PART I.

Preliminary.

Conditions prior to acquisition of lands.

2. Before the Company shall put into force any of the provisions contained in this Act with respect to the acquisition of land otherwise than by agreement, the following conditions and provisions shall be observed :-

- (I) The Company shall publish once at the least in each of three consecutive weeks in some local newspaper circulating in the District, a notice describing shortly the nature of the undertaking in respect of which it is proposed to take any lands, naming the Broken Hill Court-house as the place where a plan of the proposed undertaking may be seen at all reasonable hours, and stating the quantity of lands required.
- (II) The Company shall serve a printed or written notice on every owner or reputed owner, lessee or reputed lessee, and occupier of such lands, defining in each case the particular lands intended to be taken, and requiring an answer to be given within thirty days, stating whether the person so served assents, dissents, or is neutral, in respect of taking such lands.

(III) On compliance with the provisions of this section with respect to notices, the Company may, if it thinks fit, present a petition to the Governor, and such petition shall state the lands intended to be taken, and the purposes for which they are required, and the names of the owners, lessees, and occupiers of lands who have assented, dissented, or are neutral, in respect to the taking such lands, or who have returned returned no answer to the notice. And it shall pray that the Company may, with reference to such lands, be allowed to put in force the powers contained in Part III of this Act with respect to the acquisition of lands otherwise than by agreement, and such prayer shall be supported by such evidence as the Governor may require.

- (IV) On the receipt of such petition, and on due proof of the proper notices having been published and served, the Governor shall take such petition into consideration, and may either dismiss the same or direct a local inquiry, at the cost of the Company, as to the propriety of assenting to the prayer of such petition, but until such inquiry has been made no provisional order shall be made affecting any lands without the consent of the owners, lessees, and occupiers thereof.
- (v) After the completion of such inquiry the Governor may, by provisional order, empower the Company to put in force with reference to the lands referred to in such order, the powers of the said Part, with respect to the acquisition of lands, otherwise than by agreement or any of them, and either absolutely or with such conditions and modifications as the Governor may think fit; and it shall be the duty of the Company to serve a copy of any order so made in the manner and on the person in which and on whom notices in respect of such lands are required to be served.

PART II.

Provisions as to Water Supply.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Act, and within the area Authority to as described in the First Schedule hereto, the Company may, subject to construct the approval of the Governor, exercise any of the powers in this Part works. contained for the construction of water-works for the supply of water to the Municipal District of Broken Hill, and to any Municipal District or Borough which may be established within or partly within the boundaries of the catchment area as defined in the First Schedule, and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act the Company may

- (I) Enter upon any lands and take levels of the same, and set out such parts thereof as it shall think necessary.
- (II) Enter upon, take, and hold such land, after having paid, as hereinafter provided, the owners thereof compensation for the same as it may from time to time deem necessary for the construction and maintainance of any of the works authorized by this Act, or for obtaining or enlarging the supply of water, or for improving the quality thereof for the purposes of this Act.
- (III) Under such superintendence, and subject to such consent, as are hereinafter specified enter upon any Crown or private lands, streets, roads, or thoroughfares, and lay or place therein any pipes, and may repair, alter, or cut off, or remove the same, and under such superintendence, and subject to such consent as aforesaid, may enter upon any such lands, streets, roads, or thoroughfares, for the purpose of repairing any watercourses, or other works, being its property or under its control.

Provided always that in the exercise of any of the powers hereby conferred, the Company shall inflict as little damage as may be, and in

water-

in all cases where it can be done, shall provide other watering-places, drains, and channels, for the use of adjoining lands in place of any taken away or interrupted by it, and shall make full compensation to all parties interested, for all damage sustained by them through the exercise of such powers. It shall not be lawful for the Company to exercise any of the powers conferred upon it by this Act until the plans or scheme for the proposed work shall have been first approved by the Governor, and such approval duly notified in the Gazette. Provided also that nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice or affect the rights and privileges of any Municipal District or Borough now or hereafter to be established within the area described in the First Schedule hereto.

4. Every person who shall wilfully obstruct any person acting under the authority of the Company in setting out the line of any works undertaken under the authority of this Part, or pull up, or remove, any poles or stakes driven into the ground for the purpose of setting out the line of such works, or alter the position of any level, or destroy or injure any works so undertaken as aforesaid, shall incur a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every such offence.

5. If any person unlawfully and maliciously destroy or damage, or attempt to destroy or damage, any reservoir, dam, tank, tunnel, watercourse, drain, sluice, main, pipe, aqueduct, bridge, road, way, or engine, or any other part whatever of the works of the Company, every such offender shall be guilty of felony, and shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding ten years.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Act the Company may open and break up the soil and pavement of the several streets and bridges within the limits of the district, and may open and break up any sewers, drains, or tunnels within or under such streets and bridges, and lay down and place within the same limits, pipes, conduits, service pipes, and other works and engines, and from time to time repair, alter, or remove the same, and for the purposes aforesaid remove and use all earth and materials in and under such streets and bridges, and do all other acts which the Company shall from time to time deem necessary for supplying water to the inhabitants of the district included within the said limits. Before the Company proceed to open or break up any pavement, street, road, sewer, drain, or tunnel, or to interfere with, divert, or alter any pipe not their own, or any wire used for transmission of electricity, bridge, or culvert, they shall give to the local authority under whose management or control the same may be, and, in the case of a pipe or wire, to the owners thereof, or their local representative, notice in writing of their intention to open and break up, or otherwise to interfere with the same, not less than seven clear days before beginning the work, except in cases of emergency, arising from accidents to, or defects in, the pipes, or other works, the property of the Company, and then so soon as is possible after the necessity for the work shall have arisen.

7. When the Company shall open or break up the road, path, or pavement of any street or bridge, or any sewer, drain, or tunnel, culvert-pipe wire, it shall with all convenient speed complete the work for which the same shall be broken up, and fill in the ground and reinstate and make good to the satisfaction of the local authority or its officer the road, path, or pavement of the sewer, drain, tunnel, culvert-wire, or pipe, so opened or broken up, and carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby. And shall at all times whilst any such road or pavement shall be so open or broken up cause the same to be fenced and guarded, and shall cause light sufficient for the warning of passengers to be set up and kept there for every night during which such

Provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall have any effect or operation unless the approval of the Governor shall first have been obtained with respect to the land so required, and the said Company shall have made such compensation and payments as the Local Land Board may determine, subject to the provision of the "Crown Lands Act of 1884" and any amendments of the same.

43. Where the land described in any such notification consists Compensation for wholly or partly of land alienated by or not the property of the private lands. Crown, or is not Crown Land as defined by this Act, the owners thereof shall be entitled to receive such sum of money by way of compensation for the land so described as shall be agreed upon or otherwise ascertained under the provisions hereinafter contained.

44. The estate and interest of every person entitled to lands Conversion of estate required under this Act, or any portion thereof, and whether to the of proprietor of resumed land into a legal or equitable estate therein, shall upon due payment of the claim. amount of compensation tendered by the Company, and accepted by the owner, or assessed by the jury as hereinafter provided, be deemed to have been as fully and effectually conveyed to the Company as if the same had been conveyed by the persons legally or equitably entitled entitled thereto by means of the most perfect assurances in the law. And every person shall upon asserting his claim, as hereinafter provided, and making out his title in respect of any portion of the said resumed lands, be entitled to compensation on account of such resumption in manner hereinafter provided.

45. Every person claiming compensation in respect of any land so required, or in respect of any work or other matter done under the authority of this Act, shall, within ninety days from the publication of such notification or at any time afterwards within such extended time as a Judge of the Supreme Court shall, upon the application of the claimant, appoint in that behalf, serve a notice in writing upon the Company, which notice shall set forth the nature of the estate or interest of the claimant in such land, together with an abstract of his title, and if he claims, in respect of damage, the nature of the damage which he has sustained or will sustain by reason of the taking of his land or of such work or matter as aforesaid, and such notice may be in form of the Second Schedule hereto, but with any modifications required by the nature of the claim.

46. Within sixty days after the receipt of every such notice of claim the Company shall cause a valuation of the land or of the estate or interest of the claimant therein to be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and shall inform the claimant as soon as practicable of the amount of such valuation by notice in the form of the Third Schedule hereto.

47. If within ninety days after the service of notice of claim the claimant and the company shall not agree as to the amount of compensation, the claimant shall be at liberty to institute proceedings in the Supreme Court in the form of an action for compensation against the Company. And any such action may be tried before a Judge of the said Court or in any Circuit Court and a jury of four persons. Provided always that, upon proper application, either of the Company or of the claimant, a special jury of twelve may be summoned for trial of such action. Provided also that with the consent in writing of the Company and the claimant, any such action may be so tried at any time (to be mentioned in such consent) before the expiration of ninety days from service of the notice of claim for compensation, but not within fourteen days from service of the notice of valuation on such claimant.

48. The issue to be tried in any such action shall be whether compensation verdict the claimant is entitled to a larger sum by way of compensation than the amount of the valuation so made by the Company and notified to the claimant as aforesaid, and if so, to what sum. And if upon the trial of the said action the verdict shall be for a greater sum than the amount of the said valuation, the costs of the action shall be borne by the Company, but if the verdict shall be for a sum equal to such valuation then each party shall bear its own costs, or less than such valuation then the costs shall be borne by the claimant.

49. All moneys payable under this Act by way of compensation to any claimant, whether under the verdict of a jury or otherwise, shall be paid, together with costs (if any) and interest at the rate of six pounds per centum per annum, within one month after the determination of such compensation to the person lawfully entitled thereto, or to his agent duly authorized in that behalf in writing, but the claimant shall be bound to make out his title to the estate or interest claimed by him, in all cases where the claim is in respect of the deprivation of some estate or interest in land, and no interest shall be payable except from the time when such title shall have been made out. Provided that in the case of land under the surface taken for the purpose of constructing a subterranean tunnel for water supply or sewerage, no compensation

60. All payments which shall be made in any of the cases aforesaid to the parties entitled under this Act to receive the same shall be a good and valid discharge to the Company; and such Company shall not be bound or required to see to the application of any of the moneys paid to the Master in Equity or other person by virtue hereof, or to see to the performance of any trusts.

61. Where any purchase money or compensation paid or deposited pursuant to this Act shall have been paid in respect of any lease for a life or lives or years, or for a life or lives and years, or any estate in lands less than the whole fee simple thereof, or of any reversion dependent on any such lease or estate, the said Court or Judge may, on the petition of any party interested in such money, order that the same shall be laid out, invested, accumulated, and paid in such manner as the said Court or Judge may consider will give to the parties interested in such money the same benefit therefrom as they might lawfully have had from the lease, estate, or reversion in respect of which such money shall have been paid or deposited, or as near thereto as may be.

62. If the owner of any lands taken or purchased under the compensation may in authority of this Act, or of any interest therein, on tender of the purchase money or compensation either agreed or awarded to be paid in respect thereof,

- (I) Refuse to accept the same;
- (II) Neglect or fail to make out a title to such lands or to the interest therein claimed by him, to the satisfaction of the Company;
- (III) Refuse to convey or release such lands as directed by the Company;
- (IV) Be absent from the Colony or cannot, after diligent inquiry, be found;

The Company may, if it shall think fit, deposit the purchase money or compensation payable in respect of such lands or any interest therein in the hands of the Master in Equity, to be by him deposited as aforesaid to his account to the credit of the parties interested in such lands (describing them so far as he can do) subject to the control and disposition of the said Court.

63. Upon the application by petition of any party making money so deposited. claim to the money so deposited as last aforesaid or any part thereof, or to the lands in respect whereof the same shall have been so deposited, or any part of such lands, or any interest in the same, the said Court or Judge may in a summary way, as to such Court or Judge shall seem fit, order such money to be laid out or invested in the purchase of Government Debentures or real securities; or may order distribution thereof or payments of the dividends thereof, according to the respective estates, titles or interest of the parties making claim to such money or lands or any part thereof, and may make such other order in the premises as to such Court or Judge shall seem fit.

64. If any question arise respecting the title to the lands, in respect whereof such moneys shall have been so paid or deposited as aforesaid, the parties respectively in possession of such lands as being the owners thereof or in receipt of the rents of such lands as being entitled thereto at the time of such lands being purchased or taken, shall be deemed to have been lawfully entitled to such lands, until the contrary be shown to the satisfaction of the Court; and unless, upon such inquiry as the Court shall think fit to direct, the contrary be shown as aforesaid, the parties so in possession and all parties claiming under them or consistently with their possession, shall be deemed entitled to the money so deposited, and to the dividend or interest of the securities purchased therewith, and the same shall be paid and applied accordingly.

65. In all cases of moneys deposited under the provisions of Costs in case of this Act, except where such moneys shall have been so deposited by money deposited. reason of the wilful refusal of any party entitled thereto to receive the same, or to convey or release the lands in respect whereof the same shall be payable, or by reason of the neglect of any party to make out a good title to the land required, the said Court or Judge may order the costs of the following matters, including therein all reasonable charges and expenses incident thereto, to be paid by the Company (that is to say) the costs of-

- (1) The purchase or taking of the lands or which shall have been incurred in consequence thereof, other than such costs as are herein otherwise provided for;
- (11) The investment of such moneys in Government Debentures or real securities and of the reinvestment thereof in the purchase of other lands;
- (III) Obtaining the proper orders for any of the purposes aforesaid, and of the orders for the payment of the dividends and interest of the securities upon which such moneys shall be invested, and for the payment out of Court of the principal of such moneys or of the securities whereon the same shall be invested;
- (IV) All proceedings relating thereto, except such as are occasioned by litigation between adverse claimants.

Provided always that the cost of one application only for reinvestment in land shall be allowed, unless it shall appear to the said Court or Judge that it is for the benefit of the parties interested in the said moneys that the same should be invested in the purchase of lands, in different sums and at different times; in which case the Court may, if it think fit, order the costs of any such investment to be paid by the Company.

