

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. I.

An Act to enlarge the powers conferred by, and amend, the “Vine Diseases Act, 1886.” [Assented to, 22nd June, 1888.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to give certain powers which they do Preamble.
not now possess to the Board appointed under the “Vine
Diseases Act 1886,” and also to amend the said Act in certain respects;
Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by
and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled,
and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the “Vine Diseases Act Amend- Short title and ment Act of 1888”; and the expressions used in it shall bear the same construction.
meanings respectively as are attributed to them in the “Vine Diseases
Act 1886,” herein termed the “Principal Act.”

2. The Board, or any person by them authorized in writing, Board may enter and may, at any time after giving twenty-four hours notice of the intention inspect vineyards.
so to do, enter into, and inspect at all reasonable hours of the day any vineyard, whether the same be in a district proclaimed under the Principal Act or not, and shall, in any case in which any vine in such vineyard has been found diseased, report forthwith the fact to the Minister.

Vine Diseases Act Amendment.

Board may direct Inspector, &c., to destroy vines, &c.

3. The Board, after inspection of any vineyard, and with the consent of the Minister, may direct any Inspector or Assistant Inspector to destroy any vines in any vineyard found to be diseased, in such manner and at such time as they shall authorize and require. And every such direction shall be as sufficient an authority to such Inspector or Assistant Inspector as if the same had been given by the Minister.

When compensation to be settled.

4. Before any vines shall be destroyed pursuant to the last preceding section, the Board shall endeavour to agree with the owner of the said vines as to the compensation to be paid to him for injury caused to his property by reason of such destruction; but if the Board and such owner cannot agree as to the amount of the compensation within fourteen days from the date of a notice to treat to be given by the Board to the owner, then the Board may direct such destruction of vines to be carried out forthwith; and the compensation in that case shall be determined by the Board, subject to the approval of the Minister. In no case shall any greater amount of compensation be awarded than the actual cost of formation of the vineyard or portion thereof in which vines shall have been destroyed pursuant to this Act.

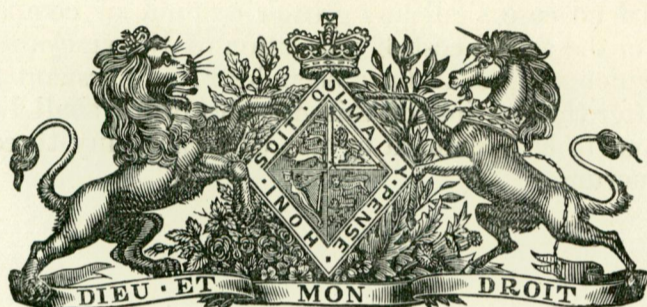

Number of Board.

5. After the passing of this Act the Board shall be composed of five persons to be appointed by the Governor, any three of whom shall be a quorum.

By Authority : CHARLES POTTER, Government Printer, Sydney, 1888.

[3d.]

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. I.

An Act to enlarge the powers conferred by, and amend, the “Vine Diseases Act, 1886.” [Assented to, 22nd June, 1888.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to give certain powers which they do Preamble.
not now possess to the Board appointed under the “Vine
Diseases Act 1886,” and also to amend the said Act in certain respects;
Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by
and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled,
and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the “Vine Diseases Act Amend- Short title and ment Act of 1888”; and the expressions used in it shall bear the same construction.
meanings respectively as are attributed to them in the “Vine Diseases
Act 1886,” herein termed the “Principal Act.”

2. The Board, or any person by them authorized in writing, Board may enter and may, at any time after giving twenty-four hours notice of the intention inspect vineyards.
so to do, enter into, and inspect at all reasonable hours of the day any
vineyard, whether the same be in a district proclaimed under the Principal Act or not, and shall, in any case in which any vine in such vineyard has been found diseased, report forthwith the fact to the Minister.

Vine Diseases Act Amendment.

Board may direct Inspector, &c., to destroy vines, &c.

