
A BILL

To prohibit Lotteries and Advertisements thereof and for other purposes relating thereto.

(As amended in Committee of the Whole.)

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

5 1. After the passing of this Act the Act of this Colony passed The 16th Victoria in the sixteenth year of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act to No. 2 extended.
prevent Lotteries" shall extend to lands and other property and to money or prizes representing money as well as to goods wares and merchandize and every offence against the said Act in respect of land 10 shall be subject to a penalty of five hundred pounds recoverable by action at law at the suit of any person who shall sue for the same
And every person who shall publish or circulate or assist in publishing or circulating any advertisement or notification in a newspaper or handbill or otherwise of any projected or intended lottery or game or 15 device made unlawful by that Act as now extended or shall with or without a consideration deliver put off or offer any ticket or card indicating a share (or entitling or purporting to entitle the owner or holder thereof to a share) in any such lottery or game or device shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds nor less than ten 20 pounds to be recovered in a summary way before any two Justices of the Peace.

2. Every division or proposed division of land or an interest in Special provisions land and every purchase or procurement of land for division thereafter allotting lands.
by lot or ticket and every other scheme of allotment howsoever deter-25 mined where the result is dependent on chances as in a lottery shall be deemed within the said Act of the sixteenth year of Her Majesty Provided that nothing in this or the said Act shall extend to any allotment or division of land among persons then jointly interested therein under the authority of a Court or otherwise or to the disposal 30 of any work of art with the consent in writing of the Attorney-General.

A BILL

To prohibit Lotteries and Advertisements thereof and for other purposes relating thereto.

(As amended in Committee of the Whole.)

Enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:

The first section of the Act shall be entitled "An Act to prevent Lotteries."

1. After the passing of the Act the Act of this Colony passed in the sixteenth year of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act to prevent Lotteries" shall extend to lands and other property and to money or prizes representing money as well as to goods wares and merchandise and every offence against the said Act in respect of land shall be subject to a penalty of five hundred pounds recoverable by action at law at the suit of any person who shall sue for the same and every person who shall publish or circulate or assist in publishing or circulating any advertisement or notification in a newspaper or handbill or otherwise of any projected or intended lottery or game or device made unlawful by this Act as now extended or shall with or without consideration deliver put off or offer any ticket or card indicating a share (or cutting or purporting to entitle the owner or holder thereof to a share) in any such lottery or game or device shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds nor less than ten pounds to be recovered in a summary way before any two Justices of the Peace.

The second section of the Act shall be entitled "An Act to prevent Lotteries."

2. Every division of property or division of land or an interest in land and every purchase or procurement of land for division thereof by lot or ticket and every other scheme of allotment however devised or intended which is dependent on chance as in a lottery shall be deemed within the said Act of the sixteenth year of Her Majesty's reign provided that nothing in this or the said Act shall extend to any allotment or division of land among persons then jointly interested therein under the authority of a Court or otherwise or to the disposal of any work of art with the consent in writing of the Attorney-General.