66. If, in any case in which, according to the provisions of Proceeding in case this Act, the Company is authorized to enter upon and take possession of refusal to deliver of any lands required for the purpose of the work, the owner or occupier of any such lands or any other person refuse to give up the possession thereof, or hinder the Company from entering upon or taking possession of the same, it shall be lawful for such a Judge of the Supreme Court upon application by the Company to issue his warrant to the Sheriff to deliver possession of the same to the person appointed in such warrant to receive the same. Upon the receipt of such warrant the Sheriff shall deliver possession of any such lands accordingly; and the cost accruing, by reason of the issuing and execution of such warrant, to be settled by the Sheriff, shall be paid by the person refusing to give possession; and the amount of such costs shall be deducted and retained by the Company from the compensation, if any, then payable to such party, or if no such compensation be payable to such party, or if the same be less than the amount of such costs, then such costs or the excess thereof beyond such compensation, if not paid on demand, shall be levied by distress, and upon application to any Justice for that purpose he shall issue his warrant accordingly.

67. (I) The Company may purchase or redeem the interest Power to redeem of the mortgagee of any such lands which may be required for the mortgagee. purposes of this Act; and that whether it shall have previously purchased the equity of redemption of such lands or not; and whether the mortgagee thereof be entitled thereto in his own right or in trust for any other party; and whether he be in possession of such lands by virtue of such mortgage or not; and whether such mortgage affect such lands solely or jointly with any other lands not required for the purposes of this Act. 01.1 101 111 1.1.1 в (II)

(II) In order thereto, the Company may pay or tender to such mortgagee the principal and interest due on such mortgage, together with his costs and charges, if any, and also six months' additional interest; and thereupon such mortgagee shall immediately convey his interest in the lands comprised in such mortgage to the Company or as it shall direct.

(III) The Company may give notice in writing to such mortgagee that it will pay off the principal and interest due on such mortgage at the end of six months, computed from the day of giving such notice; and if it shall have given any such notice, or if the party entitled to the equity of redemption of any such lands shall have given six months notice of his intention to redeem the same, then, at the expiration of either of such notices, or at any intermediate period, upon payment or tender by the Company to the mortgagee of the principal money due on such mortgage and the interest which would become due at the end of six months from the time of giving either of such notices, together with his costs and expenses, if any, such mortgagee shall convey or release his interest in the lands comprised in such mortgage to the Company, or as it shall direct.

68. If, in either of the cases aforesaid, upon such payment or tender, any mortgagee shall fail to convey or release his interest in such mortgage as directed by the Company, or if he fail to adduce a good title thereto to its satisfaction, then it shall be lawful for the Company to pay into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him in the manner provided by this Act in the cases of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity, the principal and interest, together with the costs, if any, due on such mortgage; and if such payment be made before the expiration of six months notice as aforesaid, such further interest as would at the time become due; and also, if the Company think fit, to execute a deed poll, containing a description of the lands in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made and describing the circumstances under which and the names of the parties to whose credit such deposit shall have been made, and such deed poll shall be duly registered by the Company. And thereupon, as well as upon such conveyance by the mortgagee, if any such be made, all the estate and interest of such mortgagee and of all persons in trust for him or for whom he may be a trustee in such lands shall vest in the Company, and the Company shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof, in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession.

69. (I) If any of such mortgaged lands shall be of less value mortgage exceeds the than the principal, interest, and costs secured thereon, the value of value of the lands. such lands or the compensation to be made by the Company in respect thereof shall be settled by agreement between the mortgagee of such lands and the party entitled to the equity of redemption thereof on the one part, and the Company on the other part.

(II) If the parties aforesaid fail to agree, respecting the amount of such value or compensation, the same shall be determined, as in other cases of disputed compensation.

(III) The amount of such value or compensation being so agreed upon or determined shall be paid by the Company to the mortgagee, in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend; and upon payment or tender thereof the mortgagee shall convey or release all his interest in such mortgaged lands to the Company or as it shall direct.

70. If, upon such payment or tender as aforesaid being made, any such mortgagee fail so to convey his interest in such mortgage or to adduce a good title thereto to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such value

value or compensation into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him, in the manner provided by this Act in like case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and every such payment or deposit shall be accepted by the mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend, and shall be a full discharge of such mortgaged lands from all money due thereon; and the Company may, if it think fit, execute a deed poll in manner hereinbefore provided. And thereupon such lands, as to all such estate and interest as were then vested in the mortgagee or any person in trust for him, shall become absolutely vested in the Company and the Company shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession. Nevertheless, all rights and remedies possessed by the mortgagee against the mortgagor, by virtue of any bond or covenant or other obligation, other than the rights to such lands, shall remain in force, in respect of so much of the mortgage debt as shall not have been satisfied by such payment or deposit.

71. (1) If a part only of any such mortgaged lands be required sum to be paid for the purposes of this Act, and if the part so required be of less value where part only mortgaged lands than the principal money, interest, and costs secured on such lands, and taken. the mortgagee shall not consider the remaining part of such lands a sufficient security for the money charged thereon, or be not willing to release the part so required, then the value of such part and also the compensation (if any) to be paid in respect of the severance thereof or otherwise shall be settled by agreement between the mortgagee and the party entitled to the equity of redemption of such land on the one part, and the Company on the other part.

(II) If the parties aforesaid fail to agree respecting the amount of such value or compensation, the same shall be determined as in other cases of disputed possession.

(III) The amount of such value or compensation being so agreed upon or determined shall be paid by the Company to such mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend; and thereupon such mortgagee shall convey or release to the Company or as it shall direct, all his interest in such mortgaged lands, the value whereof shall have been so paid, and a memorandum of what shall have been so paid shall be endorsed on the deed creating such mortgage, and shall be signed by the mortgagee, and a copy of such memorandum shall at the same time (if required) be furnished by the Company, at the expense of the Company, to the party entitled to the equity of redemption of the lands comprised in such mortgage deed.

72. If, upon any payment or tender to any such mortgagee of Deposit of money the amount of the value or compensation so agreed upon or deter- when refused on tender. mined, such mortgagee shall fail to convey or release to the Company or as it shall direct, his interest in the lands, in respect of which such compensation shall so have been paid or tendered, or if he shall fail to adduce a good title thereto to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such value or com-pensation into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him in the manner provided by this Act in the case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and such payment or deposit shall be accepted by such mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend, and shall be a full discharge of the portion of the mortgaged lands so required from all money due thereon; and also, if he think fit, to execute a deed poll in the manner hereinbefore provided. And thereupon such lands shall become absolutely vested in the Company, as to all such estate and interest as were then vested in the mortgagee or any person in trust for him, and in

in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession he shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof. Nevertheless, every such mortgagee shall have the same powers and remedies for recovering or compelling payment of the mortgage money or the residue thereof (as the case may be) and the interest thereof respectively, upon and out of the residue of such mortgaged lands or the portion thereof not required for the purposes of this Act as he would otherwise have had or been entitled to for recovering or compelling payment thereof, upon or out of the whole of the lands originally comprised in such mortgage.

73. If any difference shall arise between the Company and the party entitled to any rent-service, rent-charge, chief or other rent, or other payment, or incumbrance, not hereinbefore provided for, upon any lands taken for the purposes of this Act, respecting the consideration to be paid for the release of such lands therefrom, or from the portion thereof affecting the lands required for the purposes of this Act, the same shall be determined as in other cases of disputed compensation.

74. If part only of the lands charged with any such rentservice, rent-charge, chief-rent, or other rent-payment or incumbrance, be taken for the purposes of this Act, the apportionment of any such charge may be settled by agreement between the party entitled to such charge and the owner of the lands on the one part and the Company on the other part; and, if such apportionment be not so settled by agreement, the same shall be settled by two Justices. But if the remaining part of the lands so jointly subject be a sufficient security for such charge, then, with consent of the owner of the lands so jointly subject, it shall be lawful for the party entitled to such charge to release therefrom the lands required, on condition or in consideration of such other lands remaining exclusively subject to the whole thereof. 75. 75. Upon payment or tender of the compensation so agreed upon or determined to the party entitled to any such charge as aforesaid, such party shall execute to the Company a release of such charge. If he fail so to do, or if he fail to adduce a good title to such charge to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such compensation into the hands of the Master in Equity to be dealt with by him in the manner hereinbefore provided in the case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and also if the Company think fit to execute a deed poll, in the manner herein provided for in the case of the purchase of lands by it. And thereupon the rent-service, rent-charge, chief or other rent, payment or incumbrance, or the portion thereof in respect whereof such compensation shall so have been paid, shall cease and be extinguished.

76. If any such lands or portion thereof be so released from any such charge or incumbrance to which they were subject jointly with other lands, such lastmentioned lands shall alone be charged with the whole of such charge or with the remainder thereof, as the case may be, and the party entitled to the charge shall have all the same rights and remedies over such lastmentioned lands, for the whole or for the remainder of the charge, as the case may be, as he had previously over the whole of the lands subject to such charge. If, upon any such charge, or portion of charge, being so released, the deed or instrument creating or transferring such charge be tendered to the Company for the purpose, it shall affix its seal to a memorandum of such release, indorsed on such deed or instrument, declaring what part of the lands originally subject to such charge shall have been purchased by virtue of this Act, and if the lands be released from part of such charge, what proportion of such charge shall have been released, and how

88. If any difference arise respecting the kind or number of any such accommodation works, or the dimensions or sufficiency thereof respecting the maintaining thereof, the same shall be determined by the Governor, who shall also appoint the time within which such works shall be commenced and executed.

89. If any of the owners or occupiers of lands affected by the works of the Company shall consider the accommodation works made additional accommo-by any Municipal Council or directed by the Governor to be made by the Company, insufficient for the commodious use of their respective lands, it shall be lawful for any such owner or occupier, at any time, at his own expense, to make such further works for that purpose as he shall think necessary, and as shall be agreed to by the Company.

90. If the Company so desire, all such lastmentioned accommodation works shall be constructed under the superintendence of the Company's engineer, and according to plans and specifications to be submitted to and approved by the Company. But the Company shall not be entitled to require either that plans shall be adopted which will involve a greater expense than that incurred in the execution of similar works by the Company, or that the plans selected should be executed in a more expensive manner than that adopted in similar cases by the Company.

91. If any person omit to shut any gate set up for the accommodation of the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands as soon as he and the carriages, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds.

PART IV.

Miscellaneous Provisions-Legal Procedure.

92. Except as hereinbefore provided with respect to penalties for contamination of the water, one-half of any penalty recovered under this Act shall be paid to the informer; and where any distress is made for any sum of money to be levied under this Act, the distress itself shall not be unlawful, nor the persons making the same be deemed trespassers, on account of any defect or want of form in the information, summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceedings relating thereto, nor shall the persons distraining be deemed tresspassers on account of any irregularity that shall be afterwards done by the persons distraining, but the persons aggrieved by such irregularities may recover satisfaction for the special damage in an action on the case.

93. PART I.

Preliminary.

Conditions prior to acquisition of lands.

2. Before the Company shall put into force any of the provisions contained in this Act with respect to the acquisition of land otherwise than by agreement, the following conditions and provisions shall be observed :--

- (I) The Company shall publish once at the least in each of three consecutive weeks in some local newspaper circulating in the District, a notice describing shortly the nature of the undertaking in respect of which it is proposed to take any lands, naming the Broken Hill Court-house as the place where a plan of the proposed undertaking may be seen at all reasonable hours, and stating the quantity of lands required.
- (II) The Company shall serve a printed or written notice on every owner or reputed owner, lessee or reputed lessee, and occupier of such lands, defining in each case the particular lands intended to be taken, and requiring an answer to be given within thirty days, stating whether the person so served assents, dissents, or is neutral, in respect of taking such lands.
- (III) On compliance with the provisions of this section with respect to notices, the Company may, if it thinks fit, present a petition to the Governor, and such petition shall state the lands intended to be taken, and the purposes for which they are required, and the names of the owners, lessees, and occupiers of lands who have assented, dissented, or are neutral, in respect to the taking such lands, or who have returned returned no answer to the notice. And it shall pray that the Company may, with reference to such lands, be allowed to put in force the powers contained in Part III of this Act with respect to the acquisition of lands otherwise than by agreement, and such prayer shall be supported by such evidence as the Governor may require.

- (IV) On the receipt of such petition, and on due proof of the proper notices having been published and served, the Governor shall take such petition into consideration, and may either dismiss the same or direct a local inquiry, at the cost of the Company, as to the propriety of assenting to the prayer of such petition, but until such inquiry has been made no provisional order shall be made affecting any lands without the consent of the owners, lessees, and occupiers thereof.
- (v) After the completion of such inquiry the Governor may, by provisional order, empower the Company to put in force with reference to the lands referred to in such order, the powers of the said Part, with respect to the acquisition of lands, otherwise than by agreement or any of them, and either absolutely or with such conditions and modifications as the Governor may think fit; and it shall be the duty of the Company to serve a copy of any order so made in the manner and on the person in which and on whom notices in respect of such lands are required to be served.

PART II.

Provisions as to Water Supply.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Act, and within the area Authority to as described in the First Schedule hereto, the Company may, subject to construct the approval of the Governor, exercise any of the powers in this Part works. contained for the construction of water-works for the supply of water to the Municipal District of Broken Hill, and to any Municipal District or Borough which may be established within or partly within the boundaries of the catchment area as defined in the First Schedule, and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act the Company may

- (I) Enter upon any lands and take levels of the same, and set out such parts thereof as it shall think necessary.
- (II) Enter upon, take, and hold such land, after having paid, as hereinafter provided, the owners thereof compensation for the same as it may from time to time deem necessary for the construction and maintainance of any of the works authorized by this Act, or for obtaining or enlarging the supply of water. or for improving the quality thereof for the purposes of this Act.
- (III) Under such superintendence, and subject to such consent, as are hereinafter specified enter upon any Crown or private lands, streets, roads, or thoroughfares, and lay or place therein any pipes, and may repair, alter, or cut off, or remove the same, and under such superintendence, and subject to such consent as aforesaid, may enter upon any such lands, streets, roads, or thoroughfares, for the purpose of repairing any watercourses, or other works, being its property or under its control.