3. The Board, after inspection of any vineyard, and with the consent of the Minister, may direct any Inspector or Assistant Inspector to destroy any vines in any vineyard found to be diseased, in such manner and at such time as they shall authorize and require. And every such direction shall be as sufficient an authority to such Inspector or Assistant Inspector as if the same had been given by the Minister.

When compensation to be settled.

4. Before any vines shall be destroyed pursuant to the last preceding section, the Board shall endeavour to agree with the owner of the said vines as to the compensation to be paid to him for injury caused to his property by reason of such destruction; but if the Board and such owner cannot agree as to the amount of the compensation within fourteen days from the date of a notice to treat to be given by the Board to the owner, then the Board may direct such destruction of vines to be carried out forthwith; and the compensation in that case shall be determined by the Board, subject to the approval of the Minister. In no case shall any greater amount of compensation be awarded than the actual cost of formation of the vineyard or portion thereof in which vines shall have been destroyed pursuant to this Act.

Number of Board.

5. After the passing of this Act the Board shall be composed of five persons to be appointed by the Governor, any three of whom shall be a quorum.

By Authority : CHARLES POTTER, Government Printer, Sydney, 1888.

[3d.]

I Certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 5 June, 1888.* }

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. I.

An Act to enlarge the powers conferred by, and amend, the
"Vine Diseases Act, 1886." [Assented to, 22nd June, 1888.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to give certain powers which they do Preamble
not now possess to the Board appointed under the "Vine
Diseases Act 1886," and also to amend the said Act in certain respects;
Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by
and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled,
and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Vine Diseases Act Amend- Short title and ment Act of 1888"; and the expressions used in it shall bear the same construction.
meanings respectively as are attributed to them in the "Vine Diseases
Act 1886," herein termed the "Principal Act."

2. The Board, or any person by them authorized in writing, Board may enter and may, at any time after giving twenty-four hours notice of the intention inspect vineyards.
so to do, enter into, and inspect at all reasonable hours of the day any
vineyard, whether the same be in a district proclaimed under the Principal Act or not, and shall, in any case in which any vine in such vineyard has been found diseased, report forthwith the fact to the Minister.

3.

*I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill
as finally passed by both Houses.*

J. GARRARD,
Deputy Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Vine Diseases Act Amendment.

Board may direct
Inspector, &c., to destroy vines, &c.

3. The Board, after inspection of any vineyard, and with the consent of the Minister, may direct any Inspector or Assistant Inspector to destroy any vines in any vineyard found to be diseased, in such manner and at such time as they shall authorize and require. And every such direction shall be as sufficient an authority to such Inspector or Assistant Inspector as if the same had been given by the Minister.

When compensation
to be settled.

4. Before any vines shall be destroyed pursuant to the last preceding section, the Board shall endeavour to agree with the owner of the said vines as to the compensation to be paid to him for injury caused to his property by reason of such destruction; but if the Board and such owner cannot agree as to the amount of the compensation within fourteen days from the date of a notice to treat to be given by the Board to the owner, then the Board may direct such destruction of vines to be carried out forthwith; and the compensation in that case shall be determined by the Board, subject to the approval of the Minister. In no case shall any greater amount of compensation be awarded than the actual cost of formation of the vineyard or portion thereof in which vines shall have been destroyed pursuant to this Act.

Number of Board.

5. After the passing of this Act the Board shall be composed of five persons to be appointed by the Governor, any three of whom shall be a quorum.

In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

CARRINGTON.

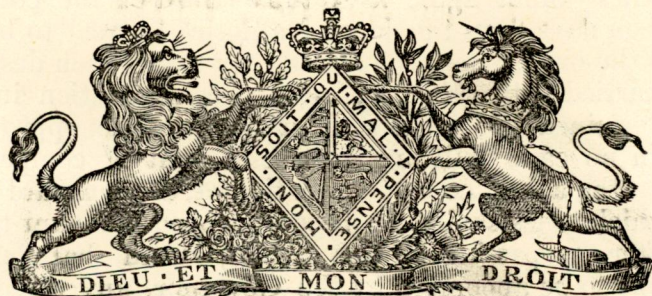

*Government House,
22nd June, 1888.*

I Certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

Legislative Assembly Chamber, }
Sydney, 5 June, 1888. }

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. I.

