9. In cases where it is alleged that the genuine invoice cannot Examination of be produced the Collector of Customs when he shall think fit may importer or agent on oath. examine any importer or his agent or both of them upon oath as to the value of any goods liable to duty ad valorem and may if he think fit after such examination dispense with the production of the genuine invoice aforesaid and in case such importer or agent shall upon being summoned neglect or refuse to attend for examination or shall refuse to be sworn or to answer such questions as shall be put to him by the said Collector then and in every such case the value of such goods shall be assessed by the Collector of Customs or other proper officer and such assessed value shall be deemed to be the true and real value thereof and such importer or agent or both of them so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid shall also be liable to pay a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

10. If the importer of such goods or his agent shall neglect or How goods to be refuse to pay the duties imposed thereon after such examination and dealt with if undervalued. assessment as aforesaid and also the costs of such examination and assessment in the event of the valuation being greater than declared on the bill of entry the Collector of Customs or proper officer shall subject to the approval of the Colonial Treasurer take and secure such goods with the packages thereof and cause the same to be sold by public auction within the space of twenty days at furthest after such examination and at such time and place as such Collector or other officer shall by notice published in the Government Gazette and some local daily newspaper at least four days from the day of sale appoint for that purpose and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied in the first place in payment of the duties due upon such goods together with the costs and charges incurred by such examination and sale and in the second place towards payment to the importer or his agent of the declared value of the said goods as entered together with any freight and charges paid thereon by such importer or his agent not exceeding ordinary or current rates and the balance (if any) shall be paid one moiety to the officer who shall have detained and secured the goods and the other moiety to the account of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

11. If upon examination it shall appear to the Collector that Detention and sale of the value of the goods mentioned in any declaration made under the goods under value. sixth section of this Act has been incorrectly stated in such declaration it shall be lawful for the said Collector in lieu of any other proceeding authorized by this Act but subject to the approval of the Colonial Treasurer to cause such goods to be detained and secured and (within five days from the landing thereof) to take such goods for the use of the Crown and the said Collector shall thereupon in such case cause the amount of the invoice value stated in such declaration together with an addition of ten pounds per centum thereon and also the duties (if any) Valuation and ten paid upon such entry to be paid to the importer or owner of such goods per cent. to be paid in full setisfaction for the control of the importer. in full satisfaction for the same and shall dispose of such goods for the benefit of the Crown and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid into Provided however that the said the Consolidated Revenue Fund Collector if he shall see fit may permit such importer or owner on his application for that purpose to amend such entry at such value and on such terms as he the said Collector may direct.

Forfeiture of goods in cases of fraud &c. 12. If in any invoice or entry any goods entered for ad valorem duty have been fraudulently misdescribed or if from any such invoice or entry purporting to describe the contents of any package any goods shall be found to have been fraudulently omitted with intent to avoid the payment of the duty or any part of the duty on such goods or if the declaration made with regard to any such invoice or entry is wilfully false in any particular the goods so misdescribed or in respect of which such declaration is wilfully false as aforesaid shall be forfeited.

License may be granted to "Experts for valuation of goods.

13. In order to assist the Customs Officers in ascertaining the value of goods subject to ad valorem duty the Collector of Customs may obtain the assistance of one or more persons well acquainted in the opinion of the Collector as aforesaid with the character and value of such goods to act as experts at any port or place and who when required by the said Collector or other proper officer shall assist in assessing the true value of such goods after the entry thereof and such valuator or valuators shall be paid for their services as the Colonial Treasurer may direct.

Penalties how recoverable and applicable. 14. All fines forfeitures penalties and charges recoverable under this Act excepting the proceeds of sale of goods under section eleven may be recovered and applied in the manner directed by the Customs Regulation Act in force for the time being.

" Proper Officer."

15. The term "Proper Officer" in this Act means any Sub-Collector or other principal officer of Customs at any port or place or any officer having authority from the Governor in Council or from the Collector of Customs for the particular duty or purpose in connection with which such term is used.

Application of Customs Regulation Act. 16. All powers and authorities conferred by the Customs Regulation Act in force for the time being upon the Collector or any other officer of Customs may be exercised and enforced by such officers in the administration of this Act.

