A BILL

To authorize the establishment of Sites and Apparatus for purposes of Cremation.

[MR. CREED;—3 June, 1886.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

5       1. This Act may be cited as the "Cremation Act 1886" and in its construction the word "Crematorium" means a place furnished with apparatus in accordance with the provisions of this Act for the purpose of reducing the human body after death to its mineral constituents and such purpose is in this Act referred to as "Cremation"

Short title and interpretation.

10 "Prescribed" means prescribed by regulations under this Act.

2. Subject to the conditions and provisions of this Act a crematorium may be established by any person provided the site and plans of such crematorium be approved by the Board of Health and that the apparatus to be employed for incineration be also approved by such Board. But no crematorium shall be used for the purpose of cremation unless licensed in the prescribed manner by the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council.

Crematoria may be established.

Applicant to fulfil certain requirements.

3. Every applicant for a license for a crematorium must satisfy the Governor with the advice aforesaid (1) that he is the owner in fee-simple of the site for such crematorium described in his application or (2) that he has the written consent to such application of such owner or (3) that if such site be situated in any cemetery or burial-ground he has the written consent of the persons having the control and management of such cemetery or burial-ground. 5

Cremation &c. when illegal &c.

4. The burning or cremation of the body of any human being otherwise than in a licensed crematorium shall be deemed illegal and a common nuisance. 10

Condition of cremation.

5. It shall not be lawful to cremate the body of any person at a crematorium—

(I) Unless a certificate from the proper officer shall first have been furnished to the person in charge of such crematorium stating that the death of the person to be cremated has been duly registered in manner required by law for the registration of deaths together with a certificate from some registered medical practitioner stating that such practitioner had been in continuous professional attendance on the deceased for at least seven days immediately prior to the day of death and that the deceased died from natural causes or 15 20

(II) Unless on a post-mortem examination of all the vital organs of the deceased made by some such practitioner he shall certify to the person so in charge as aforesaid that the deceased died from natural causes or 25

(III) Unless the certificate of a coroner or Justice of the Peace who has held an inquest or inquiry as to the cause of death of the deceased shall first have been furnished to the person so in charge as aforesaid stating that the deceased died from the causes aforesaid 30

And if any person in charge of or employed in or about any crematorium shall without any such certificate or before receipt of the same cremate or assist in or be present at the cremation of any person the cause of whose death is required by this Act to be certified as herein prescribed before the body of such person can be cremated such first-mentioned person shall be guilty of a misdemeanour and may be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred pounds and be imprisoned (with or without such fine) for any term not exceeding two years. 35

Interested persons not to give certificates.

6. If any person knowing that he has any pecuniary interest in the death of any other person whether in terms of any policy of life insurance or as knowing that he is entitled in expectancy of such death to any real or personal property or in any other manner whatsoever shall give or join in giving a certificate concerning the death of such person for the purposes of this Act such first-mentioned person shall be guilty of felony and may be sentenced to penal servitude for any term not exceeding ten years such sentence to be subject to the alternative provided by section eight of the "Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1883." 40 45

Executive may in certain cases dispense with certificate.

7. The Governor with the advice aforesaid on the appearance of any serious epidemic disease which in his opinion renders the giving of the certificates prescribed by section five of this Act or any of them either impracticable or inadvisable for sanitary reasons may suspend the operation of the said section for such time and within such limits as he shall notify by proclamation in the Gazette. 50

Minister of Justice may forbid cremation &c.

8. The Minister of Justice or any Stipendiary or Police Magistrate may in any case by writing under his hand addressed to the person in charge of any crematorium forbid the cremation of any dead body specified in such writing either absolutely or until the viscera or any other organs have been removed from such body and lodged in such manner and custody as he may require. 60

9. The body corporate authority or persons in whom any cemetery or burial-ground or the control and management thereof is vested for the time being may consent by their common seal or in writing under their hands and seals to the application for any site for
 5 a crematorium made by any person under this Act Provided that in the case of the necropolis at Rookwood the consent in writing of the Minister of Justice shall be sufficient in respect of any application for a site for a crematorium not situate within the portions of such necropolis vested in Trustees.

Consent of cemetery authorities to application for a crematorium.

10. The Governor with the advice aforesaid may frame regulations for giving effect to this Act in respect of any matter not herein specially provided for And such regulations may prescribe penalties for their violation not exceeding fifty pounds in any case and on publication in the Gazette shall have the full force of law Provided
 15 that any penalty so prescribed shall be recoverable in a summary way and only upon information laid with the sanction of the Medical Adviser to the Government.

Regulations.

11. Before any crematorium is licensed under this Act the scale of fees and by-laws applicable to and to be in force in such crema-
 20 torium shall be submitted to the Governor with the advice aforesaid for his approval And any alteration in such scale of fees or by-laws shall be submitted for the like approval And no charge for cremation other than a charge specified in a scale of fees so approved shall be recoverable in any Court.

Governor &c. to approve of by-laws.
