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 16. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 17. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 18. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 19. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 20. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 21. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 22. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 23. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 24. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 25. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 26. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 27. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 28. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 29. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 30. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 31. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 32. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 33. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 34. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 35. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 36. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 37. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 38. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 39. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 40. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 41. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person
 42. Any person lawfully and lawfully lawfully any person

New South Wales.

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

*****

No. XXIII.

An Act to amend the "Impounding Act of 1865." [Assented to, 28th May, 1879.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to amend the "Impounding Act of 1865" Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Impounding Act Amendment Act of 1879" the term "Principal Act" shall mean the "Impounding Act of 1865" and the word "damages" whensoever used or appearing in this Act shall unless the context otherwise indicate be taken to signify or include rates for driving tolls ferry dues or other charges authorized by the Principal Act.

2. In case the owner of any animal impounded shall dispute the damages claimed or the impounding as not being in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act or if the owner of any entire horse or bull impounded and for which special damages are claimed under the thirty-first section of the said Act shall dispute that any such damages did or could accrue from the trespass of such entire horse or bull he may in any such case make his complaint in manner hereinafter provided and may either allow the animal to remain in the pound or pay to the poundkeeper the pound fees and charges demandable

Preamble.
Title and definitions.
Owner of impounded animal may complain against damages or impounding.

Impounding Act Amendment (No. 2).

able by him as well as the damages claimed (if any) and release the animal and in either case shall give the poundkeeper notice in writing of his intention to complain and upon receipt of such notice the poundkeeper shall not pay over any such damages (if any) but keep the same in his possession until the decision of the Justices shall be made known to him in manner or until the expiration of the time hereinafter mentioned.

Proceedings at hearing of complaint against damages or impounding when upheld.

3. The owner aforesaid may make his complaint in writing within fourteen days of the date of the said notice to any Justice of the Peace who shall thereupon issue a summons to the impounder to appear before two or more Justices at the Court of Petty Sessions nearest to the pound where the animal shall have been impounded and the Justices then assembled shall summarily hear and determine such complaint and if it shall appear to them that the damages if any claimed are or the impounding was contrary to the provisions of the Principal Act or if special damages have been claimed under the thirty-first section of the said Act for the trespass of an entire horse or bull that no such damages did or could accrue therefrom they shall adjudge accordingly and may make such order for costs and expenses which shall include any pound fees which the owner has paid or will have to pay as they shall think fit and shall issue an order to the poundkeeper for the release of the animal impounded on payment by the owner of the pound fees and charges due up to the day of release or for the return of any damages which may have been paid to him as the case may be. Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to give jurisdiction to any Justices in any matter where the title to land is in question.

Steps to be taken if complaint dismissed.

4. If on the hearing of any complaint as aforesaid the Justices shall dismiss the same they shall deliver a minute of such dismissal to the impounder on receipt of which minute by the poundkeeper if the animal impounded shall have been left in the pound he shall take the same course in regard to the detention of the animal and its sale as if the animal had been retained under ordinary circumstances except that it shall not be released until payment shall have been made of the pound fees and charges due up to the day of release but if the animal shall have been released the poundkeeper shall pay over to the impounder any damages which he may have received and the Justices may make such order for costs and expenses as they shall think fit.

How poundkeeper to act on non-receipt of order after notice of intention to complain has been lodged.

5. If after a written notice of intention to complain as hereinbefore provided has been given to any poundkeeper he shall not have received an order or minute as aforesaid within one month from the date of such notice he shall act and proceed in regard to the animal impounded or the damages if any paid to him as if no such notice had been given to him.

Special damages for trespass of entire horse &c. not chargeable.

6. The liability of the owner of any entire horse or bull to pay damages under the thirty-first section of the Principal Act shall not be incurred if the land trespassed upon was not enclosed by a sufficient fence at the time of trespass.

Poundkeeper &c. punishable for certain acts or neglect.

7. Any poundkeeper or other person wilfully doing any act or thing contrary to the provisions of this or the Principal Act or wilfully neglecting to comply with any requirement or condition of the said Acts for which no other punishment is provided shall in each case be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Leaving open gates &c. or causing trespass.

8. Any person unlawfully and wilfully leaving open any gate or slip-panel or making any gap in any fence thereby permitting or causing any animal to trespass or otherwise wilfully causing any animal to trespass or who shall illegally impound any cattle or shall drive any cattle without proper authority on or from the land of any other person shall in each case be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Impounding Act Amendment (No. 2).

