STEPHEN W. JONES,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to continue certain provisions of the "Supreme Court Temporary Judge Act of 1879" for a further period of one year.

WHEREAS by the first section of the "Supreme Court Temporary Judge Act of 1879" (being the Act of the forty-third year of Her Majesty's Reign numbered two) the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council was empowered within twelve months after the passing of the said Act to appoint any persons as therein provided not exceeding two to be Judges of the Supreme Court for a term not exceeding twelve calendar months from the date of each Commission And whereas in pursuance of the said power one such Judge has been so appointed and no more And whereas it is expedient that the powers conferred by the said Act should not be terminated upon the expiration of the said period of twelve months after the passing thereof but should be continued for a further period of twelve months from such expiration Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. The power of appointing Judges of the Supreme Court to hold office for a limited period contained in the first section of the said Act together with the provisions contained in sections two and three of the said Act shall be in full force for a further period of twelve months from and after the expiration of the twelve months mentioned in the first section of the said Act.

Continuation of powers &c. in secs. 1 2 and 3 of 43 Vic. No. 2 for a further period of twelve months.

2. Nothing in this Act which may be cited for all purposes as the "Supreme Court Temporary Judge Act Continuation Act 1880" shall be construed to repeal by implication the provisions declaratory of the constitution of the Supreme Court contained in the fourth section of the said firstly cited Act.

Short title and saving of sec. 4 of 43 Vic. No. 2.