Provided always that in the exercise of any of the powers hereby conferred, the Company shall inflict as little damage as may be, and in

in all cases where it can be done, shall provide other watering-places, drains, and channels, for the use of adjoining lands in place of any taken away or interrupted by it, and shall make full compensation to all parties interested, for all damage sustained by them through the exercise of such powers. It shall not be lawful for the Company to exercise any of the powers conferred upon it by this Act until the plans or scheme for the proposed work shall have been first approved by the Governor, and such approval duly notified in the Gazette. Provided also that nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice or affect the rights and privileges of any Municipal District or Borough now or hereafter to be established within the area described in the First Schedule hereto.

4. Every person who shall wilfully obstruct any person acting under the authority of the Company in setting out the line of any works undertaken under the authority of this Part, or pull up, or remove, any poles or stakes driven into the ground for the purpose of setting out the line of such works, or alter the position of any level, or destroy or injure any works so undertaken as aforesaid, shall incur a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every such offence.

5. If any person unlawfully and maliciously destroy or damage, or attempt to destroy or damage, any reservoir, dam, tank, tunnel, watercourse, drain, sluice, main, pipe, aqueduct, bridge, road, way, or engine, or any other part whatever of the works of the Company, every such offender shall be guilty of felony, and shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding ten years.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Act the Company may open and break up the soil and pavement of the several streets and bridges within the limits of the district, and may open and break up any sewers, drains, or tunnels within or under such streets and bridges, and lay down and place within the same limits, pipes, conduits, service pipes, and other works and engines, and from time to time repair, alter, or remove the same, and for the purposes aforesaid remove and use all earth and materials in and under such streets and bridges, and do all other acts which the Company shall from time to time deem necessary for supplying water to the inhabitants of the district included within the said limits. Before the Company proceed to open or break up any pavement, street, road, sewer, drain, or tunnel, or to interfere with, divert, or alter any pipe not their own, or any wire used for transmission of electricity, bridge, or culvert, they shall give to the local authority under whose management or control the same may be, and, in the case of a pipe or wire, to the owners thereof, or their local representative, notice in writing of their intention to open and break up, or otherwise to interfere with the same, not less than seven clear days before beginning the work, except in cases of emergency, arising from accidents to, or defects in, the pipes, or other works, the property of the Company, and then so soon as is possible after the necessity for the work shall have arisen.

7. When the Company shall open or break up the road, path, or pavement of any street or bridge, or any sewer, drain, or tunnel, culvert-pipe wire, it shall with all convenient speed complete the work for which the same shall be broken up, and fill in the ground and reinstate and make good to the satisfaction of the local authority or its officer the road, path, or pavement of the sewer, drain, tunnel, culvert-wire, or pipe, so opened or broken up, and carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby. 12. Such meters, instruments, pipes, and apparatus shall not be subject to distress for rent of the premises where the same are used, or be liable to be attached or taken in execution under any process of any Court of Law or Equity, or under or in pursuance of any sequestration or order in insolvency, or other legal proceedings against or affecting the consumer of the water, or the occupier of the premises, or other the person in whose possession the meters, pipes, instruments, and apparatus may be.

13. Every person who shall have agreed with the Company for a supply of water by measure shall, at his own expense, unless he hire a meter from the Company, provide a meter, and keep and maintain the same in good working condition to the satisfaction of such officer as may be appointed by the Company; and in the event of any repairs being required, notice in writing shall be immediately given by such person to the Company, and a registration of the quantity used shall be taken before such repairs are effected.

14. The officers of the Company may enter any house, building, or lands, to, through, or into which water is supplied by the Company by measure, in, or to inspect the meters, instruments, pipes, and apparatus for the measuring, conveyance, reception, or storage of water, or for the purpose of ascertaining the quantity of water supplied or consumed, or to examine if there be any waste or misuse of such water; and may from time to time enter any house, building, or lands for the purpose of removing any meter, instrument, pipe, or apparatus the property of the Company; and if any person hinders any such officer from entering or making such inspection or effecting such removal, he shall for each such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, but except with the consent of two Justices a power of entry shall be exercised only between the hours of nine in the forenoon and six in the afternoon.

15. In all the pipes to which any fire-plug is fixed, the Company shall provide and keep constantly laid on for use, unless prevented by unusual drought or other unavoidable accident, or during necessary repairs, a sufficient supply for the following purposes (that is to say), for supplying any public hospitals or charitable institutions, or any public pumps, baths, and washhouses that may be established for the use of the inhabitants, and paid for out of any municipal rates; and such supply shall be provided at such rates and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by any Municipal Council and the Company, or, in case of disagreement, as shall be settled by two Justices. Provided that hospitals and charitable institutions shall be provided with water without charge.

16. The Company, at the request of any Municipal Council in the Borough of which it shall construct its works or any of them, shall fix proper fire-plugs in the main and other pipes belonging to it at such convenient distances and at such places as it may consider proper and convenient for the supply of water for extinguishing any fire which may break out within any such Borough, and shall from time to time renew and keep in effective order every such fire-plug; and shall put up a public notice in some conspicuous place in each street in which such fire-plug is situated, showing its situation; and such notice may be put up on any house, wall, fence, or building in such street;

entitled thereto by means of the most perfect assurances in the law. And every person shall upon asserting his claim, as hereinafter provided, and making out his title in respect of any portion of the said resumed lands, be entitled to compensation on account of such resumption in manner hereinafter provided.

45. Every person claiming compensation in respect of any land so required, or in respect of any work or other matter done under the authority of this Act, shall, within ninety days from the publication of such notification or at any time afterwards within such extended time as a Judge of the Supreme Court shall, upon the application of the claimant, appoint in that behalf, serve a notice in writing upon the Company, which notice shall set forth the nature of the estate or interest of the claimant in such land, together with an abstract of his title, and if he claims, in respect of damage, the nature of the damage which he has sustained or will sustain by reason of the taking of his land or of such work or matter as aforesaid, and such notice may be in form of the Second Schedule hereto, but with any modifications required by the nature of the claim.

46. Within sixty days after the receipt of every such notice of claim the Company shall cause a valuation of the land or of the estate or interest of the claimant therein to be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and shall inform the claimant as soon as practicable of the amount of such valuation by notice in the form of the Third Schedule hereto.

47. If within ninety days after the service of notice of claim the claimant and the company shall not agree as to the amount of compensation, the claimant shall be at liberty to institute proceedings in the Supreme Court in the form of an action for compensation against the Company. And any such action may be tried before a Judge of the said Court or in any Circuit Court and a jury of four persons. Provided always that, upon proper application, either of the Company or of the claimant, a special jury of twelve may be summoned for trial of such action. Provided also that with the consent in writing of the Company and the claimant, any such action may be so tried at any time (to be mentioned in such consent) before the expiration of ninety days from service of the notice of claim for compensation, but not within fourteen days from service of the notice of valuation on such claimant.

48. The issue to be tried in any such action shall be whether the claimant is entitled to a larger sum by way of compensation than the amount of the valuation so made by the Company and notified to the claimant as aforesaid, and if so, to what sum. And if upon the trial of the said action the verdict shall be for a greater sum than the amount of the said valuation, the costs of the action shall be borne by the Company, but if the verdict shall be for a sum equal to such valuation then each party shall bear its own costs, or less than such valuation then the costs shall be borne by the claimant.

49. All moneys payable under this Act by way of compensation to any claimant, whether under the verdict of a jury or otherwise, shall be paid, together with costs (if any) and interest at the rate of six pounds per centum per annum, within one month after the determination of such compensation to the person lawfully entitled thereto, or to his agent duly authorized in that behalf in writing, but the claimant shall be bound to make out his title to the estate or interest claimed by him, in all cases where the claim is in respect of the deprivation of some estate or interest in land, and no interest shall be payable except from the time when such title shall have been made out. 60. All payments which shall be made in any of the cases aforesaid to the parties entitled under this Act to receive the same shall be a good and valid discharge to the Company; and such Company shall not be bound or required to see to the application of any of the moneys paid to the Master in Equity or other person by virtue hereof, or to see to the performance of any trusts.

61. Where any purchase money or compensation paid or deposited pursuant to this Act shall have been paid in respect of any lease for a life or lives or years, or for a life or lives and years, or any estate in lands less than the whole fee simple thereof, or of any reversion dependent on any such lease or estate, the said Court or Judge may, on the petition of any party interested in such money, order that the same shall be laid out, invested, accumulated, and paid in such manner as the said Court or Judge may consider will give to the parties interested in such money the same benefit therefrom as they might lawfully have had from the lease, estate, or reversion in respect of which such money shall have been paid or deposited, or as near thereto as may be.

62. If the owner of any lands taken or purchased under the authority of this Act, or of any interest therein, on tender of the purchase money or compensation either agreed or awarded to be paid in respect thereof,

- (I) Refuse to accept the same;
- (II) Neglect or fail to make out a title to such lands or to the interest therein claimed by him, to the satisfaction of the Company;
- (III) Refuse to convey or release such lands as directed by the Company;
- (IV) Be absent from the Colony or cannot, after diligent inquiry, be found;

The Company may, if it shall think fit, deposit the purchase money or compensation payable in respect of such lands or any interest therein in the hands of the Master in Equity, to be by him deposited as aforesaid to his account to the credit of the parties interested in such lands (describing them so far as he can do) subject to the control and disposition of the said Court.

63. Upon the application by petition of any party making money so deposited. claim to the money so deposited as last aforesaid or any part thereof, or to the lands in respect whereof the same shall have been so deposited, or any part of such lands, or any interest in the same, the said Court or Judge may in a summary way, as to such Court or Judge shall seem fit, order such money to be laid out or invested in the purchase of Government Debentures or real securities; or may order distribution thereof or payments of the dividends thereof, according to the respective estates, titles or interest of the parties making claim to such money or lands or any part thereof, and may make such other order in the premises as to such Court or Judge shall seem fit.

64. If any question arise respecting the title to the lands, in respect whereof such moneys shall have been so paid or deposited as aforesaid, the parties respectively in possession of such lands as being the owners thereof or in receipt of the rents of such lands as being entitled thereto at the time of such lands being purchased or taken, shall be deemed to have been lawfully entitled to such lands, until the contrary be shown to the satisfaction of the Court; and unless, upon such inquiry as the Court shall think fit to direct, the contrary be shown as aforesaid, the parties so in possession and all parties claiming under them or consistently with their possession, shall be deemed entitled to the money so deposited, and to the dividend or interest of the securities purchased therewith, and the same shall be paid and applied accordingly.

65. In all cases of moneys deposited under the provisions of Costs in case of this Act, except where such moneys shall have been so deposited by money deposited. reason of the wilful refusal of any party entitled thereto to receive the same, or to convey or release the lands in respect whereof the same shall be payable, or by reason of the neglect of any party to make out a good title to the land required, the said Court or Judge may order the costs of the following matters, including therein all reasonable charges and expenses incident thereto, to be paid by the Company (that is to say) the costs of-

- (I) The purchase or taking of the lands or which shall have been incurred in consequence thereof, other than such costs as are herein otherwise provided for;
- (11) The investment of such moneys in Government Debentures or real securities and of the reinvestment thereof in the purchase of other lands;
- (III) Obtaining the proper orders for any of the purposes aforesaid, and of the orders for the payment of the dividends and interest of the securities upon which such moneys shall be invested, and for the payment out of Court of the principal of such moneys or of the securities whereon the same shall be invested;
- (IV) All proceedings relating thereto, except such as are occasioned by litigation between adverse claimants.

Provided always that the cost of one application only for reinvestment in land shall be allowed, unless it shall appear to the said Court or Judge that it is for the benefit of the parties interested in the said moneys that the same should be invested in the purchase of lands, in different sums and at different times; in which case the Court may, if it think fit, order the costs of any such investment to be paid by the Company.

66. If, in any case in which, according to the provisions of Proceeding in case this Act, the Company is authorized to enter upon and take possession of refusal to deliver of any lands required for the purpose of the work, the owner or occupier of any such lands or any other person refuse to give up the possession thereof, or hinder the Company from entering upon or taking possession of the same, it shall be lawful for such a Judge of the Supreme Court upon application by the Company to issue his warrant to the Sheriff to deliver possession of the same to the person appointed in such warrant to receive the same. Upon the receipt of such warrant the Sheriff shall deliver possession of any such lands accordingly; and the cost accruing, by reason of the issuing and execution of such warrant, to be settled by the Sheriff, shall be paid by the person refusing to give possession; and the amount of such costs shall be deducted and retained by the Company from the compensation, if any, then payable to such party, or if no such compensation be payable to such party, or if the same be less than the amount of such costs, then such costs or the excess thereof beyond such compensation, if not paid on demand, shall be levied by distress, and upon application to any Justice for that purpose he shall issue his warrant accordingly.

(II)

(II) In order thereto, the Company may pay or tender to such mortgagee the principal and interest due on such mortgage, together with his costs and charges, if any, and also six months' additional interest; and thereupon such mortgagee shall immediately convey his interest in the lands comprised in such mortgage to the Company or as it shall direct.

