number of two or before they are so reduced if the trustees or the major part of them assembled at a meeting of the trustees or the quarterly meeting of the circuit consider it expedient then and in every such case their steward or the superintendent minister of the circuit in which the 5 said church or chapel dwelling school-room burial-ground or other land is for the time being situated shall as soon as may be and from time to time cause public notice to be given in the said church or chapel during the time of divine service of a meeting to be holden therein or in some other convenient place after one week's interval at least for nominating 10 twice the number required of suitable persons to be trustees if so many suitable persons can be found in the neighbourhood as shall together with such of the old trustees as shall continue in the trust make up in the whole the original number of trustees (or more than that number if the trustees for the time being or the major part of them assembled at 15 a meeting of the trustees think it expedient to appoint a greater number) such meeting to be composed of the old trustees the leader or leaders of the classes and the superintendent minister for the time being or the majority shall put in nomination so many persons being friendly to or members of the said Primitive Methodist connexion as shall be double 20 the number of trustees required to be elected and out of the persons so put in nomination the next ensuing quarterly meeting of the circuit aforesaid shall elect and appoint so many persons to be trustees as shall together with such of the old trustees as shall continue in the trust make up the original number of trustees or more if it be deemed expedient to appoint a greater number And upon such election having taken 25 place in due form the trust estate shall thereupon in every case without any conveyance or transfer vest in such new and such continuing and surviving trustees upon such and the same trusts as such trust estate was held by the original trustees or such of the said trusts as shall be 30 then subsisting or capable of taking effect.

7. No trustee shall be permitted to resign his office until he shall have duly accounted to the satisfaction of his co-trustees for all sums of money at any time received by him in his said trust. Trustee to account.

8. If the surviving or continuing trustees of any such church or 35 chapel dwelling school-room burial-ground or other land or the superintendent minister for the time being of the circuit in which the said trust premises are situated shall not within twelve months after the death resignation absence infirmity or removal from office as aforesaid give public notice of a meeting to be held for filling up the vacancy as 40 aforesaid it shall and may be lawful for the district committee of the Primitive Methodist connexion in the Colony aforesaid by writing through its secretary to nominate and appoint a person or persons duly qualified as aforesaid to fill up the vacancy as aforesaid and such appointment shall operate as if the trustee so appointed were duly 45 elected in the manner hereinbefore provided. In certain cases district committee may appoint.

9. And whereas for the more effective discharge of the duties of trustees of Primitive Methodist churches or chapels dwellings schoolrooms burial-grounds or other lands it is expedient that their powers and duties should be defined Be it declared and enacted that the 50 duties of the said trustees shall be solely confined to the temporal concerns of the said churches and chapels such as the collection of pew rents donations bequests devises of lands or other property for the erection maintenance and repair of the church chapel school-room or minister's dwelling for which they shall be appointed or for a burial-
