The persons hereinafter described as girls shall receive their allowances respectively, until they attain the age of fifteen years, or become annuitants.

and G. Hamilton, the Mayor of Melbourne, the Mayor of Wollongong, C. H. Hannell, T. W. Garlick, Henry Fry, and James Hunt. And whereas the said sum of money was chiefly deposited at interest in several of the public banks of the Colony of New South Wales, in order that the same might be applied to the purposes aforesaid, in such manner as the said Committee should direct. And whereas the sum of Thirty-six thousand one hundred and seventy-four pounds one shilling and seven pence, being a portion of the said sum of money, remained on the thirtieth day of September now last passed in the said several banks unexpended. And whereas the said Committee have agreed to a scheme for the distribution of the said sum of Thirty-six thousand one hundred and seventy-four pounds one shilling and seven pence, and of the income to be derived therefrom, which said scheme, subject to the several payments made out of the said fund since the thirtieth day of September last, is set forth in the Schedule to this Act. And whereas the persons forming the said Bulli Colliery Disaster Fund Executive Committee are anxious to be relieved from the duties and obligations imposed on them in connection with the management and control of the said moneys. And whereas it is expedient that they should therefore be relieved therefrom, and that trustees should be appointed and provision be made for enforcing the conditions on which such moneys have been allotted, and for the proper and legal management of the said fund. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Quorum and appointment of officers.

7. then of controlling, managing, and administering the fund, and carrying this Act into effect, such latter expenses however not to exceed the sum of two hundred pounds per annum, and then in making payments to the persons named in and in accordance with the provisions of the Schedule hereto. Provided nevertheless that if at any time it shall appear necessary for the trustees to make any special exception in favour of paying any of the parties named in the said Schedule, or that may hereafter be proved to be in need of relief, a lump sum in satisfaction of any such relief, it shall be lawful for, but not compulsory upon the trustees by special resolution duly passed at a meeting of the trustees, to make such payment in full, and thereupon and thereafter any person receiving such allowance shall have no further payment made to him or her, or have any claim whatever upon the fund. And all payments in the nature of a lump sum that shall have been heretofore made by the said Executive Committee shall be deemed in full satisfaction of his or her interest in the fund.

11. In order that a complete and final distribution and winding up of the fund may be effected, it shall be lawful for the trustees, and they are hereby empowered once in every three years, dating from the said thirtieth day of September now last past, to hold a special meeting of the trustees, at which meeting the state of the fund shall be considered and the plan for the distribution of the same may be readjusted and the relief to be afforded to the said sufferers may be increased, diminished, or extended, and the Schedule hereto be altered accordingly as the state of the fund and then existing circumstances may require, and as to the trustees may seem expedient.

12. Any resolution so altering the said Schedule shall be passed by the majority of the trustees present at such meeting and shall be entered upon the proceedings of the meetings of the trustees, and a copy of the resolution of the trustees signed by the chairman of the said meeting shall be registered in the office of the Registrar-General free of charge, and shall also be published once in the Government Gazette.

13. No fresh or new applications for relief shall be entertained by the trustees after the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

14. It shall be lawful for but not imperative upon the trustees at any time and from time to time after the said thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and after any resolution passed by the majority of the trustees at a meeting called for that purpose, to purchase an annuity or annuities to be paid and payable to such person or persons as they shall think fit, who shall, on the said thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, be recipients of relief from the fund, and such annuities if so purchased shall be terminable at the times corresponding to the periods when the sums mentioned in the Schedule hereunder written shall cease to be payable, and shall be a full and absolute payment in satisfaction of any relief granted by the trustees, and thereafter no such annuitant shall be entitled to any further payment whatever from the fund.

15. The official trustees of the fund may institute or defend any action or suit relative to any securities taken by the trustees in the names of the said official trustees for the purposes of the fund, and may, by the direction of the trustees, institute, prosecute, or abandon any suit or action, civil or criminal, that may at any time become or be considered necessary for the protection, recovery, or due administration of the fund, or the investments thereof, and may defend any action or suit in respect thereof, and in every such action, suit, or proceeding, they may be styled the official trustees trustees of the Bulli Colliery Disaster Fund, without more, and any such action, suit, or proceeding, shall not be affected by any change in the persons for the time being holding the position of official trustees. All expenses incurred by the said official trustees in any such action or 5 suit shall be a charge upon the fund.

16. In all deeds or other instruments the official trustees of the said Bulli Colliery Disaster Fund may be so styled without the names or name of them, or any of them, being expressed.

17. The accounts of the trustees for the year ending on the thirtieth day of September, in each year, shall be audited by such persons and in such manner as the trustees may from time to time direct.

Audit of accounts.

18. The trustees shall in each and every year, as soon as the yearly audit of their accounts is complete, cause to be prepared a statement, to be signed by the chairman of the trustees for the time being, of all moneys received and expended by them, and the same shall be published once in the Government Gazette.

Statement of receipts and expenditure to be advertised.