(III) The Company may give notice in writing to such mortgagee that it will pay off the principal and interest due on such mortgage at the end of six months, computed from the day of giving such notice; and if it shall have given any such notice, or if the party entitled to the equity of redemption of any such lands shall have given six months notice of his intention to redeem the same, then, at the expiration of either of such notices, or at any intermediate period, upon payment or tender by the Company to the mortgagee of the principal money due on such mortgage and the interest which would become due at the end of six months from the time of giving either of such notices, together with his costs and expenses, if any, such mortgagee shall convey or release his interest in the lands comprised in such mortgage to the Company, or as it shall direct.

68. If, in either of the cases aforesaid, upon such payment or tender, any mortgagee shall fail to convey or release his interest in such mortgage as directed by the Company, or if he fail to adduce a good title thereto to its satisfaction, then it shall be lawful for the Company to pay into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him in the manner provided by this Act in the cases of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity, the principal and interest, together with the costs, if any, due on such mortgage; and if such payment be made before the expiration of six months notice as aforesaid, such further interest as would at the time become due; and also, if the Company think fit, to execute a deed poll, containing a description of the lands in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made and describing the circumstances under which and the names of the parties to whose credit such deposit shall have been made, and such deed poll shall be duly registered by the And thereupon, as well as upon such conveyance by the Company. mortgagee, if any such be made, all the estate and interest of such mortgagee and of all persons in trust for him or for whom he may be a trustee in such lands shall vest in the Company, and the Company shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof, in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession.

69. (1) If any of such mortgaged lands shall be of less value mortgage exceeds the than the principal, interest, and costs secured thereon, the value of value of the lands. such lands or the compensation to be made by the Company in respect thereof shall be settled by agreement between the mortgagee of such lands and the party entitled to the equity of redemption thereof on the one part, and the Company on the other part.

(II) If the parties aforesaid fail to agree, respecting the amount of such value or compensation, the same shall be determined, as in other cases of disputed compensation.

(III) The amount of such value or compensation being so agreed upon or determined shall be paid by the Company to the mortgagee, in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend; and upon payment or tender thereof the mortgagee shall convey or release all his interest in such mortgaged lands to the Company or as it shall direct.

70. If, upon such payment or tender as aforesaid being made, any such mortgagee fail so to convey his interest in such mortgage or to adduce a good title thereto to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such value

value or compensation into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him, in the manner provided by this Act in like case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and every such payment or deposit shall be accepted by the mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend, and shall be a full discharge of such mortgaged lands from all money due thereon; and the Company may, if it think fit, execute a deed poll in manner hereinbefore provided. And thereupon such lands, as to all such estate and interest as were then vested in the mortgagee or any person in trust for him, shall become absolutely vested in the Company and the Company shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession. Nevertheless, all rights and remedies possessed by the mortgagee against the mortgagor, by virtue of any bond or covenant or other obligation, other than the rights to such lands, shall remain in force, in respect of so much of the mortgage debt as shall not have been satisfied by such payment or deposit.

71. (I) If a part only of any such mortgaged lands be required Sum to be paid for the purposes of this Act, and if the part so required be of less value where part only of than the principal money, interest, and costs secured on such lands, and taken. the mortgagee shall not consider the remaining part of such lands a sufficient security for the money charged thereon, or be not willing to release the part so required, then the value of such part and also the compensation (if any) to be paid in respect of the severance thereof or otherwise shall be settled by agreement between the mortgagee and the party entitled to the equity of redemption of such land on the one part, and the Company on the other part.

(II) If the parties aforesaid fail to agree respecting the amount of such value or compensation, the same shall be determined as in other cases of disputed possession.

(III) The amount of such value or compensation being so agreed upon or determined shall be paid by the Company to such mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend; and thereupon such mortgagee shall convey or release to the Company or as it shall direct, all his interest in such mortgaged lands, the value whereof shall have been so paid, and a memorandum of what shall have been so paid shall be endorsed on the deed creating such mortgage, and shall be signed by the mortgagee, and a copy of such memorandum shall at the same time (if required) be furnished by the Company, at the expense of the Company, to the party entitled to the equity of redemption of the lands comprised in such mortgage deed.

72. If, upon any payment or tender to any such mortgagee of Deposit of money the amount of the value or compensation so agreed upon or deter- when refused on tender. mined, such mortgagee shall fail to convey or release to the Company or as it shall direct, his interest in the lands, in respect of which such compensation shall so have been paid or tendered, or if he shall fail to adduce a good title thereto to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such value or compensation into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him in the manner provided by this Act in the case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and such payment or deposit shall be accepted by such mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend, and shall be a full discharge of the portion of the mortgaged lands so required from all money due thereon; and also, if he think fit, to execute a deed poll in the manner hereinbefore provided. And thereupon such lands shall become absolutely vested in the Company, as to all such estate and interest as were then vested in the mortgagee or any person in trust for him, and in

in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession he shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof. Nevertheless, every such mortgagee shall have the same powers and remedies for recovering or compelling payment of the mortgage money or the residue thereof (as the case may be) and the interest thereof respectively, upon and out of the residue of such mortgaged lands or the portion thereof not required for the purposes of this Act as he would otherwise have had or been entitled to for recovering or compelling payment thereof, upon or out of the whole of the lands originally comprised in such mortgage.

73. If any difference shall arise between the Company and the party entitled to any rent-service, rent-charge, chief or other rent, or other payment, or incumbrance, not hereinbefore provided for, upon any lands taken for the purposes of this Act, respecting the consideration to be paid for the release of such lands therefrom, or from the portion thereof affecting the lands required for the purposes of this Act, the same shall be determined as in other cases of disputed compensation.

of such other lands remaining exclusively subject to the whole thereof. 75. Upon payment or tender of the compensation so agreed upon or determined to the party entitled to any such charge as aforesaid, such party shall execute to the Company a release of such charge. If he fail so to do, or if he fail to adduce a good title to such charge to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such compensation into the hands of the Master in Equity to be dealt with by him in the manner hereinbefore provided in the case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and also if the Company think fit to execute a deed poll, in the manner herein provided for in the case of the purchase of lands by it. And thereupon the rent-service, rent-charge, chief or other rent, payment or incumbrance, or the portion thereof in respect whereof such compensation shall so have been paid, shall cease and be extinguished.

76. If any such lands or portion thereof be so released from any such charge or incumbrance to which they were subject jointly with other lands, such lastmentioned lands shall alone be charged with the whole of such charge or with the remainder thereof, as the case may be, and the party entitled to the charge shall have all the same rights and remedies over such lastmentioned lands, for the whole or for the remainder of the charge, as the case may be, as he had previously over the whole of the lands subject to such charge. If, upon any such charge, or portion of charge, being so released, the deed or instrument creating or transferring such charge be tendered to the Company for the purpose, it shall affix its seal to a memorandum of such release, indorsed on such deed or instrument, declaring what part of the lands originally subject to such charge shall have been purchased by virtue of this Act, and if the lands be released from part of such charge, what proportion of such charge shall have been released, and how

Such memorandum shall be made and executed at the expense of the Company, and shall be evidence in all Courts and elsewhere of the facts therein stated, but not so as to exclude any other evidence of the same facts.

Leases.

77. (1) If any lands shall be comprised in a lease for a term of where part only years unexpired, part only of which lands shall be required for the of lands under lease purposes of this Act, the rent payable in respect of the lands comprised apportioned. in such lease shall be apportioned between the lands so required and the residue of such lands.

(II) Such apportionment may be settled by agreement between the lessor and lessee of such lands on the one part, and the Company on the other part; and, if such apportionment be not so settled by agreement between the parties, such apportionment shall be settled by two Justices.

(III) After such apportionment, the lessee of such lands shall, as to all future accruing rent, be liable only to so much of the rent as shall be so apportioned in respect of the lands not required for the purposes of this Act; and, as to the lands not so required, and as against the lessee, the lessor shall have the same rights and remedies for the recovery of such portion of rent as, previously to such apportionment, he had for the recovery of the whole rent reserved by such lease; and all the covenants, conditions, and agreements of such lease, except as to the amount of rent to be paid, shall remain in force, with regard to that part of the land which shall not be required for the purposes of this Act, in the same manner as they would have done in case such part only of the land had been included in the lease.

78. Every such lessee as last aforesaid, shall be entitled to Tenants to be comreceive from the Company compensation for the damage done to him pensated. in his tenancy, by reason of the severance of the lands required from those not required, or otherwise, for the purposes of the authorized work.

79. (I) If any such lands shall be in the possession of any person Compensation to be having no greater interest therein than as tenant for a year, or from made to tenants from year to year. year to year, and if such person be required to give up possession of any land so occupied by him before the expiration of his term or interest therein, he shall be entitled to compensation for the value of his unexpired term or interest in such lands, and for any just allowance which ought to be made to him by any incoming tenant, and for any loss or injury he may sustain; or, if a part only of such lands be required, compensation for the damage done to him in his tenancy, by severing the lands held by him or otherwise injuriously affecting the same.

(II) The amount of such compensation shall be determined by two Justices in case the parties differ about the same.

(III) Upon payment or tender of the amount of such compensation, all such persons shall respectively deliver up to the Company or to the person appointed by the Company to take possession thereof, any such lands in their possession required for the purposes of this Act.

80. If any party having a greater interest than as tenant at where greater will, claim compensation in respect of any unexpired term or interest daimed than under any lease or grant of any such lands, the Comparent provided that will, lease to be under any lease or grant of any such lands, the Company may require produced, such party to produce the lease or grant in respect of which such claim

88. If any difference arise respecting the kind or number of any such accommodation works, or the dimensions or sufficiency thereof respecting the maintaining thereof, the same shall be determined by the Governor, who shall also appoint the time within which such works shall be commenced and executed.

89. If any of the owners or occupiers of lands affected by the works of the Company shall consider the accommodation works made by any Municipal Council or directed by the Governor to be made by the Company, insufficient for the commodious use of their respective lands, it shall be lawful for any such owner or occupier, at any time, at his own expense, to make such further works for that purpose as he shall think necessary, and as shall be agreed to by the Company.

90. If the Company so desire, all such lastmentioned accommodation works shall be constructed under the superintendence of the Company's engineer, and according to plans and specifications to be submitted to and approved by the Company. But the Company shall not be entitled to require either that plans shall be adopted which will involve a greater expense than that incurred in the execution of similar works by the Company, or that the plans selected should be executed in a more expensive manner than that adopted in similar cases by the Company.

91. If any person omit to shut any gate set up for the accommodation of the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands as soon as he and the carriages, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds.

PART IV.

Miscellancous Provisions-Legal Procedure.

92. Except as hereinbefore provided with respect to penalties for contamination of the water, one-half of any penalty recovered under this Act shall be paid to the informer; and where any distress is made for any sum of money to be levied under this Act, the distress itself shall not be unlawful, nor the persons making the same be deemed trespassers, on account of any defect or want of form in the information, summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceedings relating thereto, nor shall the persons distraining be deemed tresspassers on account of any irregularity that shall be afterwards done by the persons distraining, but the persons aggrieved by such irregularities may recover satisfaction for the special damage in an action on the case.

93. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of any two Justices of the Peace in Petty Sessions assembled that the Company or any of its officers have been guilty of any default under this Act not otherwise provided for, they shall be liable for each and every such default to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, to be recovered in a summary way.

94. Where by this Act any question of compensation, expenses, charges, or damages, or other matter is required to be referred to the determination of any Justices, it shall be lawful for any Justice, upon the application of either party, to summon the other party to appear before two Justices, at a time and place to be named in such summons, and upon the appearance of such parties, or in the absence of any of them upon proof of due service of the summons, it shall be lawful for such Justices to hear and determine such question, and for that purpose

97. If through any act, neglect, or default, on account whereof Damage to be made any person shall have incurred any penalty imposed by this Act, any good in addition to damage to any conduit, main, pipe, sewer, or other property of the Company, used in connection therewith, shall have been committed by such person, he shall be liable to make good such damages as well as to pay such penalty, and the amount of such damages shall in case of dispute be determined by the Justices by whom the party incurring such penalty shall have been convicted, and on non-payment of such damages on demand the same shall be levied by distress, and such Justices, or one of them, shall issue their or his warrant accordingly.

98. It shall be lawful for any officer or servant of the Company Transient offenders. and all persons called by him to his assistance, to apprehend any person who shall be found committing any offence against the provisions of this Act, and whose name and residence shall be unknown to such officer or servant, and deliver him to the custody of the nearest constable or police officer, to be conveyed before a Justice of the Peace to be dealt with according to law.

99. Any notice required by this Act, or by any regulation Notices. made thereunder to be served on or given to any owner or occupier of any building, land, or premises, or on or to any person may be in writing or partly in writing and partly printed, or may be wholly printed. And it shall be sufficient for all purposes of this Act, unless the said Act in any case prescribes a different course to be pursued, if any such notice is sent by post to the owner by registered letter addressed to his last-known place of abode or of business, or is served on the owner or occupier of such building, land, or premises, or left with some inmate apparently over the age of fourteen years living at the place of abode of such owner or occupier, or if there be no occupier, if such notice be posted on some conspicuous part of such building or land

And any notice required to be served or given in respect of any land. public street, road, or lane, may be served on or sent by post as aforesaid, to the Council Clerk of the borough or municipal district wherein such street, road, or lane, or a portion thereof affected by the notice is situated.

100. In the event of the wrongful exercise of any powers given by this Act, nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prevent any person from indicting, or otherwise proceeding, either civilly or criminally, against the Company or its officers, for nuisance or otherwise in respect of the works, or means used or employed by the Company in the exercise of the privileges hereby conferred on the Company, or to prevent the Company or any person recovering any sum of money, or otherwise proceeding in any Court of competent jurisdiction; but the Company or any person, to whom any penalty or sum of money may, by the provisions of this Act, be awarded, may elect either to proceed in manner in this Act provided, or to proceed for and recover damages or otherwise, in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

101. For any of the purposes of the Company authorized by this Act the Company may, with the sanction of a general meeting of shareholders, from time to time borrow money in such sum or sums as the directors of the Company may think fit; and for securing the repayment of the money so borrowed, with interest, it shall be lawful for the Company to issue debentures, to be charged and secured upon the Company's works, materials, and revenues.

