

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 26 November, 1879. }

STEPHEN W. JONES,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to amend the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879."

WHEREAS by the sixteenth section of the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879" it was enacted that on the first day of December in this present year eight Aldermen should be elected one for each Ward in the said City in order to complete the full number of twenty-four Aldermen for the Municipal Council of the said City as provided by the said Act But it was by the fortieth section of the said Act declared that in order to provide for the interval during which the lists to be compiled under the said Act should not be duly compiled and perfected into Rolls under the provisions therein contained all elections of Aldermen and Auditors should up to and including the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the repealed Acts therein referred to And whereas doubts have arisen how far the declaration in the said section contained had the effect of substituting the provisions of the said repealed Acts for those of the said "Corporation Act of 1879" with reference to the forthcoming Elections of Aldermen and Auditors And whereas certain notices with reference to the said Elections under the hand of the Mayor as Returning Officer have been published declaring that nominations for the said Elections so to be holden as aforesaid would be received up to the hour of noon on Thursday the twenty-seventh day of

Sydney Corporation Act Amendment.

November in the present year And it is expedient to amend the said Act in order to remove such doubts and to validate all proceedings and matters already done as well as to declare the intent and meaning of the proviso to the said fortieth section Be it therefore enacted
5 by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by authority of the same as follows :—

1. The election of Aldermen appointed to be holden on the first 10 day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine under the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879" shall be holden in all respects under and subject to the provisions contained in the said Act subject however to the exceptions and qualifications hereinafter expressed viz. :—
- 15 (1.) The Rolls to be used for the purpose of voting at such election shall be those lastly compiled and revised under the provisions of the several Acts which were repealed by the said "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879."
- 20 (2.) The notices of such election under the hand of the Returning Officer dated the nineteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine declaring that notices of nomination of parties for election will be received until noon of the twenty-seventh day of the said month 25 and all notices of nomination received thereunder are hereby declared to be valid and of full force and effect And no nomination shall be received for such election after the said hour and day.
- (3.) The provisions of the said Act relating to cumulative votes shall not be in force for the purposes of the said election.
- 30 2. The election of Auditors to be holden on the first day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine under the provisions of the said "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879" shall instead of that day be holden on the fifteenth day of the said month and nominations for such Elections shall be received until noon of the 35 tenth day of the said month but shall in all other respects be holden under and subject to the provisions contained in the said Act Provided however that the Rolls to be used at such election shall be the same as those hereinbefore declared to be used for the election of Aldermen on that day and that the provisions of the said Act relating to cumulative 40 voting shall not be in force for the purposes of such election.

As to first election of Aldermen.

As to first election of Auditors.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XII.

An Act to amend the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879."
[Assented to, 28th November, 1879.]

WHEREAS by the sixteenth section of the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879" it was enacted that on the first day of December in this present year eight Aldermen should be elected one for each Ward in the said City in order to complete the full number of twenty-four Aldermen for the Municipal Council of the said City as provided by the said Act But it was by the fortieth section of the said Act declared that in order to provide for the interval during which the lists to be compiled under the said Act should not be duly compiled and perfected into Rolls under the provisions therein contained all elections of Aldermen and Auditors should up to and including the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the repealed Acts therein referred to And whereas doubts have arisen how far the declaration in the said section contained had the effect of substituting the provisions of the said repealed Acts for those of the said "Corporation Act of 1879" with reference to the forthcoming Elections of Aldermen and Auditors And whereas certain notices with reference to the said Elections under the hand of the Mayor as Returning Officer have been published declaring that nominations for the said Elections so to be holden as aforesaid would be received up to the hour of noon on Thursday the twenty-seventh day of November

Preamble

Sydney Corporation Act Amendment.

November in the present year And it is expedient to amend the said Act in order to remove such doubts and to validate all proceedings and matters already done as well as to declare the intent and meaning of the proviso to the said fortieth section Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by authority of the same as follows :—

As to first election of Aldermen.

1. The election of Aldermen appointed to be holden on the first day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine under the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879" shall be holden in all respects under and subject to the provisions contained in the said Act subject however to the exceptions and qualifications hereinafter expressed viz. :—

(1.) The Rolls to be used for the purpose of voting at such election shall be those lastly compiled and revised under the provisions of the several Acts which were repealed by the said "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879."

(2.) The notices of such election under the hand of the Returning Officer dated the nineteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine declaring that notices of nomination of parties for election will be received until noon of the twenty-seventh day of the said month and all notices of nomination received thereunder are hereby declared to be valid and of full force and effect And no nomination shall be received for such election after the said hour and day.

(3.) The provisions of the said Act relating to cumulative votes shall not be in force for the purposes of the said election.

As to first election of Auditors.

2. The election of Auditors to be holden on the first day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine under the provisions of the said "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879" shall instead of that day be holden on the fifteenth day of the said month and nominations for such Elections shall be received until noon of the tenth day of the said month but shall in all other respects be holden under and subject to the provisions contained in the said Act Provided however that the Rolls to be used at such election shall be the same as those hereinbefore declared to be used for the election of Aldermen on that day and that the provisions of the said Act relating to cumulative voting shall not be in force for the purposes of such election.