

---

---

A BILL

To amend the "Married Women's Property Act."

[MR. DARLEY;—19 May, 1886.]

---

---

WHEREAS the "Married Women's Property Act" being the Act Preamble.
forty-second of Victoria number eleven provides that where a woman married after the passing of the said Act becomes entitled under the "Real Estate of Intestates Distribution Act of 1862" or 5 any Act amending the same to an estate of freehold or to any interest in the proceeds of any sale thereof the interest in such proceeds or the rents and profits of such property shall belong to such woman for her separate use and her receipts alone shall be a good discharge for the same And whereas no provision is contained in the said Act for the 10 case of a married woman becoming entitled under any deed or will to real estate or any interest therein And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act so as to remedy such defect Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly 15 of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. The provisions contained in section eight of the "Married Realty &c. coming to married woman when
to belong to her.
Women's Property Act" shall apply to the case of a woman married
after the passing of such Act becoming entitled under any deed or 20 will to an estate of freehold in real estate or to any interest in the proceeds of any sale thereof Provided always that nothing herein contained shall invalidate or affect any receipt or discharge for the rents and profits of such property or any contract settlement disposition or agreement concerning the same which would otherwise 25 have been legal and binding given or made between the twentieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and the commencement of this Act.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY for its concurrence.

Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 3rd June, 1886. }

JOHN J. CALVERT,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO NONO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

*****

No. .

An Act to amend the "Married Women's Property Act."

WHEREAS the "Married Women's Property Act" being the Act Preamble.
forty-second of Victoria number eleven provides that where a woman married after the passing of the said Act becomes entitled under the "Real Estate of Intestates Distribution Act of 1862" or 5 any Act amending the same to an estate of freehold or to any interest in the proceeds of any sale thereof the interest in such proceeds or the rents and profits of such property shall belong to such woman for her separate use and her receipts alone shall be a good discharge for the same And whereas no provision is contained in the first-mentioned Act 10 for the case of a married woman becoming entitled under any deed or will to real estate or any interest therein And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act so as to remedy such defect Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the
c 66— advice

Married Women's Property Act Amendment.

advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

- 1. The provisions contained in section eight of the "Married Women's Property Act" shall apply to the case of a woman married after the passing of such Act becoming entitled under any deed or will to an estate of freehold in real estate or to any interest in the proceeds of any sale thereof Provided always that nothing herein contained shall invalidate or affect any receipt or discharge for the rents and profits of such property or any contract settlement disposition or agreement concerning the same which would otherwise have been legal and binding given or made between the twentieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and the commencement of this Act.

Realty &c. coming to married woman when to belong to her.

[3d.]

Sydney: Thomas Richards, Government Printer.—1886.

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO NONO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ

*****

No.

An Act to amend the "Married Women's Property Act."

WHEREAS the "Married Women's Property Act" being the Act of the forty-second of Victoria number eleven provides that where a woman married after the passing of the said Act becomes entitled under the "Real Estate of Intestates Distribution Act of 1882" or any Act amending the same to an estate of freehold or to any interest in the proceeds of any sale thereof the interest in such proceeds or the rents and profits of such property shall belong to such woman for her separate use and her receipts shall be a good discharge for the same: And whereas no provision is contained in the last-mentioned Act for the case of a married woman becoming entitled under any deed or will to real estate or any interest therein: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act so as to extend such benefit: He it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

*****

No. IX.

An Act to amend the "Married Women's Property Act."
[Assented to, 27th August, 1886.]

WHEREAS the "Married Women's Property Act" being the Act Preamble.
forty-second of Victoria number eleven provides that where a woman married after the passing of the said Act becomes entitled under the "Real Estate of Intestates Distribution Act of 1862" or any Act amending the same to an estate of freehold or to any interest in the proceeds of any sale thereof the interest in such proceeds or the rents and profits of such property shall belong to such woman for her separate use and her receipts alone shall be a good discharge for the same And whereas no provision is contained in the first-mentioned Act for the case of a married woman becoming entitled under any deed or will to real estate or any interest therein And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act so as to remedy such defect Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. The provisions contained in section eight of the "Married Realty &c. coming to married woman when to belong to her.
Women's Property Act" shall apply to the case of a woman married after the passing of such Act becoming entitled under any deed or will to an estate of freehold in real estate or to any interest in the proceeds of any sale thereof Provided always that nothing herein contained shall invalidate or affect any receipt or discharge for the rents and profits of such property or any contract settlement disposition or agreement concerning the same which would otherwise have been legal and binding given or made between the twentieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and the commencement of this Act.

By Authority : THOMAS RICHARDS, Government Printer, Sydney, 1886.

New South Wales

LEO QUINQUEGENTARIO

VICTORIA REGINA.

No. IX.

An Act to amend the "Married Women's Property Act."
[Assented to, 27th August, 1880.]

WHEREAS the "Married Women's Property Act," being the Act fourth of Victoria number eleven provides that where a woman married after the passing of the said Act becomes entitled under the "Real Estate of Intestates Distribution Act of 1862," or any Act amending the same to an estate of freehold or to any interest in the proceeds of any sale thereof the interest in such proceeds or the rents and profits of such property shall belong to such woman for her separate use and her receipts thereon shall be a good discharge for the same. And whereas no provision is contained in the first-mentioned Act for the case of a married woman becoming entitled under any deed or will to real estate or any interest therein. And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act so as to remedy such defect. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Parliament of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. The provisions contained in section eight of the "Married Women's Property Act," shall apply to the case of a woman married
after the passing of such Act becoming entitled under any deed or will to an estate of freehold in real estate or to any interest in the proceeds of any sale thereof. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall invalidate or affect any receipt or discharge for the rents and profits of such property or any contract settlement, disposition or agreement concerning the same which would otherwise have been legal and binding given or made between the twentieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and the commencement of the Act.