102. Subject to the special sanction of the Governor it shall under this Act may be lawful for the Company, at any time after the passing of this be assigned, &c., to be lawful for the Company, at any time after the passing of this incorporate company. Act, to assign, transfer, convey, and release to any person, or to any Company duly incorporated for that purpose, all the rights, powers, authorities, privileges, liabilities, and obligations conferred and imposed upon it by this Act, together with all lands, tenements, hereditaments, estates, chattels, and effects of every kind, acquired by it under or in pursuance thereof, and purchased, occupied, or used in connection with the same; and upon and after the completion of such assignment, transfer, conveyance, and release, the said person or Company, their officers, agents, and servants, may lawfully exercise and enjoy all the rights, powers, authorities, and privileges, and shall be and continue to be subject to all the liabilities, obligations, penalties, and forfeitures to which the Company, its officers, agents, or servants, would have been entitled or subject had no such assignment, transfer, conveyance, and release been completed. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect any rights accrued, action or proceedings taken against, or liabilities, obligations, penalties, or forfeitures incurred by the Company before the completion of the said assignment, transfer, conveyance, and release.

103. All the works of the company, together with all the rights, powers, and authorities conveyed by this Act, with all their hereditaments and appurtenances, shall at the expiration of twenty-eight years from the date of this Act become and remain the absolute property of the Government, freed and discharged from all claims and liabilities whatsoever.

104. The Company shall not be entitled to any of the rights for erection of works and privileges conferred upon it by this Act unless it shall have completed, to the satisfaction of the Central Authority, the works necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act within the period of three years from the date of the passing of this Act.

105. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit or in any way interfere with the rights of the Crown to the general control of the natural supplies of water, nor with the right of the Governor from

PART I.

Preliminary.

Conditions prior to acquisition of lands. 2. Before the Company shall put into force any of the provisions contained in this Act with respect to the acquisition of land otherwise than by agreement, the following conditions and provisions shall be observed :—

- (I) The Company shall publish once at the least in each of three consecutive weeks in some local newspaper circulating in the District, a notice describing shortly the nature of the undertaking in respect of which it is proposed to take any lands, naming the Broken Hill Court-house as the place where a plan of the proposed undertaking may be seen at all reasonable hours, and stating the quantity of lands required.
- (II) The Company shall serve a printed or written notice on every owner or reputed owner, lessee or reputed lessee, and occupier of such lands, defining in each case the particular lands intended to be taken, and requiring an answer to be given within thirty days, stating whether the person so served assents, dissents, or is neutral, in respect of taking such lands.
- (III) On compliance with the provisions of this section with respect to notices, the Company may, if it thinks fit, present a petition to the Governor, and such petition shall state the lands intended to be taken, and the purposes for which they are required, and the names of the owners, lessees, and occupiers of lands who have assented, dissented, or are neutral, in respect to the taking such lands, or who have returned returned no answer to the notice. And it shall pray that the Company may, with reference to such lands, be allowed to put in force the powers contained in Part III of this Act with respect to the acquisition of lands otherwise than by agreement, and such prayer shall be supported by such evidence as the Governor may require.

- (IV) On the receipt of such petition, and on due proof of the proper notices having been published and served, the Governor shall take such petition into consideration, and may either dismiss the same or direct a local inquiry, at the cost of the Company, as to the propriety of assenting to the prayer of such petition, but until such inquiry has been made no provisional order shall be made affecting any lands without the consent of the owners, lessees, and occupiers thereof.
- (v) After the completion of such inquiry the Governor may, by provisional order, empower the Company to put in force with reference to the lands referred to in such order, the powers of the said Part, with respect to the acquisition of lands, otherwise than by agreement or any of them, and either absolutely or with such conditions and modifications as the Governor may think fit; and it shall be the duty of the Company to serve a copy of any order so made in the manner and on the person in which and on whom notices in respect of such lands are required to be served.

PART II.

Provisions as to Water Supply.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Act, and within the area Authority to as described in the First Schedule hereto, the Company may, subject to construct waterthe approval of the Governor, exercise any of the powers in this Part contained for the construction of water-works for the supply of water to the Municipal District-of Broken Hill, and to any Municipal District or Borough which may be established within or partly within the boundaries of the catchment area as defined in the First Schedule, and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act the Company may

- (I) Enter upon any lands and take levels of the same, and set out such parts thereof as it shall think necessary.
- (II) Enter upon, take, and hold such land, after having paid, as hereinafter provided, the owners thereof compensation for the same as it may from time to time deem necessary for the construction and maintainance of any of the works authorized by this Act, or for obtaining or enlarging the supply of water, or for improving the quality thereof for the purposes of this Act.
- (III) Under such superintendence, and subject to such consent, as are hereinafter specified enter upon any Crown or private lands, streets, roads, or thoroughfares, and lay or place therein any pipes, and may repair, alter, or cut off, or remove the same, and under such superintendence, and subject to such consent as aforesaid, may enter upon any such lands, streets, roads, or thoroughfares, for the purpose of repairing any watercourses, or other works, being its property or under its control.

Provided always that in the exercise of any of the powers hereby conferred, the Company shall inflict as little damage as may be, and in all cases where it can be done, shall provide other watering-places, drains, and channels, for the use of adjoining lands in place of any taken away or interrupted by it, and shall make full compensation to all parties interested, for all damage sustained by them through the exercise of such powers. It shall not be lawful for the Company to exercise any of the powers conferred upon it by this Act until the plans or scheme for the proposed work shall have been first approved by the Governor, and such approval duly notified in the Gazette. Provided also that nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice or affect the rights and privileges of any Municipal District or Borough now or hereafter to be established within the area described in the First Schedule hereto.

4. Every person who shall wilfully obstruct any person acting under the authority of the Company in setting out the line of any works undertaken under the authority of this Part, or pull up, or remove, any poles or stakes driven into the ground for the purpose of setting out the line of such works, or alter the position of any level, or destroy or injure any works so undertaken as aforesaid, shall incur a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every such offence.

5. If any person unlawfully and maliciously destroy or damage, or attempt to destroy or damage, any reservoir, dam, tank, tunnel, watercourse, drain, sluice, main, pipe, aqueduct, bridge, road, way, or engine, or any other part whatever of the works of the Company, every such offender shall be guilty of felony, and shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding ten years.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Act the Company may open and break up the soil and pavement of the several streets and bridges within the limits of the district, and may open and break up any sewers, drains, or tunnels within or under such streets and bridges, and lay down and place within the same limits, pipes, conduits, service pipes, and other works and engines, and from time to time repair, alter, or remove the same, and for the purposes aforesaid remove and use all earth and materials in and under such streets and bridges, and do all other acts which the Company shall from time to time deem necessary for supplying water to the inhabitants of the district included within the said limits. Before the Company proceed to open or break up any pavement, street, road, sewer, drain, or tunnel, or to interfere with, divert, or alter any pipe not their own, or any wire used for transmission of electricity, bridge, or culvert, they shall give to the local authority under whose management or control the same may be, and, in the case of a pipe or wire, to the owners thereof, or their local representative, notice in writing of their intention to open and break up, or otherwise to interfere with the same, not less than seven clear days before beginning the work, except in cases of emergency, arising from accidents to, or defects in, the pipes, or other works, the property of the Company, and then so soon as is possible after the necessity for the work shall have arisen.

7. When the Company shall open or break up the road, path, or pavement of any street or bridge, or any sewer, drain, or tunnel, culvert-pipe wire, it shall with all convenient speed complete the work for which the same shall be broken up, and fill in the ground and reinstate and make good to the satisfaction of the local authority or its officer the road, path, or pavement of the sewer, drain, tunnel, culvert-wire, or pipe, so opened or broken up, and carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby. And shall at all times whilst any such road or pavement shall be so open or broken up cause the same to be fenced and guarded, and shall cause light sufficient for the warning of passengers to be set up and kept there for every night during which such

No such streets, &c., to be pavement, street, road, sewer, drain, tunnel, pipe, wire, bridge, or broken up under culvert, shall be opened, broken up, or interfered with, except in cases local authority. of emergency, as aforesaid, and except as hereinafter provided, except under the superintendence of the local authority having the control thereof, or its officer; and according to such plan as shall be approved of by the local authority, the Company shall make such temporary or other works as may be necessary for guarding against any interruption of the drainage traffic, access, or other public right and convenience during the continuance of the operations. And in the case of interferency with any pipe, not the property of the Company, or any wire used for the transmission of electricity, the owners of which may intimate their desire to have the work, temporarily or permanently, of severing, altering, or restoring their pipes or wires, effected by their own employees, or with their own material, the Company shall afford every facility to such employees, and shall accept and use such material, paying to such owners the actual reasonable cost of labour and material disbursed by such owners, and in default of the Company making such payment when called upon so to do, the owners aforesaid shall be entitled to recover the amount due by summary process in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

8. For the purposes of this Act, and subject to the approval of Temporary diversion the Governor, the Company may, from time to time, after the expiration of thirty days notice in some newspaper published and circulated in the District of Broken Hill of their intention to apply for the powers hereinafter in this section contained, divert or alter temporarily any part of the course of any creeks, watercourses, roads, streets, or ways, in order the more conveniently to exercise any of the powers conferred upon the Company; but shall first provide sufficient substitutes for any creek, watercourse, road, street, or way, while so interfered with, and shall maintain the same during such time at their own expense in good order. For the purposes of this Act, and subject to the approval aforesaid, the Company may construct weirs and dams in any creek or watercourse, cut drains and deliver into or take water from, and embank, widen, or deepen any creek, watercourse, lagoon, or swamp within the catchment area of Stephen's Creek, as defined in First Schedule, provided always that such works shall not interfere with any existing rights, nor with the construction hereafter by any person of other necessary works approved by the Governor for providing water supply for domestic use, or for live stock, or for mining or manufacturing, or other purposes, provided however that the Company shall pay to the Colonial Treasurer such yearly sum, by way of rent, as the Local Land Board may determine, in accordance with the provisions of the "Crown Lands Act of 1884" and any Acts amending the same in consideration of any such concession to be conferred under this Act.

9. The Company shall supply water for domestic or other pur- Agreements to supply poses, by measure or otherwise, at such rates, upon such terms, and water. subject to such conditions as may be agreed upon by the Company and the person requiring to be supplied. Provided always that the Company shall not be entitled to withhold water from any person, unless such person be in arrears with his payment, or shall have been convicted of misapplication of water, and the Company shall not charge for water any person a greater rate than other persons are charged under like conditions.

10. The Company shall not be liable (in the absence of express Company not liable stipulation under any agreement for the supply of water) to any for accidental failure penalty or damages for not supplying or continuing to supply such water if the want of such supply arises from unusual drought or other unavoidable cause or accident or from necessary repairs.

Company to place public fire-plugs in mains. 11. The Company may let for hire to any consumer of water supplied by measure any meter or instrument for measuring the quantity of water supplied and consumed, and any pipes and apparatus for the conveyance, reception, or storage of the water, for such remuneration in money as may be agreed upon between the Company and the consumer, which shall be recoverable in the same manner as rates due to the Company for water.

12. Such meters, instruments, pipes, and apparatus shall not be subject to distress for rent of the premises where the same are used, or be liable to be attached or taken in execution under any process of any Court of Law or Equity, or under or in pursuance of any sequestration or order in insolvency, or other legal proceedings against or affecting the consumer of the water, or the occupier of the premises, or other the person in whose possession the meters, pipes, instruments, and apparatus may be.

13. Every person who shall have agreed with the Company for a supply of water by measure shall, at his own expense, unless he hire a meter from the Company, provide a meter, and keep and maintain the same in good working condition to the satisfaction of such officer as may be appointed by the Company; and in the event of any repairs being required, notice in writing shall be immediately given by such person to the Company, and a registration of the quantity used shall be taken before such repairs are effected.

14. The officers of the Company may enter any house, building, or lands, to, through, or into which water is supplied by the Company by measure, in, or to inspect the meters, instruments, pipes, and apparatus for the measuring, conveyance, reception, or storage of water, or for the purpose of ascertaining the quantity of water supplied or consumed, or to examine if there be any waste or misuse of such water; and may from time to time enter any house, building, or lands for the purpose of removing any meter, instrument, pipe, or apparatus the property of the Company; and if any person hinders any such officer from entering or making such inspection or effecting such removal, he shall for each such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, but except with the consent of two Justices a power of entry shall be exercised only between the hours of nine in the forenoon and six in the afternoon.

15. In all the pipes to which any fire-plug is fixed, the Company shall provide and keep constantly laid on for use, unless prevented by unusual drought or other unavoidable accident, or during necessary repairs, a sufficient supply for the following purposes (that is to say), for supplying any public hospitals or charitable institutions, or any public pumps, baths, and washhouses that may be established for the use of the inhabitants, and paid for out of any municipal rates; and such supply shall be provided at such rates and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by any Municipal Council and the Company, or, in case of disagreement, as shall be settled by two Justices. Provided that hospitals and charitable institutions shall be provided with water without charge.

16. The Company, at the request of any Municipal Council in the Borough of which it shall construct its works or any of them, shall fix proper fire-plugs in the main and other pipes belonging to it at such convenient distances and at such places as it may consider proper and convenient for the supply of water for extinguishing any fire which may break out within any such Borough, and shall from time to time renew and keep in effective order every such fire-plug; and shall put up a public notice in some conspicuous place in each street in which such fire-plug is situated, showing its situation; and such notice may be put up on any house, wall, fence, or building in such street :

60. All payments which shall be made in any of the cases aforesaid to the parties entitled under this Act to receive the same shall be a good and valid discharge to the Company; and such Company shall not be bound or required to see to the application of any of the moneys paid to the Master in Equity or other person by virtue hereof, or to see to the performance of any trusts.

