St. Phillip's Passage.

into and to the use of the said Trustee their heirs and assigns all and singular the said parcel of land and premises by the heretofore and theretofore recited indenture executed to be granted bargained and sold and released and all other like and lawful indentures and premises which were then by any means vested in or to the said John Campbell upon the trusts in the heretofore and theretofore recited indenture with their rights, covenants and appurtenances. And whereas a partition has been executed on another site in the said parish of St. Phillip and the said piece or parcel of land is not recited and never will be recited for a site for a passage in the said parish of St. Phillip and is now lying vacant and unoccupied. And whereas under the provisions of an Act passed in this Colony in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty entitled "An Act to amend the Statute of the United Church of England and Ireland in relation to the Property of the said Church," and of certain considerations in the said Act mentioned and referred to in the said indenture and the said all Church of England property money and revenues not arising any specifically appropriated or the subject of any specific trust nor interfering with any vested rights are placed under the control of the Board of the Diocese of Sydney. And whereas the said Alexander Stuart William Day and Charles Moore are desirous of granting a lease or leases of the said piece or parcel of land and it is expedient that power be given to them to lease the said piece or parcel of land and to apply the rents and profits to arise from such leasing for the benefit of the said parish of St. Phillip. And whereas the said effects cannot be obtained without the assent of the said Board being no power of leasing the said piece or parcel of land vested in the said Alexander Stuart William Day and Charles Moore. It is therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the said Alexander Stuart William Day and Charles Moore or for the Trustees for the time being of the said piece or parcel of land to lease either the whole or any part of the said piece or parcel of land to any person or persons for any term of years not exceeding fifty years in possession and not in reversion or by way of future interest as there be reserved in every such lease the best and most improved yearly rent that can be reasonably obtained to be incident to the immediate reversion without any due benefit or other payment of like nature for the holding thereof and so that there be contained in every such lease a condition of entry by the lessee for non-payment of rent or non-performance of covenants by the lessee within a reasonable time to be therein specified and so that the lessee do execute a counterpart and do not thereby covenant for payment of the rent thereby reserved and do not by any express words therein make himself liable for waste. Provided always that the said lease or leases shall in every case be subject to the approval of the said Board of St. Phillip.
2. The said Alexander Stuart William Day and Charles Moore or the Trustees for the time being of the said piece or parcel of land shall stand possessed of the rents and profits and the annual income thereof upon such trusts and for such ends intents and purposes for the benefit of the said parish of St. Phillip as the said Trustees may from time to time with the consent of the said Board determine.
3. This Act may be cited as the "St. Phillip's Passage Act."
