railways where the same shall communicate therewith and shall employ proper persons to open and shut such gates and such gates shall be constantly kept closed across such road on both sides of the railways except during the time when horses cattle carts or carriages passing along the same shall have to cross such railways and such gates shall be of such dimensions and so constructed as when closed to fence in the railways and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the railways and the person entrusted with the care of such gates shall cause the same to be closed as soon as such horses cattle carts or carriages shall have passed through the same under a penalty of forty shillings for every default therein. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works in any case in which he shall be satisfied that it will be more conducive to the public safety that the gates on any level crossing over any such road shall be kept closed across the railways to order that such gates shall be kept so closed instead of across the road and in such case such gates shall be kept constantly closed across the railway except when engines or carriages passing along the railways shall have occasion to cross such road in the same manner and under the like penalty as above directed with respect to the gates being kept closed across the road. And the Company shall either by themselves or jointly with any other Company employ proper persons to look after such gates and signals as may be ordered by and to the satisfaction of the Commissioner for Railways.

Power to enter upon adjoining lands to repair accidents subject to certain restrictions.

14. In case of accidents or slips happening or being apprehended to the cuttings embankments or other works of the said railways it shall be lawful for the Company and their workmen and servants to enter upon the land adjoining thereto at any time whatsoever for the purpose of repairing or preventing such accidents and to do such works as may be necessary for the purpose but in every case the Company shall within forty-eight hours after such entry make a report to the Secretary for Public Works specifying the nature of such accident or apprehended accident and of the works necessary to be done and such powers shall cease and determine if the said Secretary shall after considering the said report certify that their exercise is not necessary for the public safety. Provided also that such works shall be as little injurious to the adjoining lands as the nature of accident or apprehended accident will admit of and shall be executed with all possible dispatch and full compensation shall be made to the owners and occupiers of such lands for the loss or injury or inconvenience sustained by them respectively by reason of such works the amount of which compensation in case of any dispute about the same shall be settled by arbitrators in the manner hereinafter mentioned and provided also that no land shall be taken permanently for any such works otherwise than is herein provided with respect to the lands originally taken for the purpose of making the said railways.

Construction of bridges over roads.

15. Every bridge to be erected for the purpose of carrying the railways over any road shall be built in conformity with the following regulations that is to say :—

The width of the arch shall be such as to leave thereunder a clear space of not less than thirty feet if the arch be over a public highway and of twenty feet if over a parish road and of twelve feet if over a private road.

The clear height of the arch from the surface of the road shall not be less than sixteen feet for a space of twelve feet if the arch be over a main road and fifteen feet for a space of ten feet if over a public carriage road and in each of such cases the clear height at the springing of the arch shall not be less than twelve feet the clear height of the arch for a space of nine feet shall not be less than fourteen feet over a private road.

The

Victorian Coal-mining Company's (No. 2).

The descent made in the road in order to carry the same under the bridge shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the bridge be over a public highway one foot in twenty feet if over a parish road and one foot in sixteen if over a private road not being a tramroad or railroad or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the descent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

16. Every bridge erected for carrying any road over the railway shall be built in conformity with the following regulations that is to say:— Construction of bridges over railroad.

There shall be a good and sufficient fence on each side of the bridge of not less height than four feet and on each side of the immediate approaches of such bridge of not less than three feet.

The road over the bridge shall have a clear space between the fences thereof of thirty-five feet if the road be a public highway and twenty-five feet if a parish road and twelve feet if a private road.

The ascent shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the road be a main road one foot in twenty feet if a parish road and one foot in sixteen if a private road not being a tramroad or railroad or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the ascent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

17. Provided always that in all cases where the average available width for the passing of carriages of any existing road within fifty yards of the points of crossing the same is less than the width hereinbefore prescribed for bridges over or under the railways the width of such bridges need not be greater than such average available width of such roads but so nevertheless that such bridges be not of less width in case of a public highway or parish road than twenty feet. Provided also that if at any time after the construction of the railways the average available width of any such road shall be increased beyond the width of such bridge on either side thereof the Company shall be bound at their own expense to increase the width of the said bridge to such extent as they may be required by the trustees or surveyors of such road not exceeding the width of such road as so widened or the maximum width herein prescribed for a bridge in the like case over or under the railways. The width of the bridges need not exceed the width of the road in certain cases.

18. Provided also that if the mean inclination of any road within two hundred and fifty yards of the point of crossing the same or the inclination of such portion of any road as may be required to be altered or for which another road shall be substituted shall be steeper than the inclination hereinbefore required to be preserved by the Company then the Company may carry any such road over or under the railways or may construct such altered or substituted road at any inclination not steeper than the said mean inclinations of the road so to be crossed or of the road so requiring to be altered or for which another road shall be substituted. Existing inclination of roads crossed or diverted need not be improved.

19. The Company shall make and at all times thereafter maintain the following works for the accommodation of owners and occupiers of lands adjoining the railways that is to say— Works for benefit of owners.

Such and so many convenient gates bridges arches culverts and passages over under or by the sides of or leading to or from the railways as shall be necessary for the purpose of making good any interruptions caused by the railways to the use of the lands or any streets not diverted under the powers herein contained through which the railways shall be made and such works shall be made forthwith after the part of the railways passing over such lands shall have been laid out or formed or during the formation thereof. Gates bridges &c.

All

Victorian Coal-mining Company's (No. 2).