An Act to enlarge the powers conferred by, and amend, the
"Vine Diseases Act, 1886." [Assented to, 22nd June, 1888.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to give certain powers which they do Preamble
not now possess to the Board appointed under the "Vine
Diseases Act 1886," and also to amend the said Act in certain respects;
Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by
and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled,
and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Vine Diseases Act Amend- Short title and ment Act of 1888"; and the expressions used in it shall bear the same construction.
meanings respectively as are attributed to them in the "Vine Diseases
Act 1886," herein termed the "Principal Act."

2. The Board, or any person by them authorized in writing, Board may enter and may, at any time after giving twenty-four hours notice of the intention inspect vineyards.
so to do, enter into, and inspect at all reasonable hours of the day any
vineyard, whether the same be in a district proclaimed under the Principal Act or not, and shall, in any case in which any vine in such vineyard has been found diseased, report forthwith the fact to the Minister.

3.

*I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill
as finally passed by both Houses.*

J. GARRARD,
Deputy Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Vine Diseases Act Amendment.

Board may direct
Inspector, &c., to destroy vines, &c.

3. The Board, after inspection of any vineyard, and with the consent of the Minister, may direct any Inspector or Assistant Inspector to destroy any vines in any vineyard found to be diseased, in such manner and at such time as they shall authorize and require. And every such direction shall be as sufficient an authority to such Inspector or Assistant Inspector as if the same had been given by the Minister.

When compensation
to be settled.

4. Before any vines shall be destroyed pursuant to the last preceding section, the Board shall endeavour to agree with the owner of the said vines as to the compensation to be paid to him for injury caused to his property by reason of such destruction; but if the Board and such owner cannot agree as to the amount of the compensation within fourteen days from the date of a notice to treat to be given by the Board to the owner, then the Board may direct such destruction of vines to be carried out forthwith; and the compensation in that case shall be determined by the Board, subject to the approval of the Minister. In no case shall any greater amount of compensation be awarded than the actual cost of formation of the vineyard or portion thereof in which vines shall have been destroyed pursuant to this Act.

Number of Board.

5. After the passing of this Act the Board shall be composed of five persons to be appointed by the Governor, any three of whom shall be a quorum.

In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

CARRINGTON.

*Government House,
22nd June, 1888.*

VINE DISEASES ACT AMENDMENT BILL.

SCHEDULE of Amendments referred to in Message of 10th May, 1888.

- Page 2, clause 3, line 3. Omit "root up and"
Page 2, clause 3, line 3. Omit "such" insert "any"
Page 2, clause 4, line 8. Omit "rooted up or"
Page 2, clause 4, line 11. Omit "rooting up or"
Page 2, clause 4, line 15. Omit "rooting up or"
Page 2, clause 4, line 20. Omit "rooted up or"
-

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

RECEIVED

LIBRARY

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 1 May, 1888.* }

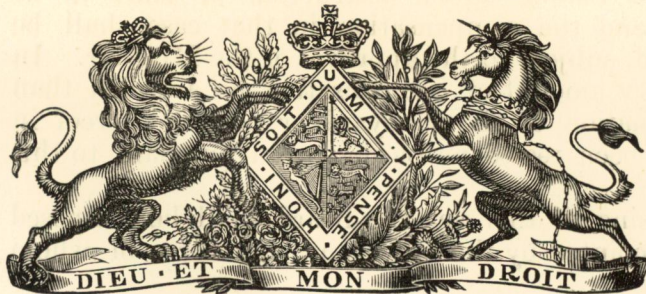

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

The LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL has this day agreed to this Bill with Amendments.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 10th May, 1888.* }

JOHN J. CALVERT,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to enlarge the powers conferred by, and amend, the “Vine Diseases Act, 1886.”