61. Where any purchase money or compensation paid or deposited pursuant to this Act shall have been paid in respect of any lease for a life or lives or years, or for a life or lives and years, or any estate in lands less than the whole fee simple thereof, or of any reversion dependent on any such lease or estate, the said Court or Judge may, on the petition of any party interested in such money, order that the same shall be laid out, invested, accumulated, and paid in such manner as the said Court or Judge may consider will give to the parties interested in such money the same benefit therefrom as they might lawfully have had from the lease, estate, or reversion in respect of which such money shall have been paid or deposited, or as near thereto as may be.

62. If the owner of any lands taken or purchased under the compensation may in authority of this Act, or of any interest therein, on tender of the certain cases be paid purchase money or compensation either agreed or awarded to be paid in respect thereof,

- (1) Refuse to accept the same;
- (II) Neglect or fail to make out a title to such lands or to the interest therein claimed by him, to the satisfaction of the Company;
- (III) Refuse to convey or release such lands as directed by the Company;
- (1v) Be absent from the Colony or cannot, after diligent inquiry, be found;

The Company may, if it shall think fit, deposit the purchase money or compensation payable in respect of such lands or any interest therein in the hands of the Master in Equity, to be by him deposited as aforesaid to his account to the credit of the parties interested in such lands (describing them so far as he can do) subject to the control and disposition of the said Court.

63. Upon the application by petition of any party making claim to the money so deposited as last aforesaid or any part thereof, or to the lands in respect whereof the same shall have been so deposited, or any part of such lands, or any interest in the same, the said Court or Judge may in a summary way, as to such Court or Judge shall seem fit, order such money to be laid out or invested in the purchase of Government Debentures or real securities; or may order distribution thereof or payments of the dividends thereof, according to the respective estates, titles or interest of the parties making claim to such money or lands or any part thereof, and may make such other order in the premises as to such Court or Judge shall seem fit.

64. If any question arise respecting the title to the lands, in respect whereof such moneys shall have been so paid or deposited as aforesaid, the parties respectively in possession of such lands as being the owners thereof or in receipt of the rents of such lands as being entitled thereto at the time of such lands being purchased or taken, shall be deemed to have been lawfully entitled to such lands, until the contrary be shown to the satisfaction of the Court; and unless, upon such inquiry as the Court shall think fit to direct, the contrary be shown as aforesaid, the parties so in possession and all parties claiming under them or consistently with their possession, shall be deemed entitled to the money so deposited, and to the dividend or interest of the securities purchased therewith, and the same shall be paid and applied accordingly.

65. In all cases of moneys deposited under the provisions of Costs in case of this Act, except where such moneys shall have been so deposited by money deposited. reason of the wilful refusal of any party entitled thereto to receive the same, or to convey or release the lands in respect whereof the same shall be payable, or by reason of the neglect of any party to make out a good title to the land required, the said Court or Judge may order the costs of the following matters, including therein all reasonable charges and expenses incident thereto, to be paid by the Company (that is to say) the costs of-

- (I) The purchase or taking of the lands or which shall have been incurred in consequence thereof, other than such costs as are herein otherwise provided for;
- (II) The investment of such moneys in Government Debentures or real securities and of the reinvestment thereof in the purchase of other lands; (III) Obtaining the proper orders for any of the purposes afore-
- said, and of the orders for the payment of the dividends and interest of the securities upon which such moneys shall be invested, and for the payment out of Court of the principal of such moneys or of the securities whereon the same shall be invested :
- (IV) All proceedings relating thereto, except such as are occasioned by litigation between adverse claimants.

Provided always that the cost of one application only for reinvestment in land shall be allowed, unless it shall appear to the said Court or Judge that it is for the benefit of the parties interested in the said moneys that the same should be invested in the purchase of lands, in different sums and at different times; in which case the Court may, if it think fit, order the costs of any such investment to be paid by the Company.

66. If, in any case in which, according to the provisions of Proceeding in case this Act, the Company is authorized to enter upon and take possession of refusal to deliver of any lands required for the purpose of the work, the owner or occupier of any such lands or any other person refuse to give up the possession thereof, or hinder the Company from entering upon or taking possession of the same, it shall be lawful for such a Judge of the Supreme Court upon application by the Company to issue his warrant to the Sheriff to deliver possession of the same to the person appointed in such warrant to receive the same. Upon the receipt of such warrant the Sheriff shall deliver possession of any such lands accordingly; and the cost accruing, by reason of the issuing and execution of such warrant, to be settled by the Sheriff, shall be paid by the person refusing to give possession; and the amount of such costs shall be deducted and retained by the Company from the compensation, if any, then payable to such party, or if no such compensation be payable to such party, or if the same be less than the amount of such costs, then such costs or the excess thereof beyond such compensation, if not paid on demand, shall be levied by distress, and upon application to any Justice for that purpose he shall issue his warrant accordingly.

(II) In order thereto, the Company may pay or tender to such mortgagee the principal and interest due on such mortgage, together with his costs and charges, if any, and also six months' additional interest; and thereupon such mortgagee shall immediately convey his interest in the lands comprised in such mortgage to the Company or as it shall direct.

(III) The Company may give notice in writing to such mortgagee that it will pay off the principal and interest due on such mortgage at the end of six months, computed from the day of giving such notice; and if it shall have given any such notice, or if the party entitled to the equity of redemption of any such lands shall have given six months notice of his intention to redeem the same, then, at the expiration of either of such notices, or at any intermediate period, upon payment or tender by the Company to the mortgagee of the principal money due on such mortgage and the interest which would become due at the end of six months from the time of giving either of such notices, together with his costs and expenses, if any, such mortgagee shall convey or release his interest in the lands comprised in such mortgage to the Company, or as it shall direct.

68. If, in either of the cases aforesaid, upon such payment or tender, any mortgagee shall fail to convey or release his interest in such mortgage as directed by the Company, or if he fail to adduce a good title thereto to its satisfaction, then it shall be lawful for the Company to pay into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him in the manner provided by this Act in the cases of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity, the principal and interest, together with the costs, if any, due on such mortgage; and if such payment be made before the expiration of six months notice as aforesaid, such further interest as would at the time become due; and also, if the Company think fit, to execute a deed poll, containing a description of the lands in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made and describing the circumstances under which and the names of the parties to whose credit such deposit shall have been made, and such deed poll shall be duly registered by the Company. And thereupon, as well as upon such conveyance by the mortgagee, if any such be made, all the estate and interest of such mortgagee and of all persons in trust for him or for whom he may be a trustee in such lands shall vest in the Company, and the Company shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof, in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession.

69. (1) If any of such mortgaged lands shall be of less value mortgage exceeds the than the principal, interest, and costs secured thereon, the value of value of the lands. such lands or the compensation to be made by the Company in respect thereof shall be settled by agreement between the mortgagee of such lands and the party entitled to the equity of redemption thereof on the one part, and the Company on the other part. (II) If the parties aforesaid fail to agree, respecting the amount of such value or compensation, the same shall be determined, as in other cases of disputed compensation.

(III) The amount of such value or compensation being so agreed upon or determined shall be paid by the Company to the mortgagee, in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend; and upon payment or tender thereof the mortgagee shall convey or release all his interest in such mortgaged lands to the Company or as it shall direct.

70. If, upon such payment or tender as aforesaid being made, any such mortgagee fail so to convey his interest in such mortgage or to adduce a good title thereto to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such value

value or compensation into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him, in the manner provided by this Act in like case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and every such payment or deposit shall be accepted by the mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend, and shall be a full discharge of such mortgaged lands from all money due thereon; and the Company may, if it think fit, execute a deed poll in manner hereinbefore provided. And thereupon such lands, as to all such estate and interest as were then vested in the mortgagee or any person in trust for him, shall become absolutely vested in the Company and the Company shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession. Nevertheless, all rights and remedies possessed by the mortgagee against the mortgagor, by virtue of any bond or covenant or other obligation, other than the rights to such lands, shall remain in force, in respect of so much of the mortgage debt as shall not have been satisfied by such payment or deposit.

71. (I) If a part only of any such mortgaged lands be required sum to be paid for the purposes of this Act, and if the part so required be of less value where part only mortgaged lands than the principal money, interest, and costs secured on such lands, and taken. the mortgagee shall not consider the remaining part of such lands a sufficient security for the money charged thereon, or be not willing to release the part so required, then the value of such part and also the compensation (if any) to be paid in respect of the severance thereof or otherwise shall be settled by agreement between the mortgagee and the party entitled to the equity of redemption of such land on the one part, and the Company on the other part. (11) If the parties aforesaid fail to agree respecting the amount of such value or compensation, the same shall be determined as in other cases of disputed possession.

(III) The amount of such value or compensation being so agreed upon or determined shall be paid by the Company to such mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend; and thereupon such mortgagee shall convey or release to the Company or as it shall direct, all his interest in such mortgaged lands, the value whereof shall have been so paid, and a memorandum of what shall have been so paid shall be endorsed on the deed creating such mortgage, and shall be signed by the mortgagee, and a copy of such memorandum shall at the same time (if required) be furnished by the Company, at the expense of the Company, to the party entitled to the equity of redemption of the lands comprised in such mortgage deed.

72. If, upon any payment or tender to any such mortgagee of Deposit of money the amount of the value or compensation so agreed upon or deter- when refused on tender. mined, such mortgagee shall fail to convey or release to the Company or as it shall direct, his interest in the lands, in respect of which such compensation shall so have been paid or tendered, or if he shall fail to adduce a good title thereto to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such value or compensation into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him in the manner provided by this Act in the case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and such payment or deposit shall be accepted by such mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend, and shall be a full discharge of the portion of the mortgaged lands so required from all money due thereon ; and also, if he think fit, to execute a deed poll in the manner hereinbefore provided. And thereupon such lands shall become absolutely vested in the Company, as to all such estate and interest as were then vested in the mortgagee or any person in trust for him, and in

in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession he shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof. Nevertheless, every such mortgagee shall have the same powers and remedies for recovering or compelling payment of the mortgage money or the residue thereof (as the case may be) and the interest thereof respectively, upon and out of the residue of such mortgaged lands or the portion thereof not required for the purposes of this Act as he would otherwise have had or been entitled to for recovering or compelling payment thereof, upon or out of the whole of the lands originally comprised in such mortgage.

73. If any difference shall arise between the Company and the party entitled to any rent-service, rent-charge, chief or other rent, or other payment, or incumbrance, not hereinbefore provided for, upon any lands taken for the purposes of this Act, respecting the consideration to be paid for the release of such lands therefrom, or from the portion thereof affecting the lands required for the purposes of this Act, the same shall be determined as in other cases of disputed compensation.

74. If part only of the lands charged with any such rentservice, rent-charge, chief-rent, or other rent-payment or incumbrance, be taken for the purposes of this Act, the apportionment of any such charge may be settled by agreement between the party entitled to such charge and the owner of the lands on the one part and the Company on the other part; and, if such apportionment be not so settled by agreement, the same shall be settled by two Justices. But if the remaining part of the lands so jointly subject be a sufficient security for such charge, then, with consent of the owner of the lands so jointly subject, it shall be lawful for the party entitled to such charge to release therefrom the lands required, on condition or in consideration of such other lands remaining exclusively subject to the whole thereof.

75. Upon payment or tender of the compensation so agreed upon or determined to the party entitled to any such charge as aforesaid, such party shall execute to the Company a release of such charge. If he fail so to do, or if he fail to adduce a good title to such charge to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such compensation into the hands of the Master in Equity to be dealt with by him in the manner hereinbefore provided in the case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and also if the Company think fit to execute a deed poll, in the manner herein provided for in the case of the purchase of lands by it. And thereupon the rent-service, rent-charge, chief or other rent, payment or incumbrance, or the portion thereof in respect whereof such compensation shall so have been paid, shall cease and be extinguished.

76. If any such lands or portion thereof be so released from any such charge or incumbrance to which they were subject jointly with other lands, such lastmentioned lands shall alone be charged with the whole of such charge or with the remainder thereof, as the case may be, and the party entitled to the charge shall have all the same rights and remedies over such lastmentioned lands, for the whole or for the remainder of the charge, as the case may be, as he had previously over the whole of the lands subject to such charge. If, upon any such charge, or portion of charge, being so released, the deed or instrument creating or transferring such charge be tendered to the Company for the purpose, it shall affix its seal to a memorandum of such release, indorsed on such deed or instrument, declaring what part of the lands originally subject to such charge shall have been purchased by virtue of this Act, and if the lands be released from part of such charge, what proportion of such charge shall have been released, and how

Such memorandum shall be made and executed at the expense of the Company, and shall be evidence in all Courts and elsewhere of the facts therein stated, but not so as to exclude any other evidence of the same facts.

Leases.

77. (1) If any lands shall be comprised in a lease for a term of where part only years unexpired, part only of which lands shall be required for the of lands under lease purposes of this Act, the rent payable in respect of the lands comprised apportioned. in such lease shall be apportioned between the lands so required and the residue of such lands.

(II) Such apportionment may be settled by agreement between the lessor and lessee of such lands on the one part, and the Company on the other part; and, if such apportionment be not so settled by agreement between the parties, such apportionment shall be settled by two Justices.

(III) After such apportionment, the lessee of such lands shall, as to all future accruing rent, be liable only to so much of the rent as shall be so apportioned in respect of the lands not required for the purposes of this Act; and, as to the lands not so required, and as against the lessee, the lessor shall have the same rights and remedies for the recovery of such portion of rent as, previously to such apportionment, he had for the recovery of the whole rent reserved by such lease; and all the covenants, conditions, and agreements of such lease, except as to the amount of rent to be paid, shall remain in force, with regard to that part of the land which shall not be required for the purposes of this Act, in the same manner as they would have done in case such part only of the land had been included in the lease.

