him in consequence of such severance and such damage shall in every case be determined by appraisement in the manner hereinafter provided regard being had in such appraisement to any increased value conferred upon such land by the works to be carried out under the authority of this Act. And every such appraisement shall be made and the amount of compensation thereby awarded for such severance shall be ascertained before such severance shall be actually effected. And in such appraisement regard shall be had to the value of any reclamation or improvements made by the owners of such land provided the same shall not have been alienated under section nine or section twelve of the "Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1861." And provided also that in assessing such compensation the appraisers shall take into consideration in reduction of such compensation if any so to be assessed the enhancement in value of any land belonging to such owner as aforesaid by reason of the reclamation under the authority of this Act.

4. Every person who but for this Act would have been able to establish his title as owner of any portion of the resumed lands described in Schedule B hereto shall be entitled to compensation for such portion so resumed. And the amount of compensation shall be determined in every case by appraisement as hereinafter provided. And such appraisement shall be made and the amounts of compensation shall be ascertained as nearly as possible at the same time and on the same principles as appraisements under the third section hereof but in every case before the severance therein mentioned shall be effected.

5. The whole of the area to be reclaimed and the several portions resumed under the authority of this Act shall be and the same are hereby declared to be set apart and dedicated in perpetuity as a park or place of public recreation but so that the portion secondly described in Schedule B shall be set apart as a road of access to such park or place. And this enactment shall be construed to extend all the provisions (so far as they can be applied) of the "Public Parks Act of 1854" to the areas so reclaimed and resumed respectively.

6. Every appraisement under this Act shall be conducted as follows:—

(1.) The Minister for Lands or some person authorized in that behalf by him and the owner of the land may concur in the appointment of a single appraiser or in default of such concurrence each such party shall appoint an appraiser. And every such appointment shall be made by the respective parties under their hands in writing and delivered to the appraiser or to the appraisers as the case may be and such written appointment shall be attached to the appraisement when made and shall be deemed a submission to appraisement by the parties making the same.

(2.) Where two appraisers shall have been appointed they shall before entering upon the appraisement appoint an umpire by writing under their hands.

(3.) Before any appraiser or umpire shall enter upon the consideration of any matter referred to him under this Act he shall subscribe a declaration in the form following before a Justice of the Peace:—

"I A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am not directly or indirectly interested in the matter referred to me and that I will faithfully honestly and to the best of my skill and ability hear and determine the matters referred to me under the 'Rushcutters Bay Land Reclamation and Resumption Act of 1878' "

And such declaration shall be annexed to the appraisement when made.

Rushcutters Bay [Land Reclamation and Resumption].

- 5 (4.) And with respect to all matters not otherwise provided for or regulated by this Act such appraisement shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Council thirty-one Victoria number fifteen as if such appraisement were an arbitration under the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act.
7. All costs of and consequent upon every reference to appraise- Costs.
ment under this Act shall be in the discretion of the appraiser or appraisers or umpire by whom the matter is determined.
- 10 8. Every appraisement under this Act shall be in writing and Requisites of appraisement.
shall be transmitted to the Minister for Lands and be deposited in his office.
- 15 9. No person save in the consideration of payment for resump- Provisions as to claims in certain cases.
tion of any portion included in Schedule B hereto shall be entitled to make any claim for compensation in respect of the severance of land from contact with the water if such land is situate within the area described in such Schedule but an owner part of whose land is situate in such Schedule and part in Schedule A may claim in respect of each such part in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
- 20 10. If at the time when any claim for compensation under this Apportionment of compensation in certain cases.
Act has been finally ascertained it shall appear that the land in respect of which such claim has been so ascertained is under lease to any person for any term the payment of compensation shall be in accordance with such agreement as the owner and lessee may have entered into for the purpose of fixing their respective proportions of the amount to be awarded but in the event of no such agreement having been made or of either party refusing to come to any agreement then the amount awarded shall be paid in such proportions as may be recommended by the Crown Solicitor or by the majority of any three persons to whom
- 30 the Minister for Lands for the time being may refer the matter And such payment shall exonerate the Government from any liability in respect of such compensation.