Fences.

All sufficient posts rails hedges ditches mounds or other fences for separating the land taken for the use of the railways from the adjoining lands not taken and protecting such lands from trespass or the cattle of the owners or occupiers thereof from straying thereon by reason of the railways together with all necessary gates made to open towards such adjoining lands and not towards the railways and all necessary stiles and such posts rails and other fences shall be made forthwith after the taking of any such lands if the owners thereof shall so require and the said other works as soon as conveniently may be.

Drains.

Also all necessary arches tunnels culverts drains or other passages either over or under or by the sides of the railways of such dimensions as will be sufficient at all times to convey the water as clearly from the lands lying near or affected by the railways as before the making of the railways or as nearly so as may be and such works shall be made from time to time as the railway works proceed.

Watering-places.

Also proper watering-places for cattle or compensation in lieu thereof where by reason of the railways the cattle of any person occupying any lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of access to their former watering-places and such watering-places shall be so made as to be at all times sufficiently supplied with water as heretofore and as if the railways had not been made or as nearly so as may be and the said Company shall make all necessary watercourses and drains for the purpose of conveying water to the said watering-places. Provided always that the Company shall not be required to make such accommodation works in such a manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the railways nor to make any accommodation works with respect to which the owners and occupiers of the land shall have agreed to receive and shall have been paid compensation instead of the making them.

Penalty on persons omitting to fasten gates.

20. If any person omit to shut and fasten any gate set up at either side of the said railways for the accommodation of the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands as soon as he and the carriage cattle or other animals if any under his care have passed through the same he shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds.

Minerals not to pass.

21. The Company shall not be entitled to any mines of coal ironstone slate or other minerals under any land vested in them by virtue of this Act except only such parts thereof as shall be necessary to be dug or carried away in the construction of the works hereby authorized.

Arbitration.

22. If within twenty-eight days after the passing of this Act the said persons through whose lands the railroad shall pass or any of them and the promoters shall not agree as to the amount of compensation to be paid by them for the said lands belonging to the said parties or any of them or for any damage that may be sustained by them or him by reason of the execution of the works the amount of such compensation shall be settled by two arbitrators one to be appointed by the party or parties complaining and the other by the Company in accordance with the provisions of the Act thirty-first Victoria number fifteen "An Act to make Arbitrations more effectual."

Compensation for temporary permanent or recurring injuries.

23. The Company shall make compensation and satisfaction to the said owners and occupiers (the amount of such compensation and satisfaction to be ascertained and recovered in case of difference in the manner hereby provided) for temporary permanent or recurring injury and all other damage loss costs charges and inconvenience which may in anywise be occasioned to the said owners or occupiers by the non-performance by the said Company of any of the matters and things hereby hereby required to be performed by them or otherwise In every case where the Company shall take temporary possession of lands by virtue of the powers hereby granted it shall be incumbent on them within one month after their entry upon such lands upon being required so to do to pay to the occupier of the said lands the value of any crop or dressing that may be thereon as well as full compensation for any other damage of a temporary nature which he may sustain by reason of their so taking possession of his lands and they shall also from time to time during their occupation of the said lands pay half-yearly to such occupier or to the owner of the lands as the case may require a rent to be fixed by two Justices in case the parties differ and shall also within six months after the completion of the railway pay to such owner and occupier or deposit in the bank for the benefit of all parties interested as the case may require compensation for all permanent or other loss damage or injury that may have been sustained by them by reason of the exercise as regards the said lands of the powers hereby granted including the full value of all clay stone gravel sand and other things taken from such lands.

Compensation to be made for temporary occupation.

24. For the purpose of regulating the conduct of the officers and servants of the Company and for providing for the due management of the affairs of the Company in all respects it shall be lawful for the Company subject to the provisions herein mentioned from time to time to make such by-laws and regulations as they shall think fit Provided that such by-laws be not repugnant to the laws of the Colony or to the provisions of this Act or to any resolutions of any general meeting of shareholders and such by-laws shall be reduced into writing and shall have affixed thereto the common seal of the Company and a copy of such by-laws shall be given to every officer and servant of the Company affected thereby and such by-laws may specify a maximum and minimum penalty for any breach thereof such penalty to be proceeded for and recovered under the provisions of the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria chapter forty-three Provided always that any by-laws of the said Company relating to penalties must be first approved of by the Attorney-General of the Colony for the time being.

Company may make by-laws.

25. The production of a printed or written copy of the by-laws of the Company having the common seal of the Company affixed thereto shall be sufficient evidence of such by-laws in all proceedings under the same.

Evidence of by-laws.

26. In this Act the said "Justices" shall mean Justices of the Peace in and for the territory of New South Wales and where any matter shall be authorized or required to be done by two Justices the expression "two Justices" shall mean two Justices assembled and acting together in Petty Sessions and the word "owner" shall mean any person or corporation who under the provisions of this Act would be able to sell land to the Company.

Interpretation clause.

27. Nothing in this Act contained shall derogate from or prejudice the said agreement in the Second Schedule hereto nor shall anything in this Act contained be deemed or operate to confer wider or greater powers or title on the said Thomas Saywell or the said Company with respect to the lands in the said agreement more particularly described than in and by the said agreement are conferred.

Agreement shall not be affected.

28. This Act shall be deemed to be a public Act and shall be styled and may be cited as the "Victorian Coal-mining Company's Act of 1884."