78. Every such lessee as last aforesaid, shall be entitled to Tenants to be com-receive from the Company compensation for the damage done to him ^{pensated}. in his tenancy, by reason of the severance of the lands required from those not required, or otherwise, for the purposes of the authorized work.

(II) The amount of such compensation shall be determined by two Justices in case the parties differ about the same.

(III) Upon payment or tender of the amount of such compensation, all such persons shall respectively deliver up to the Company or to the person appointed by the Company to take possession thereof, any such lands in their possession required for the purposes of this Act.

80. If any party having a greater interest than as tenant at where greater will, claim compensation in respect of any unexpired term or interest laimed than under any lease or grant of any such lands, the Compose more more at will, lease to be under any lease or grant of any such lands, the Company may require produced, such party to produce the lease or grant in respect of which such claim

Preliminary.

2. Before the Company shall put into force any of the pro-Conditions prior to 2. Before the Company shart put the acquisition of land acquisition of lands. visions contained in this Act with respect to the acquisition of land otherwise than by agreement, the following conditions and provisions shall be observed :-

- (I) The Company shall publish once at the least in each of three consecutive weeks in some local newspaper circulating in the District, a notice describing shortly the nature of the undertaking in respect of which it is proposed to take any lands, naming the Broken Hill Court-house as the place where a plan of the proposed undertaking may be seen at all reasonable hours, and stating the quantity of lands required.
- (II) The Company shall serve a printed or written notice on every owner or reputed owner, lessee or reputed lessee, and occupier of such lands, defining in each case the particular lands intended to be taken, and requiring an answer to be given within thirty days, stating whether the person so served assents, dissents, or is neutral, in respect of taking such lands.

(III) On compliance with the provisions of this section with respect to notices, the Company may, if it thinks fit, present a petition to the Governor, and such petition shall state the lands intended to be taken, and the purposes for which they are required, and the names of the owners, lessees, and occupiers of lands who have assented, dissented, or are neutral, in respect to the taking such lands, or who have returned returned no answer to the notice. And it shall pray that the Company may, with reference to such lands, be allowed to put in force the powers contained in Part III of this Act with respect to the acquisition of lands otherwise than by agreement, and such prayer shall be supported by such evidence as the Governor may require.

- (IV) On the receipt of such petition, and on due proof of the proper notices having been published and served, the Governor shall take such petition into consideration, and may either dismiss the same or direct a local inquiry, at the cost of the Company, as to the propriety of assenting to the prayer of such petition, but until such inquiry has been made no provisional order shall be made affecting any lands without the consent of the owners, lessees, and occupiers thereof.
- (v) After the completion of such inquiry the Governor may, by provisional order, empower the Company to put in force with reference to the lands referred to in such order, the powers of the said Part, with respect to the acquisition of lands, otherwise than by agreement or any of them, and either absolutely or with such conditions and modifications as the Governor may think fit; and it shall be the duty of the Company to serve a copy of any order so made in the manner and on the person in which and on whom notices in respect of such lands are required to be served.

PART II.

Provisions as to Water Supply.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Act, and within the area Authority to as described in the First Schedule hereto, the Company may, subject to construct waterthe approval of the Governor, exercise any of the powers in this Part contained for the construction of water-works for the supply of water to the Municipal District of Broken Hill, and to any Municipal District or Borough which may be established within or partly within the boundaries of the catchment area as defined in the First Schedule, and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act the Company may

- (1) Enter upon any lands and take levels of the same, and set out such parts thereof as it shall think necessary.
- (II) Enter upon, take, and hold such land, after having paid, as hereinafter provided, the owners thereof compensation for the same as it may from time to time deem necessary for the construction and maintainance of any of the works authorized by this Act, or for obtaining or enlarging the supply of water, or for improving the quality thereof for the purposes of this Act.
- (III) Under such superintendence, and subject to such consent, as are hereinafter specified enter upon any Crown or private lands, streets, roads, or thoroughfares, and lay or place therein any pipes, and may repair, alter, or cut off, or remove the same, and under such superintendence, and subject to such consent as aforesaid, may enter upon any such lands, streets, roads, or thoroughfares, for the purpose of repairing any watercourses, or other works, being its property or under its control.

Provided always that in the exercise of any of the powers hereby conferred, the Company shall inflict as little damage as may be, and in all cases where it can be done, shall provide other watering-places, drains, and channels, for the use of adjoining lands in place of any taken away or interrupted by it, and shall make full compensation to all parties interested, for all damage sustained by them through the exercise of such powers. It shall not be lawful for the Company to exercise any of the powers conferred upon it by this Act until the plans or scheme for the proposed work shall have been first approved by the Governor, and such approval duly notified in the Gazette. Provided also that nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice or affect the rights and privileges of any Municipal District or Borough now or hereafter to be established within the area described in the First Schedule hereto.

4. Every person who shall wilfully obstruct any person acting under the authority of the Company in setting out the line of any works undertaken under the authority of this Part, or pull up, or remove, any poles or stakes driven into the ground for the purpose of setting out the line of such works, or alter the position of any level, or destroy or injure any works so undertaken as aforesaid, shall incur a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every such offence.

5. If any person unlawfully and maliciously destroy or damage, or attempt to destroy or damage, any reservoir, dam, tank, tunnel, watercourse, drain, sluice, main, pipe, aqueduct, bridge, road, way, or engine, or any other part whatever of the works of the Company, every such offender shall be guilty of felony, and shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding ten years.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Act the Company may open and break up the soil and pavement of the several streets and bridges within the limits of the district, and may open and break up any sewers, drains, or tunnels within or under such streets and bridges, and lay down and place within the same limits, pipes, conduits, service pipes, and other works and engines, and from time to time repair, alter, or remove the same, and for the purposes aforesaid remove and use all earth and materials in and under such streets and bridges, and do all other acts which the Company shall from time to time deem necessary for supplying water to the inhabitants of the district included within the said limits. Before the Company proceed to open or break up any pavement, street, road, sewer, drain, or tunnel, or to interfere with, divert, or alter any pipe not their own, or any wire used for transmission of electricity, bridge, or culvert, they shall give to the local authority under whose management or control the same may be, and, in the case of a pipe or wire, to the owners thereof, or their local representative, notice in writing of their intention to open and break up, or otherwise to interfere with the same, not less than seven clear days before beginning the work, except in cases of emergency, arising from accidents to, or defects in, the pipes, or other works, the property of the Company, and then so soon as is possible after the necessity for the work shall have arisen.

7. When the Company shall open or break up the road, path, or pavement of any street or bridge, or any sewer, drain, or tunnel, culvert-pipe wire, it shall with all convenient speed complete the work for which the same shall be broken up, and fill in the ground and reinstate and make good to the satisfaction of the local authority or its officer the road, path, or pavement of the sewer, drain, tunnel, culvert-wire, or pipe, so opened or broken up, and carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby. And shall at all times whilst any such road or pavement shall be so open or broken up cause the same to be fenced and guarded, and shall cause light sufficient for the warning of passengers to be set up and kept there for every night during which such

And in the case of interference with any pipe, not the property of the Company, or any wire used for the transmission of electricity, the owners of which may intimate their desire to have the work, temporarily or permanently, of severing, altering, or restoring their pipes or wires, effected by their own employees, or with their own material, the Company shall afford every facility to such employees, and shall accept and use such material, paying to such owners the actual reasonable cost of labour and material disbursed by such owners, and in default of the Company making such payment when called upon so to do, the owners aforesaid shall be entitled to recover the amount due by summary process in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

8. For the purposes of this Act, and subject to the approval of Temporary diversion the Governor, the Company may, from time to time, after the expira- of water. tion of thirty days notice in some newspaper published and circulated in the District of Broken Hill of their intention to apply for the powers hereinafter in this section contained, divert or alter temporarily any part of the course of any creeks, watercourses, roads, streets, or ways, in order the more conveniently to exercise any of the powers conferred upon the Company; but shall first provide sufficient substitutes for any creek, watercourse, road, street, or way, while so interfered with, and shall maintain the same during such time at their own expense in good order. For the purposes of this Act, and subject to the approval aforesaid, the Company may construct weirs and dams in any creek or watercourse, cut drains and deliver into or take water from, and embank, widen, or deepen any creek, watercourse, lagoon, or swamp within the catchment area of Stephen's Creek, as defined in First Schedule, provided always that such works shall not interfere with any existing rights, nor with the construction hereafter by any person of other necessary works approved by the Governor for providing water supply for domestic use, or for live stock, or for mining or manufacturing, or other purposes, provided however that the Company shall pay to the Colonial Treasurer such yearly sum, by way of rent, as the Local Land Board may determine, in accordance with the provisions of the "Crown Lands Act of 1884" and any Acts amending the same in consideration of any such concession to be conferred under this Act.

The Company may let for hire to any consumer of water supplied by measure any meter or instrument for measuring the quantity of water supplied and consumed, and any pipes and apparatus for the conveyance, reception, or storage of the water, for such remuneration in money as may be agreed upon between the Company and the consumer, which shall be recoverable in the same manner as rates due to the Company for water.

12. Such meters, instruments, pipes, and apparatus shall not be subject to distress for rent of the premises where the same are used, or be liable to be attached or taken in execution under any process of any Court of Law or Equity, or under or in pursuance of any sequestration or order in insolvency, or other legal proceedings against or affecting the consumer of the water, or the occupier of the premises, or other the person in whose possession the meters, pipes, instruments, and apparatus may be.

13. Every person who shall have agreed with the Company for a supply of water by measure shall, at his own expense, unless he hire a meter from the Company, provide a meter, and keep and maintain the same in good working condition to the satisfaction of such officer as may be appointed by the Company; and in the event of any repairs being required, notice in writing shall be immediately given by such person to the Company, and a registration of the quantity used shall be taken before such repairs are effected.

14. The officers of the Company may enter any house, building, or lands, to, through, or into which water is supplied by the Company by measure, in, or to inspect the meters, instruments, pipes, and apparatus for the measuring, conveyance, reception, or storage of water, or for the purpose of ascertaining the quantity of water supplied or consumed, or to examine if there be any waste or misuse of such water; and may from time to time enter any house, building, or lands for the purpose of removing any meter, instrument, pipe, or apparatus the property of the Company; and if any person hinders any such officer from entering or making such inspection or effecting such removal, he shall for each such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, but except with the consent of two Justices a power of entry shall be exercised only between the hours of nine in the forenoon and six in the afternoon.

15. In all the pipes to which any fire-plug is fixed, the Company shall provide and keep constantly laid on for use, unless prevented by unusual drought or other unavoidable accident, or during necessary repairs, a sufficient supply for the following purposes (that is to say), for supplying any public hospitals or charitable institutions, or any public pumps, baths, and washhouses that may be established for the use of the inhabitants, and paid for out of any municipal rates; and such supply shall be provided at such rates and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by any Municipal Council and the Company, or, in case of disagreement, as shall be settled by two Justices. Provided that hospitals and charitable institutions shall be provided with water without charge.

16. The Company, at the request of any Municipal Council in the Borough of which it shall construct its works or any of them, shall fix proper fire-plugs in the main and other pipes belonging to it at such convenient distances and at such places as it may consider proper and convenient for the supply of water for extinguishing any fire which may break out within any such Borough, and shall from time to time renew and keep in effective order every such fire-plug; and shall put up a public notice in some conspicuous place in each street in which such fire-plug is situated, showing its situation; and such notice may be put up on any house, wall, fence, or building in such street;

Penalty for misapplication of water. 23. If any person-

- (I) Not having from the Company a supply of water for other than domestic purposes, uses for other than domestic purposes any water supplied to him by the Company; or
- (II) Having from the Company a supply of water for any purpose other than domestic, uses such water for any purpose other than those for which he is entitled to use the same,—

he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings, without prejudice to the right of the Company to recover from him the value of the water misused.

24. A supply of water for domestic purposes shall not include a supply to any stable, or for any manufacturing purpose, or for irrigation (which shall mean any mechanical or artificial contrivance for conveying water to plants without labour), or for water-power, or for fountains or any ornamental purpose. The Company shall at all times have the power to decide whether the supply of water to any person shall be by measure or otherwise.

25. If any person not being supplied with water by the Company wrongfully takes or uses any water from any reservoir, watercourse, conduit, or pipe belonging to the Company, or from any pipe leading to or from any such reservoir, watercourse, conduit, or pipe, or from any cistern or other like place containing water belonging to the Company, or supplied by it for the use of any consumer of the water of the Company, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

26. If any person bathe in any stream, drain, reservoir, aqueduct, or other waterworks belonging to the Company, or wash, throw, or cause to enter therein, any dog or other animal, he shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding five pounds.

27. The Company shall take all reasonable precautions, by fencing and otherwise, for the protection of the water supply from pollution or contamination, and the Central Authority may at any time require the Company to construct such works, or take such precautions, as he may deem necessary or advisable in the interests of the public health. If the Company neglect or fail to construct such works, or take such measures, within the time prescribed by such Authority, the said Company shall become liable to a penalty of not more than fifty pounds for every day after the expiration of such prescribed time.

28. If any person throw, convey, or cause or permit to be thrown or conveyed, any rubbish, dirt, filth, or other noisome thing, into any such stream, drain, reservoir, aqueduct, or other waterworks as aforesaid, or wash or cleanse therein any cloth, wool, leather, or skin of any animal, or any clothes or other thing, he shall for each such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

29. If any person cause the water of any sink, sewer, or drain, steam-engine boiler, or other filthy water belonging to him or under his control to run or be brought into any stream, drain, reservoir, aqueduct, or other waterworks belonging to the Company, or shall do any other act whereby the water of the Company shall be fouled, he shall for each such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds, and a further sum of twenty shillings for each day (if more than one) that such offence continues.