9. Any person impounding any animal shall in writing inform the poundkeeper of the place where the animal was trespassing when seized for impounding the kind of fence (if any) round it the crop (if any) upon it the amount of trespass and other charges claimed by him on such animal and the name and address if known to the impounder of the owner or supposed owner of such animal and failing to do so or wilfully making any misstatement thereof shall in any such respect be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Impounder to furnish certain particulars.

10. The owner of any animal which shall have been seized for trespass or any person in his behalf any time before the animal shall have been placed in a pound or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the Principal Act may release the same by paying the damages lawfully chargeable up to the time of release which damages the person in charge of the animal shall make known on demand and on his failing to do so or to give up the animal on tender of the damages stated to be claimed he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Animals on their way to pounds &c. may be released.

11. Any costs and expenses awarded under sections three and four of this Act shall be recoverable by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person ordered to pay the same and in default of sufficient distress he shall be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any time not exceeding one month unless such costs and expenses shall be sooner paid.

How costs and expenses to be recovered.

12. No poundkeeper or person authorized by him shall impound any animal in the pound of which he is the keeper unless the same was trespassing upon land occupied by him under a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Poundkeeper not to impound in his own pound.

13. No charge for the sustenance of animals which shall have been impounded shall be demanded by the poundkeeper for the day on which the same were so impounded unless such animals shall have been impounded and fed and watered or sent out to pasture before three p.m. of that day nor shall such charge be payable for the day on which the animals are released if the same are released before nine a.m. of that day.

Limiting charges for sustenance.

14. The Minister may appoint Inspectors of pounds without salary who shall subject to his instructions have the supervision and control of pounds and poundkeepers as may from time to time by notice in the Gazette be committed to their charge and such Inspectors may enter at any time on any land to inspect any animals impounded or detained for the purpose of being impounded and any person refusing to allow an Inspector to enter as aforesaid or hindering or impeding him in the execution of his duty shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Inspectors of Pounds.

15. If the occupant of any land having an insufficient dividing fence fails to make or repair his share thereof and the occupant of the adjoining land has erected or kept in repair his portion such last-mentioned land shall be deemed to have a sufficient fence as against the trespass thereon of any animal of which the first-mentioned occupant is the owner.

Occupant failing to fence liable for trespass damages.

16. Every penalty under this or the Principal Act not otherwise provided for may be imposed and recovered in a summary way by and before two or more Justices of the Peace.

Summary jurisdiction.

Impounding Act Amendment (No. 2)

9. Any person impounding any animal shall in writing inform the proprietor of the place where the animal was impounded when asked for impounding the kind of cause (if any) found in the crop (if any) upon the animal and the name and address of the person to whom the animal was taken and if he is known to the impounder of the cause or supposed owner of such animal and failing to do so or wilfully making any misstatement thereof shall in any such respect be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

10. If the owner of any animal which shall have been seized in impounding the same shall not appear before the impounder within the time specified in the notice of impounding or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges and the amount of the impounding charges shall be paid by the impounder and the impounder shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day that the animal is impounded after the expiration of the time specified in the notice of impounding.

11. If the impounder of any animal shall not appear before the proprietor of the place where the animal was impounded within the time specified in the notice of impounding or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges and the amount of the impounding charges shall be paid by the proprietor and the proprietor shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day that the animal is impounded after the expiration of the time specified in the notice of impounding.

12. If the impounder of any animal shall not appear before the proprietor of the place where the animal was impounded within the time specified in the notice of impounding or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges and the amount of the impounding charges shall be paid by the proprietor and the proprietor shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day that the animal is impounded after the expiration of the time specified in the notice of impounding.

13. If the impounder of any animal shall not appear before the proprietor of the place where the animal was impounded within the time specified in the notice of impounding or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges and the amount of the impounding charges shall be paid by the proprietor and the proprietor shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day that the animal is impounded after the expiration of the time specified in the notice of impounding.

14. If the impounder of any animal shall not appear before the proprietor of the place where the animal was impounded within the time specified in the notice of impounding or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges and the amount of the impounding charges shall be paid by the proprietor and the proprietor shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day that the animal is impounded after the expiration of the time specified in the notice of impounding.

15. If the impounder of any animal shall not appear before the proprietor of the place where the animal was impounded within the time specified in the notice of impounding or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges and the amount of the impounding charges shall be paid by the proprietor and the proprietor shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day that the animal is impounded after the expiration of the time specified in the notice of impounding.

16. If the impounder of any animal shall not appear before the proprietor of the place where the animal was impounded within the time specified in the notice of impounding or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges or shall appear and not pay the amount of the impounding charges and the amount of the impounding charges shall be paid by the proprietor and the proprietor shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day that the animal is impounded after the expiration of the time specified in the notice of impounding.