8. Every brewer at present carrying on or who shall hereafter desire to carry on the business of a brewer shall before continuing or commencing to carry on such business send to the Collector a notice in writing in the form or to the effect of the First Schedule to this Act setting forth the name or names and place or places of abode of the person or persons carrying on or proposing to carry on such business a description of the brewery premises and the further particulars enumerated in the said Schedule Every such notice shall be verified by the declaration of the person sending or giving the same or if sent by more than one person then by one of such persons and every such declaration shall be in the form or to the effect of the Second Schedule.

Brewers to send notice to Collector with certain information.

First Schedule.

Second Schedule.

9. Every brewer within one month after the commencement of this Act and in the first week of the month of January in each succeeding year thereafter shall execute a bond to Her Majesty her heirs and successors with one sufficient surety to be approved by the Collector in a sum equal to twice the estimated amount of the duty such brewer will be liable to pay during any one month and conditioned—

Brewer to enter into bond.

- (I) That he shall pay or cause to be paid the prescribed duty payable on all beer made by or for him before the same is sold or removed for consumption or sale
- (II) And that he shall in all respects faithfully comply without fraud or evasion with the requirements of this Act and the regulations

The Collector shall fix the sum for which such bond shall be given and shall be guided therein by reference to the number of barrels of beer which the brewery of such brewer produces or is capable of producing in each month.

Collector to fix amount of bond.

10. All such beer shall be sold or removed for consumption or sale in hogsheads or barrels only or in casks vessels or packages of such smaller sizes as may be approved by the Collector Any beer contained in casks other than hogsheads or barrels or in casks or vessels of sizes other than those approved by the Collector shall be forfeited and may be seized by any duly appointed officer or constable.

Beer to be sold in certain vessels.

11. Every brewer shall from day to day enter or cause to be entered in books to be kept by him for that purpose the kind and estimated quantity in barrels of beer made by him and the actual quantity sold or removed for consumption or sale specifying whether in hogsheads barrels or casks or in vessels or packages of smaller size And such books shall be open at all reasonable hours in the daytime to the inspection of any duly appointed officer who may take extracts therefrom or transcripts thereof.

Books to be kept by brewer and to be open for inspection.

12. The entries made in such books shall at the end of each month be verified by the declaration of the person by whom they were made Such declaration shall be written in the book at the end of such entries and be signed by the person making such declaration and the same shall be in the following form or to the effect thereof—

Entries to be verified by declaration.

“ I declare that the foregoing entries were made by me and that they state truly according to the best of my knowledge and belief the estimated quantity of the whole amount of beer brewed the actual quantity sold and the actual quantity removed from the brewery occupied by at _____ from the first day of the month of _____ to the last day of such month and further that I have no knowledge of any matter or thing required by law to be stated in such entries which has been omitted therefrom.”

And

Beer Duty.

And every brewer shall also in case the original entries in his books were not made by himself subjoin thereto and sign the following declaration—

“I declare that to the best of my knowledge and belief the foregoing entries fully set forth all the matters required by law and that the same are true in the several particulars thereof.”

Statements to be rendered to Collector of quantity brewed.

13. Every brewer within seven days after the commencement of this Act shall render to the Collector of Customs a true statement in the prescribed form of the quantity of beer brewed by him and remaining in his brewery or on his premises on the day of the passing of this Act and shall after the passing of this Act render to the said Collector on or before the tenth day of each month a true statement in writing in duplicate taken from the books required to be kept as aforesaid showing the estimated quantity in barrels of beer brewed and the actual quantity sold or removed for consumption or sale during the preceding month.

Stamps.

14. Suitable stamps shall be provided by the Collector denoting the amount of duty required to be paid on the hogsheads barrels casks vessels or packages of beer respectively liable to duty under this Act and such stamps shall be sold only to brewers. It shall not be lawful for any person to use for the purposes of this Act any stamps other than the stamps so provided.

Brewer to affix stamp upon spigot or tap-hole of cask.

15. Every brewer shall obtain from the Collector the proper stamps and shall do or cause to be done the following things—

(i) Affix upon the spigot or tap-hole of every hogshead barrel cask vessel or other receptacle in which any beer is contained when sold or removed from such brewery (except in case of removal under permit or bond as hereinafter provided) a stamp denoting the amount of duty payable upon such beer in such a way that the said stamp will be destroyed upon the withdrawal of the liquor from such hogshead barrel cask vessel or other receptacle or upon the introduction of a faucet or other instrument for that purpose.

(ii) At the time of affixing such stamp cancel the same by writing or imprinting thereon the name of the brewer by whom such beer was made or the initial letters thereof and the date when cancelled.

Beer may in certain cases be removed upon permits issued by Collector.

16. Any brewer upon obtaining the prescribed permit may remove or cause to be removed from his brewery to a depôt warehouse or other place occupied by him and used exclusively for storage or sale of beer in bulk any quantity of beer of his own manufacture but not being less than five barrels at any one time without affixing the proper stamps on the vessels containing such beer at the brewery. The brewer of such beer shall stamp every cask or vessel containing the same when it leaves such depôt or warehouse in the same manner and under the same penalties as he would be liable to if no such permit had been granted.

To be stamped when leaving depôt.

How permit to be affixed to cask.

17. The prescribed permit shall be affixed in the prescribed manner to every vessel or cask removed as aforesaid and shall be cancelled or destroyed under the same penalties and liabilities as provided herein in respect to stamps.
