which the same were granted And whereas an episcopal residence for the Bishop of Sydney and his successors was in or about the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight erected on the said lands at a cost of seven thousand two hundred pounds or thereabouts and is known as Bishopscourt And whereas the sum of two thousand pounds part of the said sum of seven thousand two hundred pounds was borrowed by the late Bishop of Sydney on his personal security and expended in the erection of such episcopal residence And whereas by an Act of the Legislature of New South Wales passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty the Bishopsthorpe Estate was charged from the resignation or death of the Right Reverend Frederic Barker late Bishop of Sydney with the payment to the said Bishop or his representatives of two thousand five hundred pounds being the said sum of two thousand pounds together with interest thereon estimated at the sum of five hundred pounds And whereas the said late Bishop died on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two And whereas the Most Reverend Alfred Barry the present Bishop of Sydney has paid to the representatives of the said late Bishop out of the rents and profits of the said Bishopsthorpe Estate the sum of one thousand five hundred pounds and the sum of one thousand pounds still remains due to such representatives And whereas the said rents and profits of the said Bishopsthorpe Estate contribute the principal fund for the maintenance and support of the Bishop of Sydney for the time being and the payments required to meet the said charge form a very heavy deduction from the income of the said Bishopsthorpe Estate And whereas it has been found necessary to make certain repairs and additions to the said episcopal residence at a cost of two thousand five hundred pounds and the expense of keeping the said residence in repair and properly maintaining fences and other improvements on said estate will always be very considerable and there are no funds in the hands of the said corporate body of Trustees available for such purpose And whereas portion of the lands being that portion more particularly described in the First Schedule to this Act is now separated from the lands on which the said episcopal residence is built by a public street known as Susan-street And whereas another portion of the lands being that portion particularly described in the Second Schedule to this Act is at a considerable distance from the lands on which the said episcopal residence is built and adjoins the waters of the Pacific Ocean having been originally appropriated as a site for a bathing-place in connection with the said episcopal residence And whereas other portions of the said lands being the lands particularly described in the Third Schedule to this Act are available as building sites without materially interfering with the use or enjoyment of the said episcopal residence And whereas it is expedient that the said lands described in the said First and Second Schedules should be sold and that the lands described in the said Third Schedule should be sold or let upon building leases for the purpose of providing funds to repay the said present Bishop of Sydney the sums which he has expended from the rents and profits of the said Bishopsthorpe Estate and to pay the residue now owing of the said debt of two thousand five hundred pounds to the representatives of the said late Bishop and to provide for the payment of such repairs and additions as aforesaid and for the future maintenance repair and improvement of the said episcopal residence and the adjoining lands And whereas the standing committee of the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney reported to such Synod in favour of the expediency of selling the said lands described in the said First and Second Schedules and of granting building leases of the said lands described in the said Third Schedule and by resolution passed

passed on the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five the said Synod adopted such report and requested such standing committee to take steps to carry the same into effect And whereas it may be found more advantageous to sell the said lands comprised in the Third Schedule instead of granting building leases of the same And whereas no valid sale or leases of the said lands can be made without the authority of Parliament Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Church of England Property Trust Diocese of Sydney hereinafter called the said trust and their successors to sell the lands mentioned in the First and Second Schedules to this Act either altogether or in parcels and either by public auction or private contract and upon such terms and conditions and stipulations as to title time and manner of payment and generally in such manner as to the said trust and their successors shall seem expedient with power to buy in at any sale and to rescind or vary any contract for sale and to re-sell without being responsible for any loss arising from such re-sale and to convey the said lands or any part or parts thereof when sold to the purchaser or purchasers thereof in fee simple freed and discharged from the trusts of the said deed of grant of the eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six Provided always that in every sale of the lands described in the said Second Schedule or any part thereof in every conveyance under or in virtue of such sale there shall be reserved to the said trust and their successors the right to construct maintain and use a bathing-place adjacent to the waters of the Pacific Ocean and a right-of-way from the said bathing-place either to Beach-street or to the reserve for public recreation adjoining a portion of the southern boundary of the said lands Provided also that if credit be allowed to any purchaser for the payment of his purchase money the lands sold to him shall remain unconveyed or otherwise be rendered a security for the unpaid purchase money together with the interest thereon until the same shall have been paid.