WHEREAS it is desirable to give certain powers which they do Preamble.
not now possess to the Board appointed under the “Vine
Diseases Act 1886,” and also to amend the said Act in certain respects;
Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by 5 and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled,
and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the “Vine Diseases Act Amend- Short title and construction.
ment Act of 1888”; and the expressions used in it shall bear the same
10 meanings respectively as are attributed to them in the “Vine Diseases
Act 1886,” herein termed the “Principal Act.”

2. The Board, or any person by them authorized in writing, Board may enter and inspect vineyards.
may, at any time after giving twenty-four hours notice of the intention
so to do, enter into, and inspect at all reasonable hours of the day any 15 vineyard, whether the same be in a district proclaimed under the Principal Act or not, and shall, in any case in which any vine in such vineyard has been found diseased, report forthwith the fact to the Minister.

326—

3.

NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through; that to be inserted is printed in black letter.

Vine Diseases Act Amendment.

3. The Board, after inspection of any vineyard, and with the consent of the Minister, may direct any Inspector or Assistant Inspector to ~~root up and~~ destroy any vines in ~~such~~ any vineyard found to be diseased, in such manner and at such time as they shall authorize and require.

Board may direct Inspector, &c., to root up and destroy vines, &c.

5 And every such direction shall be as sufficient an authority to such Inspector or Assistant Inspector as if the same had been given by the Minister.

4. Before any vines shall be ~~rooted up or~~ destroyed pursuant to the last preceding section, the Board shall endeavour to agree with the owner of the said vines as to the compensation to be paid to him for injury caused to his property by reason of such ~~rooting up or~~ destruction; but if the Board and such owner cannot agree as to the amount of the compensation within fourteen days from the date of a notice to treat to be given by the Board to the owner, then the Board may direct such ~~rooting up or~~ destruction of vines to be carried out forthwith; and the compensation in that case shall be determined by the Board, subject to the approval of the Minister. In no case shall any greater amount of compensation be awarded than the actual cost of formation of the vineyard or portion thereof in which vines shall have been ~~rooted up or~~ destroyed pursuant to this Act.

When compensation to be settled.

5. After the passing of this Act the Board shall be composed of five persons to be appointed by the Governor, any three of whom shall be a quorum.

Number of Board.

VINE DISEASES ACT AMENDMENT BILL.

SCHEDULE of Amendments referred to in Message of 10th May, 1888.

- Page 2, clause 3, line 3. Omit "root up and"
Page 2, clause 3, line 3. Omit "such" insert "any"
Page 2, clause 4, line 8. Omit "rooted up or"
Page 2, clause 4, line 11. Omit "rooting up or"
Page 2, clause 4, line 15. Omit "rooting up or"
Page 2, clause 4, line 20. Omit "rooted up or"
-

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 1 May, 1888.* }

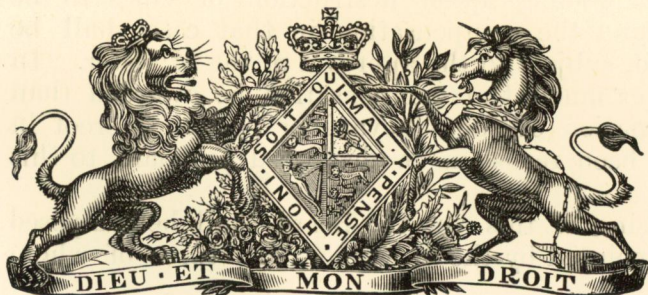

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

The LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL has this day agreed to this Bill with Amendments.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 10th May, 1888.* }

JOHN J. CALVERT,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to enlarge the powers conferred by, and amend, the “Vine Diseases Act, 1886.”

