build such offices upon the said land as well as a town-hall And whereas the said Council is unable with due regard to the other requirements of the said Municipality to provide funds for the erection of such town-hall and offices without borrowing money upon security of the said land and the buildings to be erected thereupon and it is expedient that the said Council should have power and authority to mortgage the said land and the buildings to be erected thereon to enable them to provide funds for such erection And whereas it is expedient that the said Council should have power from time to time to lease the said offices to be erected upon the said land for any terms not exceeding five years Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

Markets not to be erected.

1. It shall not be necessary for the Municipal Council of Glen Innes to erect or build upon the said parcels of land or either of them any public markets anything in the said herein recited grant notwithstanding provided that the said Council shall erect thereupon a town-hall and such other offices as the said Council shall deem necessary.

Council may borrow money to build offices.

2. The said Council may raise or borrow money for the purposes of building and completing such offices upon the security of the said land and for such purpose may mortgage the said land or any part thereof and the buildings to be erected thereupon as if the said land and buildings were the absolute property of the said council free from any trusts.

Moneys to be applied to building purposes.

3. All moneys so raised by mortgage or borrowed upon security of the said land shall be applied to the purposes of building and completing the said town-hall and offices to be erected thereon and for no other purpose whatsoever and a detailed account of all moneys so received or paid by the said Council shall be taken to be included in the detailed account of revenue and expenditure required by the one hundred and eighty-third section of the "Municipalities Act of 1867."

Council may lease offices by auction or tender.

4. The Council may let the said offices so to be erected upon leases not to exceed five years provided that such offices shall be let by public competition by way of auction or tender and that a reasonable yearly rent be reserved to the Council during the currency of such leases and such leases shall contain the usual covenants.