(III) The Company may give notice in writing to such mortgagee that it will pay off the principal and interest due on such mortgage at the end of six months, computed from the day of giving such notice; and if it shall have given any such notice, or if the party entitled to the equity of redemption of any such lands shall have given six months notice of his intention to redeem the same, then, at the expiration of either of such notices, or at any intermediate period, upon payment or tender by the Company to the mortgagee of the principal money due on such mortgage and the interest which would become due at the end of six months from the time of giving either of such notices, together with his costs and expenses, if any, such mortgagee shall convey or release his interest in the lands comprised in such mortgage to the Company, or as it shall direct.

68. If, in either of the cases aforesaid, upon such payment or tender, any mortgagee shall fail to convey or release his interest in such mortgage as directed by the Company, or if he fail to adduce a good title thereto to its satisfaction, then it shall be lawful for the Company to pay into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him in the manner provided by this Act in the cases of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity, the principal and interest, together with the costs, if any, due on such mortgage; and if such payment be made before the expiration of six months notice as aforesaid, such further interest as would at the time become due; and also, if the Company think fit, to execute a deed poll, containing a description of the lands in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made and describing the circumstances under which and the names of the parties to whose credit such deposit shall have been made, and such deed poll shall be duly registered by the And thereupon, as well as upon such conveyance by the Company. mortgagee, if any such be made, all the estate and interest of such mortgagee and of all persons in trust for him or for whom he may be a trustee in such lands shall vest in the Company, and the Company shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof, in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession.

69. (1) If any of such mortgaged lands shall be of less value mortgage exceeds the than the principal, interest, and costs secured thereon, the value of value of the lands. such lands or the compensation to be made by the Company in respect thereof shall be settled by agreement between the mortgagee of such lands and the party entitled to the equity of redemption thereof on the one part, and the Company on the other part.

(II) If the parties aforesaid fail to agree, respecting the amount of such value or compensation, the same shall be determined, as in other cases of disputed compensation.

(III) The amount of such value or compensation being so agreed upon or determined shall be paid by the Company to the mortgagee, in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend; and upon payment or tender thereof the mortgagee shall convey or release all his interest in such mortgaged lands to the Company or as it shall direct.

70. If, upon such payment or tender as aforesaid being made, any such mortgagee fail so to convey his interest in such mortgage or to adduce a good title thereto to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such value

value or compensation into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him, in the manner provided by this Act in like case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and every such payment or deposit shall be accepted by the mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend, and shall be a full discharge of such mortgaged lands from all money due thereon; and the Company may, if it think fit, execute a deed poll in manner hereinbefore provided. And thereupon such lands, as to all such estate and interest as were then vested in the mortgagee or any person in trust for him, shall become absolutely vested in the Company and the Company shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession. Nevertheless, all rights and remedies possessed by the mortgagee against the mortgagor, by virtue of any bond or covenant or other obligation, other than the rights to such lands, shall remain in force, in respect of so much of the mortgage debt as shall not have been satisfied by such payment or deposit.

71. (I) If a part only of any such mortgaged lands be required Sum to be paid for the purposes of this Act, and if the part so required be of less value mortgaged lands than the principal money, interest, and costs secured on such lands, and taken. the mortgagee shall not consider the remaining part of such lands a sufficient security for the money charged thereon, or be not willing to release the part so required, then the value of such part and also the compensation (if any) to be paid in respect of the severance thereof or otherwise shall be settled by agreement between the mortgagee and the party entitled to the equity of redemption of such land on the one part, and the Company on the other part.

(II) If the parties aforesaid fail to agree respecting the amount of such value or compensation, the same shall be determined as in other cases of disputed possession.

(III) The amount of such value or compensation being so agreed upon or determined shall be paid by the Company to such mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend; and thereupon such mortgagee shall convey or release to the Company or as it shall direct, all his interest in such mortgaged lands, the value whereof shall have been so paid, and a memorandum of what shall have been so paid shall be endorsed on the deed creating such mortgage, and shall be signed by the mortgagee, and a copy of such memorandum shall at the same time (if required) be furnished by the Company, at the expense of the Company, to the party entitled to the equity of redemption of the lands comprised in such mortgage deed.

72. If, upon any payment or tender to any such mortgagee of Deposit of money the amount of the value or compensation so agreed upon or deter- when retender. mined, such mortgagee shall fail to convey or release to the Company or as it shall direct, his interest in the lands, in respect of which such compensation shall so have been paid or tendered, or if he shall fail to adduce a good title thereto to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such value or compensation into the hands of the Master in Equity, to be dealt with by him in the manner provided by this Act in the case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and such payment or deposit shall be accepted by such mortgagee in satisfaction of his mortgage debt, so far as the same will extend, and shall be a full discharge of the portion of the mortgaged lands so required from all money due thereon ; and also, if he think fit, to execute a deed poll in the manner And thereupon such lands shall become hereinbefore provided. absolutely vested in the Company, as to all such estate and interest as were then vested in the mortgagee or any person in trust for him, and in

in case such mortgagee were himself entitled to such possession he shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof. Nevertheless, every such mortgagee shall have the same powers and remedies for recovering or compelling payment of the mortgage money or the residue thereof (as the case may be) and the interest thereof respectively, upon and out of the residue of such mortgaged lands or the portion thereof not required for the purposes of this Act as he would otherwise have had or been entitled to for recovering or compelling payment thereof, upon or out of the whole of the lands originally comprised in such mortgage.

73. If any difference shall arise between the Company and the party entitled to any rent-service, rent-charge, chief or other rent, or other payment, or incumbrance, not hereinbefore provided for, upon any lands taken for the purposes of this Act, respecting the consideration to be paid for the release of such lands therefrom, or from the portion thereof affecting the lands required for the purposes of this Act, the same shall be determined as in other cases of disputed compensation.

74. If part only of the lands charged with any such rentservice, rent-charge, chief-rent, or other rent-payment or incumbrance, be taken for the purposes of this Act, the apportionment of any such charge may be settled by agreement between the party entitled to such charge and the owner of the lands on the one part and the Company on the other part; and, if such apportionment be not so settled by agreement, the same shall be settled by two Justices. But if the remaining part of the lands so jointly subject be a sufficient security for such charge, then, with consent of the owner of the lands so jointly subject, it shall be lawful for the party entitled to such charge to release therefrom the lands required, on condition or in consideration of such other lands remaining exclusively subject to the whole thereof.

75. Upon payment or tender of the compensation so agreed upon or determined to the party entitled to any such charge as aforesaid, such party shall execute to the Company a release of such charge. If he fail so to do, or if he fail to adduce a good title to such charge to the satisfaction of the Company, it shall be lawful for the Company to pay the amount of such compensation into the hands of the Master in Equity to be dealt with by him in the manner hereinbefore provided in the case of moneys required to be paid to such Master in Equity; and also if the Company think fit to execute a deed poll, in the manner herein provided for in the case of the purchase of lands by it. And thereupon the rent-service, rent-charge, chief or other rent, payment or incumbrance, or the portion thereof in respect whereof such compensation shall so have been paid, shall cease and be extinguished.

76. If any such lands or portion thereof be so released from any such charge or incumbrance to which they were subject jointly with other lands, such lastmentioned lands shall alone be charged with the whole of such charge or with the remainder thereof, as the case may be, and the party entitled to the charge shall have all the same rights and remedies over such lastmentioned lands, for the whole or for the remainder of the charge, as the case may be, as he had previously over the whole of the lands subject to such charge. If, upon any such charge, or portion of charge, being so released, the deed or instrument creating or transferring such charge be tendered to the Company for the purpose, it shall affix its seal to a memorandum of such release, indorsed on such deed or instrument, declaring what part of the lands originally subject to such charge shall have been purchased by virtue of this Act, and if the lands be released from part of such charge, what proportion of such charge shall have been released, and how

Such memorandum shall be made and executed at the expense of the Company, and shall be evidence in all Courts and elsewhere of the facts therein stated, but not so as to exclude any other evidence of the same facts.

Leases.

77. (1) If any lands shall be comprised in a lease for a term of where part only years unexpired, part only of which lands shall be required for the of lands under lease purposes of this Act, the rent payable in respect of the lands comprised apportioned. in such lease shall be apportioned between the lands so required and the residue of such lands.

(II) Such apportionment may be settled by agreement between the lessor and lessee of such lands on the one part, and the Company on the other part; and, if such apportionment be not so settled by agreement between the parties, such apportionment shall be settled by two Justices.

(III) After such apportionment, the lessee of such lands shall, as to all future accruing rent, be liable only to so much of the rent as shall be so apportioned in respect of the lands not required for the purposes of this Act; and, as to the lands not so required, and as against the lessee, the lessor shall have the same rights and remedies for the recovery of such portion of rent as, previously to such apportionment, he had for the recovery of the whole rent reserved by such lease; and all the covenants, conditions, and agreements of such lease, except as to the amount of rent to be paid, shall remain in force, with regard to that part of the land which shall not be required for the purposes of this Act, in the same manner as they would have done in case such part only of the land had been included in the lease.

78. Every such lessee as last aforesaid, shall be entitled to Tenants to be comreceive from the Company compensation for the damage done to him pensated. in his tenancy, by reason of the severance of the lands required from those not required, or otherwise, for the purposes of the authorized work.

79. (I) If any such lands shall be in the possession of any person Compensation to be having no greater interest therein than as tenant for a year, or from made to tenants from year to year. year to year, and if such person be required to give up possession of any land so occupied by him before the expiration of his term or interest therein, he shall be entitled to compensation for the value of his unexpired term or interest in such lands, and for any just allowance which ought to be made to him by any incoming tenant, and for any loss or injury he may sustain; or, if a part only of such lands be required, compensation for the damage done to him in his tenancy, by severing the lands held by him or otherwise injuriously affecting the same.

(II) The amount of such compensation shall be determined by two Justices in case the parties differ about the same.

(III) Upon payment or tender of the amount of such compensation, all such persons shall respectively deliver up to the Company or to the person appointed by the Company to take possession thereof, any such lands in their possession required for the purposes of this Act.

80. If any party having a greater interest than as tenant at where greater will, claim compensation in respect of any unexpired term or interest interest claimed the claimed than under any lease or grant of any such lands, the Company may require produced, such party to produce the lease or grant in respect of which such claim

88. If any difference arise respecting the kind or number of any such accommodation works, or the dimensions or sufficiency thereof respecting the maintaining thereof, the same shall be determined by the Governor, who shall also appoint the time within which such works shall be commenced and executed.

89. If any of the owners or occupiers of lands affected by the works of the Company shall consider the accommodation works made by any Municipal Council or directed by the Governor to be made by the Company, insufficient for the commodious use of their respective lands, it shall be lawful for any such owner or occupier, at any time, at his own expense, to make such further works for that purpose as he shall think necessary, and as shall be agreed to by the Company.

90. If the Company so desire, all such lastmentioned accommodation works shall be constructed under the superintendence of the Company's engineer, and according to plans and specifications to be submitted to and approved by the Company. But the Company shall not be entitled to require either that plans shall be adopted which will involve a greater expense than that incurred in the execution of similar works by the Company, or that the plans selected should be executed in a more expensive manner than that adopted in similar cases by the Company.

91. If any person omit to shut any gate set up for the accommodation of the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands as soon as he and the carriages, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds.

PART IV.

Miscellaneous Provisions-Legal Procedure.

92. Except as hereinbefore provided with respect to penalties for contamination of the water, one-half of any penalty recovered under this Act shall be paid to the informer; and where any distress is made for any sum of money to be levied under this Act, the distress itself shall not be unlawful, nor the persons making the same be deemed trespassers, on account of any defect or want of form in the information, summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceedings relating thereto, nor shall the persons distraining be deemed tresspassers on account of any irregularity that shall be afterwards done by the persons distraining, but the persons aggrieved by such irregularities may recover satisfaction for the special damage in an action on the case.

93. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of any two Justices of the Peace in Petty Sessions assembled that the Company or any of its officers have been guilty of any default under this Act not otherwise provided for, they shall be liable for each and every such default to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, to be recovered in a summary way.

94. Where by this Act any question of compensation, expenses, charges, or damages, or other matter is required to be referred to the determination of any Justices, it shall be lawful for any Justice, upon the application of either party, to summon the other party to appear before two Justices, at a time and place to be named in such summons, and upon the appearance of such parties, or in the absence of any of them upon proof of due service of the summons, it shall be lawful for such Justices to hear and determine such question, and for that purpose

PART I.

Preliminary.

2. Before the Company shall put into force any of the pro- Conditions prior to visions contained in this Part with respect to the acquisition of land otherwise than by agreement, the following conditions and provisions shall be observed :-

(I) The Company shall publish once at the least in each of three consecutive weeks in some local newspaper circulating in the District, a notice describing shortly the nature of the undertaking in respect of which it is proposed to take any lands, naming the Broken Hill Court-house as the place where a plan of the proposed undertaking may be seen at all reasonable hours, and stating the quantity of lands required.

(II) The Company shall serve a printed or written notice on every owner or reputed owner, lessee or reputed lessee, and occupier of such lands, defining in each case the particular lands intended to be taken, and requiring an answer to be given within thirty days, stating whether the person so served assents, dissents, or is neutral, in respect of taking such lands.

(III) On compliance with the provisions of this section with respect to notices, the Company may, if it thinks fit, present a petition to the Governor, and such petition shall state the lands intended to be taken, and the purposes for which they are required, and the names of the owners, lessees, and occupiers of lands who have assented, dissented, or are neutral, in respect to the taking such lands, or who have returned