WHEREAS it is desirable to give certain powers which they do Preamble.
not now possess to the Board appointed under the “Vine
Diseases Act 1886,” and also to amend the said Act in certain respects;
Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by 5 and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled,
and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the “Vine Diseases Act Amend- Short title and ment Act of 1888”; and the expressions used in it shall bear the same construction.
10 meanings respectively as are attributed to them in the “Vine Diseases
Act 1886,” herein termed the “Principal Act.”

2. The Board, or any person by them authorized in writing, Board may enter and may, at any time after giving twenty-four hours notice of the intention inspect vineyards.
so to do, enter into, and inspect at all reasonable hours of the day any 15 vineyard, whether the same be in a district proclaimed under the Principal Act or not, and shall, in any case in which any vine in such vineyard has been found diseased, report forthwith the fact to the Minister.

NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through; that to be inserted is printed in black letter.

Vine Diseases Act Amendment.

3. The Board, after inspection of any vineyard, and with the consent of the Minister, may direct any Inspector or Assistant Inspector to ~~root up and~~ destroy any vines in ~~such any~~ vineyard found to be diseased, in such manner and at such time as they shall authorize and require.

Board may direct Inspector, &c., to root up and destroy vines, &c.

5 And every such direction shall be as sufficient an authority to such Inspector or Assistant Inspector as if the same had been given by the Minister.

4. Before any vines shall be ~~rooted up or~~ destroyed pursuant to the last preceding section, the Board shall endeavour to agree with the owner of the said vines as to the compensation to be paid to him for injury caused to his property by reason of such ~~rooting up or~~ destruction; but if the Board and such owner cannot agree as to the amount of the compensation within fourteen days from the date of a notice to treat to be given by the Board to the owner, then the Board may direct such ~~rooting up or~~ destruction of vines to be carried out forthwith; and the compensation in that case shall be determined by the Board, subject to the approval of the Minister. In no case shall any greater amount of compensation be awarded than the actual cost of formation of the vineyard or portion thereof in which vines shall have been ~~rooted up or~~ destroyed pursuant to this Act.

When compensation to be settled.

5. After the passing of this Act the Board shall be composed of five persons to be appointed by the Governor, any three of whom shall be a quorum.

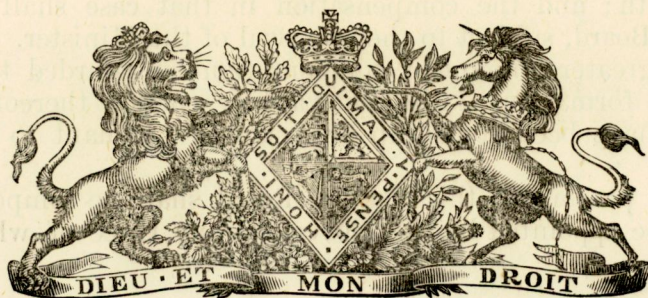

Number of Board.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 2 May, 1888. }

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to enlarge the powers conferred by, and amend, the
"Vine Diseases Act, 1886."

WHEREAS it is desirable to give certain powers which they do Preamble.
not now possess to the Board appointed under the "Vine
Diseases Act 1886," and also to amend the said Act in certain respects;
Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by 5 and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled,
and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Vine Diseases Act Amend- Short title and construction.
ment Act of 1888"; and the expressions used in it shall bear the same
10 meanings respectively as are attributed to them in the "Vine Diseases
Act 1886," herein termed the "Principal Act."

2. The Board, or any person by them authorized in writing, Board may enter and inspect vineyards.
may, at any time after giving twenty-four hours notice of the intention
so to do, enter into, and inspect at all reasonable hours of the day any 15 vineyard, whether the same be in a district proclaimed under the Principal Act or not, and shall, in any case in which any vine in such vineyard has been found diseased, report forthwith the fact to the Minister.

Vine Diseases Act Amendment.