19. If any person named in the Schedule hereto, whether of full age or a minor shall, whilst entitled to any payment from the fund, become possessed of any means of support from any other source other than his or her own earnings, the trustees shall reduce the amount of such payments, or may cease to make any such payments to such person. The trustees, notwithstanding that they have previously reduced the amount of, or ceased to make any such payments as aforesaid to any person, may increase the amount of such payment to the amount which would be payable under the provisions of the said Schedule, or to any smaller amount, or may where any such payments have been wholly discontinued by them, again make such payments as may be authorized by the provisions of the said Schedule.

Persons named in Schedule becoming possessed of means of support.

20. If any person named in the said Schedule be in the receipt of relief from, or become an inmate of any charitable institution (except on account of temporary illness or temporary bodily infirmity), such person shall cease to be entitled to receive any payments from the fund. If any person named in the said Schedule shall dispose of, transfer, anticipate, or assign his or her interest in any moneys coming to him or her from the fund, or attempt so to do, all payments therefrom, to or on behalf of such person, shall thereupon cease.

20. Every agreement made by any trustees or officers to pay any money out of the fund, except as herein provided, shall be null and void, and any trustee or other officer making such agreement, or paying any moneys out of the fund contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall immediately cease to be a trustee, and shall be removed from the office of trustee, and a new trustee shall be appointed in his place.

Misappropriation of moneys.

21. If the trustees hereby constituted, or any of them, or any trustees or trustee to be appointed as hereinafter provided, or by any Court of competent jurisdiction, including any official trustee or trustees, shall die, or go to reside abroad, or desire to be discharged, or refuse or become incapable to act in the trusts hereof, or be removed as hereinbefore mentioned, the remaining trustees shall at a meeting to be duly convened for that purpose, within fourteen days of the occurrence of the vacancy, appoint some fit and proper person or persons residing in the Colony of New South Wales to be a new trustee or trustees or new official trustee or trustees, as the case may be, in the place of the trustee or trustees so dying or going to reside abroad, or desiring to be discharged, or refusing or becoming incapable to act, or being removed as aforesaid. Provided always that no appointment of a new trustee or trustees shall be deemed invalid because it shall not have been made within the time hereinbefore limited for the exercise of the power of appointing new trustees. Provided also that an entry made in the minute book of the meetings of the trustees and duly registered as aforesaid, of the appointment of any person or persons to be new trustee or trustees, or new official trustee or trustees, and purporting to be signed by the chairman at the meeting at which such appointment purports to have been made, shall be conclusive evidence of such appointment, and such appointment shall not afterwards be disputed on any ground whatsoever.

22. The receipt and receipts in writing of the trustees or the official trustees, for any moneys paid to them by any person, shall be sufficient discharge to such person, and he shall not be bound to enquire into the right of the said official or other trustees to receive the same, nor be answerable for any misapplication or nonapplication thereof.

23. The trustees or trustee, official trustees or official trustee for the time being of this Act, shall be respectively chargeable only for such moneys, stocks, funds, and securities as they shall respectively actually receive, notwithstanding their respectively signing any receipt for the sake of conformity, and shall be answerable and accountable only for their own acts, receipts, neglects, defaults, and not for those of each other, nor for any banker, broker, or other person with whom any moneys or securities belonging to the said fund may be deposited, nor for the insufficiency or deficiency of any stocks, funds, or securities, nor for any other loss, unless the same shall happen through their own wilful default respectively.

24. The trustees shall have power from time to time to make, alter, and repeal regulations and by-laws not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, for regulating their proceedings and the conduct of their business, for regulating the duties of their officers and employés, and for taking security for the due and faithful performance of their duty by such officers and employés, and generally for carrying out the provisions of this Act.

SCHEDULE.

A QUARTERLY allowance of the sum of money set opposite the name of each person shall be paid to such person by the trustees, on the thirty-first day of December, the thirty-first day of March, the thirtieth day of June, and the thirtieth day of September in each year, or so soon thereafter as conveniently can be, but such payments shall cease in all cases where an annuity may be purchased under the provisions in the Act.

The persons hereinafter described as widows, chaste, and of good repute respectively, so long as they remain widows, chaste, and of good repute.

If any widow shall again marry, the trustees shall pay her a sum of one hundred pounds, when all further claim by her upon the fund shall cease, but should any widow at the time of marriage be an annuitant, this provision shall be considered as satisfied.

The persons hereinafter described as boys shall receive their allowances respectively, until they attain the age of fifteen years, or become annuitants.

The persons hereinafter described as girls shall receive their allowances respectively, until they attain the age of fifteen years, or become annuitants.

Should any person or persons, other than those hereinafter mentioned, within the period of three years from the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, make any application to the trustees for relief out of the fund, the trustees may entertain such application, and may grant such relief as they, under the circumstances proved to them, may think fit, or may refuse such relief.

The provisions of this Schedule shall be read and construed as though the same took effect on the thirtieth September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.
