and making out his title in respect of any portion of the said resumed lands be entitled to compensation on account of such resumption in manner hereinafter provided.

12. Every person claiming compensation in respect of any land
 5 so resumed or work or other matter done under the authority of this Act shall within ninety days from the publication of such notification or within such extended time as a Judge of the Supreme Court shall upon the application and at the cost of the claimant appoint in that behalf serve a notice in writing upon the Minister and a like notice
 10 upon the Crown Solicitor which notice shall set forth the nature of the estate or interest of the claimant in such land together with an abstract of his title and if he claims in respect of damage the nature of the damage which he has sustained or will sustain by reason of such resumption or work or matter as aforesaid and such notice may 15 be in the form in the First Schedule hereto but with any modifications required by the nature of the claim.

Notice of claim for compensation.

13. Within sixty days after the receipt of every such notice of claim by the Crown Solicitor he shall forward the same together with his report thereon to the Minister who shall thereupon (unless 20 no prima facie case for compensation shall have been disclosed) cause a valuation of the land or of the estate or interest of the claimant therein to be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act and shall inform the claimant as soon as practicable of the amount of such valuation by notice in the form of the Second Schedule hereto.

Claim and report thereon.

14. If within ninety days after the service of notice of claim
 25 the claimant and the Minister shall not agree as to the amount of compensation the claimant shall be at liberty to institute proceedings in the Supreme Court in the form of an action for compensation against the Minister as nominal defendant And any such action may 30 be tried before a Judge of the said Court and a special jury of four persons to be summoned by the Sheriff from the Jurors District within which the land resumed or the greater portion thereof is situated in accordance with the law regulating the summoning of Jurors for the trial of civil issues Provided always that upon proper application
 35 either of the Minister or of the claimant a special jury of twelve may be so summoned for the trial of such action Provided also that with the consent in writing of the Minister and the claimant any such action may be so tried at any time [to be mentioned in such consent] before the expiration of ninety days from the date of service of the 40 notice of claim for compensation but not within fourteen days from the date of service of the notice of valuation on such claimant prescribed by the next preceding section.

Compensation by action in Supreme Court.

15. The issue to be tried in any such action shall be whether the claimant is entitled to a larger sum by way of compensation than 45 the amount of the valuation so made by the Minister and notified to the claimant as aforesaid and if so to what sum And if upon the trial of the said action the verdict shall be for a greater sum than the amount of the said valuation the costs of the action shall be borne by the Minister but if the verdict shall be for a sum equal to or less 50 than such valuation then the costs shall be borne by the claimant And the power to direct a reference to arbitration shall not be exercised by the Judge before whom any such action shall be tried.

Issue in action of compensation verdict and costs.

16. All moneys payable under this Act by way of compensation to any claimant whether under the verdict of a jury or otherwise shall 55 be paid together with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the time of the publication in the Gazette as aforesaid and costs (if any) out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund by warrant of the Governor addressed to the Colonial Treasurer within one month after the determination of such compensation to the person lawfully entitled thereto

5       17. In estimating or assessing the compensation to be paid Compensation how to be estimated.
under this Act regard shall be had by the valuers and by the jury (on any issue) not only to the value of the land taken by the Minister and to the provisions of the tenth section of this Act where the same shall be applicable but also to the damage (if any) to be sustained by 10 the owner of the lands by reason of the severing of the lands taken from the other lands of such owner or other injuries suffered by such other lands by reason of the exercise of the powers expressed or incorporated in this Act and they shall assess the same according to what they shall find to have been the value of such lands estate or 15 interest at the time of the resumption thereof or the extent of the damage or injury sustained. Provided that in the case of land under the surface taken for the purpose of constructing a subterranean tunnel for Water Supply or Sewerage or Railway Transit no compensation shall be allowed or awarded unless the surface of the overlying soil be 20 disturbed or the support to such surface be destroyed or injuriously

Every person claiming compensation in respect of any land so resumed or work or other matter done under the authority of this Act shall within ninety days from the publication of such notification or at any time afterwards within such extended time as a Judge of the Supreme Court shall upon the application and at the cost of the claimant appoint in that behalf serve a notice in writing upon the Minister and a like notice upon the Crown Solicitor which notice shall set forth the nature of the estate or interest of the claimant in such land together with an abstract of his title and if he claims in respect of damage the nature of the damage which he has sustained or will sustain by reason of such resumption or work or matter as aforesaid and such notice may be in the form in the First Schedule hereto but with any modifications required by the nature of the claim.

Notice of claim for compensation.

13. Within sixty days after the receipt of every such notice of claim by the Crown Solicitor he shall forward the same together with his report thereon to the Minister who shall thereupon (unless no prima facie case for compensation shall have been disclosed) cause a valuation of the land or of the estate or interest of the claimant therein to be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act and shall inform the claimant as soon as practicable of the amount of such valuation by notice in the form of the Second Schedule hereto.

Claim and report thereon.

14. If within ninety days after the service of notice of claim the claimant and the Minister shall not agree as to the amount of compensation the claimant shall be at liberty to institute proceedings in the Supreme Court in the form of an action for compensation against the Minister as nominal defendant. And any such action may be tried before a Judge of the said Court or in any Circuit Court and a special jury of four persons to be summoned by the Sheriff from the Jurors District within which the land resumed or the greater portion thereof is situated in accordance with the law regulating the summoning of Jurors for the trial of civil issues. Provided always that upon proper application either of the Minister or of the claimant a special jury of twelve may be so summoned for the trial of such action. Provided also that with the consent in writing of the Minister and the claimant any such action may be so tried at any time [to be mentioned in such consent] before the expiration of ninety days from service of the notice of claim for compensation but not within fourteen days from service of the notice of valuation on such claimant.

Compensation by action in Supreme Court.

15. The issue to be tried in any such action shall be whether the claimant is entitled to a larger sum by way of compensation than the amount of the valuation so made by the Minister and notified to the claimant as aforesaid and if so to what sum. And if upon the trial of the said action the verdict shall be for a greater sum than the amount of the said valuation the costs of the action shall be borne by the Minister but if the verdict shall be for a sum equal to or less than such valuation then the costs shall be borne by the claimant. And the power to direct a reference to arbitration shall not be exercised by the Judge before whom any such action shall be tried.

Issue in action of compensation verdict and costs.
