THE VICTORY

The victory was a complete one, and the army was victorious in every respect. The enemy's forces were completely destroyed, and the victors were left in possession of the field. The battle was fought on a very favorable day, and the weather was very good. The victors were very brave and courageous, and they fought very hard. The enemy was very brave and courageous, and they fought very hard. The battle was very hard and long, and the victors were very brave and courageous.
