Sydney, 25 April, 1883, A.M. }*

STEPHEN W. JONES,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to further amend the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879."

WHEREAS it is enacted by the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879" ^{Preamble.} that lists of all persons capable under that Act of voting at elections shall on or before the first day of July in every year be made for each Ward of the City of Sydney from the receipts for City Rates paid to the thirtieth day of June in each year and given to the citizens by the City Treasurer And copies of such lists after revision and certification as by the said Act provided are declared to be the rolls of citizens for the Wards for which the same are respectively made out And whereas the said mode of compiling the citizens rolls does not in many cases ensure the right to vote to the persons who ought to possess it Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. On or before the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three and on or before the like day in every succeeding year lists shall be made by the Town Clerk of all persons qualified in each Ward of the City of Sydney to vote at elections of

^{Lists for Citizens' Rolls.}

Sydney Corporation Act Amendment (No. 2).

Aldermen and Auditors of the said City Such lists shall comprise the names of all persons (whether males or females) of the full age of twenty-one years and liable under Part VI of the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879" to pay the City Rate at the time of making such lists as well as the names of all owners of property within each Ward.

2. The said lists shall contain the names of all persons qualified as aforesaid alphabetically arranged according to the form in the Schedule hereto and shall be signed by the Town Clerk and exhibited from the fifteenth to the thirty-first day of July in each year at such places in the respective Wards as shall be appointed by the Mayor.

3. Every person whose name is on the citizens' roll certified as provided in the tenth section of the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879" shall be entitled to vote at any election of aldermen or auditors under the said Act.

4. No person shall be entitled to have his or her name entered on any list made under the provisions of this Act as owner tenant or occupier of property or to vote in respect thereof unless such property is assessed at an annual value of at least fifteen pounds and in section twelve of the Principal Act the word "fifteen" shall be read as therein inserted in lieu of the word "twenty-five."

5. The provisions of Part XIII of the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879" as to the making and enforcing of by-laws shall extend to the making and enforcing of by-laws by the Municipal Council of the City of Sydney for collecting by means of house to house visitation or otherwise the names of all persons entitled to be enrolled on the Citizens' Rolls in pursuance of this Act Provided that in order to give effect to the provisions of this Act the Council shall make and forward for the approval of the Governor all such by-laws as the Council may deem necessary for the purposes of this Act on or before the twenty-eighth day after the passing of this Act.

6. This Act may be cited as the "Sydney Corporation Act Amendment Act 1883" and upon the passing thereof the eighth and eleventh sections and so much of any other enactment contained in the "Sydney Corporation Act of 1879" as is repugnant to the provisions of this Act shall be repealed Provided always that until the completion of the first rolls in pursuance of this Act all extraordinary vacancies in the office of alderman or auditor shall be filled as if this Act had not been passed And provided also that the Revision Court for revising and settling the first lists under this Act shall be held between the tenth and thirtieth days of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three Provided that in all cases where the owner pays the rates the tenant shall be entitled to one vote only and where the tenant pays the rates the owner shall be entitled to one vote only For the purposes of this Act the expression "female" includes any married woman.