2. It shall be lawful for the said trust and their successors by deed to lease all or any part or parts of the lands described in the Third Schedule to this Act to any person or persons who shall covenant to improve the same by erecting and building thereon any new house or houses of such value and subject to such conditions as in the opinion of the said trust or their successors shall be expedient for any term not exceeding ninety-nine years to take effect in possession and not in reversion so as there be reserved in every such lease the best yearly rent that can be reasonably obtained having regard to the nature of the covenants to be performed on the part of the lessee without taking anything in the nature of a fine premium or foregift and so as there be contained in any said lease a condition of re-entry for non-payment within a reasonable time to be therein specified of the rent thereby reserved and for non-performance of the covenants therein contained and so as the lessee do execute a counterpart of such lease.

3. The said trust and their successors shall stand possessed of the proceeds of such sales as aforesaid and of the rents and profits arising from any lands leased under the power herein contained upon trust in the first place to pay the costs and expenses of this Act and in the next place to pay the costs and expenses of such sales and leases and subject to such payments upon trust thereout to pay the said debt of two thousand five hundred pounds and all the expenses which have been incurred in making repairs and additions to the said episcopal residence and shall stand possessed of the surplus if any upon trust

1. It shall be lawful for the Church of England Property Trust Diocese of Sydney hereinafter called the said trust and their successors to sell the lands mentioned in the First and Second Schedules to this Act either altogether or in parcels and either by public auction or private contract and upon such terms and conditions and stipulations as to title time and manner of payment and generally in such manner as to the said trust and their successors shall seem expedient with power to buy in at any sale and to rescind or vary any contract for sale and to re-sell without being responsible for any loss arising from such re-sale and to convey the said lands or any part or parts thereof when sold to the purchaser or purchasers thereof in fee simple freed and discharged from the trusts of the said deed of grant of the eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six Provided always that in every sale of the lands described in the said Second Schedule or any part thereof in every conveyance under or in virtue of such sale there shall be reserved to the said trust and their successors the right to construct maintain and use a bathing-place adjacent to the waters of the Pacific Ocean and a right-of-way from the said bathing-place either to Beach-street or to the reserve for public recreation adjoining a portion of the southern boundary of the said lands Provided also that if credit be allowed to any purchaser for the payment of his purchase money the lands sold to him shall remain unconveyed or otherwise be rendered a security for the unpaid purchase money together with the interest thereon until the same shall have been paid.

2. It shall be lawful for the said trust and their successors by deed to lease all or any part or parts of the lands described in the Third Schedule to this Act to any person or persons who shall covenant to improve the same by erecting and building thereon any new house or houses of such value and subject to such conditions as in the opinion of the said trust or their successors shall be expedient for any term not exceeding ninety-nine years to take effect in possession and not in reversion so as there be reserved in every such lease the best yearly rent that can be reasonably obtained having regard to the nature of the covenants to be performed on the part of the lessee without taking anything in the nature of a fine premium or foregift and so as there be contained in any said lease a condition of re-entry for non-payment within a reasonable time to be therein specified of the rent thereby reserved and for non-performance of the covenants therein contained and so as the lessee do execute a counterpart of such lease.

3. The said trust and their successors shall stand possessed of the proceeds of such sales as aforesaid and of the rents and profits arising from any lands leased under the power herein contained upon trust in the first place to pay the costs and expenses of this Act and in the next place to pay the costs and expenses of such sales and leases and subject to such payments upon trust thereout to pay the said debt of two thousand five hundred pounds and all the expenses which have been incurred in making repairs and additions to the said episcopal residence and shall stand possessed of the surplus if any upon trust
