Department of Mathematics

Chicago, Illinois

February 10, 1950

Dear Mr. [Name]:

I have received your letter of the 7th and am pleased to hear that you are interested in the work of the Department of Mathematics at the University of Chicago.

The Department of Mathematics at the University of Chicago is one of the largest and most distinguished in the United States. It has a long and distinguished history and is currently engaged in a wide variety of research in all areas of mathematics.

Our faculty includes many of the leading mathematicians in the world, and we have a strong tradition of excellence in both teaching and research. We are particularly interested in the work of young mathematicians who are interested in the study of mathematics at the graduate level.

If you are interested in applying for a graduate fellowship or a position as a graduate student, please send me a copy of your curriculum vitae and a list of references. We will be glad to discuss your application with you and to provide you with more information about the Department and the University.

Very truly yours,