Repeal of Acts saving.

17. The Acts hereinafter enumerated or the unrepealed portions thereof are hereby declared to have been repealed on and from the seventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six viz.:—thirty-fourth Victoria number twenty-one thirty-fourth Victoria number twenty-four thirty-seventh Victoria number five forty-third Victoria number sixteen and forty-seventh Victoria number ten But the repeal hereby enacted shall not affect the past operation of any of the said Acts nor anything lawfully done or commenced thereunder.

Duration of Act.

18. This Act shall continue and be in force until the seventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine and no longer unless on such last-mentioned day Parliament shall not be in session and in that case shall continue in force until the end of the session of Parliament holden next after the seventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

5.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

Executory contracts

5. Every person who shall at any time before the passing of this Act have contracted or agreed for the sale or delivery on or after the day upon which this Act is declared to have come into operation of any goods mentioned in Schedule A whereupon either a new or an increased duty shall be payable under the provisions of this Act shall be at liberty to add to such contract price such a sum of money as will be equivalent to the amount of such new duty or increase of duty and every such vendor may recover such sum from the purchaser Provided that in every such case it shall be at the option of such purchaser by notice in writing under his hand to be served on the vendor or his agent being a party to such contract or agreement within fourteen days after the passing of this Act to declare such contract or agreement null and void and the same shall be null and void accordingly.

Purchasers may abandon contract.

6. In all cases in which goods shall after the passing of this Act be chargeable according to the value of such goods such value shall be verified at the time of entry by the production of the genuine invoice and by the declaration in the form hereinafter prescribed of the importer of such goods or of his authorized agent—

Value of goods in certain cases to be verified by declaration of importer or agent.

Collector (or other proper officer.)
And such declaration shall be made by the importer or his authorized agent as aforesaid in the presence of the Collector of Customs or other proper officer and the invoice value so declared shall with the addition of ten pounds per centum thereon be deemed to be the value of the goods upon which duty shall be paid.

As to declaration of shipping clerks &c. in certain cases. 7. Any declaration authorized or required by this Act made by any shipping clerk or known employé of any importer or owner of goods liable to duty under this Act shall be held to have been made with the knowledge and consent of such importer or owner of goods unless the contrary be proved and in any indictment for a false declaration under the two hundred and ninety-eighth section of the "Criminal Law Amendment Act" the importer owner of goods or person in whose behalf any declaration may have been made shall be liable to the punishment imposed by the said section for a false declaration as fully and effectually as if such declaration had been made by himself.

Officer may assess

8. If the importer or his authorized agent cannot make the declaration in the last preceding section set forth or if upon view and examination of such goods or otherwise it shall appear to the Collector of Customs or other proper officer that such declaration is inaccurate such Collector of Customs or other proper officer may detain the said goods and shall subject to the approval of the Colonial Treasurer assess the value thereof as hereinbefore mentioned and if the importer or his agent shall object to pay duty according to the value of such goods so assessed by such Collector of Customs or other officer or if the value of such goods is unknown or uncertain then the value of such goods shall be ascertained according to such rules and regulations as the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council may from time to time make in that behalf and the duty shall be paid according to the value so ascertained Provided that such regulations shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within one month after their promulgation if Parliament shall be then in session and if Parliament shall not be then in session within one month after the commencement of the next ensuing session.

9. In cases where it is alleged that the genuine invoice cannot Examination of be produced the Collector of Customs when he shall think fit may importer or agent on oath. examine any importer or his agent or both of them upon oath as to the value of any goods liable to duty ad valorem and may if he think fit after such examination dispense with the production of the genuine invoice aforesaid and in case such importer or agent shall upon being summoned neglect or refuse to attend for examination or shall refuse to be sworn or to answer such questions as shall be put to him by the said Collector then and in every such case the value of such goods shall be assessed by the Collector of Customs or other proper officer and such assessed value shall be deemed to be the true and real value thereof and such importer or agent or both of them so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid shall also be liable to pay a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