3. The Board, after inspection of any vineyard, and with the consent of the Minister, may direct any Inspector or Assistant Inspector to root up and destroy any vines in such vineyard found to be diseased, in such manner and at such time as they shall authorize and require.
- 5 And every such direction shall be as sufficient an authority to such Inspector or Assistant Inspector as if the same had been given by the Minister.
4. Before any vines shall be rooted up or destroyed pursuant to the last preceding section, the Board shall endeavour to agree with the owner of the said vines as to the compensation to be paid to him for injury caused to his property by reason of such rooting up or destruction; but if the Board and such owner cannot agree as to the amount of the compensation within fourteen days from the date of a notice to treat to be given by the Board to the owner, then the Board may direct such rooting up or destruction of vines to be carried out forthwith; and the compensation in that case shall be determined by the Board, subject to the approval of the Minister. In no case shall any greater amount of compensation be awarded than the actual cost of formation of the vineyard or portion thereof in which vines shall have been rooted up or destroyed pursuant to this Act.
5. After the passing of this Act the Board shall be composed of five persons to be appointed by the Governor, any three of whom shall be a quorum.

Board may direct Inspector, &c., to root up and destroy vines, &c.

When compensation to be settled.

Number of Board.

[3d.]

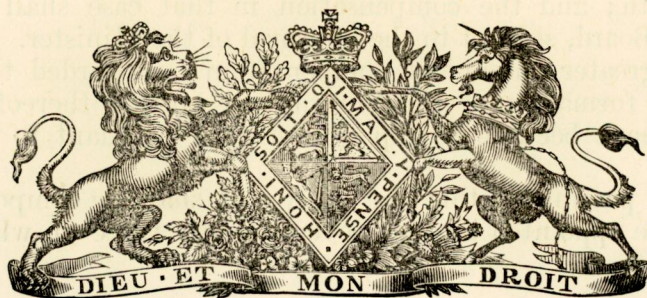

Sydney : Charles Potter, Government Printer.—1888.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 1 May, 1888. }

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to enlarge the powers conferred by, and amend, the “Vine Diseases Act, 1886.”

WHEREAS it is desirable to give certain powers which they do Preamble.
not now possess to the Board appointed under the “Vine
Diseases Act 1886,” and also to amend the said Act in certain respects;
Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by 5 and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled,
and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the “Vine Diseases Act Amend- Short title and ment Act of 1888”; and the expressions used in it shall bear the same construction.
10 meanings respectively as are attributed to them in the “Vine Diseases
Act 1886,” herein termed the “Principal Act.”

2. The Board, or any person by them authorized in writing, Board may enter and may, at any time after giving twenty-four hours notice of the intention inspect vineyards.
15 vineyard, whether the same be in a district proclaimed under the Principal Act or not, and shall, in any case in which any vine in such vineyard has been found diseased, report forthwith the fact to the Minister.

Vine Diseases Act Amendment.

3. The Board, after inspection of any vineyard, and with the consent of the Minister, may direct any Inspector or Assistant Inspector to root up and destroy any vines in such vineyard found to be diseased, in such manner and at such time as they shall authorize and require.
- 5 And every such direction shall be as sufficient an authority to such Inspector or Assistant Inspector as if the same had been given by the Minister.
4. Before any vines shall be rooted up or destroyed pursuant to the last preceding section, the Board shall endeavour to agree with the owner of the said vines as to the compensation to be paid to him for injury caused to his property by reason of such rooting up or destruction; but if the Board and such owner cannot agree as to the amount of the compensation within fourteen days from the date of a notice to treat to be given by the Board to the owner, then the Board may direct such rooting up or destruction of vines to be carried out forthwith; and the compensation in that case shall be determined by the Board, subject to the approval of the Minister. In no case shall any greater amount of compensation be awarded than the actual cost of formation of the vineyard or portion thereof in which vines shall have been rooted up or destroyed pursuant to this Act.
5. After the passing of this Act the Board shall be composed of five persons to be appointed by the Governor, any three of whom shall be a quorum.

Board may direct Inspector, &c., to root up and destroy vines, &c.

When compensation to be settled.

Number of Board.