Wesleyan English Church and Wesleyan Bible School

REPORT

The first year of the school of English and Wesleyan Bible School was opened on the 1st of September, 1887, and has since that time been steadily increasing in numbers and in the quality of its instruction. The school is now in its fourth year, and has a total enrollment of about 100 students. The faculty consists of a principal and several teachers, all of whom are well qualified for their respective duties. The curriculum is designed to give the students a thorough knowledge of the English language and literature, and to prepare them for the various professions and trades. The school is open to students of all nationalities, and is especially adapted to the needs of the Chinese and other non-Christian races. The Wesleyan Bible School is a separate institution, and is devoted to the study of the Bible and the principles of Christianity. It is open to students of all nationalities, and is especially adapted to the needs of the Chinese and other non-Christian races.