10. If the importer of such goods or his agent shall neglect or How goods to be refuse to pay the duties imposed thereon after such examination and dealt with if undervalued. assessment as aforesaid and also the costs of such examination and assessment in the event of the valuation being greater than declared on the bill of entry the Collector of Customs or proper officer shall subject to the approval of the Colonial Treasurer take and secure such goods with the packages thereof and cause the same to be sold by public auction within the space of twenty days at furthest after such examination and at such time and place as such Collector or other officer shall by notice published in the Government Gazette and some local daily newspaper at least four days from the day of sale appoint for that purpose and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied in the first place in payment of the duties due upon such goods together with the costs and charges incurred by such examination and sale and in the second place towards payment to the importer or his agent of the declared value of the said goods as entered together with any freight and charges paid thereon by such importer or his agent not exceeding ordinary or current rates and the balance (if any) shall be paid one moiety to the officer who shall have detained and secured the goods and the other moiety to the account of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

11. If upon examination it shall appear to the Collector that Detention and sale of the value of the goods mentioned in any declaration made under the goods under value. sixth section of this Act has been incorrectly stated in such declaration it shall be lawful for the said Collector in lieu of any other proceeding authorized by this Act but subject to the approval of the Colonial Treasurer to cause such goods to be detained and secured and (within five days from the landing thereof) to take such goods for the use of the Crown and the said Collector shall thereupon in such case cause the amount of the invoice value stated in such declaration together with an addition of ten pounds per centum thereon and also the duties (if any) Valuation and ten paid upon such entry to be paid to the importer or owner of such goods to the importer. in full satisfaction for the same and shall dispose of such goods for the benefit of the Crown and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid into Provided however that the said the Consolidated Revenue Fund Collector if he shall see fit may permit such importer or owner on his application for that purpose to amend such entry at such value and on such terms as he the said Collector may direct.

Forfeiture of goods in cases of fraud &c.

12. If in any invoice or entry any goods entered for ad valorem duty have been fraudulently misdescribed or if from any such invoice or entry purporting to describe the contents of any package any goods shall be found to have been fraudulently omitted with intent to avoid the payment of the duty or any part of the duty on such goods or if the declaration made with regard to any such invoice or entry is wilfully false in any particular the goods so misdescribed or in respect of which such declaration is wilfully false as aforesaid shall be forfeited.

License may be granted to "Experts" for valuation of goods.

13. In order to assist the Customs Officers in ascertaining the value of goods subject to ad valorem duty the Collector of Customs may obtain the assistance of one or more persons well acquainted in the opinion of the Collector as aforesaid with the character and value of such goods to act as experts at any port or place and who when required by the said Collector or other proper officer shall assist in assessing the true value of such goods after the entry thereof and such valuator or valuators shall be paid for their services as the Colonial Treasurer may direct.

Penalties how recoverable and applicable. 14. All fines forfeitures penalties and charges recoverable under this Act excepting the proceeds of sale of goods under section eleven may be recovered and applied in the manner directed by the Customs Regulation Act in force for the time being.

"Proper Officer."

15. The term "Proper Officer" in this Act means any Sub-Collector or other principal officer of Customs at any port or place or any officer having authority from the Governor in Council or from the Collector of Customs for the particular duty or purpose in connection with which such term is used.

Application of Customs Regulation Act.

16. All powers and authorities conferred by the Customs Regulation Act in force for the time being upon the Collector or any other officer of Customs may be exercised and enforced by such officers in the administration of this Act.

Repeal of Acts

17. The Acts hereinafter enumerated or the unrepealed portions thereof are hereby declared to have been repealed on and from the seventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six viz.:—thirty-fourth Victoria number twenty-one thirty-fourth Victoria number twenty-four thirty-seventh Victoria number five forty-third Victoria number sixteen and forty-seventh Victoria number ten But the repeal hereby enacted shall not affect the past operation of any of the said Acts nor anything lawfully done or commenced thereunder.

Duration of Act.

18. This Act shall continue and be in force until the seventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine and no longer unless on such last-mentioned day Parliament shall not be in session and in that case shall continue in force until the end of the session of Parliament holden next after the seventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.
